HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1915

No. 15

Council meets on Wednesday evening next.

Base-ball to-day,—High School vs. Cape May.

A little son of Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Myrose broke his leg Thursday morning.

The P. O. of A. initiated six candidates at their meeting on the 30th ult.

A huge electric sign will be hung in front of "Hotel Raleigh," this morning.

Charles Snyder was home from Lehigh University, for the Easter holidays.

Walter P. Bakely is making a substantial addition to his house, on Maple Street.

There will be a rummage sale in the near future. Donations will be thankfully received.

Chicken stealing is still going on in Hammonton, especially near Main Road and Fairview.

Mrs. Chas. Parkhurst, of Johnstown, Pa., visited local relatives and old home scenes, this week.

Fred. Vial, for two years an apprentice in the Republican office, has moved to Philadelphia with his mother.

The Ladies of St. Mark's Church will give a supper at the Parish House on Wednesday evening, April 21st.

Charles Slack has been appointed a member of the County Board of Elections, in place of Postmaster Langham.

The Warrington houses, on S. Second Street, have been through the three R's, repairing, reshingling and repainting.

The Post Office at DaCosta has again been closed, and all mail matter for that place comes to the Hammonton office.

Farmers state that the blizzard did not do any damage,—not even to the peaches,—but rather, was of great value to them.

John Baker evidently has stronger faith in his religion than in a few dollars, as he closed his place of business on Good Friday.

The Camden and Atlantic Pomona Granges will meet at Berlin on Saturday, 24th, at ten o'clock. Grangers are asked to take notice.

Lew. McKean and family are residing with his grandmother, Mrs. A. B. Drake, at the Lake. Mr. McK., his father, and grandfather were former residents of Hammonton.

Chas. H. Jenison has made his debut in amateur theatricals, at Seymour, Conn., taking a leading part in "The Lesson of Friendship," a new version of the old story of Damon and Pythias.

Dr. Hagerman's lecture, given on Monday evening, is highly commended by those who heard it. It was very entertaining, with many good points worthy of remembrance, delivered in a pleasing manner.

The Universalist ladies will give one of their popular suppers next Tuesday evening, 13th. Corn beef hash, rolls, cold meats and cakes will be included in the menu. Adults, 25 cents; children under twelve years, 15 cents.

A euchre and dance will be given at the Civic Club House on Tuesday next, the proceeds to be used in paying for the library. Playing will continue from 8 to 10; dancing from 10.30 to 11.30. Tickets will be sold by members, and at the door, for 25 cents each.

A Pretty Easter Sight.

It was indeed a pretty sight, last Sunday evening, when four persons were "buried with Christ by baptism." In the pool at the Baptist Church. One candidate was a mother, then her young daughter; a stalwart young man followed, then another young girl. The people sang several verses of "Just As I Am," which seemed to express the common desire—that of giving up all for the Master, a burial of the old life, and a resurrection to the new.

What a fitting close for Easter!

—ONE WHO WAS THERE.

D. S. Renwick, Esq., is improving his house on Vine Street. The outside has been stripped, lathed, and will be plastered and pebble finished.

At a special meeting of Town Council, Thursday evening, James V. Baker was elected Overseer of the Poor, to succeed C. F. Crowell, deceased.

The Kind residence, on Basin Road, has been improved, inside and out, and all the buildings repainted; a pleasant change, both for comfort and looks.

The "Home Guards" of the M. E. Church will have a cake sale this afternoon, in Littlefield's office. Pies and cakes will be offered, and possibly something else.

We take this opportunity to thank our friends for their many manifestations of sympathy with us in our late bereavement.

J. H. PRICE and FAMILY.

Alumni Entertainment.

"Town Improvement Night" has been set for next Monday, the 12th, at eight o'clock, in the High School Assembly Room. Here is the programme:

1. General Order and Appearance.... Dr. J. A. Waas
2. Motion Pictures in Hammonton.... Mrs. A. L. Jackson
3. Town Improvements in General.... Mrs. Charles Fitting
4. Libraries for Hammonton....
5. Shade Trees.... Mr. L. C. Armstrong
6. Echoes of the Cincinnati Convention of School Superintendents.... Prof. N. C. Holdridge

We expect the general discussion to bring out a large number of suggestions hitherto unpublished.

We shall have—but three more entertainments this season. Make the most of the opportunity, by attending them all. Com.

Last week of April.

Charles F. Crowell, one of the early pioneers of Hammonton, died early Saturday morning, April 3rd, aged 70 years.

Thus passes away a good citizen, a friendly neighbor, a model husband and father. He came here with his parents in the early sixties and has held the respect of the community, ever active in every beneficial work for the Town. He has been Overseer of the Poor for some time, and proved a careful and considerate official.

Friday night he reached home a little after nine o'clock, apparently in usual health. About two o'clock he made a slight sound, and going to his bedside, his wife found that life had departed, no doubt from heart disease.

His wife, two sons, and two daughters survive him. We feel a sense of personal loss in this death of a friend. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, at the family home, conducted by his pastor, Dr. W. H. Gardner, assisted by Rev. W. S. Marple. Interment at Greenmount.

Mrs. Anna Price, wife of John H. Price, of Central and Valley Avenues, died on Sunday, April 4th, in the German Hospital, Philadelphia, aged forty-five years. She had been taken to the city on Saturday for treatment, but it was evidently too late. A husband and several children have the sympathy of all in this their terrible affliction. Funeral services, on Wednesday, were conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. van Dright, assisted by Rev. W. J. Cusworth.

Mr. Thomas Blake, for some time an employee of Jackson & Son, died early Friday morning, aged about 68 years. His wife, son and daughter survive him. He was faithful to his duties, a friend to everybody. A sad feature is that both wife and daughter are ill.

BILLY SUNDAY, in one of his ringing sermons, pays this eloquent tribute to Life Insurance:

"I don't look like a man who would die very quickly, do I? I have as good a physique as you ever looked at. I would trade with any man I know. A lot of you fellows are stronger than I, but I have as good a physique as you ever looked at. I have been preaching at this pace for fourteen years, and I have stood it, although I ought to feel myself falling a little bit. But I may die, and on that 'may,' on that possibility, I carry thousands and thousands of dollars of life insurance. I don't believe that a man does right to himself, his wife or his children, if he doesn't provide for them with life insurance, so that when he is gone they will not be thrown on the charity of the world. And next to my faith in God, if I should die tonight, that which would give me the most comfort would be the knowledge that I have in a safety deposit vault in Chicago, life insurance papers, paid for up to date, and my wife could cash them in and she and the babies could listen to the wolver howl for a good many years. I don't expect to die soon. I may die, and on that 'may' I carry thousands and thousands of dollars in life insurance."

Everybody is invited to visit the Prudential Exhibit on Life Insurance and Public Welfare at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, at San Francisco.

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1915

An April Blizzard.

Snow began falling about six o'clock last Saturday morning, rapidly increased in violence, continued all day and evening, accompanied by strong wind, which piled up the snow in places from two to five foot drifts. It was a record breaker for April. Trains were delayed, autos and teams laid-up, light-and-phone wires down.

Sunday, Overseer Combs got out his snow-plows and made paths for church-goers to time-for-morning-service. It was a beautiful day, moderate temperature, bright sunshine, and the drifts were considerably slunked before night.

With the exception of a half-day's rain, the weather has since been delightful, and only here and there a diminished heap reminds one of the recent storm.

Even the best of our citizens are exclaiming, "Doggone those worthless curs!" and can you blame them? What's the use of civic pride, when your days of labor and many dollars spent in beautifying your lawn, are nullified by the other fellow's dogs, digging, breaking down shrubs, etc. A man who feeds his dogs from his neighbor's garbage can hasn't yet come up to the level of the poor half-starved, beast himself. Some of the hungry mongrels have an appetite for chicken. Many of our poultrymen on a small-scale have heard disturbances in their yards, and in the morning found a lot of feathers scattered about. Only Wednesday night, Mr. Brunt's roost was robbed of two or three fine fowls, one of them found mangled in the field. Neighbors heard the noise, procured guns, and are yet awaiting the return of the invaders. "Oh, for the dog catcher!"

By notices published this week, property owners are required to "make any and all objections to the assessments as made" by the Commissioners appointed to assess benefits for our sewer system and house connections, at Court, on Saturday, May 1st. But we discover no way of ascertaining the rate or amount of said assessments. Apparently, we must journey to May's Landing, on the appointed day, there learn the amount demanded of us, and decide whether to register a kick or not. This is law, no doubt, but it isn't justice.

It is almost certain that Bellevue Avenue will be paved this season, from the railroad to a point above Third. It is hoped that every sewer connection within these limits will be made soon, that the permanent paving may not be opened up after completion. Property owners will find it to their interest, financially, to do the work now.

There is considerable complaint about the abuse of the telephone. Some people use it as long as ten minutes, to gossip, preventing their neighbors from using this household necessity. Cut your story down to three minutes.

Those who didn't get a chance to show off their new things last Sunday can do so to-morrow.

Wonder if that Easter motorcycle run will be pulled off to-morrow? Get ready for the clean-up and paint-up week.

Why not have a pay-up week?

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

St. Mark's Church. First Sunday after Easter: Morning Prayer and Holy Communion, 7:30; Litany and Holy Communion, 10:30; Sunday School, 11:45; Evening Prayer, 7:30.

All Souls' Church—Universalist. Morning service at 11 o'clock; subject, "The Developing Power of Religion." Evening service at 7:30; subject, "Evangelism and Commercialism." Among other evangelists, the methods and work of Billy Sunday will be considered.

Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. Everett vanDriest, Pastor. 10:30 a. m., preaching. Topic, "The Open Door." 7:30 p. m., Easter service—postponed last week because of storm. Special music. Topic, "The Risen Lord."

Baptist Church, April 11th. Lent is past! Forty days of self-sacrifice? Shall we now give self and Satan full reign? Come and think this matter over with us in our morning worship, when the theme will be, "After Easter—What?"

Children's talk, "St. Patrick." (by request.) 11:45, Bible School. Classes for all. Don't neglect spiritual instruction. 6:30 p. m., Y.P.S.C.E. devotional meeting.

7:30, the popular service—good Gospel songs—and good personal testimonies. Theme, "The Prodigal's Father."

Presbyterian Church, to-morrow, 10:30 a. m., receives members, worship and hearty of opposition, whence it comes from, and the high reward for constant faithfulness. At noon, the Sabbath School studies the Word.

At 7:30, in music, song and preaching, we consider one of the most wonderful promises of Christ and its application.

Thursday evening, prayer and praise service. With you share these with us.

There will be a joint meeting of the County Board of Agriculture and Hammonton Grange, Friday evening next, in Civic Club Room. Three subjects will be discussed: co-operation, apples, and sweet potatoes.

Parents and friends of the Girl
Pioneers met at the Director's residence on Wednesday evening, and organized a Local Council, which is intended to assist the Director of the Band. Every parent of a member of the Band is a member of the Council; every pastor and his wife are ex-officio members; the officers constitute an executive committee. The officers elected: President, Rev. W. S. Marple; Vice-President, Mrs. W. H. Gardner; Sec'y, Mrs. Chas. P. Myers; Treasurer, Miss A. W. Brewster; Director, Miss A. L. Hoyt; Reporter, T. B. Delker.

There was talk of a summer camp for the girls, and Pastor Marple gave many good points from his experience, as to preparing for and conducting a camp.

Board of Trade Meeting.
The Board met in regular session last Tuesday evening. Three new members were elected: Messrs. Geo. F. McIntyre, A. J. Milliken, and J. Warren Tilton. The chairman of the Entertainment Committee was authorized to go ahead with the banquet.

The Figueroa Company asked if the Board could do anything for them in regard to new location. The Board selected the last week in April as cleaning-up and beautifying week. They asked co-operation of Civic Club, and people in general.

The regular Annual Parish Meeting of St. Mark's Church took place on Tuesday night, in the Parish House. A goodly number were out. Treasurer's report was read, with those of other societies connected with the Parish, a short message on missions was made by the Rector, and the following officers were elected:

Sr. Warden, J. B. Watkins; Jr. Warden, Geo. N. Nicholson; Vestrymen—Thos. Skinner, Wm. H. Parkhurst, C. P. Campanella, Louis Purchase, Geo. Moody.

Herman Priestley, of Elm, and Miss Margaret Priestley, of Hammonton, were married last Saturday evening, April 3rd, 1915, at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. W. S. Marple. Several friends from Philadelphia were among the guests, and they helped to make the occasion interesting. The popularity of the young couple was evidenced by many valuable presents on missions for business and prosperity—so say the friends.

Chester Herbert Ford and Miss Vernie Elizabeth Bassett were quietly married, Easter morning, by Rev. C. D. Claus, at his residence on Main Road. The young couple, who have best wishes of their many friends, will reside for the present in the James Smith house, Orchard St., Hammonton.

Word was received late yesterday afternoon that Mrs. H. P. Pressey had died on Thursday at the home of her son Sheridan, at Craner's Hill, and that the remains would be brought here for burial this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Pressey were among the well known early settlers.

WHEN driving a binder it's aggravating to have to stop because "the twine went wrong."

Sometimes the trouble is a bad spot in the twine—sometimes a tangled ball.

Such delays are the real price you pay for cheap twine.

PLYMOUTH TWINE

speeds up the work—cuts down the costs.

Plymouth is stronger and ties more bundles than any other brand. The quality never varies and the balls don't fall down.

If you want an easy and economical harvest, get your twine from us. And take our advice, order Plymouth EARLY.

Miss Carrie Fitting was down from Philadelphia over Easter.

Misses Harford and Rogefs and a Philadelphia teacher friend spent the Easter holidays in Washington, making good use of they stay, and brought to their pupils an excellent description of the Capital city; and now the youngsters can hardly wait until they graduate and make the trip as a class.

Burglars removed a pane from a rear window of R. L. Rubertone's market, Monday night, entered, and rifled the cash register of three or four dollars in change. Nothing else was missed, though considerable might be taken from the provision stock without being noticed. There is no clue.

Mrs. Charles Crowell and family wish to thank their friends and neighbors for the sympathy extended to them in their recent bereavement. The many words and acts of kindness offered them have been a great consolation in their trouble, and Mrs. Crowell and her sons and daughters hereby acknowledge sincere appreciation and gratitude.

We copy from the "Long Branch Record" the following: "There was great consternation among the citizens of Englishtown, upon the unexpected removal of the Rev. Everett vanDright, pastor of the Sanford Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop Henderson has transferred him to the church at Hammonton. Mr. vanDright has spent four years in Monmouth County, and is greatly beloved. He was successful in Red Bank, and was sent to Englishtown for the purpose of building up the church there. In this he has been unusually successful. He closed the last financial year with the Englishtown institution in better shape than it has ever been. At conference, his officials protested against his removal, and he was returned at an increase of two hundred dollars in salary for the coming year. Since conference, the unexpected happened. We sympathize with Englishtown and tender congratulations to Hammonton."

Care of Hot-Beds.

When the hot-bed is ready to receive the seed, take a thin board 3 inches shorter than the bed is wide and give it a narrow edge. Work this edge back and forth in the soil until an average depth of 3/4 of an inch is secured; then work it sidewise to broaden the row. The rows should be placed 4 inches apart, taking care not to have any of the rows directly under the cross piece. This advice is given by the Extension Specialist in vegetable growing at the New Jersey Experiment Station.

Further directions by this expert for the seeding and care of hot-beds may be summarized as follows: Sow the seed by hand. A little practice makes perfect. Drop from 75 to 100 seeds per running foot. Cover this with the back of a garden rake. When the soil is again leveled off it may be gently tapped by holding the handle of the rake perpendicular and allowing it to drop from an altitude of about 3 inches. This operation induces quick germination.

Special emphasis is to be laid on the next step. Place a thermometer in the bed, then put on the sash. During cold spells put the mats on just before the sun goes down, that is, before the bed has cooled off. In this way the bed will remain warm during the night.

Two points are to be kept in mind with regard to the bed: (1) Do not water too much. Watering should be done in the morning of a warm day. This avoids chilling the plants and gives them an opportunity to dry off quickly. (2) When the sun strikes the bed in the morning it soon becomes very hot and plants will be scalded unless ventilation is provided. To ventilate, place a small block under the side of the sash away from the wind, thus avoiding a draft on the plants. Precaution should be taken that the blocks are not high enough to allow the entrance of cats or chickens.

Tomatoes and early cabbage plants should be kept cool, but peppers and especially egg plants need warmth.
