Wields a Sharp Axe.

Millions moved at the multitude of maladies cut off by Dr. King's New Life Pills,—the most distressing, too. Liver, stomach and bowel troubles, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, jaundice, biliousness, fever, malaria, all fall before these wonder workers. 25 cents, at Rogers' drug store.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last Fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle was completely cured.—SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J. For sale by J. B. Rogers.

Welcome the Queen.

The Queen stands at the gate,
The Queen of Spring,
And seems to hesitate
To come and bring
Her birds and flowers and bees;
For Winter's breath
Yet lingers, and may freeze
Her pots to death.

But soon her smile so warm
Will melt the frost,
Her motherly alarm
Be from her tossed.
She'll dook the lawns and trees

With living green,
Breathe balm into the breeze.
The gracious Queen.

She'll paint the timid flowers
With heavenly hues,
And strew the vernal bowers
With gems profuse;
Her hand will tint the skies
A charming blue,

And from their unseen eyes
Bring freshening dew
As living tears to fall
Upon the earth,
And mystically call
The seeds to birth.

That lazy feeling she
Will give mankind,
Till screwed-up faces we
All walk behind.

She'll cause the sighing ones
As birds to mate,
And start like Walton's sons
To dig for bait.

These, and a thousand more
Rich blessings she
Will lay beside our door
With hand most free.

Then, as a mighty throng
We'll rise and sing
That grand old welcome song,—
"Hail, Gentle Spring!"

The Glass-Works.

MR. EDITOR: Can you give me any information as to whether our people are going to allow the glass factory to leave town, or remain?

It seems to me that a much greater effort should be made to keep the $20,000 annual wages—[$400 weekly]—which it is claimed is paid to those young men who work in the factory, and who are those we have raised here. Now, if those young men and boys are going to leave this town, as they must if the factory goes, and leave permanently, too, who will we have, bye and bye, to take any interest in our town?

If the glass factory goes, we are compelling our boys to go too, by our sleepy inactivity, just through a penurious feeling.

I am interested enough in the welfare of Hammonton, to say, let us all join in and shake off this lethargy, and rise up as one man with a determination that it shall not go if any effort of ours can keep it here. Let us do something more definite, and keep our boys right here, and also retain this large amount of wages.

We were liberal with water-works; why not be so with our industries? I, for one, would be willing to help along.

JUSTIN.

TWO SPECIALTIES AT

Rogers' Pharmacy

FERRI MANGAN

(solution Peptonate of Iron and Manganese)

Or Pepto-Mangan.

Each fluid ounce contains: Peptonate of Iron, 20 grains; Saccharated Sesquioxide Manganese, 4 grains. This preparation is quickly absorbed by the system into the blood, and restores to it the Haemoglobin and corpuscles to the normal proportion. For Anaemia, Chlorosis, general debility, the blood is enriched, appetite increased, and if persistently used, the weight increases to a notable extent after about one month's use. A feeling of warmth is produced particularly agreeable to elderly persons, or anyone whose system is run down from any cause. A pint bottle, 70 cents.

ROGERS'

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

Very valuable where pulmonary tuberculosis is indicated, or trouble with the respiratory organs is felt. Also acts as a general tonic and stimulant. 75 cents per bottle.

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1902.

There is a strike among the glass blowers at Minatola, and employees of the same men at Bridgeton. As it is expected that an effort will be made to secure men in Hammonton, it may be interesting to give the strikers' statement of the difficulty, in brief. They claim that the firm has not lived up to its agreement to pay the same prices to blowers as are paid by other firms. Also, that they are not fairly treated in the inspection of their work, too many bottles rejected, and the blowers not allowed to see the culls. That men have been discharged because they attended labor meetings. That they are paid the price of ten-ounce bottles when making twelve-ounce. The men further state that the proprietors were asked to meet representatives of the blowers to discuss these and other complaints, and to settle the difficulty by arbitration, but refused. Of course this is only one side of the story, and the firm's version may be entirely different; but we should certainly investigate it thoroughly before going there to work, and we recommend others to do so.

A CHALLENGE.—The Hammonton Glass Works Base-Ball Club hereby challenges all amateur base-ball clubs in South Jersey. Address all correspondence to F. C. DUDLEY, Manager.

A CARD.—The family of the late C. E. Roberts hereby express their thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who rendered such valuable aid to them in their affliction. MRS. ROBERTS AND FAMILY.

ELWOOD NOTES:

Tuesday evening, a few of the young folks were enjoying a game of "hide and seek," when Ernest Blake, who is residing with Mr. Menzies, stepped suddenly into a hole in the uneven ground, and strained the cords of his left knee, causing him much pain. He is improving slowly, but is unable to walk without the use of a cane.

Mrs. W. W. Phillips is suffering very much from erysipelas.

J. H. B. earth and son are traveling in the South; but are expected home next week.

J. T. Irving has for some time been the victim of a series of heavy colds, but on Wednesday was compelled to keep his bed. It is thought the attack will not be a long one.

Miss M. Holden is visiting her cousin Mrs. E. B. Kyle, in Philadelphia.

Mr. S. Bentley is entertaining his son-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Ferguson, who has been ill for some time and has come to the country to restore her health. Mr. J. R. Olding was also a guest there, this week.

There's music to the air! Any one passing the parlor windows of Miss Bezar's home, Wednesday evening, would doubtless be convinced that several persons were within, producing strains of ——— harmony (?) Well, they seemed to be enjoying themselves, regardless of the feelings of others.

Miss Fieder's hand is almost well, and she expects to go home Saturday. We will miss her very much.

A Newly Fatal Runaway started a horrid fire on the leg of J. B. Grier, Franklin Street, Ill., which killed doctors and all remedies for four years. Then Huddell's Aconite Salva cured him. Just as good for boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, scalds, skin eruptions, and piles. 25 cents at Rogers' drug store.

The Great Diamond Swamp. Of Virginia is a breeding ground of malaria germs. As is low, wet, or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, when in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous malarial. But Huddell's Aconite Salva never fails to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malarial and stomach and liver troubles," writes John H. Harrison, of Haverhill, Ohio, "but never found anything as good as Huddell's Aconite." Try them, only 50 c. Rogers, the druggist, guarantees satisfaction.

Some men pay cash for everything they buy because they want to, and others because they have to.

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

George N. Casel resigned his position in Eckhardt's market, and has returned with his family to Lansdale, Pa., his former home. Ralph Baderow, late in Jackson's, takes his place, which he formerly held.

With the adoption of its Spring schedule, about May 11th, the Philadelphia & Reading Railway will inaugurate hourly service of fast express trains between Phila. and New York to leave terminals in both cities at 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 a.m., 12, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 p.m., running through without any change. Trains to be equipped with new coaches and Pullman parlor cars provided with buffet service where needed.

The contractor for the Pleasant Mills road is having troubles of his own, which Supervisor Lutz and the Freeholders are asked to share. One property owner threatens legal injunction for raising the road grade in front of his property; a second says he'll sue for damages for cutting down the grade at another point; a third is chasing everybody in authority because of a deep ditch; yet they all confess that they want an improved road.

The following necrology was recently written by a Hammonton father in his daughter's universal album:

Be good, and true to duty, age for age, walk the path of right; Remember, it's the only way. Trust yields the heart's delight; Have faith in God and all that's good. And God will bless, he said he would. Consider even the shade of trees—Of little calls it's made—Can you, who tread in his own path, Have knowledge how it's made? Right well it's duty does it do. And that, my dear, I want of you; Now, I believe, I'll ask it, too. Don't you?

The Lyceum meeting, Monday night, proved very interesting to the large number present. President A. L. Jackson, and all other officers were re-elected. On the program was a recitation by Miss Shelley; and a song by the ladies' quartette, both being well rendered. The open debate did not lack for disputants, and the general sentiment appeared to be, at the close, that a woman should receive the same pay as a man for the same work, and the judges so decided it. Why not? It's the service that is needed and paid for, and is worth its price by whomsoever done.

Mr. Daniel Colwell died on Wednesday, April 10th, at his home in Hammonton, aged 82 years. He came here with his family more than thirty years ago, and bought the fine farm of Dr. Jos. H. North, Sr., on Fairview Avenue, extending from Third Street to the railroad, and he resided there ever since. He was a good citizen and neighbor, a member of the Presbyterian Church, interested in all that pertained to the welfare of the town, being at one time a member of Town Council. In failing health for a year or more, and confined to the house for several months, his death was not unexpected. His wife, a daughter (Mrs. Dr. Pollard, of Atlantic City), and one son, survive him. Funeral services at the house this (Saturday) morning at 10:30, conducted by Pastor McKinney.

TUDOR. At Hammonton, N. J., April 9, 1902, suddenly, of paralysis, George Tudor, in the 60th year of his age.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This remedy is for sale by Rogers.

A Doctor's Bad Flight. "Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my vision," writes Dr. M. L. Burtchough, of Hudson, Ohio. "I then began an absolute cure. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 25 years, failed, and I finally grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Croup, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for throat and lung troubles by Rogers. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free.

IF YOU WANT A FENCE

It is cheap, strong, and durable. It is made of the best material and is built to last. It is the only fence that is built to last. It is the only fence that is built to last. It is the only fence that is built to last.

To-day wins while to-morrow is still slumbering.

There is no cement that will repair broken promises.

The heart is always hungry: no man lives happy alone.

No only is exempt from failures who makes no efforts.

Chances of success often are lost by parsimonious haggling.

Get your heart right, and it will be easy to manage your tongue.

The manners of a man have no small part in his success or failure.

Next to the slanderer, we detest the bearer of the slander to our ears.

It is a waste of time to argue with a man who gives way to passion.

Excessive shrewdness is quite apt to degenerate into contemptible meanness.

Knowledge and lumber should not be much used until they are seasoned.

Marriage is found to be oppressive quite often as a result of individual selfishness.

Health is a touchy possession; disobey one of its commands, and off it goes.

It takes a genius to compel himself to like the disagreeable tasks he has to perform.

It is easy to condemn the unfortunate when temptation has given you a wide berth.

When a fellow carries a picture in his watch, there is usually a woman in the case.

"Practice makes perfect," but it does not require much practice to make a perfect fool.

What I want is not to possess religion, but to have a religion that shall possess me.

Pride goes before a fall; but it is the fall that hurts one's pride.

The more men drink the drunker they think their friends are.

The man who discovered kissing was too tickled to take out a patent for it.

We do not have to travel far to find that all hogs do not wear bristles.

A person is known by the company he keeps.

One of the great duties of life is to avoid giving pain.

A Valuable Medicine for Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watchmaker of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine, and I have repeatedly used it and has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children, and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by J. S. Rogers.
