ment. Being of public interest, we publish them entire:

1. The Board shall meet regularly on the first Tuesday of each month, at 7:30 P. M., excepting the months of March, June, September, and December, when it will meet on Tuesday after the first Monday.
(Later, at the same meeting, it was voted that the Board meet on the second Tuesday of each month.) 2. Special meetings may be called by the President, by the District Clerk, or the President when requested to do so in writing by any two members of the Board.
 3. The following committees shall be appointed: Committee on Property;

Schools.

 5. The Committee on Books shall examine and select all books desired for the school, and report to the Board; also examine, as far as possible, the condition of books, and report any changes or rules necessary for their preservation, as well as perform any other duties assigned them by the Board.
 6. The Committee on Schools shall consist of one member of the Board for each school (excepting Central, which may consist of one or more members), who shall visit the schools, if possible, at least once during each month. The committees thus appointed shall report at each regular meeting of the board the condition of the schools and also any recommendation necessary for their im-these committees at any time, when deemed proper by the board to do so.

 7. All committees shall be appointed

1. No person shall hit or tie any horse, mule, ox or other animal to any shade, ornamental or fruit tree which may have been planted or set out by the owner, prior owner or possessor of any land adjoining any highway or road in this state, or hit or tie any horse, mule, ox or other animal to any post within reach of any such shade, ornamental or fruit tree, or allow any horse, mule, ox or other animal to stand unattended near any shade, ornamental or fruit tree whereby any such tree may be injured by such animals.
2. If any person shall offend against the provisions of the preceding section of this act, he, she or they so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each and every such offense whereby any such tree is injured or damaged, and for each and every offense whereby the tree is killed and ruined, he, she or they so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, said sums to be recovered in an action of tort, with costs of the suit, in any court having cognizance thereof, by any person who may prosecute for the same within six months after such offense shall have been committed.

THE PRESBYTERY.

The regular meeting of the Presbytery of West Jersey, including the six southern counties of the State, met in the Hammonton Presbyterian Church, last Tuesday. Over eighty delegates were in attendance, and the entire session was interesting and enjoyable. Rev. J. C.
Russell, of Camden, was elected Moderator. Two pastors resigned their charges —Rev. A. P. Botsford, of Wenonah, and Rev. F. A. McLaury, Cedarville. Two young men were examined for licensure, Theodore Elmer and John A. Brown, the latter accepting a call to Williamstown.
A petition was presented from members of the Church in Atlantic City for the organization of a new Church, and a committee was appointed to organize a second Church, if the way be clear. Rev.
J. B. Adams, Rev. A. W. Spooner, Elder E. A. Bateman, and Elder Thomas W.
Stannett were elected delegates to the General Assembly, which meets at Saratoga, in May. Reports were given of the various lines of religious work.

An interesting service was held in the evening. Sermon by the retiring Moderator, Rev. Thos. Thomson, of Elmer.
Addresses on Missions and Benevolence by Revs. Beadle and Thomson.

The ladies of the Church entertained the delegates. Tables were set in the basement of the church, which tables and decorations transformed into a most delightful dining-room.

The members of the Presbytery visited the old church, and were greatly pleased with the prospects of the Italian mission and the good work of its pastor, Rev.
Thomas Frigali.

Arbor Day was observed yesterday, in our public schools. Trees were set out at the Central school and also by the outside schools. At the Central all the children from the lower rooms, and some visitors, gathered with the scholars of the higher grades, in the Assembly room and listened to songs by the school, recitations and readings.
Those who took part could hardly do themselves justice as they had only a few days to prepare, since the schools were but recently notified of the day.
The program consisted of appropriate recitations by the Misses Olive Depuy, Nello Jones, Ivy Smith, Mary Roberts, Helen Winship, Lottie Whitmore, Annie Whiffen, Elsie Giddings, Anna Dunkle, Sadie and Lizzie Cunningham, Edith Crowell, Katie, Emma, Helen and Belle Berry, Marguerite and Addie Prescott, Lillian Boyle, Lillie Link, also Garfield Kramer, Jay Brown, Frank Adams, Stuart Whiffen, Harry Pigott and Clarence Purdy; readings by Misses Josie Garton and Elizabeth Hoffman; recitations and interesting exercises by the Kindergarten. Though the whole program was good, the work of the Kindergarten was especially good and reflected much credit upon their teacher, Mrs. Berry. The scholars had intended to spend the afternoon in the woods by classes, but the rain prevented and gave them a half holiday.

In the Memorial Day order sent by the Commander-in-Chief to every Camp of the Sons of Veterans in the United States occurs the following paragraph:

Every Camp should be found in the line of duty, and every member of the Order should do his part to make the observance of this Memorial Day more general than ever before, and let it be "to the right way." No Son of a Veteran should be found deprecating the day, dishonoring his father or his father's memory; and disgracing himself by engaging in the amusements of ball playing, racing, dancing, etc., so common in many localities. Make it a day of tender, loving service, of grateful remembrance, and of patriotic inspiration.
Make it what it should be—the most sacred of all the days consecrated to the American soldier.

The Name of The Next President of the United States

WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN

The NEW YORK Weekly TRIBUNE

Of Nov. 4th, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the United States.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations. Also, general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The New York Weekly Tribune is an ideal family paper, with circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large audiences are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the woman and young people of the household.

A special contract enables us to offer this splendid journal and the South Jersey Republican—both
