(For the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN.)

HAMMONTON.

BY MRS. A. V. MUNGEL.

Fair Hammonton, thy quiet grace,
Was born to win in every part;
And even time cannot erase,
Thy memory from a faithful heart.
Like some fair picture, seen but once,
Remembered as we would a dream;
So distance lends an added charm,
And what is fair, doth fairer seem.

And I have read of sun-kissed lands, Empyrean homes beyond the sea;
I doubt much, if these fabled myths,
Would bear comparison with thee.
Let poets sing of sunny South,
Or seamy groves within their reach;
Of all the lands, from North to South,
Give me old Jersey's handy beach.

It should be my happy lot,
As now I trust and hope 'twill be;
To live the residue with thee;
To give the residue with thee;
Here would I spend in quiet thought,
Full many a pleasant, happy hour
In sweet converse with kindred minds, Refreshing as the genial shower.

May every blessing that attends
The good and great, thy portion be;
Wealth mark the progress of our state,
And none be more beloved than thee.
Blow prosperous breezes to our land,
Wait all ye winds the pleasant story:
That plenty crowns on every hand,
And labor earns its meed of glory.

"Morley's" Letter From New York.

[FROM OUR OWN REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

New York, April 23, 1879.

"COME, GENTLE SPRING."

Spring, gentle Spring, with all its diphtherial mildness, has come. The grass is green and velvety in the Parks; Spring overcoats and Easter suits flourish one day, and porous plasters and cough drops the next. Fresh Florida asparagus is in the market at a dollar a bunch and as tough as a pawnbroker's conscience, while last year's growth, tender and luscious, is offered in cans at thirty cents. Strawberries, warranted to give the collo at ninety rods, bring fifty cents a basket; and your youngest runs her slender fingers through your grizzled locks and arches asks "which you think would be most becoming to her, a blue silk or a garnet?"
If there are not symptoms of the rapid approach of Spring, then what on earth do they mean?

A NEW CRUSADE AGAINST INTemperance.
A fresh army is being levied in New York for the war against King Alcohol. It carries on its banners the ponderous monogram "B. M.
S. E. M.," which, being interpreted, is "Business Men's Society for the Encouragement of Modereration." It provides no less than four different pledges, and invites its members to choose whichever is best suited to their individual cases. The pledge cards are red, white, blue, and tri-color respectively. The red is a complete total abstinence pledge; the white is a pledge against drinking in business hours; the blue pledge against treating or being treated;
and the tri-color is a promise to abstain from "any intoxicating liquor stronger than wine of ale, and these only at meals." All these pledges are for a specified term, to be determined by the signer. The founders of the Society are business men of the very first standing. In the President's chair is Mr. F. B. Thurber, and among the Vice-Presidents and originators are such men as Peter Cooper, Thurlow Weed, Judge Noah Davis, Ex-Governor Hartranft, Rev. O. B. Frothingham, and Elwood E.
Thorne. Though containing some interested in the wholesale liquor traffic, and many moderate drinkers, it does not recommend any abstainer to begin a course of drinking, however moderate. Realizing that moderate drinking may and often does lead to drunkenness, it says:
"It is better to let Rum alone"; but because the majority of men will not do this, it adds:
"If you will drink, do it moderately; keep your head clear in business hours; confine your potations to light wines and beer, and, above all, cease the absurd and ruinous habit of 'treating' and being 'treated.'" It acknowledges drunkenness in the words of Mr. Frothingham, as "the fundamental vice of civilized nations," and realize its obligation to do something towards stemming the fearful current of American intemperance. It hopes to recruit thousands in its ranks, who would be deaf to more radical pleas, and claims to have the same end in view as the more extreme wing of the Temperance army. The plan embraces the formation of auxiliary societies throughout the land; the promotion of knowledge in the science and statistics of liquor, the establishment of places of recreation where no intoxicants are allowed, and first, last, and all the time, the abolition of "treating." A fuller exposition of its purposes and methods can be had by writing to the Secretary, Mr. Henry H. Hadley, Box 1585, New York.

Whether much good will be accomplished depends solely upon the vigor with which this organization is pushed forward. So far as it works at all, society must be benefited. When moderate drinking business men, and men pa-cifically interested in the liquor trade begin to feel the necessity of doing something to check the ravages of rum, I do not want to step singing the long metre doxology long enough to inquire whether they are doing precisely what I am doing. It used to be said of General Halleck that he would rather lose a battle by approved methods than win it by departing from them. Those who in their own persons, or their loved ones, have tasted the sharp sting of this serpent's tooth will be guilty of no such folly. I strike glad hands with any man, of any creed, who will help brush one temptation from the path of my boy, lift one man from the gutter, or lessen by a feather's weight the deadly influence of the dramshop and the drinking usages of society.

Mohley.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21, 1879.

The Republicans of the House and Senate in caucus, the other day, agreed not to obstruct the greenback movement, for introducing agitating measures in the House, but to fight them on the merits or demerits of what they offer.

This is wise, I think. As a rule filibustering, so called, is bad policy, even when used in the best cause. It looks childish and factional, whereas a fair square fight, against unworthy measures always redounds to the honor of a party making it. Now, therefore, the green-backers may introduce their silly and dangerous measures, only to expose their unworthiness, and thereby increase the Republican chance of success at the polls. The almost universal demand from all parts of the country now, is for a real financial legislation. Even many who have favored the greenback cause, now join in this demand. They say, let us give a fair trial to the present system before we tear it down.
Our condition is improving gradually, and nothing can be gained by disturbing things, until we have tested the existing conditions to the fullest extent; with this feeling prevalent it will be difficult for the greenbackers and their Democratic allies to win in the fight against the Republicans presenting a solid front. At any rate the discussions to follow will strengthen the Republican position.

The Republican managers have decided to begin the canvass now with reference to the fall elections and the great campaign of next year. The Congressional Committee has been appointed, containing the following members: Maine—Representative Stephen D. Lindsey.
New Hampshire—Senator E. H. Rollins.
Vermont—Representative J. M. Tyler.
Massachusetts—Representative W. W. Croso.
Rhode Island—Senator A. E. Burnside.
Connecticut—Representative John T. Walt.
New York—Representative Frank Hiscock.
New Jersey—Representative G. M. Robeson.
Pennsylvania—Representative H. G. Fisher.
Maryland—Representative Milton G. Urner.
Virginia—Representative Joseph Jorgensen.
North Carolina—Representative Jas. J. Martin.

Mississippi—Senator B. K. Bruce.
Louisiana—Senator W. F. Kellogg.
Ohio—Representative William McKinley, Jr.
Tennessee—Representative L. C. Houk.
Indiana—Representative G. S. Orth.
Michigan—Representative J. A. Hubbell.
Florida—Representative B. B. Bissel, Jr.
Iowa—Senator William B. Allison.
California—Senator Newton Booth.
Minnesota—Representative Mark H. Dunnell.
Kansas—Representative Thomas Ryan.
Nevada—Senator J. P. Jones.
Nebraska—Senator A. S. Paddock.
Colorado—Representative J. B. Bodford.
Washington Territory—Delegate Thomas H.
Bretns.

Dakota Territory—Delegate G. G. Bennett.
Illinois and Wisconsin were not ready to present names. It is probable that either Hon.
W. E. Chandler, or Hon. Geo. C. Gorham, will be Secretary of the committee, which means business, both being grand organizers and workers. The work will begin at once by supplying doubtful districts with documents that will be of interest and prove effectual. The disjointed Democracy are not yet ready to go to work except against each other, and their quarrels are weakening them every day.

Some talk has been created here by several western Republican papers assailing the New York Times for what they call its "effort to Joroe Grant" upon them in 1880. They nominate Senator Windom in preference, and have several choices before Grant. The feeling is that the Times' effort was premature, and that Republicans should wait until next year before organizing in any special direction. Whoever is nominated, be he Grant, Windom, Blaine, Conkling, or any sound Republican, will receive the united support of the party and be elected.

Capt. Eads has written another letter defending himself against the blackmailers of the press in the matter of his Mississippi jetty.
He is amply sustained by the Government officers, who say his work is faithfully done, and will be an entire success. The depth of water ensured at the mouth of the river is already twenty-seven feet, and the channel is entirely said. The work is of national importance, and cannot be stopped because a few greedy lobbyists haven't been able to get bribed to silence by Capt. Eads. The Captain made his own business well, and all he asks of others is to do the same, and to tell the truth.

Chalmers has had his Fort Pillow massacre infamy brought up to face him in ghastly colors lately, and Blackburn was put to torture the other day by Mr. Frye, who reminded him that his disloyalty would stick out though he tried to conceal it in his pointed speeches. In fact, the rebel cloven foot is coming out from under everywhere in this Congress.

MAXWELL.

TEMPERANCE.

Speech on Temperance.

[Found on a card thirty years ago.]

BY J. N. HUMPHREY, M. D.

Omne tulit punctum qui miscuit utile dulci.
Ye friends of moderation who think of reformation,
Or moral renovation, would benefit our nation:
Who deem intoxication, with all its distortion,
In every rank and station, the cause of degradation
Or which—your observation, gives daily demonstration,
Whose ruinous distillation, distress and desolation,
The open violation of moral obligation,
The wretched habitation, without accommodation,
Or any regulation for common sustentation,
A scene of deprivation, unequalled in creation;
The frequent desecration of Sabbath ordination,
The crime and depredation, defying legislation,
The awful profanation of common conversa-
tion,
The mental aberration and dire infatuation,
With every sad gradation, to mania desperation,
Ye who with consternation, behold the devastation,
And utter condemnation on all inebriation,
Who sanction its duration, or show disapprobation
Of any combination for its extermination?
We deem a declaration that offers no temptation,
By any palliation of this abomination,
The only sure foundation for its utter extirpation;
And under this persuasion hold no communication
With noxious emanation of brewer's fermenta-
tion,
Or poisonous preparation of spirit's distilla-
tion,
Nor any vain libation producing stimulation.
To this determination we call consideration;
And without hesitation, invite co-operation;
Not doubting limitation will raise your estimation,
And, by continuation, afford you consolation,
For in participation with this association,
You may by meditation insure the preservation,
Of future generation from all contamination,
And may each indication of such regeneration
Be the theme of exultation till its final consummation.

Independent or Neutral News- papers.

It is impossible for a paper to be entirely non-partisan in politics, for no matter how great an effort the editor may make to conceal his political bias, it will crop out in spite of him. A case in point is the Philadelphia Times, which though edited by one who claims to be a Republican, yet so emphatically takes sides with the Democracy that a Texas paper compliments it thus:

The Philadelphia Times, edited by Col.
McClure, is the soundest and wisest of the Northern Democratic newspapers—Quick's Paper.

McClure takes exceptions to this, and seems much aggrieved. He explains as follows, with his hair erect:

The editor of the Times is a Republican in politics, but seeks to publish a non-partisan paper. The writer who states that the Times is a Democratic newspaper knows that he utters a falsehood.

If the editor is a Republican, how is it that Democrats are delighted with the paper? No one can read the paper two minutes without coming to the conclusion that the cloven foot of the Democratic Mephistopheles is the most prominent thing to be seen.

Dennis Kearney will be disfranchised by the new Constitution of California. It provides that "no idiot or insane person shall ever exercise the privileges of an elector in that State."
—Boston Com. Bulletin.

Two little boys who had been kept in the house on account of the rain were standing by the window mournfully gazing at the dreary outlook, when the youngest suddenly said,
"O, mamma, won't you ask God to please shut off the water?"—Hacksack Republican.

Fire Insurance Comp ny.

BRIDGETON, N. J.

Conducted on strictly mutual principles, offering a perfectly safe insurance for just what it may cost to pay losses and expenses. The proportion of loss to the amount insured being very small, and expenses much less than usually had, nothing can be offered more favorably to the insured. The cost being about ten cents on the hundred dollars per year to the insured on ordinary risks, and from fifteen to twenty-five cents per year on hazardous properties, which is less than one-third of the lowest rates charged by stock companies, on such risks—the other two-thirds taken by stock companies being a profit accruing to stockholders, or consumed in expenses of the companies.

The guarantee fund of premium notes being now Three Millions of Dollars.

If an assessment had to be made of five per cent. only, twice within the ten years for which the policy is issued, it would yet be cheaper to the members than any other insurance offered. And that large amount of money is saved to the members and kept at home. No assessment having ever been made, being now more than thirty years, that saving would amount to more than

One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollar

The Losses by Lightning.

Where the property is not set on fire, being less than one cent per year to each member, are paid without extra charge, and extended so as to cover all policies that are issued and outstanding.
