MIGHT AS WELL.

Might's well sing a song of hope as growl about the weather;
In the light or in the night, go singin' all together!
When it's windy, fly your kites; when the summer's heaters Roast you brown, don't tear around, but go to killin' skeeters!

Singin' on the way
Makes winter sweet as May;
An' you might as well be happy
'Till the judgment day!

Might's well whistle as you go as growl because you're gold;
If you strike a thorn or so, maybe it's your own sowin'!

Thorns wuz fer a purpose made,—hard to live without 'em!
If you took you'll always find roses all about
'em!

Singin' on the way
Makes winter sweet as May;
An' you might as well be happy
'Till the judgment day!

Through the N. Y. Custom House we received 165,000 square yards more of foreign carpets during the first half-year's operation of the Gorman tariff than in the corresponding months a year earlier. These larger imports are undoubtedly part of the benefits to the American carpet manufacturers that free-traders promised.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her physicians she had consumption, and there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 189 Florida Street, San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result every thing else, then bought one bottle of Dr.
King's New Discovery, and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are but samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds.

I recommend Chamberlain's Balm for it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale by druggists.

(Entered as second class matter.)

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1895.

At the M. E. Church to-morrow, 9:30 A.M., love-feast, led by Presiding Elder D. B. Harris: 10:30, preaching by Presiding Elder; Evening, 6:30, the Epworth League meeting; 7:30, preaching by Pastor Alfred Wagg, subject, "Unbelief."

County Superintendent Wilson will hold an examination for teachers' certificates, in the Pleasantville school house, on Friday and Saturday, May 3rd and 4th. On Friday the examination will be for third grade certificates, and on Saturday for second and first grades.

The legal penalty for plucking flowers from a grave in any cemetery, or taking plants therefrom, or in any way molesting a grave, is one hundred dollars fine and six months' imprisonment. It would be well to give some parties a lesson in this line, for complaints are not infrequent.

Mrs. M. Stockwell has the hand-some "Easter lily" we ever saw. The stalk is five feet in height, and crowned with nine blossoms and buds. The blossoms are very large, as white as white can be, and of course very fragrant. The plant is in the store window, and attracts much attention.

Compulsory education is the law in New Jersey, and yet our town has many youngsters under eighteen years of age who run the street, smoke, vile cigarettes, and are preparing themselves for useless lives, with prisons among the possibilities. We call the attention of the Town Board of Education to this matter.

A special newspaper train, consisting of an engine and one coach, on the Camden & Atlantic, made the last run between the Delaware and the sea, last Sunday morning, in the history of the road. The train drew out of the Camden depot at 5:35 A.M., and, without a stoppage of the wheels, covered the intervening 68 7-10 miles in 40 minutes. Those who saw the train pass Hammon say that it certainly did travel speedily.

That our papers may reach subscribers on time, we must mail them on Saturday morning. To do this, they must be printed, folded, and labeled on Friday. Hence, the amount of type-setting done on Friday must necessarily be limited. Now, if two or three columns of copy for changed advertisements come in Thursday night, our work is crowded into a few hours. See? Well, this means that, hereafter, all such copy must be in our hands by Thursday noon, or lay over for a week. Patrons, kindly note this, and oblige.

List of recalled letters in the Hammon Post-Office, on Saturday, April 27th, 1895:
Wm. S. Farley, Chas. H. Roth, FORKING.
Antonio Cippucello, Paolo. Antonio Lombardi.
Marie Gonnella, fu Pasquale.
Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised. JOHN T. FRENCH, P. M.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth County, Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms, and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and, to use his own words, "It cured me right up." He also says, "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I sold him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and how it had cured me; he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 ct. bottles for sale by druggists.

Ducklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, sore eyes, itching, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. 25 cents per box, at Croft's pharmacy.

From Elm.

Mr. C. H. Dixon is now settled in the Elm store. We hope he will do well.

Miss Mabel P. Cordery died on Saturday, April 13th, after a brief illness, aged 18 years. Though a great sufferer she was never known to murmur, but seemed ever grateful to the loving ones who ministered to her comfort. Funeral services were held in the Elm Church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Stephens. The pure white casket was covered with floral tributes. A beautiful wreath of tea roses and lilies of the valley was sent by her schoolmates and teacher.
The young ladies of the Sunday School class to which she belonged sent exquisite bouquets of cut flowers. School was closed, and the scholars, led by their teacher, Mr. H. E. Rogers, walked in procession to the church, and when the services were over he led each to take a last look at the loved one, gently lifting the smallest that they might have the sad privilege. M.

Of Cuba's exports during the first quarter of the crop year of 1894-1895, ninety-two per cent. came to the United States. If a country's political associations should be based upon her commercial relations, it is easy to see where Cuba belongs.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate, contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of her functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer, and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need.
Price, 50 c. per bottle, at Crotts's.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years, and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup, and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by druggists.
