NO. 17

ELVINS & ROBERTS

Being now in the hurry and rush of Spring business, you will pardon us if we do not present much that is new. We merely wish to assure you that we are still doing business at the old stand.

We meet the recent cut in the price of Cottolene. Having had the honor of introducing this excellent article to the trade in this vicinity, we propose our imitators shall not lead us on this or any other article. Price until further notice, 13 cents per pound.

We reduce the price of Wood Fibre to 35 cents, making them by far the cheapest and best water pail for the money now on the market. No fraud about these goods,--a first-class article in every way. No hoops to drop off, does not soak water, therefore always light, and almost no end to the wear.

Have you tried Snider's Catsup? If not, why not? "It leads the procession." Large bottle, 25 cents.

Full weight Milk certainly should be a leader also. 52 cents per can. Try a can, and if it is not what we claim for it, bring it back.

Please remember that we are the sole agents for Mapes' Complete Manures for all crops, and we aim to keep the stock as complete as the rapidly increasing sales of these most popular and reliable fertilizers will permit. Prices on application.

Garden Seeds.

A full line now in stock. Small seeds in large papers, warranted fresh and genuine, 30 cents dozen papers. Also Peas, Beans, Sweet Corn, Clover, Timothy, Red Top, Orchard, and Lawn Grass Seeds. All at bottom figures.

Seed Potatoes are here, in all the leading varieties, viz: Holton County (Maine), Rose, Beauty of Hebron, Early Ohio, Rose Seedling, etc., etc. Prices, $1.25 up.

You will pardon us for again calling your attention to the very important item of Berry Baskets, when we assure you that, according to the present outlook as to demand, prices will be much higher. We therefore strongly urge placing orders at once. Prices we are quoting now hold good for this month only.

Let us have your order now for Gift Crates. Hardly prepared yet to quote prices, but you can depend upon getting them from us when needed, at prices that will be right.

Agents for Bissell Plows, which we carry in stock, in all sizes.

Washington Letter.

From our regular Correspondent.
Washington, April 21, 1893.

What is the financial policy of the administration, or has it such a thing? These are questions that a good many people have asked during the last week, and are still unanswered, and will probably remain so for some time to come. That the cabinet was divided upon the question of what should be done when the gold in the Treasury fell below the $100,000,000 held as a reserve fund is not denied. Secretaries Carlisle and Gresham, and Attorney General Olney advising that no more gold be paid for what are known as Treasury notes, which are payable in "coin," and Mr. Cleveland and the rest of the cabinet (Secretaries Smith and Herbert were absent) favoring their continued redemption in gold, which was done. Whether the adoption of Secretary Carlisle's idea would have resulted in gold going to a premium is a question. The plan adopted was simply carrying out what Secretary Foster, when at the head of the Treasury, said he would do if the necessity arose therefor, rather than issue bonds. The reserve was only impaired one day, and the Treasury now has sufficient "free gold" to meet all the demands expected this week. Thoughtful people regard the disposition, which unquestionably exists, to make the financial question sectional, as a source of danger. It can certainly do no good to have Secretary Carlisle posing as the champion of the South West, as against Mr. Cleveland, who is claimed to stand for the East. Any financial policy that is not for the entire United States is bound in the end to be disastrous to the administration that fathers it. A political party may, as every intelligent person knows, succeed in securing power by claiming in different sections of the country to represent different and opposite ideas, but a National financial policy cannot be conducted on any such basis without a smash-up.

Few Republicans have any love for the man who changes his politics for the purpose of retaining or getting office. The action of Postmaster General Bissell in notifying S. J. Watt, postmaster at Columbus, Georgia, who was originally appointed as a Democrat by Mr. Cleveland during his first administration, re-appointed four years ago by Gen. Harrison as a Republican, and is now here seeking another re-appointment as a Democrat, that he would be removed as soon as his successor was selected, gives general satisfaction.

The much talked about decision of Judge Ricks, at Toledo, Ohio, will this week be brought before the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus for the release of engineer Lennon, who was sentenced to prison thereunder. The labor organization will be represented by E. W. Harper, of Indiana, and ex-Congressman Hurd, of Ohio.

Christopher Columbus is on top this week. His distinguished descendant, the Duke of Veragua, is at present in Washington, the guest of the Nation. He was given a State reception at the White House to-day, and on Wednesday he and his party will accompany Mr. Cleveland and the cabinet to New York and take part in the official ceremonies attending the closing of the International Naval Review in New York harbor. The Duke is delighted with his reception by the American people, and he anticipates much pleasure in attending the Columbian Exhibition.

Mrs. Gen. Grant, now in Washington, it is said to remain permanently, paid Mrs. Cleveland a social visit Saturday, at the White House, and enjoyed renewing her acquaintance with the scenes amid which she spent eight happy years. Mrs. Cleveland paid her marked attention; she has been her personal friend and admirer for some years.

The proposition to put the ushers at the White House in livery has been so severely criticized that it may not be carried out, although it was at first announced that it had been fully determined upon. Americans are not fond of wearing liveries.

HARRY.

We have been asked why we use the word Sunday, instead of the more common Sunday. Many Christian people have for ages objected to the latter word, because adopted from the heathen worshippers of the sun; some call it the "Lord's Day," others "First Day," a few, the "Sabbath," but none of these seem entirely satisfactory. As the day is intended to commemorate the resurrection of the Son of God, it seems very appropriate and suggestive to use the term Sunday, and the idea is growing in favor.

Last year the United States sold to Britain and her colonies $1,500,000 worth of furniture, about $270,000 of which went to Canada.

The South is wisely discussing "less cotton and more grain," as Dakota will soon be discussing less wheat and more beet. Not one crop only, but variety and change of crops is best both for land and purse.

There is a "quarter-back" in football, but with that exception there is no quarter given in the game.

PAINT! PAINT!
—THE—HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon,
or three pints for a half gallon;
nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammonton paint,
you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.

And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent paint, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at Hammonton Paint Works.

The love of flowers is supposed to excite a refining influence; but in one case it does not operate that way,—it causes covetousness. Some one stole a lot of hyacinths from H. E. Andrews' garden, and on Thursday night took a beautiful begonia from D. M. Ballard's front yard.

vention, on Wednesday:

charge of St. Mark's Church for the last three months, will preach his last sermon to-morrow, Mr. A. has made many strong friends here, and has done the church great good. His sermons are extemporaneous, and of a missionary character. He belongs to that school of thought in the Church which believes in preaching the whole unadulterated Gospel, and Church teaching in its Catholic interpretation. As a preacher, he is far above the average, and those who have had the privilege of hearing him ought to be spiritually benefitted. Rev. Allen C. Prescott, the new Rector, will take charge of the parish on Sunday, May 7th.

"Strikes," says the Iron Age "took place centuries ago, and with about as disastrous results as characterize the majority of the great labor struggles of the present day." At Breslau, Germany, in the year 1390, brass workers inaugurated a strike which lasted for an entire year. In 1385 a strike of blacksmiths took place in Danzig, when the employers sought aid of the court, with the result that an order was issued by the municipal authorities that all workmen attempting to strike, would have their ears cut off.') their action is not direct.

Compound Oxygen is taken into the lungs, and there-

into the blood.

THE Compound Oxygen, being composed of the elements of the air, and acting upon the blood, is not open to this
