

[BY AUTHORITY.] LAWS OF NEW JERSEY

CHAPTER XL

A further supplement to the act entitled "An act concerning witnesses," approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter upon the trial of any indictment, allegation, or accusation of any person charged with crime, the person indicted or accused shall be admitted to testify as a witness upon such trials, if he shall offer himself as a witness therein in his own behalf.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 15, 1871.

CHAPTER XLI

A further supplement to an act entitled "An act respecting apprentices and servants."

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter the binding by indenture mentioned in the first section of the act to which this is a further supplement, shall not be lawful without the consent of the mother, if living, to such indenture, signing and sealing the same.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 15, 1871.

CHAPTER XLVII

A supplement to an act entitled "An act respecting the Orphans Court, and the power and authority of Surrogates," approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the surrogates of the several counties of this State for the time being, shall be and they are hereby authorized to sign all entries of records and all papers on file in their respective offices, either as surrogate or clerk of the orphans court, at a time when the signatures of the parties to be entered of record or placed on file in their said offices, respectively, and such signatures being of the date of the signing thereof, so signed by the said surrogate or clerk now in office, or that may hereafter be in office, though not in office at the time when the signatures to the entries of record and filing of the papers should have been made, shall be as good and effectual in law as if the same had been signed by the surrogate or clerk of said orphans court in each county, at the time the said entries of record and papers filed should have been signed.

2. And be it enacted, That all accounts of executors, administrators, guardians and trustees, and partitions, requests, renunciations and releases required by law to be made by parties legally appointed or entitled by law to act as executors, administrators, guardians and trustees, that have heretofore been made and rendered, (if desired by the party in interest) or that shall hereafter be made and rendered, shall forthwith be recorded by the surrogate of any county in this State in which said accounts shall be filed, in suitable books to be procured by him for such purposes, for which he shall be entitled to receive twelve cents per folio, and the record thereof, or a duly certified copy of the same, shall be received as evidence in all courts of record in this State.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 21, 1871.

CHAPTER XLVIII

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning Divorces."

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the court of chancery may, on application of either party, in a suit for divorce, make such order concerning the care and custody of the minor children of the parties, during the pendency of the suit, as shall be deemed expedient and for the benefit of the children.

2. And be it enacted, That upon a decree of nullity or divorce, the court may make such further decree or order as may be deemed expedient concerning the care, custody and maintenance of the minor children of the parties, and determine with which of the parents the children, or any of them, shall remain; and also, from time to time, afterwards, on the petition of either of the parents, revise and alter such decree or order, and make a new decree or order, as the circumstances of the parents, and the benefit of the children shall require.

3. And be it enacted, That after a divorce decreed in any other State or country, if minor children of the marriage are inhabitants of this State, the court of chancery, on the petition of either parent, or of a next friend in behalf of the children, such notice being given to both parents as the court shall direct, may make such decree concerning their care, custody and maintenance as may be deemed expedient and for the benefit of the children.

4. And be it enacted, That when the court of chancery has jurisdiction over the custody and maintenance of the minor children of the parents divorced separately or living separately, and such children are natives of this State, or have resided five years within its limits, they shall not be removed out of its jurisdiction against their own consent, if of suitable age to signify the same, nor while under that age without the consent of both parents, unless the court, upon cause shown, shall otherwise order; the court upon application of any person in behalf of such minors, may require such security and issue such writs and processes as shall be deemed proper to effect the purposes of this and the preceding sections.

5. And be it enacted, That when the parents of minor children live separately, the court of chancery, upon petition of either parent, shall have the same power to make decrees or orders concerning their care, custody, education and maintenance as concerning children whose parents are divorced.

6. And be it enacted, That in making an order or decree relative to the custody of the children pending a controversy between their parents, or in regard to their final possession, the rights of both parents, in the absence of misconduct, shall be held to be equal; and the happiness and welfare of the children shall determine the custody of possession.

7. And be it enacted, That the said court may make the necessary orders and decrees, from time to time, in relation to such custody or possession.

8. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of the parent to whom the care and custody of the minor children shall be awarded by the court of chancery, on account of the misconduct or incapacity of the other parent, or when the parents are living separately, in case of death of the parent in whose custody the children actually are, no award as to the custody of such children having been made, the care and custody of such minor children shall not revert to the surviving parent, without a decree of said court to that effect, and the said court shall have the right, upon petition of a next friend on behalf of the children, to appoint such friends or other suitable person, guardian of such minor children, and shall have the right to remove such guardian, and to appoint a new guardian or guardians, and to make such orders, from time to time as the circumstances of the case and benefit of the children shall require.

9. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed; and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 21, 1871.
