BY MRS. A. V. MUNCIE.

If mankind were only conscious of the worth of little things; If they knew the untold anguish, That unkindness often brings; They would not oppress each other, Crushing out life's sweetest gift; They would not tread down a brother Whom their kindness best could lift.

If it were not for deception, When the heart is full of guile; If the faces that we look on Wore no outward mask of smiles; Then, indeed, would Christian virtues, In our very midst have sway; And sincerity and honor, Be the aim of every day.

If religion were not meted, Like a farce, upon the stage; If men sought for inspiration From the scripture's holy page; How their hearts would warm within them, Burning with a sacred fire, Doing good to all around them, Until hidden, came up higher.

If the world had less of pleasure, Less of selfishness and greed; More of earnest, honest labor, Less of preaching idle creed; Love would spring up, all ambition, Peace and order reign supreme; And the hoped and wished millennium Would not be an idle dream.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3, 1880.

There is much talk here among the Democrats as to an adjournment by the first of June. Republicans are very glad to see this spirit exhibited by the Democrats. But they have dallied along and kept putting aside the more important matters, until it is now hardly possible that an adjournment can be had by the first of June, even with the assured hearty cooperation of Republicans. The Democrats begin now to realize how the country looks upon their course this winter. The Republicans have been anxious to hurry business along all winter, and the Democrats have only delayed in sorry hopes of being able to catch the Republicans in some political trap. But it is evident that the Democrats are in their blunder and will to the end of the session, do all they can to undo it. They may depend upon Republicans to help along the welcome "business boom." Let us look for a moment at the condition and advancement of the important measures that must be attended to at this session. The legislative, executive and judicial, sundry civil, post office and regular delivery bills, are not yet reported. In fact they are not even drafted, though the House Committee on appropriations has done some work towards preparing them. The military and navy bill is in the hands of Conference Committee. The Consular and Diplomatic and the Indian bills are pending before the House with 50 amendments. The River and Harbor bill is completed, but not reported to even the full committee. To sum it up, I may say that so very little progress has been made, that the real and hardest work of the session has yet to be done. Let us for a moment see what has been done. The ones named are the Army, Navy, Postoffice, and Fortification bills. To do this has taken five months. Now the question is, can the Democrats in a month do more than has been done in five months? They say they can if the Republicans will help; the Republicans have signified their willingness to hurry up, and now we shall wait and see how where the Democrats are in their professions of reform in legislation.

Major General Heintzelman died here on Saturday. He has been a resident of Washington for some years. He will be remembered as one of the leading Union generals during the war and has spent his whole life in the service of the United States.

The President has appointed Orange Ferris, formerly of the Southern Claims Commission, to be Second Auditor in place of Ezra B. French, who died here last week.

The Presidential election at this time finds many persons doubting the accuracy. Blaine claims on the first ballot 333, Grant 417, Sherman 238, total 988 votes. But there are only 750 in the full convention. It is not known where the other votes are, and folks say they exist only on paper.

MAXWELL.

The thousand mile coupon tickets of the West Jersey Railroad are immensely popular, with the traveling public of South Jersey.

We have received a number of books from the Smithsonian Institution, embracing a variety of scientific studies, including the scientific writings of James Smithson. "Remains of the Later Prehistoric Man obtained from caves in the California Archipelago, Alaska Territory," and the "Caves of the Alaskan Islands," "Color-Indicators in its relations to Accidents by Rail and Sea," "History and Climate of New Mexico," "Archaeological Collection of the National Museum, in charge of the Smithsonian Institution," and many other very valuable works, for which Mr. Brown, (colored) was in charge of the mailing department, has our very sincere thanks, and to whom we are under obligations for kindness and attention while visiting the Institute while in Washington.

State Items.

Princeton College is to have a new telescope, at a cost of $25,000.

Salmon packs one-tenth of all the tomatoes that are raised in the United States. Last year there were put up in the United States 19,998,000 casks of tomatoes, 5,992,000 coming from this State alone. Of the whole amount, the two packers in Salem city earned 2,700,000 cans, or about one-tenth of the whole number.

Potomac brewers pay the Government $100,000 of beer tax annually; the 540 licensed saloons in the city pay $10,000 more to the Government and $21,000 to the city every year, and the 50,000 inhabitants absorb 100,000 barrels of beer yearly, or at the rate of two barrels for every man, woman and child in the place, and spend a round million dollars for their favorite beverage yearly, being twice the amount of the annual city tax levy.

Since 1853 thirty capital cases have been brought before the New Jersey Court of Pardons, in twenty of which the Court refused to interfere with the sentence. In one case where sentence was commuted, that of Louis Waldenberger, of Atlantic County, grave doubt of his guilt influenced the Court to commute to life imprisonment. He served fifteen years, and was then pardoned, the confession of the real murderer showing him to be innocent.

General News.

Forty national banks, with capital of $5,312,070, have organized since Nov. 1, 1879.

Jay Gould has made 11,000,000 the past year gambling in stocks.

Chinese soldiers get three cents a day, yet they are called mercenaries.

The 3,000 brick yard hands at Haverstraw, N. Y., are on "strike," and threaten trouble.

All Jews of foreign birth have been ordered to quit St. Petersburg on pain of death.

The Canadian railways received over $10,000,000 last year for transporting American products.

Vanderbilt's new house will have a gallery to hold the pictures for which he has already paid $673,400.

Secretary Everts believes that the young ladies of a family should be taught to do household work.

Lincoln once said that thirty days in Washington spoiled a man's opinion about public affairs.

P. H. Gully, murderer of Judge Chisholm, has been appointed Census Supervisor of Kent county, Maryland.

The house built by the late Wm. Penn. in Philadelphia, 200 years ago this summer, is occupied as a beer saloon.

Within the past fifty years 200,000 miles of railroad have been built in the world, at a cost of $15,000,000,000.

A Washington paper gives that city credit for 5,000 confined colored criminals, and 15,000 confined colored paupers.

The President has appointed Postmaster General Key to a life position as District Judge of Tennessee.

Major General Heintzelman, better known in the army as "Pap" Heintzelman, died in New York on Saturday, aged 75 years.

The valuation of the real estate of Maine is $222,338,824, not including the wild lands, estimated to be worth some $5,100,000 more.

Wm. H. Vanderbilt, having put away for a rainy day some fifty millions in Government bonds, has sailed for Europe, to be gone six months.

The murderer Killoch is 28 years old, and has been his father's assistant as pastor of the Tabernacle in San Francisco. He stands a good chance of being hung.

Mr. Gough says that when he told 8,000 people in Exeter Hall of Mrs. Hayes' great moral courage in refusing to offer wine to her guests at the White House, they instantly gave three cheers.

Col. Thomas A. Scott resigned the Presidency of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on Saturday last on account of ill-health. Vice President Geo. B. Roberts has been chosen as his successor.

Mayor Killoch goes attended by a body-guard to secure him against assassination. The protection of San Francisco's Mayor and that of Russia's Czar differs in that the former is guarded by, and the latter against, Socialists.

It has cost Senator Voorhees' Exposed Committee $40,000 to find out that about 700 colored people have gone from the South to Indiana and about 3,000 to Kansas; and that they went to hope to obtain civil and political rights, and decent wages honestly paid; or as one of the negroes put it, "to live in God's country." And that's the way the money goes—the public money.

The Trifid Army corps reunion will be held at Cape May on the first week in July.

The only development of interest in the Whittaker case at West Point during the week was the declaration of an expert at comparing handwriting, that he had found out who wrote the warning note received by the colored cadet. The name was withheld. Other experts will report. Ryan, the Highland Falls saloon-keeper, was arrested for perjury. At Washington the matter was further discussed in connection with an amendment providing for the appointment to West Point of two colored cadets each year. Gen. Purcell, a graduate of the Post, and its warm defender, favored this, saying that an institution under direct control of Congress must not be allowed to keep alive prejudices against the colored race. Gen. Schufeldt will probably be removed when the present investigation closes.

Orphan's Court Business.

The final accounts were examined and allowed by the Court: Richard G. Somers and Charles E. Somers, exec's of Henry Somers, dec'd; Hester Adams and Henry Adams, exec's of Felix Adams, dec'd; William Lake, exec's of Davis Garwood, dec'd; also the partial account of Charles Granger and William Behne, exec's of Josephine Brucker, dec'd. Atkinson, adm'r of Benjamin Hland, dec'd. Six months rule granted to Samuel V. Adams, adm'r of Ricky Adams, dec'd. Rule to show cause against William Sander, and Mary Culligan. Further time extended to Wesley Robinson, Assignee of George W. Sherman. The account of J. W. Biddle and J. W. Lippincott, exec's of Benjamin Phillips, laid over until the next term, also the account of John H. Lake, adm'r of Charles L. King, dec'd.

State Convention.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman of the State Executive Committee, Hon. Fred A. Potts. Prayer was offered by Rev. Thos. Hamilton. Wm. A. Stiles, of Sussex, was made temporary Chairman, and on taking his position, addressed the Convention in a brief but stirring speech. John Y. Foster and C. A. Cooper were made temporary Secretaries.

The preliminary business of the Convention was then attended to, as appointing the Committees etc. Atlantic County was represented in Committees by the following delegates: Permanent Organization, I. G. Adams; Credentials, J. E. Abbott; Rules, Hon. J. J. Gardner; Resolutions, Dr. H. E. Bowles. It was decided to present names for delegates at large, before adjourning for dinner, and the names of Sewell, Halsey, Dudley, Pangborn, Grey, Kilpatrick, Phelps and Newell were presented. It was also resolved that all resolutions should be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions before acting on them. An adjournment was ordered until 2:30.

On re-convening the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization was received and adopted, recommending Hon. Thos. H. Dudley, of Camden, as Chairman, and a Vice President, from each delegation, John L. Bryant, being selected from Atlantic delegation.

On taking the Chair, Mr. Dudley made an earnest, patriotic, effective speech, and was greeted with great applause. The reports of the Committees were made, and the work of the Committee begun, with an amount of enthusiasm seldom seen on a similar occasion. The choice of the Convention for Senatorial delegates to the Chicago Convention being Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, Hon. Geo. A. Halsey, Hon. W. J. Sewell and Hon. Wm. Walter Phelps, all from the upper part of the State but Gen. Sewell. The Alternates were Z. K. Pangborn, Charles M. Hebert, Garrett A. Hobart and John I. Blair, all from the upper part of the State.

The delegates from the 2nd district are Gen. Schultz, from Ocean, Gen. Erick, from Burlington. Hon. J. J. Gardner, of Atlantic City, is one of the alternates. The delegates were not instructed. Several resolutions were introduced, showing the preference for Senator Blaine, but the Committee thought it best to have nothing expressed or implied, appointing towards instructing delegates, and they were laid on the table. But in the speeches made by Gen. Kilpatrick and Mr. Phelps, when the name of Blaine was mentioned, it created a storm of enthusiasm; the whole mass as one body, nearly rose to their feet and swung hats, handkerchiefs, and rent the air with cheer on cheer. The names of Grant and Sherman were also loudly applauded, but did not enthrall the Convention like that of Blaine, surely indicating the feelings and preferences for the orator, statesman, and great leader, James G. Blaine.

When Atlantic county was called, being first on the list, the Chairman of the delegation, Dr. T. F. Waters, announced the vote for delegates at large, which was received with applause, as showing its preference for James G. Blaine, solid. The Convention was harmonious and orderly, as Republican conventions generally are. The selections are considered good ones, and a general good feeling prevailed throughout and at the close of the Convention. The delegates are solid for Blaine, but will support any good man, if Blaine cannot be nominated. This is as it should be.

Hon. Martin I. Townsend, who is representing the Government at West Point in the Whittaker case, has evidently some idea of humor. In an address to a Bible class in a church at Troy, last Sunday, he remarked that there was a wonderful uniformity in the conduct of Christians of all ages. There was no hesitation on their part in getting into a chariot with an Ethiopian when they were travelling on foot, but history contains very few instances of their inviting the Ethiopian to ride with them when they were in the chariot and the Ethiopian travelling on foot. He said he was more strongly than ever imbued with his full force and aptness from the nature of his employment during the last two weeks at West Point.

That this is the aim of the Penn. R. R. Company is evident in all their movements, and we can see no remedy but for the people in Atlantic City, Philadelphia, and along the C. & A. Road, to unite in a firm and substantial combination for the support of this pioneer road. It has stood the brunt of the battle in making Atlantic City what it is, and in opening up the country through which it passes, and for the last eight years no railroad corporation has been more liberal, or striven harder to accommodate the people. The results have been spoken of as sure and inevitable, with but this one remedy, to rally around the "Old Reliable," and sustain it.

The following were the delegates from Atlantic County to the State Convention: Atlantic City, Hon. J. J. Gardner and John L. Bryant; Absecon, Dr. T. F. Waters; Buena Vista, Field; Egg Harbor Township, I. G. Adams; Egg Harbor City, A. Stephens; Galloway, S. V. Adams; Hamilton, J. E. P. Abbott; Hammonton, Dr. H. E. Bowles; Mullica, A. W. Irving; Weymouth not represented.

To this Complexion will it Come at Last?

While some people of Atlantic City, and towns along the C. & A. R. R., laid the "flattering unction" to their souls that the building of the Narrow Gauge road would rid them of many ills, in the shape of fares and freights, they did not dream of the web that was being woven around them, which would sooner or later bring them into its meshes. But they certainly ought to see it now, though they probably will not until they are as completely caught, as was the lion in the fable. They set to work to kill the goose that had laid their golden eggs, and should they succeed, the result will be disastrous to them and all parties concerned.

That the fares and freights have been reduced since the advent of the Narrow Gauge is an unquestionable fact and we do not dispute it; but now the question arises with us, what will be the ultimate result of these railroads to the traveling public of South Jersey? It appears to us in carefully looking over the matter that all this figuring and scheming by railroad companies has a tendency to end—and that before many years—in one grand monopoly. The second road to Atlantic City has produced a third which will soon be completed, built in the best manner, and will be equipped with the best rolling stock to be had. Then the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will have railroad facilities unequalled in South Jersey, and will control the traffic to one of the oldest seaside resorts, Cape May, with equal facilities with the other roads for Atlantic City. To increase their facilities for transportation to these two places, and to cut off a strong rival, they purchased the Vineland Railroad, extending from Atsion to Bay-side, thus giving control of all South Jersey south of the C. & A. Road. Now, to still further complete the web they are weaving, they will run a road from Atsion to Pemberton, when they will have a shorter direct rail route from New York City than their rival, both to Cape May and Atlantic City, for then the Central of New Jersey must abandon their plans of getting to Atlantic at all, or build a branch from Atsion to Hammonton, or take the circuitous route to Atsion, 20 or 24 miles out of the way, which passengers would soon object to. The plans thus accomplished by the P. R. R. Company puts them in position to crush out their rivals, or swallow them up, and then they will have everything their own way, and put prices at their own figures, and monopolize all South Jersey, and nearly all the rest of the State.

That this is the aim of the Penn. R. R. Company is evident in all their movements, and we can see no remedy but for the people in Atlantic City, Philadelphia, and along the C. & A. Road, to unite in a firm and substantial combination for the support of this pioneer road. It has stood the brunt of the battle in making Atlantic City what it is, and in opening up the country through which it passes, and for the last eight years no railroad corporation has been more liberal, or striven harder to accommodate the people. The results have been spoken of as sure and inevitable, with but this one remedy, to rally around the "Old Reliable," and sustain it.

The following were the delegates from Atlantic County to the State Convention:

Atlantic City, Hon. J. J. Gardner and John L. Bryant; Absecon, Dr. T. F. Waters; Buena Vista, Field; Egg Harbor Township, I. G. Adams; Egg Harbor City, A. Stephens; Galloway, S. V. Adams; Hamilton, J. E. P. Abbott; Hammonton, Dr. H. E. Bowles; Mullica, A. W. Irving; Weymouth not represented.

Vice President Wheeler declines to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the lower House of Congress from the standard St. Lawrence district. The reason for nominating him, and of course electing him, would be to make him the next Speaker of the House, in the event of a Republican majority in that body. The reasons for Mr. Wheeler's declination are unselfish. He was for ten years a member of the House from that district, and was always nominated by acclamation, no competitor presenting himself. The Republican majority there is about 8,000. After those ten years of distinguished service, he serves four years as Vice President and he says that there are a dozen other men who deserve promotion. And then again there is every chance that he may be chosen Senator from New York, in place of Mr. Kernan.

The Editorial Trip.

It has been decided by the Executive Committee of the New Jersey Editorial Association to make the White Mountains the objective point of the annual excursion. The committee are soon to go over the route and make the arrangements for the trip, which will probably be one of the most enjoyable ever projected for the editorial fraternity of this State. The excursion will be arranged to start from New-York on the afternoon of Monday, June 28th, by one of the steamers of the Norwich line, arriving in New-England, Ct., early on the following morning; the party immediately taking the cars for Worcester, Mass., where they will take breakfast. The next stopping place will be North Conway, N. H., for dinner, after which the train will enter the famous Notch of the White Mountains, through which it will go slowly to afford an opportunity to take in the grandeur of the scenery. The party will arrive at the Fayman House at five p. m., where they will stop until Friday noon. The time of the stay will be occupied in sight seeing, little excursions and the usual diversity of amusements which, from the location, cannot help proving of unusual interest. Leaving the party will return by a different route, around the other side of the mountains, and it will be so arranged that they will arrive in New-York on Saturday morning, July 3rd, thus affording ample time to reach home before Sunday.

The Democratic Congress seems to be determined to either carry their point of forcing general legislation on appropriation bills, or refuse to grant the money for paying the U. S. Marshals what is justly and honestly their due. Evidence is steadily rolling in to show that there is nothing too mean, little or base to be beneath the rebel Congress, now in session, if there appears to be a chance to make a point for their party, even by crawling around honor and right to do it. No Democrat can claim that this $600,000 in question is not justly and honestly due the Marshals for actual services performed for the Government, under the existing laws. No one denies that. Then why do they all act like dishonest knaves in refusing them their pay for work done, just because they cannot coerce the President into approving their nefarious schemes? We claim that Congressmen who aid in this swindle are just as palpably dishonest as any man would be who refused to pay another for work done for him, because it is in their power to do it and they represent the Government which furnishes the money and the service—yes more dishonest, for that refers to national matters and sets a public example; whereas, the other is only a private trade. Swindling is swindling, whether it is in the Capitol at Washington, or in a humble village, and if Congress refuses to vote the money to pay up the Marshals, every Congressman concerned in it is no better than a low swindler.

The President, on Tuesday, returned to the House of Representatives, with his veto, the bill entitled "An act making appropriations to supply certain deficiencies in the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes." After stating how much the appropriations are needed for the paying up of obligations long since due, he affirmed that the bill would have met his prompt approval but for the general legislation attached. His objections to the bill are clearly expressed as follows:

"The objection to the bill, therefore, to which I respectfully ask your attention is, that it gives a marked and deliberate sanction, attended by the circumstances of pressing necessity, to the questionable and, as I am clearly of opinion, the dangerous, practice of tacking upon appropriation bills general and permanent legislation. This practice opens a wide door to hasty, inconsiderate and unwise legislation. It invites attacks upon the independence and constitutional powers of the Executive by providing an easy and effective way of constraining Executive discretion." In conclusion he says: "Placing my objection to the bill on this feature of its frame, I forbear any comment upon the imports, general and permanent legislation which it contains as matter for specific and independent legislation."

"When shall we meet again?" Myself, Calumet and Vapour of Prof. Paine.

The employees in the Review office are having a hard time. One has a fever, another has caught the mumps and the "devil" has been laid up with the spring fever.

O. E. Moore reports that he is already his hands full of business in the poultry line, a circumstance that never happened to him before at so early a date.

The Camden Courier comes in this work much enriched and improved. Evidently there is a new power at the helm.

The line new ferry boat "Atlantic" recently built for the C. & A. R. R. Co. made its trial trip on Thursday. We return thanks for an invitation received to form one of the party on board.

The Shackamaxon ferry having been purchased by the Camden & Atlantic Railroad Company, the boat will hereafter run from Shackamaxon St. to the ferry of that company.

Mr. Isaac Holmes and family moved to Camden during the week, where they will reside for the convenience of the children engaged in making shoes there, and also because he can do better himself there than here.

We notice with pleasure the trimming of those shade trees in front of the Horton place, on Bellevue ave. It would be a good thing if the hint would be taken and the same kind of improvement made in many other places on the same avenue.

The Board of Freeholders will meet in the Court House, May 10th, 1880. The new Board will organize on the day following. Both meetings will be for general business.

Stokes, the murderer of Jim Fisk, and Mr. Fisk were both in Atlantic City last week and both unconsciously occupied the same hotel. This is mentioned by the Jersey man of the strange coincidences that frequently occur in life.

Mr. S. A. Gould and Mr. Wm. Atkinson, with their families, returned from Kansas on Tuesday night. It is understood that they have returned to stay. The prevailing sentiment seems to be that Hamilton is not the worst place in the world to live in after all.

Mr. George M. Fisk, whom most Hammontonians will remember as having formerly been the clergyman in charge of the Episcopal church of this place, has recently been appointed 1st Assistant in St. Mark's church, Philadelphia.

The C. & A. R. R. now has two new and powerful locomotives named the "Robert Porter" and "Chas. D. Freeman," and numbered respectively 16 and 18. Thus the march of progress and improvement on the road will still go on.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Park Association, some time ago, it was decided to invite the school teachers to have some entertainment in Park Hall, at the end of this present term. Insurance.

CUMBERLAND MUTUAL

Fire Insurance Comp ny.

BRIDGTON, N. J.

Conducted on strictly mutual principles, offering a perfectly safe insurance for just what it may cost to pay losses and expenses. The proportion of loss to the amount insured being very small, and expenses much less than usually had, nothing can be offered more favorable to the insured. The cost being about ten cents on the hundred dollars per year to the insured on ordinary risks, and from fifteen to twenty-five cents per year on hazardous properties, which is less than one third of the lowest rates charged by stock companies, on such risks—the other two-thirds taken by stock companies being a profit serving to stockholders, or consumed in expenses of the companies.

The guarantee fund of premium notes being now Three Millions of Dollars.

If an assessment had to be made of five per cent. only, twice within the ten years for which the policy is issued, it would not be cheaper to the members than any other insurance offered. And that large amount of money is saved to the members and kept at home, being now more than thirty years, that saving would amount to more than the cost of the policy.

One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars

The Losses by Lightning.

Where the property is not set on fire, being less than one cent per hundred, and even when set on fire without extra charge, and extended to cover all policies that are issued and outstanding.
