Miss Maud Leonard is at home for a month's vacation.

Miss Laura Jones, of Collingswood, is visiting her sister.

Leslie Speyes was home a couple of days from Stone Harbor.

Board of Health meeting next Tuesday evening. Some important business.

Mrs. James W. Craig is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Crowell.

The choir will sing only old-fashioned hymns at the union service, to-morrow evening.

Mrs. Jos. B. MacDougall and her infant son, of Atco, were visitors here for a day, this week.

The Poultry Association has put up a showy sign in front of their store, on Central Avenue.

Mrs. Frank Werner and little son are visiting relatives in Philadelphia for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Smith and family, who are living in O'Donnell's house, on Bellevue, will move, to Pitman, next week.

Sunday and Monday were hot days, but a cool wave banished the heat, later, and made one think of March weather.

The Directors of the Needlework Guild have accepted an invitation to attend Mother's Day services to-morrow evening.

John Hey returned home Tuesday, from a visit in the old country, England. He thinks there's no place like the States.

There will be the usual preaching services at Universalist Church to-morrow, at 11.00 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday School at noon.

Mrs. Bertha Wright has leased the O'Donnell cottage, next to the "Bellevue," and will conduct it as an annex to her popular boarding-house.

Wm. Warburton is now local agent for the Adams Express Co. Wes. Vaughn and Chas. Peguesse have accepted positions as train messengers.

Have you seen Dr. Waas' new six cylinder car? It is a beauty,—an "Inter-State." W. S. Turner is the agent.

Red Cross Pharmacy will now be known by its color—red. That and the grocery next door present quite a sentimental combination,—red, yellow and green.

The Italian Beneficial Society held a meeting on Sunday, and have their July 16th celebration well in hand. They expect to have a bigger time than ever.

Contractor Spear is making good progress with new curbs and walks on Central Avenue, which will soon be completed. Third Street will be the next beneficiary.

Members of the P. O. S. of A. are requested to meet at 7 o'clock to-morrow evening, at the Camp Room, to attend Mother's Day services at the Presbyterian Church.

A lease was to be signed yesterday for the Fruit Growers' Union building, by a shirt manufacturer, who proposes to install fifty sewing machines and begin work at once.

Presbyterian Church. Morning worship at 10.30; theme, "Your life; is it God planned?" Bible study in the Sabbath School at noon. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6.45 p. m., led by the pastor; topic, "Love not the world." At evening worship, 7.45, a union Mother's Day service, to which all are invited. Thursday evening at 7.30, prayer meeting.

Council's License Committee met as advertised, on Wednesday evening, to consider the nine applications for "inn and tavern" and bottles licenses, and hear remonstrances and recommendations. For each application there was a written protest, with over a dozen signatures, stating that it was not a necessity, and claiming the illegality of same because nearly every signer had appeared on a previous application, within twelve months. After questions, answers and remarks, Committee voted to refer the matter to a special meeting of Town Council.

Hammonton Grange members are invited to attend Mothers' Day services on Sunday (to-morrow) eve. at 7.45, in the Presbyterian Church. Kindly meet in the Sunday School Room at 7.30. Sec'y.

Reserved seats may be secured at Palace Theatre box office for the P. O. S. of A. vaudeville benefit, to be given Tuesday evening, May 20th. The proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the firing squad.

Hammonton's base-bal season will really open next Saturday, though a practice game will be played this afternoon with Winslow nine. Season tickets ($3) will admit to this game. See next week's Republican for line-up, etc.

Chicken thieves are making raids on poultry yards beyond the railroad,—many valuable fowls having been taken. Some of the owners are now sleeping with one eye open, and a finger on the trigger of a shotgun.

Townpeople, take notice! On Saturday afternoon and evening, May 24th, in Bellevue Hall, the Civic Club will hold a sale of useful articles, candy, and cakes. In the evening, a small admission fee will be charged for a comedy sketch and musical entertainment.

A CARD.—To those who were so kind and Christlike in thoughtful deeds and words, to our sister, and the many expressions of sympathy since her departure, we tender our sincere thanks.

JOHN W. BUTTERTON.
JAMES Y. BUTTERTON.
BRUCE A. BUTTERTON.

There will be no preaching service in the evening, on account of union service in the Presbyterian Church, at 7.45, in commemoration of Mother's Day. All are cordially invited.

District No. 14 of the P. O. S. of A., of which Atlantic City and Hammonton are a part, received a prize for their splendid showing in the parade of last Saturday evening, in Camden. It was a very enjoyable occasion. Camden's police and citizens did all they could to make things pleasant. There were eleven bands in the two-mile line.

Arrangements for Memorial Day observance are well in hand, under control of the P. O. S. of A. Natural causes have reduced the Grand Army Post to a mere handful of men, and they have no longer the vigor of youth; hence they gratefully pass on to a younger generation the solemn duties of Memorial Day,—taking such parts as may be assigned them.

Harvey R. King, while not posing as a detective, acted the part on Tuesday, tracking a pair of young fellows who had stolen a motorcycle, overtaking them up near Merchantville. They confessed, and came back with Harvey. As the owner refused to prosecute, the boys paid all the expenses and skipped.

DEAR EDITORS: My name may appear in connection with the remonstrances against recognizing duplicated signatures on the applications for renewals of licenses for the incoming year.

May I say that I take my position in these instances from two conclusions:

First, I believe that to grant these licenses, one of which gives but two new names, is contrary to the intent of the law.

Again, referring to a fact, we all know the saloons are here only "because once on a time a majority voted them in." This being true, the majority does not now desire them. Why? The inability to secure new signers proves this conclusively.

Truly, the repetition of the use of the same names shows beyond a doubt, to any thinking man, that the saloons are staying in Hammonton not as the wish of the majority, but because desired by a very limited number. In other words, they have become simply licensed clubs, authorized and run for the individual needs of certain small groups, who alone ask the Council for their continuance.

WALLACE S. MARPLE.

MR. EDITOR: I have read with much interest your articles and protestations in regard to children no longer being allowed to roller-skate on the sidewalks. I am surprised at you, Mr. Editor. I thought a broad-minded man like you had better sense than that. Don't you realize the fact that nowadays it is fortunate to get across the streets without being picked up by an auto, driving at break-neck (the pedestrian's neck) speed? Well, right here you will admit we must try and keep the children off the sidewalks and drive them into the streets, so that they may learn to dodge the autos, and thereby make good active youngsters of them, and provide for their future safety. And another resolution which I think would be a wise one to advocate, would be to prohibit baby-carriages and pedestrians (not having rubber heels on their shoes) to use School Park sidewalks (being a private park?) as these uses are rather unreasonable wear on sidewalks! Let our Hammonton motto be "always in the lead."

MR. M. T. HURD.

DeWitt Morris, a former Hammonton boy, was in town last week Friday. He looks well and prosperous.

Of Interest to Women

WE'RE A BUSY BIRD.

We make things! And we send them forth. Every second twenty yards of cloth go out.

A locomotive rushes forth every two hours and forty minutes. Philadelphia puts stockings on people at the rate of 1,000 pairs every 45 seconds.

Should a world procession pass through the city, it would take three months to visit her 250,000 dwellings. It is estimated that three minutes at each.

Moreover, the "slow" Quaker City trolley cars—according to Edwin J. Cattell, municipal statistician—travel over 250,000 miles every day.

TOUCHES OF COLOR.

Don't have too much. But some is necessary. Color with bright white ribs.

Labels of hidden gems are upon one wall. Buttons of Bulgarian embroidery are on the other.

A smart way to introduce color is in the bayside ash.

One chamber contents herself with a hot bath and stockings.

Not a few are fain to get along with a bit of color introduced into their meekness.

DIRECTOR'S INFLUENCES.

They are plentiful. There are long coats-tails. Directors' collars are modish.

Neck and sleeve are Directors' style. Great skirts are altogether about these lines.

The bus-catchers' parasol is Directors' and nothing else.

Rate are in very many instances given a Directors' turn.

ORIENTAL SCARF IS DRAPED ON NEW RIG.

The Eastern scarf in such effect is introduced in most of the new spring models.

In fact, scarcely any gowns are launched at present without this kind of drapery. A moment will show, however, when this fashion may appear too general.

For the moment, these scarfs are the rage.

And a careful observer could detect the signature of a workman establishment merely by the way the folds and color scheme in these Oriental trimmings have been conceived.

A new visiting toilet is in black crepe de chine, with a handsome red silk scarf printed with violet, orange, green and blue arabesque designs.

In order to let the bright red foundation predominate.

The bodice crosses over this polychrome material and is connected to the skirt without a band, and the scarf encircles the figure in a graceful serpentine movement, finishing toward the back in a short silk fringe.

A white Louis XIII collar in gingham has Van Dyck points, and black party on the skirt, party on the black party de chine.

HATS TO-DAY.

Pretty mid-season hats are of silk, brocade and chiffon.

FOR THE COIFFURE.

Barrettes are plain, in the ball of feet, running from one to four layers, some plain, jeweled and inlaid with gold.

LEATHER FAVORITE.

Pin morocco leather is in favor.

PIQUE.

Pique will probably be revived this autumn because ribbed materials are having a vogue, and it is always a charming material for the washing frock.

THE BEST WAY.

A Handful of Little Hints That May Prove Helpful.

TO CLEAN CHAMBERS, OR, "CHAMBER."

Use warm water, soap and a little soda, rubbing the soap well in. Washing in plain water will harden it.

TO MAKE EACH LAYER OF MEAT IN A STEAK PATTY.

Try a tiny sprinkling of sugar over each layer.

TO IMPROVE SCRAMBLED EGGS.

Make the dish go further, add a few soft bread-crumbs to them while cooking.

TO MAKE PERFECTLY ROASTED CHICKEN.

Use a small cake of lard and not lard, but butter and a little egg (whites) until they "crack" above.

TO GIVE AN APPETIZING ADDITION TO A STEAK.

Grated cheese and tomato on the steak.

TO CLEAN HUSBANDS.

Add a tablespoon of lemon juice to a quart of water you use for scrubbing it.

TO REMOVE THE ACIDITY WHICH GARDENING LEAVES ON THE HANDS.

Rub them on the hands thoroughly as you would a soap lather, then wash with warm water and a good soap, rinsing carefully. After drying the hands, pour a few drops of lemon juice and glycerine into the palms of the hands and rub it well into the skin.

THINGS JUST OUT IN "THE LATEST."

The modern man is having a serious flirtation with Dame Fashion, and in the process of capitulation shows many amusing evolutions in his dress.

The smooth trousers, for instance, is split from trouser leg almost to the shoe top on the outside. This seems to be the new "mere man" dare come to an imitation of the split skirt military wear.

Then he has a coat purse on the outside, and a pocket watch chain, which is a top-dress temptation to the needy. Just why a sensible man possesses pockets in almost every available space on his clothes should require a close purse on his head covering escapes my comprehension.

Without it is that the small boy hat-chester on a windy day may help himself to a reward at every turn in the chase. The newest four-in-hand cravat is showing. Cabaret patterns. Lots of colors in men's ties are revealing Bulgarian treatments, and cravats of printed velvet recall the cravats of a local. Beau Brummel who first exploited them.

Suggestions For Housekeepers

Housekeepers who get better in the jar or tub will find that the use of a little charcoal will insure having the butter as white as snow.

WHY HE SHAVES HIMSELF

NE of the historians of the world, Napoleon, said that he shaved himself, saying that he had always done so, as if he could never endure the hands of another man passing over his face.

There is considerable difference between the personal shave of the first Napoleon and that of humble Joseph Timbs, bookseller and stationer, and I don't want to be told that the public have no particular interest in the shaving of a man, who had lived in a town on the coast of the great sea, who had lived in a town on the coast of the great sea, who had lived in a town on the coast of the great sea.
