What possible benefit the writer of magine. No one should expect to raise grain enough on five acres to support a family: even first-class berry crops from a "farm" of that size would hardly government. There is a probability enable a "live" man to live. But no one makes any such claim. These "five acre farms" are advertised as "poultry and fruit farms," and are larger than are occupied by any one of our largest poultrymen, who are raising thousands of brooders this season. For example Mr. Howe's buildings and yards cover less than one-fourth of an acre; Mr Browning's, about the same; Mr. II, M Phillips' possibly half an acre; Mr. G. W. Pressey's (our estimate) one acre. Each of these men appears to be making enough to enable a "live" man to live, and have plenty of space to enlarge the Come and join, then sign the pledge acres for the broiler business would require a capital of more than $25,000, We have a copy of Messrs. most carefully edited, and adapted to the wants and tastes of intelligent readers throughcut the entire country-North, South, East and West. It is a thoroughly clean paper, free from the corrupting, sensational and demoral-Izing trash, miscalled news, which deflies the pages of too many city papers.

OUR POLITICS.

We believe the Republican party to be the true instrument of the POLITICAL PROG-RESS of the American people; and holding that the honest enforcement of its principles is the best guarantee of the national welfare, we shall support them with all our might; but we shall always treat opposing parties with consideration and fair play.

AGAINST THE SALOON.

The MAIL AND EXPRESS is the recognized National organ of the great Anti-Saloon Re-publican movement. It believes that the liquor traffic as it exists to-day in the United States is the enemy of society, a fruitful source of corruption in politics, the ally of anarchy, a school of crime, and, with its avowed purpose of seeking to corruptly control elections and legislation, is a menaco to the public welfare and deserves the condemnaton of all good men.
