Soja or Soy Beans.

The United States Board of Agriculture strongly approves of them.

Farmers' Bulletin, No. 58 says: "They are probably the richest known vegetable substance. There is no crop so easily grown that is so rich as the soy bean."

They stand the extremes of heat, drouth, and wet better than any similar crop, and are unsurpassed as a soil improver.

They are now selling for $1.60 per bushel, here, which is the wholesale price in Philadelphia market.

W. C. T. U.

The ladies have taken this space for one year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

The Atlantic County W. C. T. U.
School of Methods met in their Spring Convention in the M. P. Church at Oceanville, on Thursday, May 2nd, at 10 o'clock a.m. Mrs. M. B. Tilton, County President, in the chair.

Morning devotions, with Mrs. Addie Collins as leader. The pastor, Rev. H.
Hampton, made the opening prayer.
Roll call, responded to by texts of Scripture, was followed by address of welcome by Mrs. Sarah Hampton, responded to by Mrs. A. E. Tyson.

Committees on Resolutions, Credentials, and Courtesy were appointed.
Minutes of the Fall convention and Winter executive meeting were read and approved. The pastor was then introduced, and made a few cheering remarks, welcoming the ladies most cordially. The State motto and new State song, with the pledge, were then given. A paper on Scientific Temperance Instruction was next read by Mrs. A. C. Fleming, which was highly instructive as well as very interesting throughout. Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis followed in a few remarks on the legislative part of the work, of which she is at the head in this country. Dr. Eva Lake also spoke a few words on the same subject, opening a short conference, in which Mrs. Fleming joined in response. Mrs. Gertrude Lake followed with a paper on L. T. L. work, giving statistics of the Legions in this country, and the resolutions adopted at state conference at Woodstown also.
A solo was sung by Mrs. Roche, and morning session closed with noontide prayer, led by Mrs. Ellis, and singing doxology.

Executive and committee meetings at 1:30. Afternoon session at 2 o'clock, led in devotions by Mrs. Weaver, then reading of minutes of the executive, by Secretary. Voted to have our Fall convention at Sea View, in September,—date to be decided later by the County President. Voted to extend heartfelt sympathy to our sisters, Mrs.
F. P. Cheney and Mrs. F. C. Jonness, in their present affliction.

Mrs. Ellis gave a Bible reading, the key-note being "Trust in the Lord and do good," and her remarks were listened to with the closest attention.
Question-box questions answered by Mrs. Ellis; then Mrs. Holloway, an evangelist from Philadelphia, was presented to the convention, and made a few remarks full of sympathy with W. C. T. U. work both here and everywhere. Then followed a short paper on Press Work, by Miss Bradbury, a short discussion after the reading, and then a model mothers' meeting was conducted by Dr. Lake in her usual bright and cheery way.—Mrs. Jonness being absent. Miss Bradbury led in prayer, and the ladies were called upon to speak of home-keeping and housekeeping. Many took part, and the hour was a pleasant as well as a helpful one.

Committee on resolutions presented the following, and it was voted they be sent with the report of convention to the different papers in the county, by the Press Superintendent.
1st. Resolved, That as a Union we acknowledge that we were in days past called to the work of the W. C. T. U., and we will, to the best of our ability, go forward and do the duties that are presented to us, looking to God in whom we trust.
2nd. Resolved, That we rejoice in the successful passage of the anti-liquor law, which demonstrates the power of honest influence upon our National Legislature, and hereby pledge our continued aid towards the effection of public sentiment as to the benefits derived therefrom, and thus to offset the fundamental effects following the passage of this law.
3rd. Resolved, That we deplore deeply the Hampton of that action in Pleasantville.
4th. Resolved, That we use all our efforts to keep liquor from the newly acquired possessions.
5th. Resolved, The thanks of the Union are given for the courtesy extended to us by our friends in Oceanville, and for the support given by the pastor of the Church in which the convention has been held.
6th. Resolved, That we reconsecrate ourselves to the work of the W. C. T. U. for the coming year.
7th. Resolved, That as workers of the W.
C. T. U. we individually make an effort to increase our membership.
8th. Resolved, That as mothers, wives, sisters, and daughters of Atlantic County, we desire to enter our most earnest, fervent protest against legalized vice in our new possessions; calling upon the President of the United States to remove this awful crime, which permits unprotected womanhood, and under the protection of the flag, to become victims of such unallowable conditions.

The evening session opened with song service. Devotions led by Co.
President.—The address was by Mrs.
Margaret Dye Ellis, her subject being "Work of the W. C. T. U." She gave a brief history from its start, touching upon each and all departments of the work,—both in the past and at the present time—what is being done,— and inspired the sisters with renewed courage to press on in this good work of temperance. The meeting closed with singing, and benediction by the pastor.
