Osgood & Co. are still making improvements. The offices are now located in the smaller building, also the packing room. Access to main building is made through this one by means of bridges. After occupying the old office for twenty-seven years, they have allowed themselves to be crowded out to make room,—which we are glad to see.

Hermann Seidenhoff, a farmer living alone on the old road below Elwood, was found ill and nearly starved, Monday morning, by John Mick. Dr. Butler was called by phone, and the three hastened in the doctor's car to Atlantic City hospital; but the old man was too far gone, and died next morning. As his animals were found grazing in his well-kept garden, it is thought he must have been suffering some days, with his nearest neighbor a mile away.

North, of Atlantic City, and Miss Emma H. Faunce, supervisor of music in our public schools, and by one son, Wm. A. Faunce, of Atlantic.

Camden County Freeholders are rebuilding the old Tanaboro Road, connecting with the Pike at Berlin, coming down through Winslow, to their line at Rosedale. It is now up to Hammonton (or our County) to make good our end of it. This is to relieve congested traffic on "White Horse Pike," will avoid some of the sharp turns, and shorten the route.
It would come down Railroad Avenue.

Advertising doesn't jerk—it pulls.
It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady.
It increases day by day and year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power.
It is likened to a team pulling a heavy load. A thousand spasmodic jerky pulls will not budge the load; but one half the power exerted in a steady effort will start and keep it moving.

M—'S DOG TEDDY

Harry had a little dog, Neither large nor small,
And everybody that Harry went The dog was there to follow him.
He followed him to town one day,
Down to Mother's store, While Harry went to buy some shoes He stood out by the door.
Harry, he was furious mad, Threw stones, swore, and growled;
But Teddy did not mind it, Just wagged his tail, and howled.
Harry went to Church one night,
And was seated in his pew;
He took a look around the Church And there was Teddy, too.
Harry said, "This is too much, That dog must surely die."
But Mrs. N. — heard of it, And she began to cry.
Harry now walks alone,
Like a decent fellow;
Teddy don't go 'long no more—He's locked up in the cellar.
(The above poem was composed by the writer while sitting in a chair. He handles and subject, from dogs to door knobs.)

While on their way to Philadelabout one o'clock Friday morning, Chas. W. Stewart, of the American Radiator Co., and a companion, were thrown off the overhead bridge embankment at Ancora. The steering gear did not work, and the car turned over twice, before landing at the bottom. Dr. Cunnham was called to attend the men.
Mr. Stewart was only bruised, but the other man, has a broken collar bone, several fractured ribs, and internal injuries. He was taken to his home in Camden.

Special Attention.

Seventeen head of horses and mares that have been used in the trucking business will be sold cheap, as they are too heavy for my heavy business. They would make good horses for butchers, grocers, bakers, milkmen, ice-men, truckmen, farmers, or any kind of heavy work. They range in age from 5 to 9 years old, weigh from 1100 to 1400. Attention is called to a bay team, Ton and Kate, 6 and 7 years old, and work like one horse; and a team that weighs 2300, color black and roan, that would make as good farm horses as money could buy. These horses and mares are sold for no fault, only that I am starting in the livery business, and they are all chunky for light driving. I also have two young mares that are heavy in foal, and will give written guarantee with each horse, and mare just what they are, and if they are not as I represent them, I will not ask you to keep them.
This is a good chance for any one who needs a horse to buy one

Christian Endeavor Convention

The twenty-first annual convention of the Atlantic County C. E.
Union was held in the Hammonton Baptist Church on Tuesday, May 7th. Delegates were present from the shore and inland towns, numbering in all about fifty, and had the weather been anything but stormy, two very large auto-buses would have doubled the number.
It was one of the most enthusiastic conventions we attended, and the speakers as full of good things as could be found anywhere.

At the morning session, after devotional exercises, welcome and response, all excellent, Rev. Thos.
J. Cross, of Atlantic City, made an inspiring address on "Working it for all it is worth." He used as an illustration a piece of ore, and based his talk on a visit to the mine. There were many things to remember.
Dinner was served in the basement by the local societies, over fifty sitting down to well-laden tables, the tables forming the letter H—for Hammonton.

The afternoon session was more of a workers' conference. Reports were given by officers and superintendents of departments, all showing good work being done. The efficiency plan was ably demonstrated by Mrs. Alex. Brownlee, and questions answered. Baptist Juniors then marched in, singing, and pleased all by songs and recitations, the latter showing the objects of the society. Rev. A. R. Harris, Associate Pastor, of the Temple, Philadelphia, followed, with the best talk to children many of us ever listened to. He illustrated it with mottoes on canvas, and taught them to sing heartily a "silver lining" song, which we are hearing to-day wherever we go. About a hundred children from the public schools came in and heard the best part of the afternoon exercises.

Between this and the evening session, about twice as many more people were fed, conferences held, and committee work done.

Hymn books had been secured from the national society for the occasion, and at the evening session as well as the others, the singing was taken hold of with earnestness and vim.

State President John T. Sproull, in a commendatory speech, presented to County President George D. Jones, in behalf of the workers, a handsome cut-glass dish, which was accepted with great effect.

The report of the nomination committee was adopted, as follows:

President, Rev. George D. Jones, of Atlantic City.
Vice-Presidents, Rev. John Mac-Millan, Calvin S. Smith, Atlantic.
Secretary, Mrs. Alex. Brownlee, Hammonton.

Treasurer, Miss Hannah W. Madden, Absecon.

The President announced that he would appoint committees later.
The State President then gave a most excellent address, which concluded the convention.

The decorations were decidedly pleasing, consisting of flowers, the national colors, state and national society colors.

Between sessions, the visitors were shown something of the town, schools, etc., which seemed to please them very much.

The "Hammonton Bible Study Union" has been organized, with H. O. Backard as President; N.
C. Holdridge, Vice-President; Edw.
Johnson, Secretary and Treasurer.
Being inter-denominational, every Bible student is invited to join.
Meet in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening.

May 1st to 4th were fine samples of early autumn weather; but Sunday brought a change, with damp, chilly weather, and rain.
Sunshine and rain alternated every half hour, Thursday; but Friday was a bright one.

There was a motor cycle accident last Sunday afternoon, on upper Bellevue. A woman rider was injured, and taken to Camden in an automobile.

Your property depreciates in value unless protected by a quality paint. Such a paint has a hard, smooth surface, keeping out the moisture and is a perfect armor against Nature's assaults. It is elastic—expanding and contracting with heat and cold, thus avoiding cracking, peeling and scaling.

A good paint has beauty of color. It does not fade quickly. It proves the poet's saying, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Lucas TINTED GLOSS PAINT

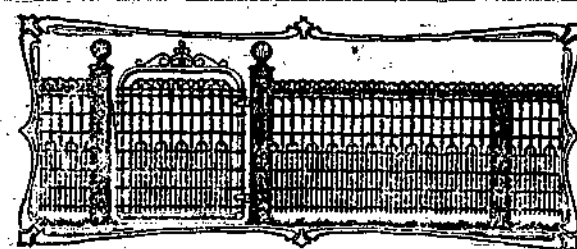

ONCE USED—ALWAYS PREFERRED

is an exponent of the "good paint" doctrine. Every known science plus 62 years manufacturing skill, gives you a paint that is absolutely right as a protector and a beautifier. The Lucas reputation for quality is back of every can.
