HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1913

No. 20

Sunday Schools are preparing for Children's Day.

The Assessors start on their canvass next Tuesday.

Mrs. D. S. Bellamy is visiting her mother, Mrs. Burgess.

Volunteer Fire Company meet next Monday evening.

Mrs. D. M. Chapman has been entertaining her sisters.

Mrs. Cora Burgess-Hill and two children are visiting local relatives.

An adjourned meeting of Town Council next Wednesday evening.

Get out your horse fly-nets before June 1st,—so says the S. P. C. A.

Miss Adaline Cunningham is a teacher elect in the Haddonfield schools.

A. H. Whitmore has sold his Central Avenue property to J. G. Galigne.

M. J. Dwyer, formerly proprietor of the "Columbia," was in town this week.

You can have a good time at the Civic Club Fair, on Saturday, May 24th, in Bellevue Hall.

The Farmers and Merchants Loan Association holds its regular meeting next Tuesday evening.

Miss Hulda Ludlam has been elected teacher in Sixth Grade, in the Haddon Heights schools.

Lofton Scranton, several years a salesman in Black's general store, is now employed in Monfort's shoe store.

The Civic Club will hold a special meeting next Tuesday afternoon, three o'clock, in Trust Co. parlor.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Twomey celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary, on Monday, May 12th, in a quiet way.

Will Farrell, a former Hammontonian, later on the Atlantic City police force, is very low from a paralytic stroke.

Useful aprons and Kimonas can be bought at reasonable prices, at the Civic Club sale next Saturday, in Bellevue Hall.

The patriotic societies will attend Memorial Day services in the Universalist Church on Sunday, May 25th, at 11 o'clock a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Marshall spent several days in Hammonton, returning to their daughter's home, at Hampton, on Wednesday.

A party motored to Atlantic City, late Monday night, to witness the breaking of camp by the big circus. They say it was worth the trip.

The Woman's Civic Club have arranged to open a "rest room" during Chautauqua week, in Mr. Van Fleet's residence, next to the Peoples Bank.

Little Ha Ha Council, Degree of Pocomontas, will celebrate their eighteenth anniversary, Monday evening next, 19th. All members are urged to attend.

The Woman's Civic Club pays a man to collect all waste paper and rubbish every Saturday night or early Sunday morning, on Bellevue Avenue, from Third Street to the railroad.

There was a quite heavy frost on Monday morning, especially on low lands. We hear sad reports from growers of vegetables and fruits,—even white potato tops being killed.

Friends of Alex Rodey (known no more as "Sleepy") were glad to see him home again from the hospital. The operation above his eyes was a success, giving him full use of the optics.

All Hammonton turned out last Sunday, in commemoration of "Mother's Day." At the union meeting, in the Presbyterian Ch., every seat was taken, and services enjoyed, both sermon and singing.

Two Hammonton youths, Peter Jacobs (son of John Jacobs-Baron) and Antonio Tomasella, left home suddenly last Saturday, leaving no clue as to their whereabouts. On Tuesday, a message came from a May's Landing glass factory, stating that they were working there.

Sheriff Ingersoll has a sale to pull off to-day.

Besides useful articles, there will be ice cream, cake and strawberries on sale, in Bellevue Hall, Saturday afternoon and evening, May 24th, by the ladies of the Civic Club. Home-made cake and candy a specialty.

Kate Aylesford Chapter, D. A. R., cordially invites the members of the G. A. R. to a luncheon to be given in the Universalist Church on Memorial Day, Friday, May 30th, at half-past twelve. By order of the Chapter.

We have heard storekeepers ask about the street sprinkler, and wish that it might be set at work. The street dust will at times cover show cases and goods, causing more or less damage, and adding greatly to the labor.

Freeholder Black took Rev. W. L. Shaw and eight Hammonton singers to May's Landing on Sunday afternoon, to hold religious services at the County Jail. The inmates seemed to appreciate the music, joined in singing hymns, and gave respectful attention to Brother Shaw's excellent address. It was a good move.

Prof. N. C. Holdridge is President of the Hammonton Chautauqua. A. L. Jackson is Secretary. J. R. Imhoff, Treasurer. They have appointed a sub-committee—Wm. Doerfel, W. R. Tilton, C. F. Osgood, and W. O. Hoyt,—whose duty will be to co-operate with the Chautauqua Association in arranging the preliminary programme for opening day and for Sunday.

Mr. Frank Klausz Mr. E. H. Highington
Loveloy—Harvard Hotel Joseph Libata
Persons calling for any of the above will please state that it was advertised. THOS. C. FLYNN, Postmaster.

Obituary.

Wm. B. Murphy died on Friday evening, May 9th, at his home, after prolonged illness, aged eighty-one years. Mr. Murphy was one of the oldest residents in this section. His memory of the days before Hammonton was settled, when Winslow was a prosperous, busy community, made interesting stories for the present generation. His was an active life until within a few years, and all knew him well. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, at his residence. His widow, one daughter and numerous relatives are among the mourners.

Of Interest to Women

PIN MONEY AT HOME.

Hints From Some Successful Women Who Have Made It.

Making layettes to order is the business of one enterprising woman. She furnishes all the materials—silk, lace, ribbons, buttons, etc.—that can be had for modest to quite elaborate sums. The first baby's outfit is usually a thing of moment, and this woman finds the biggest percentage of her customers come from the women who were self-supporting at the time of their marriage. "But," she hastens to explain, "they rarely require my services for the second baby, for it is generally the run that no woman prides herself more on her domesticity than does the business woman who becomes a home-maker."

Buying flannel and dress materials by the bolt and lace and embroidery by the piece, she is able to get wholesale rates, and as she is an expert needlewoman, some of her dresses, booties, socks, bonnets, etc., are nothing short of "creations."

A widow in the country takes care of winter furs and clothing as a means of adding to her income. She is in a large town sufficiently far away from the city to make her business profitable, as she has no competitor. Her assets to start this business were a knowledge of the fur trade and a plot of land on which she had planted the seeds of the plants that prey upon furs. She has a knowledge of the fur trade and a plot of land on which she had planted the seeds of the plants that prey upon furs.

Making fancy blouses out of old fancy dresses or "leftover" pieces furthers another girl's outlet for her creative instinct and an income that fills her pocketbook.

The less pretentious brown straw shades sell at $1, and are intended for use with the brown wicker basket or vase standards, which are always artistic and in good taste.

The flange or carved brass shades are a novelty, and fit well in any room, no matter what the color scheme happens to be. Thirty-five dollars and $45 were the prices attached to two especially handsome styles.

The display of bonnet lamp shades is fascinating. One exquisite affair made over an oval frame, had a foundation of shirred pink silk, covered with Irish croch lace, bordered at the top with a garland.

Blue chambray with blue and white striped percale for trimming is here shown. The design will also look well in white linen embroidered in self or contrasting color, or in crepe, voile, corduroy and other reasonable materials. The design is at the side in front, and the waist may be worn with or without the tie.

The long sleeve with band cuff may be used, while for a cool summer dress the shorter sleeve may be preferred. This design offers many possibilities in style and trimming and is easy to develop. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 3-8 yards of 10 inch material for a 10 year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in silver or stamps.

9564. LADIES' HOUSE DRESS WITH CAP.

Gray and white striped seersucker was used for this design with trimming of gray chambray. The model is cool and comfortable, and the jaunty cap will prove most practical and desirable. The design is suitable for gingham, galles, lawn or percale. It may be finished in raised or normal waist line. The right side of the waist crosses the left in a deep point. The skirt is a four gore model with inverted back pleats. For simplicity, style and practical features, this design will readily recommend itself. Two pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. It requires 6 yards of 36 inch material with 3-4 yard for the cap for a 36 inch size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in silver or stamps.

LAMPS AND LAMP SHADES.

Never were the lamps more fascinating than those which are to be used this year. Such an array of exquisite electric lamps, standards and shades is shown that the only difficulty is to choose between them.

CRETONNE CHIC IN "THE LATEST"

This season's styles in cretonnes involve a new situation. Every large department store in this city has some home-furnishing cretonnes distinctly its own. These are all associated with interior decoration schemes more or less individualistic and all so worthy of admiration that it would require the services of our learned Art Jury to decide upon the superiority of this or the inferiority of that.

There is a predominance of lovely floral schemes in these for bedrooms. Roses, rhododendrons, poppies and field daisies, Japanese primroses, orchids and other favorites appear in these in graceful and artistic arrangement of the flowers. The completed decorative scheme is invariably so markedly beautiful in effect. Bordered panels on the walls and border friezes (with plain paper of harmonizing tone between the panels and above them) enables one to use the combination without overdoing the taste by a seeming superabundance of the design—a trouble with some of the former cretonne and wall-paper matching decorative schemes.

Gray and white striped seersucker was used for this design with trimming of gray chambray. The model is cool and comfortable, and the jaunty cap will prove most practical and desirable. The design is suitable for gingham, galles, lawn or percale. It may be finished in raised or normal waist line. The right side of the waist crosses the left in a deep point. ## WORTH KNOWING.

If you raise a plate with cold water before breaking the eggs on it, to them a plate will be placed and stand where there is a current of air, and you will have no difficulty in beating them to a froth.

On taking cakes baked in a tin out of the oven stand the tin on a wet cloth for 10 or 15 minutes. The cakes can then be turned out without the aid of a knife and will not stick to the tin, as frequently happens otherwise.

The cloth for the kitchen table frequently tears at the corners. To prevent this, give a square of stout cotton cloth on the underside of the cloth at each corner; this will reinforce the corners and save much trouble.

Blankets, after being washed and dried thoroughly, should be well beaten with a carpet beater.

Wood alcohol will take varnishes stains from wash goods. Soak them a few minutes in the alcohol.

A tiny sprinkling of sugar placed over each layer of meat in a steak pudding will make the steak tender.

Smoke from a lamp or gas often soils a ceiling in an particular way. The stain can be removed by a solution of white. It is useful to know that soiled ceilings caused by lamp and gas smoke can be removed by a solution of white.

In purchasing washboards, whether large or small, it is well to consider the merits of the glass article. Surely the glass washboards cannot rust nor warp, nor do they wear out.

Extremely plain and handsome are the dressing table pin-cushions of white cotton. Round and oval ones are to be had.

A unique traveling bag is the so-called "two-story" or combination one. The lower part is suitably separate and is provided with lock and key.

COTTONS WHICH LOOK VERY MUCH LIKE SILK.

As if to mark the appreciation with which the fancy cloths and broadens of the winter and spring have been received, the manufacturers have copied in cotton the sponges, crepes, ribbed effects, and broadens in all their manifold processes, and we are glad to see the beauty of novel-looking materials.

The likeness to velvet and silk is so close that in many cases one must look twice and very critically before detecting the cotton element.

Silk and Cotton

To lighten the illusion, silk tunics and waists and coats to match with so worn with cotton frocks, a fashion that is being introduced in order to serve the purpose of those who do not like to wear silk.

An Assured Success.

The new costumes and mantles are in some cases little more than scraps caught up here and there to produce the appearance of a limp hood and sleeves. They are very hopping and easy in fit and eminently picturesque, and their future is an assured success.

One of the advantages of using silk and cotton together is that the difference of fabrics at once secured an effect of novelty. Another is that used contrast in coloring can be attempted without any distinction of harmony.

THE TERM "SILHOUETTE."

"Silhouette" is a term frequently employed of late to designate the outline of the fashionably-clad female figure. It takes a good connoisseur to give the desired silhouette. Originally the term was applied to a cheap but once fashionable kind of portraiture—these, as every one knows, were cut out of black paper and pasted on a white background. These portraits were made prior to the development of photography, and when D'Almeida de Silhouette was minister of finance in France in 1769, he elected to have his portrait preserved in this manner. His reputation for economy was such that his name was applied to any cheap article, but it seems to have clung only to the little outline portrait.

Cedar Chest.

Get a large pine packing box from the broom. Hinge on the lid and put up the cracks. Purchase a bottle of oil of cedar from the drugist and paint the inside of the box, being sure that the oil seeps into the cracks and crevices. Use the oil plentifully, and when thoroughly dry, line the box with cambric; cover the outside with cedar retaining its odor for years, and if as much disliked by moths as the cedar wood itself.

Molded Rice.

Cook the rice until soft in plenty of salted water. If the water is all absorbed and the grain is separate and dry the dish will be more delicate. Let the rice partly cool, to one pint add half a cup of sugar, a salt and a dash of nutmeg. Beat the mixture with a spoon and add a dash of oil. Let it stand in a one-third cup of hot water. Mix, pour in a wet mold and chill. Press the whole of one size very light, stir into it gradually half a cup of powdered sugar, the juice of a quartered lemon and one cup of chopped asphodel leaves. More delicate sauce is made by straining the berries through a sieve.

Jelly Mts.

To give variety to plain apple jelly, the rosin geranium will add a faint flavor. Allow a clean, large leaf to two quarts added to the boil.

THE BILK COAT.

We owe it to broaden. Broadens coats were lovely. They set the separate coat pace. These new silk coats say by of any fabric.

Mix rat, moire, crepe brocade and other materials. However stiff these materials are, they are all soft and pliable. If chosen carefully such a coat may be worn with several skirts.

All told, though the coat of vivid blue is smartest now with black and white, it will no doubt serve with white.

Suggestions For Housekeepers

To economize on cost of food, buy meat from your butcher, fry out at home and mix the two in equal quantities. The result serves admirably for frying purposes, for making biscuits and for ordinary pastry.

Peanut sandwiches always win popularity. Cut slices of graham or rye bread, butter, lay on halves of sliced pean nuts, salt slightly and serve.

Delicious sandwiches for the afternoon are made of raisins and nut chopped together very fine, moistened with a little whipped cream and seasoned with a little salt.

Quick chocolate icing—Grate the chocolate into a cup, then dissolve it in a little boiling water, and add enough powdered sugar to thicken it.

If chops and small steaks are placed in tin pie plates and set on the broiler, they can be well cooked and the tin plates will be much easier cleaned than the broiler grate would be.

Never use milk that has been boiled for cake. Cake mixed with it is pretty sure to be heavy.

In purchasing washboards, whether large or small, it is well to consider the merits of the glass article. Surely the glass washboards cannot rust nor warp, nor do they wear out.

Extremely plain and handsome are the dressing table pin-cushions of white cotton. Round and oval ones are to be had.

A unique traveling bag is the so-called "two-story" or combination one. The lower part is suitably separate and is provided with lock and key.

COTTONS WHICH LOOK VERY MUCH LIKE SILK.

As if to mark the appreciation with which the fancy cloths and broadens of the winter and spring have been received, the manufacturers have copied in cotton the sponges, crepes, ribbed effects, and broadens in all their manifold processes, and we are glad to see the beauty of novel-looking materials.

The likeness to velvet and silk is so close that in many cases one must look twice and very critically before detecting the cotton element.

Silk and Cotton

To lighten the illusion, silk tunics and waists and coats to match with so worn with cotton frocks, a fashion that is being introduced in order to serve the purpose of those who do not like to wear silk.

An Assured Success.

The new costumes and mantles are in some cases little more than scraps caught up here and there to produce the appearance of a limp hood and sleeves. They are very hopping and easy in fit and eminently picturesque, and their future is an assured success.

One of the advantages of using silk and cotton together is that the difference of fabrics at once secured an effect of novelty. Another is that used contrast in coloring can be attempted without any distinction of harmony.

THE TERM "SILHOUETTE."

"Silhouette" is a term frequently employed of late to designate the outline of the fashionably-clad female figure. It takes a good connoisseur to give the desired silhouette. Originally the term was applied to a cheap but once fashionable kind of portraiture—these, as every one knows, were cut out of black paper and pasted on a white background. These portraits were made prior to the development of photography, and when D'Almeida de Silhouette was minister of finance in France in 1769, he elected to have his portrait preserved in this manner. His reputation for economy was such that his name was applied to any cheap article, but it seems to have clung only to the little outline portrait.

Cedar Chest.

Get a large pine packing box from the broom. Hinge on the lid and put up the cracks. Purchase a bottle of oil of cedar from the drugist and paint the inside of the box, being sure that the oil seeps into the cracks and crevices. Use the oil plentifully, and when thoroughly dry, line the box with cambric; cover the outside with cedar retaining its odor for years, and if as much disliked by moths as the cedar wood itself.

Molded Rice.

Cook the rice until soft in plenty of salted water. If the water is all absorbed and the grain is separate and dry the dish will be more delicate. Let the rice partly cool, to one pint add half a cup of sugar, a salt and a dash of nutmeg. Beat the mixture with a spoon and add a dash of oil. Let it stand in a one-third cup of hot water. Mix, pour in a wet mold and chill. Press the whole of one size very light, stir into it gradually half a cup of powdered sugar, the juice of a quartered lemon and one cup of chopped asphodel leaves. More delicate sauce is made by straining the berries through a sieve.

Jelly Mts.

To give variety to plain apple jelly, the rosin geranium will add a faint flavor. Allow a clean, large leaf to two quarts added to the boil.

THE BILK COAT.

We owe it to broaden. Broadens coats were lovely. They set the separate coat pace. These new silk coats say by of any fabric.

Mix rat, moire, crepe brocade and other materials. However stiff these materials are, they are all soft and pliable. If chosen carefully such a coat may be worn with several skirts.

All told, though the coat of vivid blue is smartest now with black and white, it will no doubt serve with white.

Stewed prunes and figs are greatly improved by the addition of olive oil after cooking. This oil may also be used in fruit salads.

Parbilled parerites, and when partially done place in bake pan and season. Do not bake fast, nor bake too much. Serve with baked apples.

An apple grated and stewed with meat of any sort will insure its being tender.

As a change from the tomato sauce usually served with breaded lamb chops, try an onion sauce made in this way: Slice two or, if very small, three onions and cook them in water for a few minutes and drain. Put them into four cups boiling water to cover, add a little salt and cook until tender. Cook together two tablespoons each of flour and butter, when brown, add the onion water and one-half pint of stock, three or four tablespoons of cream and one salt-spoonful each of salt and sugar, and a dash of cayenne. When the onion is tender press it through a colander and add the water in which it has cooked.

Quick chocolate icing—Grate the chocolate into a cup, then dissolve it in a little boiling water, and add enough powdered sugar to thicken it.

If chops and small steaks are placed in tin pie plates and set on the broiler, they can be well cooked and the tin plates will be much easier cleaned than the broiler grate would be.

A Great Army of Peace

The Prudential has in its service 29,000 employees, over five thousand of whom have been with the Company from five to thirty-five years. The results of the work of this great Army of Life Insurance brought consolation and financial assistance to over One Hundred Thousand Homes in 1912.

Does $100 Look Good to You?

I will save you that much and more if you are looking for a piano or player piano. What's the use of buying a second-hand piano when you can have a new one of better grade at the same price. What's the use of buying cheaper quality, when you can have the best direct from the factory at the same cost, or less?

Don't be old-fashioned and say, "I don't see how it can be done." Look into my proposition and see for yourself. Just because pianos have never been sold here before on this plan and at such low prices, is no reason they cannot be. I save you the middleman's profit.

SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1913

The July 16th proposition is causing not a little talk. True, the Italians should have their "Fourth of July," but we cannot see why they should be given the privilege of displaying fireworks right in the heart of town, when the Park is large and near enough for America's Fourth. The Italians protest that the Park proposition would take them away from their central attraction, the Church. True; but it would be for only a few hours. If the permission is granted, the committee should guarantee Council that there will be no air pieces, holding fire; that officers will patrol the district under air pieces; that water closets and drinking fountains will be provided for the throngs; and that all rubbish will be cleared up next day. If you don't agree with these thoughts, just talk with some of those who have to suffer every year, on that date.

Should not the Town wire the Park, and save at least $75 per year?

We would favor it, provided the boys would cease using the lamp sockets for targets.

If special officers, either Town or State, could secrete themselves side of the Park on Sunday afternoons, they might, with the use of a temporary telephone system, take in many motorcycle speeders who are making forty-five miles an hour.

We hope that Council will renew the fire-arm contract with the local telephone company, even at the increased price. It was not an easy job to discover that the old price did not pay them. The Ham-monton is a local enterprise, and is in the business for mutual benefit, not for profit.

It is to be regretted that the bump of destructiveness is so largely developed among Young America. As an illustration, see the condition of Park-Hall windows.

When you use the telephone, speak in a natural tone; don't holler or scream. Some people nearly split one's ear drums.

Don't give money to tramps, nor to any stranger. Two or three have been taking in Hammonton people lately, one of them with an apparently crippled hand. At Tony Rizzotte's, Sunday morning, this latter begged for help. Tony was suspicious, and locking the door, compelled him to exhibit his hand, which was perfectly sound. He had at least twenty-five dollars which he had begged. The fellow was given a good meal, and sent out of town with a warning.

ing 12 hours, and shall state in such report
the specific name of the disease, the full name, race, age, and sex of the patient, his or her residence as properly ascertainable, the name of the school which the patient attends; or the factory or workshop at which he or she is employed, if any, the source of contagion or infection if it can be ascertained, and such other facts as may be deemed of importance for the information of the Board. And every physician shall report in writing to the Board of Health the death of any of his patients who shall have died in the Town of Hammonton, of any contagious or infectious disease, within 24 hours thereafter and shall state in such report the specific name and type of the disease. And every householder and every keeper of any boarding house, lodging house, inn or hotel, shall, in case thereof, proclaim being in attendance, report to Board of Health the name particulars in the same manner as is required of physicians during any period when said Board shall receive notice of such cases to be given, shall for each and every failure to make such return, or report be liable to a penalty of Fifty Dollars.
This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

To Members holding Prepaid Shares:
Subsequent calculations have shown that the payment of $100 on a prepaid share will mature and make it worth $200 concurrently with installment shares in the same series.
We are, therefore, placing all prepaid shares on that basis, and will return $1 for each share on which you have paid $100, with compound interest at six per cent from the date of the series in which the share was taken, on presentation of your book.
Please present your book as soon as possible.
Prepaid shares, if withdrawn, are subject to the new rule regarding withdrawals, adopted at the annual stockholders' meeting in December, 1912.

"My New Studebaker"

There's a note of pride in the remark. To own a Studebaker buggy is to own the finest, classiest looking, lightest running vehicle on the road.

Slender, yet sturdy wheels, flexible bent-reach gear of the new Studebaker pattern, well proportioned, graceful lines, upholstery of the kind that makes you want to lean back and enjoy yourself, and the Studebaker double ironed shafts, strong and shapely.

Why wouldn't any man be proud to own

AN ORDINANCE

Regulating Roller Skating on the Public Streets and Sidewalks of the Town of Hammonton.

Whereas many of our public streets and sidewalks are now being used for roller skating purposes; and

Whereas, serious accidents are liable to happen by reason of the use of the said streets and sidewalks by said roller skaters; and

Whereas, the Town has spent thousands of dollars, recently, in constructing improved cement sidewalks which are likely to be seriously damaged by reason of the reckless and negligent use thereof by roller skaters; and

Whereas, such use of the public sidewalks and highways in town is likely to become a public nuisance unless properly regulated;

Now, therefore, in order to regulate such use, and prevent future accidents to life and limb, and to prevent damage being done to said new cement sidewalks;

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Town
Council of the Town of Hammonton:

Section 1. That all persons using any of the public streets or sidewalks of the Town of Hammonton for roller skating purposes, shall be permitted so to do only under the following regulations, viz:

(a) Every such roller skater shall keep to the right of any and all streets while using the same for such purposes.

(b) No such skater shall propel himself or herself, or allow himself or herself to be propelled at a greater speed on any such public street than at the rate of eight miles an hour;

(c) No such skater shall cross any street intersection at a greater speed than at the rate of five miles an hour.

(d) No skater shall race any other skater on any such public street.

(e) No such skater shall use any cement sidewalk laid on any public street or highway in the Town of Hammonton, for roller skating purposes.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful, under a penalty of five dollars for each offense, to use roller skates on any public street or sidewalk of the Town of Hammonton except under the above regulations, and any person violating any of said regulations shall be proceeded against according to law and the ordinances of said Town, and if found guilty shall pay a fine of five dollars for each offense, as well as the costs of prosecution.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Introduced, April 20, 1913.
Passed, May 14th, 1913.

Signed, E. C. DEERY, Mayor.

Attest: W. R. Root, Town Clerk.
