Black Cow Peas,
$1.90 per bushel

Soja or Soy Beans.

The United States Board of Agriculture strongly approves of them.

Farmers' Bulletin, No. 58 says: "They are probably the richest known vegetable substance. There is no crop so easily grown that is so rich as the soy bean."

They stand the extremes of heat, drouth, and wet better than any similar crop, and are unsurpassed as a soil improver.

They are now selling for $1.60 per bushel, here, which is the wholesale price in Philadelphia market.

It Must be Settled Right.

However the battle is ended, Though proudly the victor comes
With fluttering flags and prancing nags
And echoing roll of drums;
Still truth proclaims this motto
In letters of living light,
No question is ever settled
Until it is settled right.

The heel of the strong oppressor
May grind the weak in the dust,
And voices of fame with one acclaim
May call him great and just;
Let those who applaud take warning
And keep this motto in sight,
No question is ever settled
Until it is settled right.

Let those who have failed take courage,
Though the enemy seem to have won,
The ranks are strong, if he be wrong
The battle is not yet done.
For as sure as the morning follows
The darkest hour of the night,
No question is ever settled
Until it is settled right.

S. of V. Chaplain's Circular.

RISEING SUN, INDIANA, APRIL 15, 1901.
Circular No. 2.

BROTHERS:—Another year has come and gone; a year every hour of which has seen four Union soldiers lay down the uniform of earth, a year in which was ushered in the new century, a year of pain and grief and joy and disappointments and hopes. Once more we approach the day set apart by loyal hearts to remember with flowers and bury beneath the beautiful blossoms of the May-time the graves of fallen heroes.
A loving nation reveres the memory of its soldiers dead, and follows the muffled drum with that strange commingling of gladness for treasuring the memory of heroic deeds, and of sorrow that so many have fallen, many tottering to their wounds of earth upon the hill.
The swift and tender feet of children shall gather the flowers, the loving hands of women who have suffered and who understand shall twine them into wreaths of victory, and great hearted Comrades and Sons of Veterans shall place them on the graves of the nation's heroic dead. From no hands should the flowers fall more tenderly and lovingly than from ours, Sons of Veterans.
It is eminently fitting and to be hailed with supreme satisfaction that from the hands of the surviving Grand Army of the Republic we receive the proud commission to go with them as they march, placing the emblems of purity and immortality upon the graves of their dead Comrades.

Every Camp should prepare to fittingly observe Memorial Day. My brothers, see that the grave of every soldier and brother in your immediate neighborhood is covered with beautiful flowers in sweet remembrance of deeds of patriotism and valor and brotherly love. Take from the day its lesson. Live a life of unselfish devotion to honor and country and God, that the victories of peace may be, if possible, greater than the victories of war.

Every Camp should attend divine services in a body with the G. A. R. on Memorial Sunday. The shamelessness of many organizations in marrying the solemnity of Memorial Day cannot be too severely condemned. Every Son of Veteran is reminded of his duty to such to be that of undivided opposition to all such profanation of this sacred occasion. Let us not only keep away from all games and places of amusement, but let us be uncompromising in our endeavor to keep all within the meaning and significance of the day.

Yours in F. O. & L.,
R. S. THOMPSON,
Chaplain-in-Chief.

The ladies have taken this space for one year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

The energetic women of the Illinois
W. C. T. U. are probing for facts regarding conditions at Highwood and Fort Sheridan. The following testimony comes from a leading citizen of Highwood:

The reports in the Chicago dailies are contrary to facts. We have talked with the soldiers in Fort Sheridan.
Formerly they were urged to drink beer at the canteen, for the purpose of helping the mess hall to furnish dairies to the men. The canteen cook tells us that since the beer department was closed in the post exchange, the boys draw their canteen checks and buy meals, instead of beer. The change brought about by the anti-canteen law is for the better department of the soldiers on the streets and about town. Formerly, the soldiers would begin drinking at the post canteen, and afterwards go to Fort Sheridan and Highwood saloons to have a "spree," and they usually succeeded.

Sieve Woolbert started yesterday for Pratt City, Alabama, where he has secured employment with the civil engineer corps of the railroad company. One of our steady, reliable young men, we wish him prosperity in his new vocation.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION given to a limited number of students in college preparatory studies, or in studies needed in business, or in any other line. Call at my residence, or write for particulars. Hammoncton.

J. Santoro's house, on Third Street, above Cemetery, Azunua, was destroyed by fire one afternoon last week. No one was inside, and no one knows how the fire originated. All their household goods and clothing was burned--nothing saved--and there was no insurance.

A new train schedule goes into effect to-day, on the Reading,--with many important changes. We haven't the figures, but they say that Hammoncton never had such satisfactory rates as this gives--more trains each way, and at convenient hours. This is the way to secure increased patronage,--provide what the people want, and can use advantageously.

The local Board of Health met last Monday evening, and organized for the year by re-electing all the officers. Messrs. J. H. Garton and J. L. O'Donnell were recommended for election by Town Council to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of term of two members. An ordinance was introduced to compel the vaccination of all pupils before the commencement of school next September.

That ball game, last Saturday, was a very one-sided affair. The Y. M. A. A., of Philadelphia, had the name of being a vigorous club of lively players, and were reinforced by two pitchers of high repute; but the nine did not work harmoniously; hence Hammoncton had matters all their own way,--slated the visitors out without a run, and scored thirty-eight for themselves. We have an exceptionally good team this year, and it will take a strong one to defeat them.

Wednesday night, at the Hammoncton accommodation tract on the Reading was approaching Windrow, a front axle on the first car broke in the center, dropping the car truck several inches. They were running at good speed, and every tie was a bumper, shaking the passenger uncomfortably. It didn't take long to stop the train, however, and no one was hurt. The express, which followed, brought the people home.

The Alumni.

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1901

The first annual meeting of the Hammoncton High School Alumni Association was held on Thursday evening, in the assembly room. About seventy-five graduates were present, besides friends, teachers, the Board of Education, and the pastors of the four churches. President A. L. Jackson presided, and the regular routine of business was gone through with, including the reduction of annual dues from fifty to twenty-five cents, and the admission of the Board and teachers as honorary members. The following officers were elected:

President, A. L. Jackson.

Vice-President, Miss Emma Hooper.

Rec. Sec'y, Miss Katharine Garton.

Cor. Sec'y, A. V. W. Botley.

Treasurer, Chas. Campanella.

Managers, J. E. Hoyt and Mrs. A. L. Jackson (hold-overs), Miss Nettie Montfort, Albert Kinz.

Following this was an interesting programme--literary and musical--including piano solo by Mrs. Chas. D. Jacobs, readings by Misses Chapman and French, recitation by Mr. Edwin Adams, an address by Mr. Thomas C. Elvins, and solo by Miss Montfort and Mr. S. L. Drake.

The alumni then adjourned to a first-story room, and found a fine banquet spread. After partaking of the abundant good things, various toasts were proposed and responded to, and short addresses made.

Altogether, it was a meeting thoroughly enjoyed, and to be remembered with pleasure.

High School Commencement.

ELM ITEMS.

Miss Edna M. Loro, of North Cedarville, spent the week with Mrs. L. M. Bickley.

Mrs. Chas. Matlock and daughter, Mrs. Amy Thomas, of Merchantville, were the guests of Miss May Leed last Sunday.

The scholars of the Elm school will hold their annual picnic to-day.

Several of the boys of this place went on a fishing trip last Saturday night, but did not have very good luck, on account of the severe storm that came up so suddenly.

The first Spring meeting of the Elm Farmers' Club was held on Saturday, May 11th, at the residence of D. M. Chapman, and the following officers were elected: President, J. F. Jenison. Vice-Pres., Enoch Cordery. Secretary, Donald M. Chapman. Treasurer, Jonas Wood. Shipping Agent, John Lead. Directors, Henry Muesly, Harry Santora, Frank Bates, Fred Mansley, Jas. Santora, M. Appalicio, John Mansley, and John Lead. 1102X.

Some people are so dreadfully busy that they haven't even time to get well acquainted with themselves. If men were as anxious to do right as they are to get their rights, the world would soon be righted. If the crow has a crowd, it is that all birds are turkeys that don't wear black.

Hold up a Congressman.

"At the end of the last campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant Congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over-worked run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50 c. Guaranteed by C. W. Crowell, Druggist.
