Are Christians Responsible for Sabbath Desecration?

"Be ye not conformed to this world,
but be ye transformed in the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Romans xii. 2.

The settling of this question, and the position now taken by Christians and the Christian Church, will do much to determine the future Christian life of the next generation. The greatest and most discouraging hindrance to Sabbath reform is the general indifference of the Christian people, and their quiet acquiescence in the present state of things.
Of course, few Christians, as a rule, approve of Sabbath-desecration; but they do little to prevent it. Many say the Sunday paper has come to stay;
that railroad traffic will continue; the saloon cannot be closed, and other evils will go on; for the people are bent on mischief; that the saloon will keep open seven days in the week in any case.
What is the use of Christian people incurring the ill-will of the world by struggling against the inevitable? let us adapt ourselves to circumstances, and do as well as we can?

Whenever the Christian Church adapts itself to the public sentiment of the world, it is doomed. Of course these dire evils have come, and have come to stay if they can; but God does not mean that anything evil shall stay.
Nothing but good comes to stay in God's kingdom, and as a Church and as individual Christians we must settle the Sabbath question. The evils can be fought against. Many are carried on in defiance of law, and such surely can be stopped. If the Christians in the Churches will work against the evils instead of allowing them to work on,
doing more mischief week after week
among the youth of our town.

Will the Churches and the Christian people of this town work with us to cast out some of these evils? knowing that by so doing they are working for Christ and helping to do good, saving the youth from ruin and helping them to upright Christian lives in the future.

THE MOUNTAINERS.

KENTUCKIANS WHO LIVE AS IN COLONIAL TIMES.

Class of People Who Have Little Ambition and Practically No Education—Total—2,000,000—Americans Who Are Absolutely Enslaved.

The political conditions in Kentucky, culminating in the assassination of Senator Goebel, the Democratic governor, brought the mountaineers to the attention of the world. These people, who live in the mountains of that commonwealth in considerable numbers, are a people of a type common to a large and rugged region extending from the mountains of the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains. The extent of the region has been estimated at 2,000,000 square miles. The mountaineers are a people of a type common to a large and rugged region extending from the mountains of the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains. The extent of the region has been estimated at 2,000,000 square miles.

In this region are 2,000,000 people who are living practically in conditions of colonial times. The difference is that the colonial people were contentedly in the past, while the mountaineers are in the front of the progress of the time, while the mountain people have a depressing sense of being behind. Yet the people are not to blame. Their conditions are the result of environment.

These people are more destitute of all the opportunities that go with education than any other people of our race in the world. There may be some exceptions in one group which do not contain a printing press. The average Michael Joseph Barry, the poet, was appointed a police magistrate in Dublin. An Irish-American was brought before him charged with suspicious conduct, and the constable swore, among other things, that he was wearing a "repulsive" hat.

"Does your honor know what that means?" inquired the prisoner's lawyer. "I presume," said Barry, "that it means a hat without a crown."—The Green Bag.

Handy Piece of Mechanism that Expected to be a Building of Bridges. The false work shown in the accompanying cut was used in the erection of all the girder bridges between Fort Hill and Boston on the New York and New Haven and Hartford Railroad. It was moved to the different locations of the bridges on the temporary regular gauged tracks, being pushed ahead by an engine. When in place and strutting the abutments it remained until the final abutments were removed and put on uprights at right angles to the tracks on which it traveled. Rails were laid parallel to the faces of the abutments on the false work, and the tracks were moved forward to the place where the rails were to be placed.

FAMOUS WAR WRITER.

Archibald Forbes, Who Recently Passed Away in London.

Archibald Forbes, who died recently in London, was one of the most famous war correspondents in the world. He was a Scotchman by birth and for ten years was a soldier in the British army, an experience that was of great advantage to him when he became a war correspondent.

Prisoner (whispering)—Because I can't get any work, your honor. Magistrate—Would you do work if you could get any?

Prisoner—Gladly, your honor. Magistrate—What work?

Prisoner—Anything, your honor. Magistrate (rather slyly, with an eye to business)—I have a heap of work I want taken out of my ground—would you do that?

Prisoner—Yes, your honor; only too glad of the job. Magistrate—You are discharged. Prisoner—Did you say I was discharged, your honor?

Magistrate—Yes, you are discharged. Prisoner—Then weed your garden, please—London Answers.

Lawyer—You say the prisoner stole the watch. What distinguishing feature was there about the watch?

Witness—It had my sweetheart's picture in it. Lawyer—Ah, I see! A woman in the case.

A funny story is related of a jurymen who outwitted a judge, and that without telling an untruth. He came breathlessly into the court.

"Oh, my lord, I can excuse me, pray do. I don't know which will die first—my wife or my daughter."

"Dear me, that's sad," said the innocent judge. "Certainly; you are excused."

The next day the jurymen was met by a friend, who, in sympathetic voice, asked:

"How's your wife?" "She's all right, thank you."

"And your daughter?" "She's all right, too. Why do you ask?"

"Why yesterday you said that you did not know which would die first?"

"Nor do I. That is a problem that time alone can solve."—London Tidbits.

Several years ago Col. Jack Chinn, visited Texas. He took with him a negro slave, Sam. This negro had been a slave in the Cuban family before the war.

"Our night, while in Houston, the darky went to China and said: 'Massah Jack, I've got out in the world, and I want to see you.'"

"I'd like to see you, but I don't want to see you in the night," said Chinn. "I want to see you in the day."

"I'll see you in the day," said Chinn. "I'll see you in the day."

ANECDOTE.

Prof. John Shelling-Popkin was professor of Greek at Harvard, some years ago, and he was not without a nickname, which he accepted as a matter of course from the students; but hearing it on one occasion from a man of gravity, an academic aspect, Prof. Popkin exclaimed: "What right has that chap to call me 'Old Pop'?"

"One of the officials at the British Colonial Office had occasion to consult the professor, as to the most rapid way of putting a man out of existence. Marwood expressed himself in favor of what he professionally called 'the long drop.'"

ANECDOTE.

Prof. John Shelling-Popkin was professor of Greek at Harvard, some years ago, and he was not without a nickname, which he accepted as a matter of course from the students; but hearing it on one occasion from a man of gravity, an academic aspect, Prof. Popkin exclaimed: "What right has that chap to call me 'Old Pop'?"

"One of the officials at the British Colonial Office had occasion to consult the professor, as to the most rapid way of putting a man out of existence. Marwood expressed himself in favor of what he professionally called 'the long drop.'"

He was asked by remarking: "There was a Mr. Pence, now, a small man, I have heard of him—would he be a good specimen for the long drop?"

Monday's Fire.

Humanity's dread enemy—fire—visited Hammononton again, Monday—damaging the residence of one of our oldest citizens Mr. T. J. Smith, at the corner of Bellevue Avenue and Horton Street. It was just about six o'clock when the bell rang its alarm. Everybody seemed to be at home, or on the way thither, and in an incredibly short time the premises were swarming with firemen and assistants, and the chemical and water engines at work.

As matters looked just then, it seemed a hopeless task to save the property; and if that building went, there was little chance for the J. Newton Jones residence—but thirty feet away. But the firemen were not easily disheartened, and quickly had streams pouring into the building, which in a very few minutes gave forth signs of yielding, and in half an hour the flames were under control.

The family used an old oil stove. When lighted to prepare supper, the wick was apparently turned too high, and raised to lower when the first true discovery of a fire was made. A frightful flame, which—evidently—loosened the seams of the tank and let out more oil, and in a minute the summer kitchen was on fire. Fortunately the engine house was close by, the alarm quickly given, and the responses prompt. But the flames were pouring forth from the west corner, rushing up the end, and before a stream could be put in the cornice and the interior of the wing were all aflame—especially in the attic. That the building was saved, and that without damaging the main part, was due to hard and intelligent work. The Independent Fire Company also responded, and aided in subduing the flames.

In the meantime, the house had been almost emptied of furniture by well-meaning helpers, who conveyed it to a safe distance. The loss of furniture will not exceed one hundred dollars, with no insurance. It will cost probably five hundred dollars to repair the building, which was insured.

We have all read of the goose that laid the golden egg; but we have a hen which beats the goose. About four weeks ago we set a hen with thirteen eggs, and this week she came off with ten chicks, two unopened eggs, and a fine shaving mug. None of the family had ever seen the cup before.

A member of Council, replying to a complaining citizen from away up town, as to the condition of the roads near his place, said: "But remember, when you drive to town you have about two miles of the finest road in Jersey, and only half a mile of poor driving. We can't possibly make all roads good with the money given us."

The Spring Conference of the Atlantic County Sunday School Association will be held next Thursday, 24th, in the Central M. E. Church, Atlantic City. An interesting programme has been prepared. There will be sessions at 10:00 a.m., 2:30 and 7:45 p.m. It is hoped that every Sunday School in the county will be represented. Those who attend will provide for their own entertainment.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the appointment of a Town Solicitor, his duties and salary.

Enacted April 25, 1906.
Passed May 1, 1906.

Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Town of Hammononton:

Section 1. That there shall be a Town Solicitor in and for said town. He shall be elected by the Town Council by a majority vote, and shall hold office for one year, and until the last Monday in March in each year.

In case of vacancy, by death, resignation, or otherwise, Council may appoint a successor in the manner for the unexpired term only. He shall, before entering upon his duties, and within two days after his appointment, make, subscribe, and file with the clerk an oath or affirmation that he will to the best of his ability and understanding, faithfully, justly, and impartially execute the duties of the office to which he has been elected. If he shall fail to deliver such oath or affirmation within the time hereinbefore limited, then such office shall be deemed to be vacant, and Council shall forthwith proceed to fill such vacancy.

Sec. 2. That an annual salary of one hundred dollars, payable quarterly, shall be paid to the Town Solicitor, which shall be his full compensation for all services rendered in his official capacity, except for services performed in suits in court wherein the town is a party, such services to be paid for by special contract.

Sec. 3. That the Town Solicitor shall be the official town attorney, and as such shall advise the Town Council and other town officials on all subjects involving the interests of the town upon all matters referred to him by Council or any committee thereon.

Sec. 4. That this ordinance shall take effect immediately after its passage.

He is now general manager of the Union Mills Paper Manufacturing Co., at New Hope, Pa., and is interested in a general merchandise business in Kingstree, S. C.

The Musical.

The attendance at the Musical, last Friday evening, in the M. E. Church, was large considering the night, and the program fully met the expectations of those in attendance.

The piano solo by Miss Alice Hall was well received, and her ease of manner, combined with her skillful playing, rendered the "Impromptu" by Schubert very entertaining. "I Know a Blank," as a duet by Misses Monfort and Boswell, indicated the strength and harmony of their well cultivated voices, and took well. "Se Saran Rose," in Italian, as a solo by Miss Virginia Bunting, was sung in a beautiful soprano voice, filling the house with ease, and impressing one with the fact of more than ordinary talent. "A Sister's Scheme" was splendidly delivered by Miss Florence M. Caldwell, an eloquent of taking qualities, whose very natural and congenial manner captured the audience.

Much might be said in praise of the entire program; and indeed much has been said since by those in attendance, and the artists (for such they are) scored quite a success. All were pleased with Miss Monfort's proficiency in vocal culture, and a unanimous vote of thanks was given her at the regular meeting of the Epworth League, Monday evening. All these ladies, save Miss Caldwell, are students of Mrs. Phillips-Jenkins' Select School, of Philadelphia, and they deserved much credit for coming to us. Our best wishes go with them. W. H. O.

At a meeting of the committee on distribution of the fund for relief of Pleasant Mills fire sufferers, held on Saturday, May 12, 1906, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this committee be extended to the Pleasant Mills Paper Company, who to the people of Hammononton, Egg Harbor City and vicinity, Elwood, Green Bank, Lower Bank, and Mesco, who have so nobly and generously contributed to this worthy object.

Resolved, That the thanks of this committee be extended to the collectors in the various districts, namely, A. J. McKee, Chas. Salzman, Chas. Ebbell, Harry Langham, Wm. Taylor, and John Abbott, for the prompt and efficient manner in which they have performed the duty assigned to them.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the SOUTH JERSEY REPUBLICAN and ATLANTIC CITY GAZETTE, for publication. (Signed) C. F. GREEN, Chairman. H. T. FLECK, Secretary.

The first base-ball game of the season, played last Saturday, resulted in a score, — Hammononton, 10; Buck Works, 0. The visitors were short of men, and the home club loaned them their pitcher and catcher. The club played as follows:

Every spring you clean the house you live in, to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected in the winter. Your body, the house your soul lives in, also becomes filled up during the winter with all manner of filth, which should have been removed from day to day, but was not. Your body needs cleaning inside. If your bowels, your liver, your kidneys are full of putrid filth, and you don't clean them out in the spring, you'll be in bad odor with yourself and everybody else all summer.

DON'T USE A HOSE to clean your body inside, but sweet, fragrant, mild but positive and forceful CASCARETS, that work while you sleep, prepare all the filth collected in your body for removal, and drive it off softly, gently, but none the less purely, leaving your blood pure and nourishing, your stomach and bowels clean and healthy, and your liver and kidneys healthy and active. Try a 10-cent box today, and if not satisfied get your money back—but you'll see how the cleaning of your body is

BEST FOR THE BOWELS ALL DRUGGISTS

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

A student recently asked the President of Oberlin College if he could not take a shorter course than that prescribed by the institution, and received this reply: "Oh yes, but that depends upon what you want to make of yourself. When God wants to make an oak he takes a hundred years, but when he wants to make a squash he takes six months."

There are many men who never appreciate what is done for them. The more favors granted them, the more they expect. They are the confirmed kickers of the world, and wherever found are always wanting something for nothing. Any man who fails to recognize obligations to a benefactor will repudiate an honest debt.

The Pacific slope, from Puget Sound to Lower California, is a unit for expansion. The voters out there will no more vote to retire from the Philippines than New Yorkers would vote to abolish Atlantic commerce. It is not difficult to convince them that trade follows the flag.

A man may run into debt, but he seldom comes out of anything faster than a walk. The same is true of the law-breaker. It is easy enough to get into prison, but the getting out process is not so rapid.

Think of the ill from which you are exempt, and it will aid you to bear patiently those which you may suffer.

Most men who are failures in life do not need talent, — it is purpose. They do not need the power to achieve, but they need the will to labor.

HARRY CORDERY.

IF YOU WANT A FENCE

There is cheap, strong, neat, durable fence made of wire mesh, made of heavy galvanized steel wire, with sharp points, generally called "razor wire." It will fence any stock, poultry, pigs, etc. It will not rust when properly treated. Electric current can be run through it, and made to buzz under it. Posts may be from 10 to 16 ft. apart. Prices are from 5 to 10 cts. per ft. of fence. It is sold by the lot or by the roll. Descriptive prices list sent on application.
