SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1905

Special School Meeting.

There were fourteen voters present at the meeting on Tuesday afternoon, 16th inst. Mr. Jacobs was chosen chairman, Mr. Seely, secretary.

The call for the meeting was read. Messrs. W. C. Jones, O. E. Hoyt and W. B. Seely appointed to conduct the balloting.

Mr. Osgood offered Resolution No. 1, authorizing the erection of a new school house, the cost not to exceed $17,000.

Mr. Myrick moved to amend, limiting the cost to $7000. (His intention was to authorize the erection of an addition to the present building.) Lost.

Ballot was then taken, and the resolution adopted.

The second resolution, authorizing the issue of seventeen bonds of $1000 each, was balloted for, and adopted.

The third resolution, providing for the payment of the bonds, was also adopted.

The meeting then authorized the Board to do what is necessary to procure a correct title to the school lot on Middle Road.

Adjourned.

He kept up in the race.

James S. Barron, President Manchester Cotton Mills, Rock Hill, S. C., writes:

"In 1883 I painted my residence with L. & B. It looks better than a great many houses painted three years ago."

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready-for-use paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cts. per gallon, and mix it with Longmans & Martinez L. & B. Paint.

It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold.

Victor Moore is another example of what Hammonton born and bred boys can do. An actor by profession, he has advanced until his engagement for next season, beginning in August, is at $200 per week. He is probably in England now, or on his way thither, for a short engagement.

It is a matter of regret that many of our finest maple shade trees are dying. Some people thought that gas leakage caused the disaster; but the State experts say that it is caused by a disease known as "Oyster shell scale." We do not know whether there is a remedy, or not.

If the people are not allowed to use water from the fire-hydrants to sprinkle public streets, the next best thing to do is to put in curb hydrants, like the one in front of Trowbridge's store, and pay for the water used. But some of the suburban tax-payers may ask what benefit they are to derive from the $60,000 water plant, if the product cannot be used for their comfort when they drive into town.

Miss Ernestine Stockwell, sister of Moore, Moses and Elam Stockwell, died on Wednesday, May 17th, in Schenectady, N. Y. She had been suffering with pneumonia, and seemed to be improving; but her heart was weak, and she passed away very suddenly. Her brothers were summoned; and are expected here with her remains to-day. Funeral services will probably be held to-morrow.

Master Francis Anthony, or "Tony," the eleven-year-old son of F. A. Muckenturm, of Rosedale, died on Wednesday, 17th inst., of a seemingly mysterious disease, which baffled the skill of our local physicians, and of eminent specialists from the city. He was a bright boy, well liked by all, and the parents have the sympathy of many friends. Funeral service at the home to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at 9:45, conducted by Rev. Paul F. Hoffman; also, later, in the Reformed Church, at Poleson, conducted by Pastor Haas.

Three boys, aged about fourteen years each, got themselves into trouble on last week Friday night; and unless they cause the business they will be dependent upon the State for support. Wm. Orloff rented one of the Caball houses and moved his newly purchased furniture into it. Discovering, Saturday, that several articles were missing, he stood on guard that night, and the boys came for another raid. Result, they had to return the stolen articles, which, fortunately, they had not sold. It cost their parents some cold cash, and the boys (we hope) a tanning.

A Nonagenarian Visitor.

A visit of more than ordinary interest to the old residents of Hammonton,—viewed from a local standpoint,—was that of Mr. J. Hammond Coffin, who ran down here, from Camden, on last Tuesday morning, for the purpose of visiting the place of his birth, at Hammonton Lake, which event occurred ninety years ago.

This son of the founder of "Old Hammonton" was driven over to the old Coffin house, near the Lake (now occupied by Dr. Peet and family), and spent some time looking over the spot where he passed his boyhood days. He recognized many old landmarks; but the changes about the factory premises have been so great that the old gentleman almost failed to realize that he stood on the spot where, when a boy, he ran barefoot over the sandy roads, and hunted bear and deer without let or hindrance.

This is Mr. Coffin's first visit to the old birth spot in forty years, and we can imagine but faintly the feelings of the old man, now hastening forward to the century mark, as his thoughts wandered back through the dim vista of the past, to the days when Old Hammonton was a thriving village, with the glass works in full operation.

Those new street gas lamps are fine; but many shade trees need to be trimmed up, to allow the lights to shine out.

List of uncalled for letters in the Hammonton Post Office on Wednesday, May 17, 1905:

Rev. A. Varelo

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sally Ann Oliver, widow of the late B. Oliver, died on Sunday afternoon last, May 14th, at the home of her son, William B., at Sharon Hill, Penna., in her 79th year.

Mrs. Oliver had been ailing much of the time during the past winter, but was much improved in health lately, and during a visit with her son seemed to gain rapidly, until last Friday, when the heat caused her severe suffering yet she seem to rally, but expired very suddenly, after speaking cheerfully to those about her.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver were among the early settlers in Hammonton (we made their acquaintance in 1866). Here their children were brought up; here Mr. Oliver died, after which the family moved away.

Funeral services were held at Sharon Hill on Wednesday, and the remains brought here on Thursday for burial beside the husband, in beautiful Greenwood Cemetery.

THE BEST Health Culture. No poor man can afford to bother with any of the experimental health fads. He is too busy making a living for himself and family, and when he is afflicted with a bad cough or cold, or develops catarrh as the direct result of a cold, he takes a few doses of Dr. Jochow's German Syrup. And if something more serious, say consumption, prostrates him or any member of his family, German Syrup can again be relied on to effect a cure. Trial bottle, 25c. Big bottle, 75c. At Lett's.

Testimony from the Scaffold.

Spoken in the death hour, the words of Axel Galtbraith, Colorado wife and child murderer, constitute a most forcible argument for prohibition.

Just before the execution, the prison warden drew a flask of whiskey from his pocket and offered it to the doomed man, saying, "Better take a drop, Axel; it will cheer you up."

"No, thank you," was the reply,
"no more of that stuff for me. If it had not been for that, I would not be where I am. It was drink that first sent me to the bad."

Prohibition worth while? Ask the mothers of the drink victims. And if the brains of the majority of our lawmakers and law enforcers were not so beclouded by the influences of the mocker and deceiver, the State, the nation would see that prohibition is worth while, even from an economic standpoint.

LESTER
PIANO

Notwithstanding the constant practicing to which the Lester Piano is subjected, it retains that sweetness and mellow quality of tone for which it is noted everywhere.

For this reason it's preferred and used by over one hundred musical schools and colleges—including the two largest institutions in the world.

Lasts a Lifetime.
