SATURDAY, MAY 24, 1903.

The Commencement.

Contrary to the expectations of many, the weather was all that could have been desired, last week Friday evening. Those who waited until the hour of commencing, had to be contented with back seats, as the M. E. Church was filled.—main auditorium and Sunday School room.

The class motto, prominent in the background, was one to be remembered, "Vestigia nulla retrosum," literally translated meaning "Take no step backward."

The program was carried out as published last week, and was especially enjoyable for the brevity of the evening parts. Not to go into details, each selection was rendered exceptionally well, and the subjects well chosen.

The eighth grade pupils are receiving more attention than formerly, as they should. The following were presented with Grammar School diplomas by the Supervising Principal, N. O. Holdridge:

Kathryn Berry John Birdall
Eleanor C. Combe Edith Crowell
Elma Forman Florence Gorte
Lura D. Jewett Chas. O. Peguesse
Mabel Small Mamie Warner
Blanche Webber Wm. C. Phillips
Joe Pinto Ida Blake

A painting entitled "The Angelus" was presented, with a few well-chosen words, by Miss Van Schoick.

Hon. S. R. Morris, member of State Board of Education, one of the earliest teachers in Hammoncton, and for many years our County Superintendent, reviewed history of Hammoncton schools, congratulated them on their progress, and presented diplomas to the graduates.

The singing, under the leadership of Miss Dickey, was very entertaining, as was also the instrumental music.

After the ball games next Friday, come out to the evening entertainment to be given by the Red Men, in their hall. Admission, 10 cents; doors open 7.30; refreshments at 8.15.

Once more the cry of "Fire!" was heard, on Wednesday afternoon, and in a short time the bucket brigade was hard at work trying to save the house of John Russell, on Pleasant Mills Road above the school-house. Mrs. R. was ironing, and had a very hot wood fire, and it is supposed that the roof took fire from the chimney. A few household goods were destroyed and the kitchen roof burned off before the men could get the fire under control.

Messrs. Harry Rupp and Joe Sawyer have bought a few acres of land from Henry Harburt, containing clay, and are preparing to manufacture bricks on a small scale.

The Turnship Committee are agitating the question of building a town hall. This is something we have long needed, and how it is an absolute necessity. Don't let the subject drop. It's a good thing; push it along.

The Great Diurnal Swamp of Virginia is a breeding ground of malaria germs. It is low, wet, and marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, and in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous malarial fever. It is a disease that never fails to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malarial fever and stomach and liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byarsville, Ohio, "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them; only 50 c. a bottle, the druggist, guarantees satisfaction.

The following question is to be debated: Resolved, that all trusts and general combinations tending to banish competition should be forbidden by law. Messrs. F. H. Jacobs and N. C. Holdridge will maintain the affirmative, and Messrs. A. J. King and Rev. W. K. McKloney the negative.

A Pleasant Gathering.

McKloney, and Mr. Hurlburt Tomlin.

Several vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by Messrs. Healey, Thomas, and Newcomb. Mr. Dowlin rendered a few beautiful solos, while Mr. Healey added to the evening's enjoyment by his warbling, at which he is a past-master. A luncheon was served, and thus ended the pleasant evening.

Mr. Dowlin is a young divine in the Methodist Conference in Pennsylvania, in charge of Lewisburg. A brief future is predicted for him, as he is an aggressive worker and popular with his parishioners.

"Jack," Capt. Loveland's great St. Bernard dog, known to everybody as a handsome gentle fellow, died from the effects of a dose of poison. The family grieve, and the twin girls are heart-broken. It was their companion and protector from infancy, slept at their bedside, and accompanied them in all their rambles. Why any one should poison such an animal is beyond our comprehension.

A number of enterprising Hammonctonians are having printed on their stationary pictures of their residences, or attractive views of our Lake. The cost of the illustrations is not large, and it certainly does advertise the town well. If you contemplate doing this, we would be pleased to talk to you.

We hope that our Hammoncton people will follow their usual custom, this summer, in seedling baskets and boxes of flowers to the "shanties" in the city hospitals. No one but an ox-patient realizes how cheering a bunch of flowers is. We will gladly furnish the names and addresses of the different institutions.

Beautiful Flowers

Are admired by everyone, young and old. The fascination of some delicate plant, whose buds are tinged with the blended hues of the rainbow, is equal to that of the sweetest strains of music. The young lady will think a great deal more of her lover if he will present her with a pretty bouquet of well selected flowers. This is the season of year to procure them in all their natural beauty, and at prices within the reach of all.

Schwartz, the celebrated florist, on 12th St. near Cherry Road, keeps the largest selection in Hammoncton. If you want them to decorate the grave of your little one taken away from you by death, go to Schwartz's. If you want them as a gift, hand for your daughter's wedding night, go to Schwartz's, as they will keep constantly on hand everything in this line that you will be apt to desire. Their flowers are of the choicest and most select varieties to be had, and no one can fail to be perfectly suited in making a selection from their stock. Base-Ball News.
The Hammonton Club went to Egg Harbor last Saturday, weakened by the absence of Cordery and Setley.
They only scored seven runs while their opponents made 12. Nuf ced.

The H. G. W. defeated Cedar Brook, last Saturday, by 20 to 9. With some exceptions, our boys batted hard, and though a trifle backward at first, they rallied after fourth inning and held the visitors down to four blanks at the finish. Persico did good work on 2nd and the battery played their usual good game.

On Decoration Day, the G. W. will play two games with the Beuna Vista Club, which is reputed to be a strong team, and will undoubtedly present a very interesting opposition. Games

Doctor's Bad Plight.
"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L.
Boarhough, of Hebron, Ohio. "Then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Croup, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for throat and lung troubles by Rogers. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free.

Good for Rheumatism.
L. t. Fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman.
After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle was completely cured.—BARTIN
