

South-Jersey Republican

Orville E. Hoyt, Publisher.

Terms--$1.25 Per Year.

VOL. 27.

HAMMONTON, N. J., MAY 25, 1889.

NO. 21.

We are prepared to fit you with Glasses of almost every style and quality. Broken frames and glasses repaired.

CARL M. COOK, Jeweler and Optician.

Spring has Arrived!

And so have

Spring and Summer Goods

At C. E. HALL'S New Store.

Refrigerators, with Patent Drip Cups. Oil Stoves.
Hardware. Tin and Wooden-ware. Furniture.
Carpets. Rugs. Anti-Rusting Tinware.
Patent Dinner Pails. Table and Floor Oil Cloth.
Curtains and Wall Paper got to order.
Repairing of all kinds in our line done promptly.

C. E. HALL, cor. Bellevue and Central Aves.

GEORGE ELVINS

DEALER IN

Groceries, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes

Flour, Feed, Fertilizers, Agricultural Implements, etc., etc.

N. B.—Superior Family Flour a Specialty.

M. L. Jackson Sells

All Vegetables in their Season.

His Wagons Run through the Town and Vicinity

$2.60 for
South Jersey Republican
AND Demorest's Monthly Magazine.
A WONDERFUL PUBLICATION.

Many suppose DEMOREST'S MONTHLY to be a fashion magazine. This is a great mistake. It undoubtedly contains the finest fashion illustrations of any magazine published, but this is the case from the fact that great enterprise and experience are shown, so that each department is equal to a magazine in itself. In DEMOREST'S you get a dozen magazines in one, and secure amusement and instruction for the whole family. It contains stories, poems, and other literary attractions, including articles, (some of them) of great value, and is illustrated with original steel engravings, photographs, water-colors, and fine woodcuts, making it the most beautiful magazine of America.

Each copy contains a PATTERN Order entitling the holder to the selection of ANY PATTERN illustrated in any number of the Magazine, and in ANY OF THE SIGNS manufactured, each valued at from 20 cents to 30 cents, or over $3.00 worth of patterns per year, free.

Yearly subscription, $2.60. A trial will convince you that you can get ten times the value of the money paid. Single copies (each containing Pattern Order), 20 cents.

Published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, New York.

The above combination is a splendid chance to get our paper and DEMOREST'S MONTHLY at reduced rate. Send your subscriptions to this office.

Watch the New Strawberries.

A large portion of our strawberry growers have come to the conclusion that the old Wilson and Crescent are not exactly what we want, and many of them have invested a little in new varieties, with the hope of getting something better. In a few days, picking and shipping berries will leave little time for anything else, and I would suggest the advantage of examining all these different sorts in each other's grounds as well as in our own. In our own, Crystal City, as usual, takes the lead in ripening, and we picked two quarts of ripe berries from a small patch of it, May 20th. It is only moderately productive, but in addition to its early ripening it is excellent in quality, and we have it a week before other varieties come in. Among new varieties fruiting this season we have Gandy, Mammoth, Jessie, Warfield No. 2, and Haverland. Of these, Haverland strikes us as the most promising in appearance of any variety we have had for years. Without making an excessive number of runners, it has made enough plants, and they are exceptionally strong and very full of long conical berries, just now beginning to color,—quite as early as May King,—and some plants which were reset when in bud have now full clusters of fine looking berries. Warfield has made plants as freely as Crescent, and like that variety they are small, and the berries only moderate in size; although we notice a few (where they got better fed than the average) look better. P. H. Brown has quite a plot of them on his fine new farm, and we have no doubt it would well repay any small fruit grower to visit his place. Chris. Witmeyer, of New Germany, has Pearl in bearing; L. Monfort has Louise; and Wm. A. Elvins has Buck No. 5 and Belmont; and, by the way, we notice a few plants we have of the latter are this season making a pretty good showing of fruit. We suppose our friend Jacob Muhl will also be pleased to show his "Star." A few plants of his new black cap "Pioneer," which we set last year, are looking extra well at the present time.

WM. F. BASSETT.

President Harrison has quietly sat down upon all suggestions as to Sunday conferences at the White House. When he first took possession of the office he now occupies some of his friends, with the habits of his immediate predecessor in view, and forgetting President Harrison's character, asked to have interviews on Sundays. The President admitted some of them for social intercourse, but when they broached politics there was an end to the conversation. General Harrison has never discussed politics or business on Sunday, and he is not inclined to begin at this time, especially when he has to live on it six days and nights in a week. Those who have had the hardihood to attempt to speak of official matters when they caught him on the street going to or from church, have not mentioned their rebukes to their friends. Quite a number of times politicians have been received at the White House on Saturday nights to talk politics, but their conferences have invariably ended with the week days.

Utah advices are to the effect that the Mormons are greatly dissatisfied with Mr. Thomas, the new governor of the territory. This speaks well for Governor Thomas.

Canada is now reported as anxious to settle the fishery controversy, and is apparently disposed to deal fairly with the United States. Obviously Canada is acquiring wisdom in this matter. The fish scales are dropping from her eyes.

Ex-Pension Commissioner Black has settled down to practice law in Chicago. General Black's withdrawal from public life has not left the enormous rent in our political system which he seems to have feared it would.

More fighting is going on in Hayti. White-winged peace can find no secure roosting place down there.

COAL.

Best Lehigh Coal for sale from yard, at lowest prices, in any quantity.

Orders for coal may be left at P. S. Tilton & Son's store. Coal should be ordered one day before it is needed.

GEO. F. SAXTON.

Mrs. C. M. JORDAN

Has the agency for

Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machines

Ladies are invited to call at her residence and see the

New No. 9,

High Arm, Automatic Tension. Noiseless in action, lightest running, and fastest feed of any machine made. Does all kinds of work,—Darning, as well as plain, practical work, on the thinnest muslin to the heaviest work made.

Old Machines Taken

In part payment, for which good prices are allowed.

Machines sold on instalments at lowest cash prices.

H. FIEDLER,

Manufacturer of

CIGARS.

Dealer in

Tobacco, Cigars, Confectionery,
HAMMONTON, N. J.

G. VALENTINE

IS THE ONLY

RESIDENT

UNDERTAKER.

W. A. HOOD, Assistant.

Ready to attend to all calls, day or night. Can furnish anything in this line there is in the market, at lowest prices. Mr. Hood's residence is on Peach St., next to C. P. Hill's. Orders left at Chas. Simons Livery will receive prompt attention.

COAL YARD

Having purchased Mr. Geo. Elvins' coal business, I will be prepared to furnish

THE BEST GRADES OF COAL

In large or small quantities, at shortest notice, and at bottom prices for 2240 pounds to the Ton.

Your patronage solicited.

W. H. Bernshouse.

Office in Wm. Bernshouse's office.

Allen Brown Endicott, Counselor-at-Law,

Real Estate and Law Building,
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

J. MURDOCH,

MANUFACTURER OF SHOES.

Ladies' Men's and Children's
Shoes made to order.

Boys' Shoes a Specialty.

Repairing Neatly Done.

A good stock of shoes of all kinds always on hand.

First floor—Small's Block,
Hammonoton, N. J.

Hammonoton Property For Sale.

A handsome residence on Bellevue Avenue, ten minutes walk from station, with large barn and other buildings; 24 acres of good land, all cultivated, mostly in fruit and berries. This will be divided, if desired.

Also—Seven acres on Liberty Street, in blackberries, in full bearing, and a good apple and pear orchard.

Also—3½ acres on Valley Avenue, in blackberries—full bearing.

Also—Ten acres on Myrtle Street,—8½ acres in fruit.

Also, Two valuable building lots on Bellevue Avenue, near the Presbyterian Church.

Also, Thirteen acres on Pine Road, 14 acres in bearing grapes (Moore's Early), 3 acres in cranberries three yrs. old, 7 acres cedar timber.

Inquire of

D. L. POTTER, Hammonoton.

A. J. SMITH,
NOTARY PUBLIC

AND Conveyancer.

Deeds, Mortgages, Agreements, Bills of Sale, and other papers executed in a neat, careful and correct manner.

Hammonoton, N. J.

A. J. KING,
Resident Lawyer,
Master in Chancery, Notary Public, Real Estate and Insurance Agent.
Insures in No. 1 companies, and at the lowest rates. Personal attention given to all business.

New Spring

Satteens,

Prints,

and Ginghams.

A Fine Assortment,
Just Received,

at Stockwell's.

AFTER ALL OTHERS FAIL
CONSULT
DR. LOBB
239 N. 10th St., below Callowhill, Phila., Pa.
20 years experience in all special diseases. Permanently restores those weakened by early indiscretions, etc. Call or write. Advice free and strictly confidential. Hours, 10 A. M. till 9 P. M., and 7 to 10 evenings. Send 2 ct. Stamp for Book.

This offer of Mr. Henry C. Lea to give $25,000 toward the endowment of a chair of hygiene at the University of Pennsylvania, provided a like sum be raised by other people is an exceedingly liberal one, and there should be but little difficulty in securing the amount mentioned for such a cause.

IT SEEMS to be the correct thing in the West for bank officials to give up all the loose cash lying about when some fellow demands it at the point of a gun or the mouth of a bottle. A Cheyenne, Wyo., cashier was "held" by a cowboy to the tune of $500. There ought to be some vacant positions in Western banks.

THE conference of copper magnates recently held in Paris has ended in a disagreement and the metal will be sold in the market for whatever it will bring. A proposition to fix the price and limit the production was not favorably received. The American representatives to the conference have called for home disgusted over the outlook.

THE wretched civil war in Haiti is still going on, with a little fighting and a great deal of lawlessness, violence, rapine, and general distress. It is tending powerfully to reduce the whole country to barbarism and must greatly lessen the productivity and resources of a naturally rich and fertile island. Probably no region of equal vegetable and mineral wealth and advantages of location has been so misgoverned and cursed by human folly and avarice in modern times, at least, as the West Indies.

MR. BRADLEY, of Kentucky, in declining to serve as American Minister Resident at Korea, has placed the Administration in an unpleasant position. Mr. Bradley's declination was caused by the fact that the Korean representative of this country is obliged to support a good many impetuous Americans. It appears that many Americans who go to Korea settle themselves upon the Minister, who is compelled to maintain them or let them starve. Instances are cited where Americans have made purchases in Korea and ordered the bills sent to the Minister. As the salary is only $7,500, a Minister cannot save much if he becomes a charitable administrator. Three Republicans besides Bradley have refused the appointment.

SOME scientists of future generations will probably find the graves of a few of the early settlers of Oklahoma and write heroically of the fact that it was the custom in the latter years of the nineteenth century to bury men with their boots on. He will probably also have a word to say as to the absence of any trace of wood indicating the use of a coffin and waste much time in considering this departure from common mortuary customs of the time, not knowing that early Oklahomites preferred informal burial to uncorked bacon, and used the first loaf of crumbs taken into the territory for food.

NEW YORK STATE, in common with many other States, has suffered from the depletion of its forests, while the picturesqueness of the Adirondack region has been sadly marred by the greed which has destroyed so much valuable timber. The first general observance of Arbor Day in that State took place March 3d, and it is to be hoped that it may be the means of arousing a public sentiment in favor of tree planting. Certainly there could be no more appropriate way of further commemorating the recent Centennial than by planting a shade or a fruit tree.

IT is said that Trinidad has decided to bend its energies to securing the establishment of manufacturing enterprises of various kinds. This is the direction in which the Trinidad people ought to work. They have the resources, need only to utilize them in the right way. Trinidad one of the chief manufacturing towns of the Far West. The foundation of Trinidad's future prosperity will be found in its iron and coal resources. With coal for fuel, and iron as a raw material with which to work, it is possible to make a great city almost anywhere. Trinidad has both in abundance. With good management, Trinidad could eyes in a great measure the history of Pittsburgh. A niggardly policy ought not to be considered for a moment. Every dollar spent judiciously would in time be returned four-fold. There is also a large trade area which Trinidad could well hope to supply in part. The Panhandle country of Texas and the north-eastern part of New Mexico are not far away. As they become populated they may be induced to look to Trinidad as one of their chief supply points.

THE ups and downs of life are better than being down all the time.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

The scornful delight in their scorn. Never go back, success has just begun. No good can be accomplished without effort.

The way of bliss lies not on beds of down. A weak person is sometimes laughed down.

The paths of glory lead but to the grave. What's all the gaudy glitter of a crown?

How long we live, not years, but actions tell. The greatest fool of all is he who fools himself.

Drop your bad habits and they cannot leave you. All is but lip wisdom that wants experience.

Truth is as artless as a child, and as persuasive. Common sense is the favorite daughter of Reason.

No men ever became really great without pain. Will thou set thine eyes upon that which is not?

You must stand your ground in the hour of duty. Under divine law men must work and earn their bread.

There is no revenge so complete as forgiveness. The next worst thing to living is to get caught at it.

Organized charity uncovers a multitude of sins. Tell me what you eat, and I'll tell you what you are.

A proud heart and a lofty mountain are never fruitful. It is wise not to seek a secret and honest to reveal it.

The blessed man does not sit in the seat of the scornful. Did you ever stop to think what may happen in a minute?

Kindness will often succeed where current ability will fail. Those who go for berries should not retreat from briars.

Genius beckons a man up, and if he attempts to climb will help him. Prosperity is no just scale; adversity is the only balance to weigh friends.

The world is a country to those who think; a tragedy to those who feel. How much more we might have learned if we had less to learn.

Life is no life without the blessing of a friendly and edifying conversation. The sooner you cut loose from one who deceives you, the better off you will be.

Moral courage will rank higher than physical. The one is a daily necessity, while the other may be required only in emergencies.

Do not fret. It only adds to your burden. To work hard is very well; but to work hard and worry too, is more than human nature can stand.

Nothing is more beautiful than a serene, virtuous, happy old age. Such an old age belongs to every individual's life if he only knows how to build it.

It is impossible that anything so natural, so necessary, and so universal as death, should ever have been designed by Providence as an evil to mankind.

We can delude ourselves, but we cannot cleanse ourselves. The sheep can go astray alone, but he can never return to the fold without the assistance of the shepherd.

There would be a great supply of wit and humor in this world, if we would only give others the same supply by being witty that we claim for ourselves.

Be a companion to your husband, if he is a wise man; and if he is not, try to make him become your companion. Raise his standard, do not let him lower yours.

A good many shrewd people have found out that the quickest way to get rich is to offer a free explanation of the art of getting rich to other people.

Sentimentalists like Byron and Shelley might have a horror of a woman who confessed to a hearty appetite; but the woman who fills homes with sunshine are those who can both cook a good dinner and help to eat it.

The tiniest dust that smites so sweetly at our feet owes its existence to the patient pushing upward of the small germ against all the obstacles of soil and stones; and, were it conscious, it might tell a tale of daily difficulty and struggle.

So in humanity itself all that is finest and most beautiful is intertwined with difficulty.

We are born in bonds, and lead through life in chains the strongest bonds to the position in which we find ourselves, the inheritance physical and moral given by parentage. We are chained by customs, things we are told; even when we differ from our fellows, the divergence comes from a law within ourselves.

Each one of us is bound to make the little circle in which he lives better and happier; one of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest glow may flow; each of us may have fixed in his mind that out of a single household may flow influences that shall stimulate the whole commonwealth and the whole civilized world.

As amber attracts a straw, so does beauty admiration which only tests which the warmth continues; but virtue, wisdom, goodness, and real worth, like the loadstone, never lose their power. These are the true graces, which, as Homer feigns, are linked and fastened in hand because it is by their influence that human hearts are so firmly united to each other.

He Kicked Thrice.

'Yes, we meet with all sorts of people here,' answered the railroad conductor, as he sat down in the smoker after making his rounds. 'It is a great place in which to study human nature.'

'Aren't there a good many kickers among travelers?'

'Plenty of them. I could have a fight every hour in the day if I wanted to talk back. There is one in the third seat ahead now. He lives at R—, and he never comes or goes without trying to get into a quarrel with me.'

'He seems quick enough.'

'But he only seems. I'm expecting every minute to hear his war-whoop. It is just an hour's run to R—, and I'll let him make three kicks in that time.'

'I'll go you for a box of cigars.'

'Done, old fellow. They were shaking hands on it when the man rose up and went to the water-cooler. He took two or three sips of water, and then walked back to the conductor and said:

'When you get ready to clean the drugs and chemicals out of that cooler please let me know. Perhaps I can buy a couple of dozen of copperas at wholesale figures.'

'That's one,' said the conductor, as the kicker took his seat.

'Next I have not to clean another round was made, and the official had scarcely taken his seat when the kicker came over and said:

'I'll bet I can raise a window in this coach which can be raised I wish you would label it for me.'

'That's two,' whispered the conductor, and he've got sixteen miles to go to R—.'

The kicker sat down to his newspaper, and he was so quiet for a time that the drummer began to have hopes. Eight—nine—ten miles rolled behind him, and he seemed deeply interested in an article when he suddenly bobbed up and came over to the conductor and said:

'Are you satisfied? asked the conductor after the kicker had taken his seat.

'I've got to be. And that's his usual practice, is it?'

'Oh, hell, it's worth a box of cigars to see that kind of nature in this way.'

The world is a country to those who think; a tragedy to those who feel. How much more we might have learned if we had less to learn.

Life is no life without the blessing of a friendly and edifying conversation. The sooner you cut loose from one who deceives you, the better off you will be.

Moral courage will rank higher than physical. The one is a daily necessity, while the other may be required only in emergencies.

Do not fret. It only adds to your burden. To work hard is very well; but to work hard and worry too, is more than human nature can stand.

Nothing is more beautiful than a serene, virtuous, happy old age. Such an old age belongs to every individual's life if he only knows how to build it.

It is impossible that anything so natural, so necessary, and so universal as death, should ever have been designed by Providence as an evil to mankind.

We can delude ourselves, but we cannot cleanse ourselves. The sheep can go astray alone, but he can never return to the fold without the assistance of the shepherd.

There would be a great supply of wit and humor in this world, if we would only give others the same supply by being witty that we claim for ourselves.

Be a companion to your husband, if he is a wise man; and if he is not, try to make him become your companion. Raise his standard, do not let him lower yours.

A good many shrewd people have found out that the quickest way to get rich is to offer a free explanation of the art of getting rich to other people.

Sentimentalists like Byron and Shelley might have a horror of a woman who confessed to a hearty appetite; but the woman who fills homes with sunshine are those who can both cook a good dinner and help to eat it.

The tiniest dust that smites so sweetly at our feet owes its existence to the patient pushing upward of the small germ against all the obstacles of soil and stones; and, were it conscious, it might tell a tale of daily difficulty and struggle.

So in humanity itself all that is finest and most beautiful is intertwined with difficulty.

We are born in bonds, and lead through life in chains the strongest bonds to the position in which we find ourselves, the inheritance physical and moral given by parentage. We are chained by customs, things we are told; even when we differ from our fellows, the divergence comes from a law within ourselves.

Each one of us is bound to make the little circle in which he lives better and happier; one of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest glow may flow; each of us may have fixed in his mind that out of a single household may flow influences that shall stimulate the whole commonwealth and the whole civilized world.

As amber attracts a straw, so does beauty admiration which only tests which the warmth continues; but virtue, wisdom, goodness, and real worth, like the loadstone, never lose their power. These are the true graces, which, as Homer feigns, are linked and fastened in hand because it is by their influence that human hearts are so firmly united to each other.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

SUNDAY MAY 20, 1900.

Jesus Betrayed.

LESSON TEXT.

(Mark 14: 43-54. Memory verses, 48-50.)

LESSON PLAN.

TOPIC OF THE QUARTER: Jesus Finishing His Work.

GOLDEN TEXT FOR THE QUARTER: I have glorified the world on earth, having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do.—John 17: 4.

LESSON TOPIC: Betrayed by a Friend.

1. The Act of Betrayal, vs. 43-45. 2. The Accompaniments of Betrayal, vs. 46-50. 3. The Results of Betrayal, vs. 51-54.

GOLDEN TEXT: Betrayed thou the Son of man with a kiss.—Luke 22: 48.

DAILY HOME READINGS:

M.—Mark 14: 43-54. Betrayed by a friend.

T.—Mark 14: 43-54. Betrayed by a friend.

W.—Luke 22: 47-55. Luke's parallel narrative.

Th.—John 18: 24-25. John's parallel narrative.

F.—Psa. 41: 1-13. Betrayed by a friend.

S.—Matt. 26: 1-10. The betrayer's fate.

LESSON ANALYSIS.

I. THE ACT OF BETRAYAL.

1. The Leader: While he yet slept, cometh Judas, one of the twelve (43).

2. The Betrayer: Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him (44).

3. The Act: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (45).

4. The Result: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (46).

5. The Multitude: A multitude with swords and staves (47).

6. The Arrest: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (48).

7. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (49).

8. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (50).

9. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (51).

10. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (52).

11. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (53).

12. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (54).

13. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (55).

14. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (56).

15. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (57).

16. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (58).

17. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (59).

18. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (60).

19. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (61).

20. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (62).

21. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (63).

22. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (64).

23. The Accompaniments of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (65).

24. The Results of Betrayal: Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor (66).

and bound Jesus (Mark 16: 1). The whole company of them... brought him before Pilate (Luke 23: 2). Their voices prevailed (Luke 23: 23). Peter... was sitting with the officers (44).

Peter... entered in, and sat with the officers, to see the end (Mark 28: 58). Before entering on my subject, I wish to say that some newspaper correspondents, referring to a recent sermon in which I welcomed foreign nationalities to this country, have said that I was "showing more sunshine than shower."

The heart had not been broken by troubles, nor had sickness broken it, and no lamb had a warmer shepherd than the home in which their childhood nestled.

THE OLD FARM. Perhaps you were brought up in the country. You stand now to-day in memory under the old trees. You dream of the days when you were a boy, and you could not wait any longer. You hear the brook running along over the pebbles. You step again into the furrow which your father in his shirt sleeves should to the lazy oxen. You frighten the swallows from the rafters of the barn, and take just one step and gleam into the sky.

You may have been a boy, but you are not now. You are a man, and you are a father. You are a man, and you are a father. You are a man, and you are a father.

THE PLACE OF MY BOYHOOD. It was one of the most emotional and absorbing days of my life. They stand the old house, and as I went through the rooms I said, "I take a drink again with my eyes shut, although I have not drunk since I was a boy. There was the sitting-room, where a large family group every evening gathered, the most of them now in a better world. There was the old barn where we hunted for Easter eggs, and the place where the horses stood. There is where the orchard was, only three or four trees now left of all the country once so full of fruit. There is where we rode to the war of the horses bareback and with a rope halter.

THE HISTORY OF THE BETRAYAL. The arrest desired (John 7: 30; 11: 57). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

THE ARREST. The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON:

Other Days Lived Over.

"Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee: from the day that thou camest out of the land of Egypt, until thou comest into the land which thou shalt possess." Deut. 5: 15.

Before entering on my subject, I wish to say that some newspaper correspondents, referring to a recent sermon in which I welcomed foreign nationalities to this country, have said that I was "showing more sunshine than shower."

The heart had not been broken by troubles, nor had sickness broken it, and no lamb had a warmer shepherd than the home in which their childhood nestled.

THE OLD FARM. Perhaps you were brought up in the country. You stand now to-day in memory under the old trees. You dream of the days when you were a boy, and you could not wait any longer. You hear the brook running along over the pebbles. You step again into the furrow which your father in his shirt sleeves should to the lazy oxen. You frighten the swallows from the rafters of the barn, and take just one step and gleam into the sky.

You may have been a boy, but you are not now. You are a man, and you are a father. You are a man, and you are a father. You are a man, and you are a father.

THE PLACE OF MY BOYHOOD. It was one of the most emotional and absorbing days of my life. They stand the old house, and as I went through the rooms I said, "I take a drink again with my eyes shut, although I have not drunk since I was a boy. There was the sitting-room, where a large family group every evening gathered, the most of them now in a better world. There was the old barn where we hunted for Easter eggs, and the place where the horses stood. There is where the orchard was, only three or four trees now left of all the country once so full of fruit. There is where we rode to the war of the horses bareback and with a rope halter.

THE HISTORY OF THE BETRAYAL. The arrest desired (John 7: 30; 11: 57). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12). The arrest (Mark 14: 46; John 18: 12).

</

