EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I do not wish to take advantage of your columns so frequently, but in order to make another matter plain I am compelled to impose on you again.

It is understood by many that the schools are to have no Principal, the members of the Board serving as supervisors. This is a mistaken supposition.
The Principal who may be elected will teach at Central, and be responsible for discipline, having charge of all the rooms, just the same as during the past year, but will be relieved of the supervision of the outside schools, though he will perhaps be required to visit them in order to examine the course of study.
Each teacher of the outside schools will have charge of her own school.

What has given a shade of truth to the rumor is this. Each member of the Board has heretofore been allowed to visit the schools at his or her pleasure, and of course there was no regularity in such work. Now the rule is that each member must visit a school at least once a month, and hence each member is assigned a school (at Central three members), to report at next meeting the condition and progress of the school.
Should the teacher at any school wish attention directed to any matter, she has the member for that school as a visitor every month instead of semi-occasionally. At Central, the three members simply visit the school rooms.
They have no power to interfere with the Principal.

The rule adopted by the Board is simply to make members of the Board do more work; and they change places every three months, so as to give all a chance at the near-by schools. That is all there is to the "supervision" rumor.
P. H. JACOBS, Dist. Clerk.

MR. EDITOR.—W. asks in your issue of May 11th why we should not be as liberal as Vineland and allow our "boys and girls" to ride their wheels on the sidewalks. I believe the sidewalks in Vineland are somewhat wider than ours, and for this reason bicycles would interfere less with pedestrians. It requires pretty careful riding to pass two persons walking abreast on our walks, without interference. Then perhaps there are no hogs who ride bicycles in Vineland, which cannot be said of this place; for when a person on a bicycle, either male or female, comes up rapidly behind two ladies on the sidewalk and persistently rings until they get off the walk, as has been done here more than once, and in the evening at that, I know of no more appropriate appellation. When our bicyclers all show by their actions that they are ladies and gentlemen, and either get off their wheels or slow up and civilly ask pedestrians for a chance to pass, possibly it will create a different feeling towards them here. It is often a little confusing to hear a sudden ring, followed by the rapid whirr of a wheel close behind one; and it requires a cool head not to be liable to step in the way instead of out of the way.
AN OLD BOY.

Mr. Fowler's business has increased so much this Spring that he was forced to enlarge his quarters and now has the entire building. By moving the bicycle repair shop to the back part of the building it gives him a large and commodious show room for his wall paper. It is only lately that Mr. Fowler has tried to sell wall paper outside of his regular paper hanging customers but he carries such a good assortment, combined with low prices, that customers come from Elwood, Waterford, Columbia, Atsion and surrounding towns. He is the only person who keeps a good assortment of felt.

If King Solomon was alive he would now say: "Go to the traveling man, learn his ways, and be wise." Mr. C. W.
Battell, a Cincinnati traveling man representing the Queen City Printing Ink Co., after suffering intensely for two or three days with lameness of the shoulder, resulting from rheumatism, completely cured it with two applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This remedy is gaining a wide reputation for its prompt cures of rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings, and lameness. 50 cent bottles are for sale by druggists.

A deaf-mute and idiotic Italian boy, about fourteen years old, who lived with his folks on Broadway, near Main Road, became violently insane last week, and was surrendered to the authorities. This will make the round-trip rates as follows: New York, $8.75; Philadelphia, $5.40; other points in proportion.

Prof. Johnson Bane's guitar recital, Monday evening, called out a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Bane's manipulation of the guitar strings was a revelation to those who have recognized the instrument as only an accompaniment. He is a master of the art. Our talent, Mr. Oswald with his zither, Mr. Evans and his dulcimer, Messrs. Thayer, Fairchild, and Fiedler, with guitar, violin, and cornet, sustained the credit of the town, and filled out a pleasing entertainment. Oh, yes, there was an Italian accordion player, talented, who brought music from that instrument, and created much amusement for the audience.

The more they think of it, the more indignant our people generally feel at the recent action of our Board of Education, particularly at their refusal to comply with a request made by petition. This feeling is much more general than we supposed, and has crystallized into a call for a public meeting in the Central School-house on Monday evening next, where the parents and other interested voters can have opportunity to tell the Board what they want. One member of the Board is reported to have said, in effect, that they were elected to direct school matters, and proposed to do so. Very well, so far; but they are the public's servants, and when notified what is wanted, should obey the mandate. "The people" are roused to action once in a while, and their movements are irresistible.

A Bridgeton nurseryman sued Chris. Rehman, before Justice Presssey, Thursday, for the price of two thousand strawberry plants. Rehman apparently satisfied the jury that the plants were worthless, and the verdict was for defendant.

Ex-Alderman Sutton writes to friends here that he is well pleased with his new home at Hammoniton, N. J.
He moved there only a few weeks ago, but he has already got nicely situated.
The fruit prospects on his farm he says are as good as they have been for years, and he looks for an immense yield of pears, peaches and berries. Alex. says that while he is well satisfied with the change so far, he still thinks fondly of this city. - Herald-Despatch, Decatur, Ill.

At Egg Harbor City, Sunday evening, a dispute between a man named Hand and Frank Dayton (member of a well-known family at Tarklin Neck and vicinity) was followed by a fight, during which Dayton drew a big knife and carved Hand savagely. Dayton and a young fellow named Johnson —son of Edw. Johnson, recently deceased—who was somehow mixed up in the matter, are in jail, and the wounded man is under a doctor's care, with good prospect of recovery.

Edward Try, who it will be remembered was arrested in Philadelphia a few years ago for snatching a pocketbook from a lady in that city, and released because of his plea of extreme poverty, is now in jail in May's Landing. It seems that he has been living, with his family and dogs, in a little house below the Lake. Evidently he is too lazy to work, for he is an expert color mixer, and lately refused a job at fifteen dollars per week. On Monday his wife accused him before Justice Atkinson, of cruel treatment, and assault and battery with intent to kill. Constable Bernhouse took him in custody, and after a hearing, the Justice committed him in default of $500 bail. As Mrs.
Try tells the story, he will not work, and will not allow her to earn anything, saying that $1.60 per week was enough to keep the family of four and two dogs.
He will now have a few weeks of uninterrupted rest, and his wife will be at liberty to kill the dogs and provide for herself and boys.

Saved his Life.

Mr. G. Gaillouette, druggist, Beavers-ville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with grippe and tried all physicians for miles about but of no avail, and was giving up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store, I sent for a bottle and began its use, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Croft's Pharmacy.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1235 Harrison St., Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last Winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me very acute and severe," he said.
"My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by druggists.
