Suburban schools closed yesterday afternoon.

Sunday Schools are preparing for Children's Day.

The Eighth Grade will have a State examination next week.

The banks, post-office, and many of the stores will celebrate to-day.

George Collins has been added to The Peoples Bank clerical force.

Hammonton-grown strawberries are being peddled from house to house.

The Civic Club will meet in Firemen's Hall on Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock.

There will be two games of ball to-day, at 10 and 2.30, between our boys and Wildwood.

Tony Russo is at home, after many weeks of serious illness, and operation, in a private hospital at Atlantic City.

The G. P. of A. have purchased a fine "volley ball, which can be used for many kinds of games on the playgrounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fries, with their nephew, Harry Galbraith, of California, visited their former home town, yesterday.

Regular meeting of Hammonton Grange, Friday, June 5th, at 8.00 p.m. Six applications for membership are to be acted upon.

St. Mark's Parish Aid Society invites the ladies to meet with them in the Parish House on Wednesday at 2 p.m. Refreshments.

Mr. Matola has leased the Palace Theatre, and this week Dr. Long, the medicine man, has occupied it with his vaudeville troupe.

Miss Ray Mangold was awarded $3500 damages from the W. J. & S.R.R. Co., yesterday, for injuries received several months ago.

Loan Associations next week,—Workingmen's on Monday evening, and Hammonton on Thursday eve. Both meetings in Firemen's Hall.

The Eighth Grade graduation exercises will probably be held on the last day of school, in Bellevue Hall. The program will include an operetta.

Henry Elder spent Monday in Hammonton. He has been near death's door during the past few months, at Ventnor, but is on the way to health.

The large and appreciative crowd that attended the Civic Club annual supper last week Friday night, was loud in its praise of both menu and entertainment.

Universalist Church, to-morrow. Morning topic, "The constraining love of Christ." Evening, union temperance meeting in the Presbyterian Church.

Baptist Church, 10.30, topic, "Real Christianity." Children's talk, "Stop, look and listen." At 11.45, Bible study; 1.00, Junior Endeavor; 6.30, Y. P. S. C. R.; 7.30, topic, "The good fight."

Mrs. Florence Ewell Atkins, National Organizer and Lecturer, W. C. T. U., will address the united congregations of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Universalist Churches, to-morrow evening, in the Presbyterian Church.

The Universalist Church was will filled, last Sunday morning, with veterans, members of patriotic organizations, and friends. The sermon by Dr. Gardner was full of patriotic sentiment, as was the music. The decorations, consisting of flags and flowers, were very neatly done.

At the annual commencement exercises of the Combs Broad Street Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia, held Tuesday evening, May 26th, among those completing the course in Public School Music Supervision was Miss Anna Bowker, of Hammonton. With previous instruction in various branches of musical art, Miss Bowker will be found well equipped for her chosen work.

Al Powell, who has been under suspicion as concerned in many of Hammonton's robberies, was taken to May's Landing yesterday, to await trial. A year ago last November, a handsome gun was stolen from an auto, in front of Heck's, and though search was made, no trace of it could be found until this week, when it was discovered in a well where Powell had lived. On Thursday night, when taken before Justice Strouse, Al acknowledged that theft, and would not deny the other charges. It is supposed that he had confederates.

DECORATION DAY

Line will form in front of Odd Fellows' Building at 9.00 sharp, on Saturday morning, May 30th.

Proceed to Oak Grove Cemetery, where Rev. Wm. J. Cusworth will deliver an address, school-girls sing, and the G. A. R. and P. O. S. of A. decorate veterans' graves.

Counter-marching to Greenmount, where Rev. W. S. Marple will speak, girls sing, and graves decorated.

Hammonton Band will accompany them, and play at both Cemeteries.

Off to Washington.

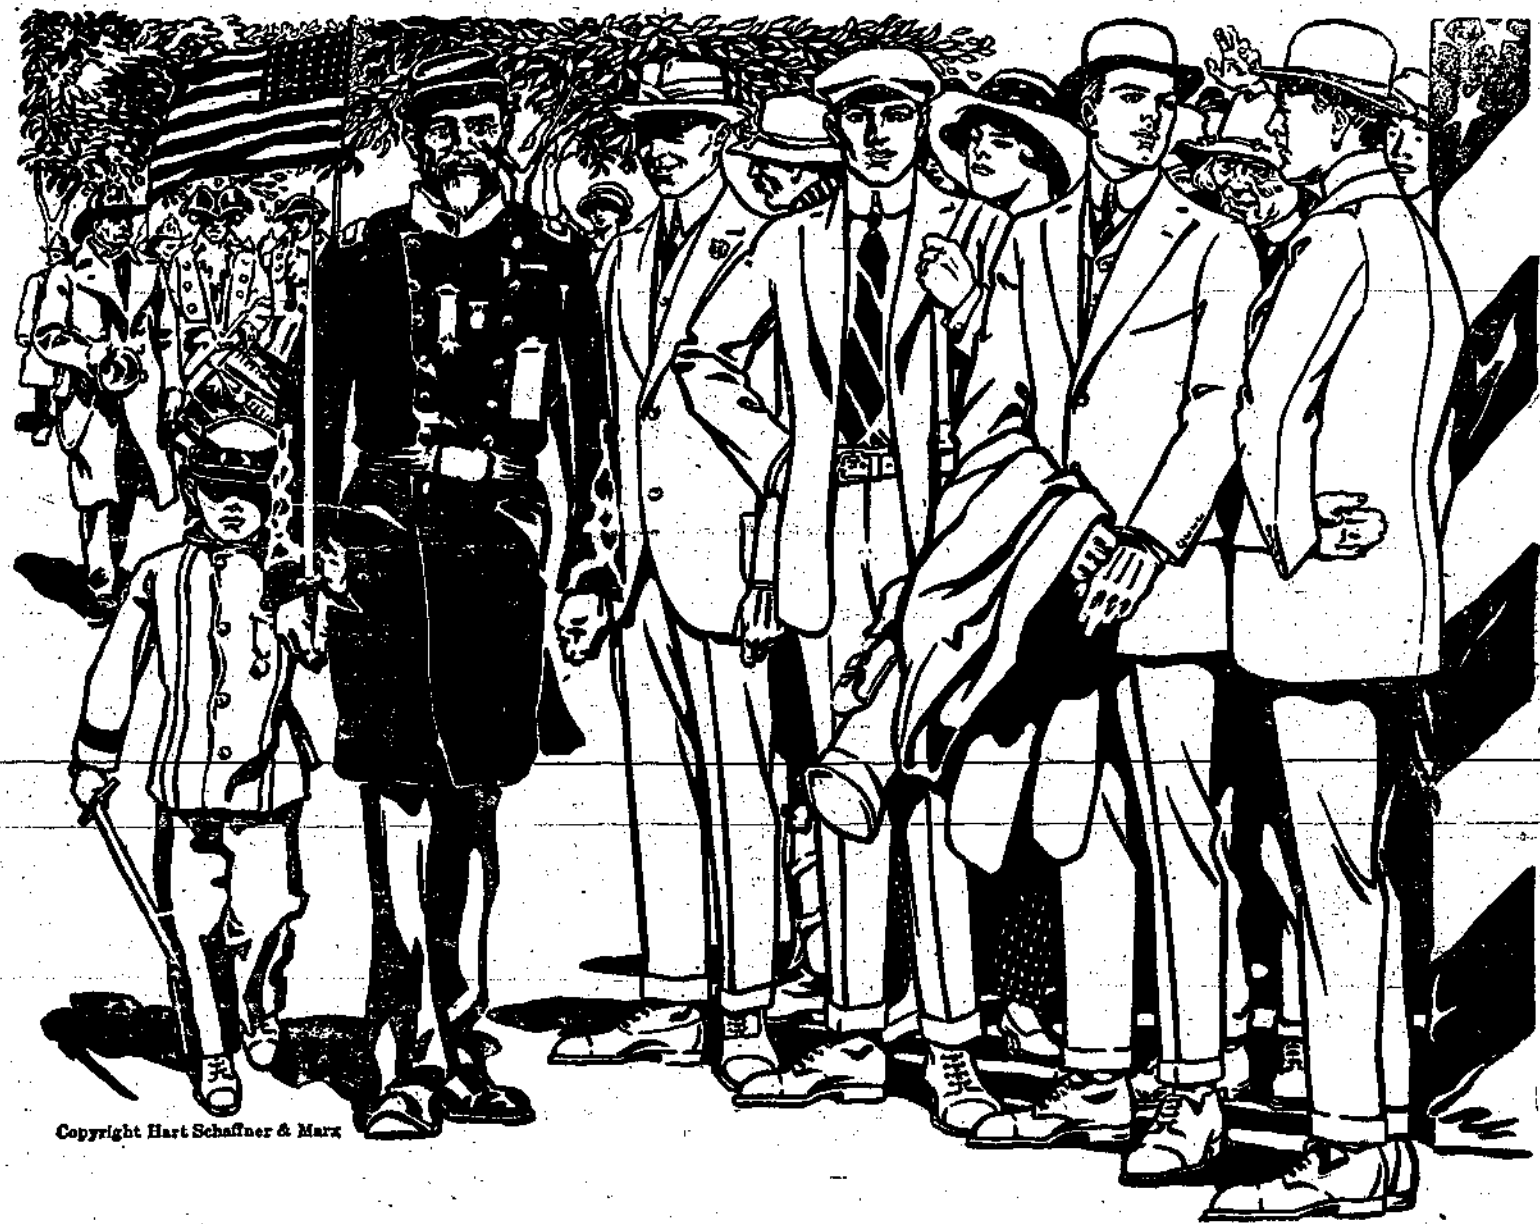

It was a jolly crowd of twenty-three graduates of Hammonton High School, Thursday morning, taking the six o'clock train for the Nation's Capital. Their names—

Eugene Cordery	May Ralph Norton
Harry A. Crossdale	Kenneth O. Myrick
Louis M. Cunningham	Clayton Noyling
Fred. H. Hooper	Wm. Persico
A. Everett Hooper	Walter Rice
Clarence L. Hoppling	Anna M. Price
Clara L. Luger	Helen M. Munnell
Anna V. Lucas	Charles Snyder
Helen Mart	Robert Thomas
Marjorie Montfort	Mildred L. Tilton
Louise M. E. Morton	Katherine Youngman
Norbert P. Dettloch

The plan was to take in all points of interest, chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. Stetler, and to leave Washington at four o'clock this afternoon, arriving home on the bridge train at eight o'clock. It will be an educational outing never forgotten.

The Why and Wherefore of It.

I am a firm believer in printer's ink, judiciously and persistently used. Injudiciously and spasmodically used, used to propagate a lie or deceive the public, printer's ink is black, nasty stuff, which always does more harm than good. I do not believe it possible to boom a town, or carry forward to the highest degree of success the work of a Board of Trade, however well and compactly organized and officered, without the careful and liberal use of printer's ink. The why and the wherefore of it must be perfectly evident to all thinking people.

I think I may safely lay it down as a general principle, which nine out of ten of the thinking people of Hammonton will accept as true, that in order to boom a town, as a town, the first real work must be done right in the town itself.

Unless we can enthuse the people at home, get them to swinging their hats and shouting themselves hoarse for the town, make them see that the prosperity of the town means prosperity for each and every one of them as residents of that town, all the plans of the best organized and best officered Board of Trade will come to nothing. The people must be interested in the work of the Board, and inspired with what the Board is doing or trying to do, or they will soon lose interest in meetings of the Board.

Let me repeat, please. The first and most important work of any Board of Trade is right in the town where the Board is located. Hammonton is no exception to this rule. We must go to the people with all the facts, tell them what we are doing or trying to do, and enthuse them with it, or they will soon come to think that we are doing nothing, and lose interest. If the people are not interested and enthused, they will not help us to clean up the front door-yard of the town, get rid of the half-burned livery stables, the old blacksmith shops with their unsightly accumulations of rubbish, move back the "mansions" that now stand almost in the middle of our finest avenue, burn up the "for sale" signs, and do a lot of other stunts that greatly need to be done for the good of the town. These unsightly things in our front door-yard give the stranger who comes to look the town over a very unfavorable impression before he steps from the train.

John G. Galigne offers one hundred dollars in cash to help move the old round-house to some less conspicuous location. If a hundred others would follow his example, it would give this town such a start as has not been dreamed of. If the people here cannot be interested, enthused, and inspired with confidence, strangers who come in will feel the chill of their indifference and return to their homes in disgust. No use to attempt to deny this, for it cannot be successfully contradicted.

When Nehemiah was sent to rebuild the broken down walls of Jerusalem, he soon found that he had a very big job on his hands. He was surrounded by a lot of old croakers, who were constantly saying "It can't be done." But the prophet was sure that it could be done, and the first thing he did was to go among the people and work up a sentiment in favor of the project. His first effort was to gain their confidence and awaken enthusiasm. So successful was he that the people soon went to work, every man over against his own house, every man armed to the teeth for his own protection in case of sudden attack by some enemy. The walls of Jerusalem were soon rebuilt; and we can very soon make of Hammonton a modern American city of twenty-five thousand inhabitants if we will go at it in the same way.

I will do my part.
J. A. VAN FLEET.

P. S. I am to occupy an even column of space in this paper each week till the end of the year. I am to speak my honest sentiments in regard to Hammonton and its people, without fear or favor. I am to assist the new Board of Trade, which I helped to organize, in every way possible. I am to keep my readers fully informed in regard to the trolley and factory and other good things which may be headed our way. I am fully convinced that if Jersey lightning, in the shape of a trolley line, could strike Hammonton, it would wake up the old town in great shape. I will tell you all I know about the trolley next week. We can have it and many other good things in Hammonton if we will get busy.

Interesting to the Girls.

The Girl Pioneers of America are having a series of treats. Last week Friday evening, Mrs. J. C. Bitler gave a very interesting and helpful talk on "Practical Nursing," Miss Elsie Denberg making a perfect "helpless patient."

Wednesday, after school, the younger Pioneers and a few friends were invited to the home of the Director, to attend a model session of the Junior Chautauqua, conducted by Miss Helen Bernshouse, who is soon to take up her work with Chautauqua Association. Volley ball and dodge ball games were taught, and the delightful session was closed by the usual story hour, —Miss B. telling the beautiful story of "Lohengrin." If it can be arranged, another meeting will be conducted by Miss Bernshouse. All girls between ten and fourteen years old will be welcome. Watch Krimmell's show window for the announcement.

Next Friday evening, June 5th, Mrs. Bitler will favor the Band with another of her practical talks on nursing. No girl can afford to miss one of these, as it is seldom that such lectures are given outside of a hospital or nurses' school, and the need of just such knowledge comes to nearly every woman and girl many times during their life.

The Hammonton Paint

Is the very best paint ever used in Hammonton.

There are scores of buildings in town covered with this paint, which look well after eight or ten years of wear.

The Hammonton Paint is sold for less than other first-class paint.

It has no equal, as it works well, covers well, and wears well.
