Hammoncton Chautauqua.

The prospect for a successful Chautauqua was never so bright as it is to-day. People are beginning to realize that it is of immense value to Hammoncton, and are making sacrifices in order to secure tickets for themselves and family.

Every one should wear a button; and in your correspondence incidentally mention the fact that this is our second Chautauqua season. Tickets will be on sale at Klingenberg's, the Gas Company's office, and at Jackson's. Prices are as follows: Season tickets, adults, $2; Juniors (under fifteen years), $1.

A number of citizens have guaranteed extra tickets in case they are called upon to make up a deficiency; and if the committee meets with success next week, all the tickets will be sold.

The Junior Chautauqua takes place each morning, from nine to eleven o'clock. Of course, Junior tickets will admit to this and all other sessions of Chautauqua.

As will be seen by the booklets, there has been a change in the Sunday programme. Dr. Holmes, who was to preach in the evening, will go to Millville, and Rev. Edw. Russell Perry, of New York, take his place. The programme for the final day will be as follows:

Sunday afternoon—
3:00 Sacred Concert—National Quartette.
3:30 Vesper Service—Hammoncton Pastors.
Sermon by Dr. R. W. McLaughlin.
Sacred Concert—National Quartette.

Sermon—Rev. E. R. Perry, "The Mess of Pottage Redeemed."

The various churches will close after Sunday School, and unite both afternoon and evening, in the tent meetings.

The Atlantic City Daily Press is to be congratulated on its enlarged and improved appearance.

Wouldn't it have been a wiser plan to delay the spreading of that glutamine until after the rainy spell? Soon after being laid, much of it was putting along the avenue, in the gutters.

Merchants are still feeling the drought, in their efforts at collecting. Mad dog stories have been exciting Hammoncton people this week.

A schoolboy was attacked on Central Avenue, Wednesday, and escaped with hardly torn clothing. Another boy had a similar experience, on the same avenue, neither being bitten into the flesh. Near Winslow, Sam Donio's hand was torn open by the same animal, which returned to Thirtieth Street and Egg Harbor Road, and bit a small child named Lugeni, on the face. The dog was last seen headed for Elm, biting everything in its path. Both victims were brought to Dr. Cunningham who immediately put Donio under the Pasteur treatment for rabies.

As something had to be done, a colored dog catcher was started out yesterday, accompanied by a wire covered wagon, quite a number being gathered in. Dr. Cunningham had offered to chloroform any dog brought to him. It's hard on the dogs and their owners, but human life must be considered first.

Officer Adams and his specialists did good work yesterday, watching the hundreds of automobiles and motor cycles, and the town full of visitors.

$9000 Jury Reform.

Jury reform—genuine jury reform—is cheap at any price. But when taxpayers of the State are called upon to waste $9000 in order to coax and coerce Democrats who were unwilling to keep their party pledges, the situation is a black commentary on the honesty of the party in power.

Had the Democrats of the Legislature, each one of whom was bound in his demands for reform prior to election day, really desired to give the people jury reform, the regular session afforded ample opportunity. But it was allowed to close with the Smith-Nugent and Wilson factions sparring for an advantageous compromise.

The special session, which cost just $9000, has been fruitful of nothing better than an emergency bill, which leaves the jury-drawing function with the sheriff, properly safeguarded. But this is better than nothing, and Governor Fielder, who drew the bill, is entitled to thanks of the public for his efforts. So are the Republicans, all of whom voted for the Fielder bill and thereby helped its passage.—ATLANTIC PRESS.

Governor Hadley
AT THE 1913 CHAUTAUQUA.

An interesting fluke of political play made young Herbert S. Hadley Attorney-General of Missouri thirteen years ago.

Shrewd belligerence and brains kept him at the top when the party split was split. The steel-jawed will of the man who chose the united oil companies of the State and the united railroads of the State as his first opponents, put something splendidly brazen in his lecture. Governor Hadley, still young, is less of a fighter, more of a promoter, than he used to be. Still, there is spirit enough and to spare in the activities of the National Farm Home Association!

Whether he will speak of domestic colonization or of the problems of law or government, Mr. Hadley is sure to have something commanding to say.

Put your Money to Work.

The man, woman or child who has $5, $10, $20 $25, or so, not in immediate demand, should put the money "to work" quickly by opening a "Time Account" at this bank. This will provide for its safe-keeping, will be an incentive to add more to it, and we will place to your credit three per cent interest on all funds deposited here subject to the usual fourteen days' notice of withdrawal. Don't expose your money to danger of loss; don't allow it to lie about idle, when it can earn something for you.

New Jury Reform Act Signed.

Governor Fielder on Tuesday last signed the Fielder jury law which takes effect immediately, and hereafter all grand and petit juries must be drawn in accordance with its provisions.

Briefly, the new bill provides that all sheriffs shall, before the opening of each term of court, make up a grand jury list of 500 names for first-class counties, 300 names for second class counties (like Atlantic City), and 200 names for all other counties; and a petit jury list of 700 names for first class counties, and 500 names for second class counties, and 300 names for all other counties.

A copy of each list shall be delivered to the Supreme Court-Justice at least thirty days before the opening term, from which the Justice may strike any number of names and direct the Sheriff to draw his grand or petit juries from the revised list. Each name on the list shall be numbered.

The Justice shall fix a day for the Sheriff to draw his juries from these lists, and the lists shall be provided to correspond with the names on the list, which lists shall be deposited in the presence of the Court. The numbers on the lists corresponding with the numbers so drawn shall be the jurors.

Forty names shall thus be drawn for a grand jury panel, so that the Justice may exclude those unable or disqualified to serve, until twenty-three shall remain, and the Court shall designate one of their number to act as foreman. No juror shall be eligible for service or tenure more than once a year.

Everything is growing rapidly since the plentiful rains. Even red raspberries are ripening.

Memorial Day.

Memorial Day was observed yesterday by the G. A. R. Post and members of the P. O. S. of A.
Preceded by the Band, they journeyed to Oak Grove Cemetery. The services were short—the address
being made by Rev. W. S. Marple.

At Greenmount Cemetery there was an address by Mr. E. Adams, which, with music and gun-fire,
made the day memorable.

In both cemeteries, large crowds
were present.

Later, the D. A. R. gave the veterans and their wives a sumptuous dinner in the Universalist Church.

Most of the stores closed at ten o'clock; but the base-ball enthusiasts
had no time for remembrance,
and attended games both morning
and afternoon.

Memorial Sunday.

The sun beamed brightly, the temperature was agreeable and a large congregation assembled at the M. E. Church, in observance of the day.

Of the fifteen members remaining in the local Grand Army Post, twelve were present. The Patriotic Order Sons of America turned out in good number, all marching from the Camp room to the Church, preceded by two handsome flags.

The Church was decorated with national colors and a wealth of flowers.

Rev. W. L. Shaw preached an eloquent and interesting sermon,—
the idea of "Remembrance" running throughout. The music was most excellent and appropriate, including, of course, our dear old
"America." Even the organ volun-taries were patriotic airs which appealed to the old soldiers present.
A male quartette sang two selections in a manner which won the approval of all.

We were much pleased with the entire service, and with the large number who assembled to do honor to the memory of those who died
that our country might remain one and indivisible.

A Woman's Opinion.

The following is an extract from a letter written by an elderly lady to one of our subscribers. We may or may not endorse her opinion,
but the pithy originality of her manner of stating it makes good reading.

"What is your opinion of those amiable British suffragettes?
What fine law-makers they would make if they should ever succeed in getting votes for women, which God forbid! They are such dastardly criminals. Why are the English authorities so lenient with them, in their unprincipled destructive career? It seems to me that if Mrs. Pankhurst's first outrage had been punished as her name suggests, by a good sound
"spank-her," it would have acted as a more effectual deterrent than anything that has been tried. But they do not even carry out the sentences imposed. A hunger strike gives victory to the prisoners every time. Why not let them have their way in this self-imposed martyrdom. The event of a few desirable deaths in jail might bring the living rioters to their senses as nothing else can; and surely it would be a great relief to all law-abiding women, who suffer from their unprincipled and wanton destruction of precious heritages."

Studebaker

"Yes, our new wagon's a Studebaker
—the only kind we KNOW"

The Studebaker idea has been in our family for sixty years. We have never thought of buying any other kind of a wagon.

"It's true, we're continually being offered other wagons costing a little less, with lots of promises as to what they will do. But we know in our family what a Studebaker will do. A few dollars difference in price doesn't mean much. It's the service a wagon gives that we consider most."

"Long service for a fair price means more every time than short service for a few dollars less."

"That's why we stick to Studebaker—and 'Stick to Studebaker' is a pretty good motto for a man who uses wagons."

"Studebaker wagons are built of good stuff. They're made right by people who've had years and years of experience in making them right—people who are trusted the world over."

"Studebaker wagons last, because they're made to last."

"Look out for the dealer who tells you his wagon is just as good as a Studebaker. That's my advice after a good deal of experience—and the experience of all of my people. You get a Studebaker and you've got a safe investment."
