There will be a strawberry festival in St. Mark's Parish House on Thursday evening, June 17th, from 7 to 9 o'clock. Berries, ice cream, cake, and music.

Miss Jessie Phillips, the efficient cashier at Jackson's, was home for a few days, attending graduation exercises at Sharptown, Md., her sister, Miss Reba, being one of the class.

There was no special action at the Sewer Assessment Commission meeting, Tuesday evening. They heard individual complaints of incorrect assessments, without taking up the general question.

High School Commencement exercises will be held next Friday evening, in Bellevue Hall. The programme will be an innovation, illustrating the school work—no essays. Tickets are in the hands of the graduating class.

There was a large attendance at the Universalist Church last Sunday evening, to see the beautiful pictures of the Panama-Pacific Exposition buildings. They are to be repeated to-morrow evening, with several new views added.

The Polson School being closed, Miss Rogers is temporarily filling a vacancy up the Hudson. Miss Chalmers is at Collingswood for a time. Miss Eckhardt is considering the offer of a good position in a Philadelphia school. The three young ladies have each a permanent State certificate, and have all been re-elected for another year at Polson.

Mrs. D. P. Vost, for a time a resident in Hammonton, died at her home in Honeoye Falls, N. Y., on Thursday, May 27th, after long illness. Funeral services were held on Memorial Day. Mrs. V. made warm friends in Hammonton, who tender sincere sympathy to Mr. Vost, his daughter, Marion, and his son Edgar.

Memorial Sunday.

Members of the G. A. R. Post and visiting comrades, the P. O. S. of A., P. O. of A., Girl Pioneers, and Boy Scouts, formed a good audience at the Baptist Church last Sunday morning.

The house was decorated with flags and flowers, and the visitors were given a cordial welcome.

Pastor W. J. Casworth gave us a fine sermon, full of sturdy patriotism, earnest, straightforward, absorbing in interest.

There was good music, too, and the entire service was of the kind that makes men better.

An interesting base-ball game this afternoon.

Mrs. Phoebe Campbell spent a day or two with local relatives.

Miss Carrie Gray, a teacher here last year, visited friends this week.

The Baptist Sunday School will observe Children's Day on June 13.

Miss May E. Hoyt is visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura Fennimore, at Riverside.

Mr. James Shaw, father of Mrs. E. van Dright and of Rev. J. Edw. Shaw, died very suddenly on last Sunday morning, at his home in Burlington, N. J., aged 83 years. He had recently recovered from an attack of pneumonia, but death was caused by a blood-clot.

Hugo Kind attended a meeting of the American Dablia Society, in New York. Their purpose is to get in touch with all matters pertaining to that popular late summer flower; and all those who wish to join may give their names to Mr. Kind.

Mr. Jannett has been having considerable trouble, occasioning not a little criticism as a result, in moving the Peoples Bank cottage along Central Avenue. The street is narrow between shade trees, and the local telephone cable hangs low,—the latter fact causing much scheming. They succeeded in raising it high enough, near the Bank, to allow the house to pass under, but at Peach Street there was no "slack," and consequently the house has rested in front of Dr. Waas' residence for some days, obstructing traffic, and an eyesore to residents near by. However, the cable trouble was removed by an expert, and the divided building moved on, yesterday.

Suffrage Speaker Coming.

Mrs. Ella Reeve Bloor, of Columbus, Ohio, who will speak here on Saturday afternoon and evening, June 12th, was a former member of the Executive Committee of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association, and has been a successful campaigner in many of the western states. Her work in the two strenuous Ohio campaigns was especially successful, as the three counties in which she worked entirely alone carried for suffrage by a big majority.

Mrs. Bloor's work, as an investigator, is also well known. She accompanied the famous Roosevelt Investigating Commission to the Chicago Stock Yards, in 1906, to secure testimony for their startling report to Congress. Since then she has visited all the large cities of England and Europe, to study their methods of inspection, also municipal methods used in German cities as to the housing of the poor, vocational education of children, and other social welfare work.

Mrs. Bloor is also a writer of school books, magazine articles, and is known in New York City as one of the most reliable newspaper women, having done special work for the "New York Herald," the "World," and "Journal."
