MEMORIAL DAY.

The weather was all that could be desired, on Saturday,—bright and beautiful, and cool enough to make the day's exercises enjoyable.

The G. A. R. Post to the number of twenty or more; the ladies of the W. R. C., about thirty in number; and twenty-four Sons of Veterans, uniformed and equipped, gathered at eight o'clock. The drill of the Sons was a chief feature of the day.

While waiting for the Ringgold Band to arrive from Atlantic City, Mrs. Alex. H. Sutton, President, in behalf of the W. R. C., presented to the Sons a handsome flag and staff, which the boys proudly carried during the day.

Marching to Green Mount Cemetery, they formed about the vault where lie Comrade Sturtevant's remains, the new and impressive ceremony of Post and Camp was gone through with; the Glee Club sang; then, a member standing at each soldier's grave, the bugle sounded and flowers were reverently laid upon the quiet resting place, all saluted the dead, then re-assembled and marched back to headquarters.

Teams were provided to take all to Oakdale Cemetery, where substantially the same exercises were held. Owing to the early hour, and change of usual programme, there were comparatively few people in the cemeteries.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, the three organizations, preceded by the Band, marched to "Tilton's Grove," on Tilton Street, between Bellevue and Pleasant Streets, where a platform had been erected, and plenty of seats arranged for all, including a large assemblage of young and old. Here the programme, as published in the REPUBLICAN last week, was carried out,—addresses by Post Commander, Pastors Bishop, Rundall, Weston, Killian and Spigardi, and Prof. Krebs; singing by the Glee Club and by the public school chorus; music by the band; benediction by Pastor Fragali. Each of the addresses was appropriate, pointed, and was listened to with apparent interest. The green shade, the pleasant breeze, the comfort and quiet of the woods, all added to the solemn enjoyment of the services; and it seems to us that no thinking person could fail to receive benefit therefrom.

Decorations in National colors were quite general in town. M. L. Jackson had stacks of muskets in his great show windows, with a decoration day picture and flags. W. L. Black's window contained a white monument appropriately draped and inscribed, stacked muskets, and a number of relics from battle-fields. Robert Steel's window contained a grave, sodded, with growing plants, a G. A. R. marker and flag; at the head a stack of arms with closed knapsack; at the foot a drum. These windows attracted much attention all day. There were many visitors from the neighboring villages.

At Waterford, Bates' Mills and Winslow, Comrades Woodruff and Rutherford were assisted by Sunday Schools and friends in the solemn duties of the day.

At Elwood, Comrade Adams found comrades and friends ready. He formed the little folks in line and taught them to decorate the graves of our soldier dead.

At Pleasant Mills, the comrades were joined by delegations from Lower Bank and elsewhere, and the afternoon devoted to the service. There were addresses, recitations and music in the church, which all seemed to appreciate; afterwards a lunch for all, to which justice was done.

Changes of train time took effect on both railroads May 20th. On the C. & A., trains leave Hammonton, going up, at 6:05, 7:22, and 8:40 (exp.) a. m. 12:30 and 3:40 p. m. Down at 5:52 and 9:25 a. m. mail and exp. both 5:43 p. m. On the Reading, up trains at 5:25, 7:06, 7:31 (exp.) 9:00, and 9:37 (exp.) a. m. 5:20 and 6:07 (exp.) p. m. Down, 9:10 a. m., 2:10 (except Saturday), 5:40, 5:43 (exp.), 6:50, and 7:45 p. m.

TOWN COUNCIL.

Regular meeting last Saturday evening. All members present.

Seven members of a committee appointed to visit Council in the interest of temperance were present. A statement was made that violations of the liquor law are numerous, that no attempt to prevent is being made, and Council asked what they proposed to do about it. Reply was made that Council had endeavored to ascertain its rights and duties in the matter, but no satisfactory reply had been received. After considerable discussion, an appropriation of fifty dollars was voted, to assist the citizens' committee in securing evidence against illegal liquor sellers.

The condition of First Road discussed. On motion, one hundred dollars ordered expended on said road, where most needed.

Two hundred dollars voted for improving Fourteenth Street from Second Road to First, and First Road from Fourteenth to Thirteenth.

Light Committee handed in the following bids for care of street lamps for one year from June 15th:

	Care	Oil, etc.
Matteo O'Della	$240
James Smith	285	$187 00
D. Hurley	240
J. C. Saunders	250	133 60

On motion, the contract was awarded to Mr. Saunders.

Committee reported that Town cannot legally maintain an electric plant for private lighting.

The water committee reported "progress,"—are collecting information from all sources.

Committee can find no surveyor to make assessment map for the money appropriated.

Benjamin Shourds was elected Town Marshal.

On motion, Clerk was directed to furnish Council, at next meeting, a list of all contracts, leases, officers, etc., in which Council is interested, with details of each.

Voted, that the Town Justice be directed to issue warrants for collecting all overdue taxes.

Voted, that fifty dollars, balance of amount voted to Cooper Hospital by town meeting, be forwarded to that institution.

Adjourned.

"Sothorons" is the odd name of a new magazine published in Philadelphia. It is hardly fair to judge of its merits by the one copy—No. 2, for June—which a friend handed us; but it is bright in appearance, its contents are clean and interesting, and nearly every city paper compliments the publisher on his new production. Price, five cents per copy; for sale at Jacobs' news room.

Did You Ever
Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now, and get relief. The medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving of strength and tone to the organs. SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1896.

Some people seem to consider it a "rich joke," our announcement that Wm. Rutherford proposes to run for Sheriff next Fall. Why not? He's big enough, old enough, and ought to know enough; and he's a good enough Democrat for us, though he hasn't swallowed the free-silver pill.

The Sons of Veterans' Lawn Party, to be held Fourth of July evening promises to be a big affair. Some new features will be introduced. The committee in charge are Harry Davidson, Wm. Gifford, Harry Rutherford, Robt. Miller, A. J. Whittier and Wm. Parkhurst.

Many have wondered that Rev. Mr. Prescott, of St. Mark's Church, had no part in Memorial Day exercises. In justice to the Post it should be known that Mr. P. was invited to speak, and Commander Roberts has his courteous letter in reply, stating that he expected to be out of town on that day.

Miss Marie A. Doughty and Mr. Wm. Garrett Moore, both of Haddonfield, were united in marriage by Rev. Owen J. Davies, in the Grace P. E. Church, on Thursday evening. A number of "Hammoniton" friends and relatives were present at the wedding and returned home on a special midnight train.

Frank Wetherbee ate a dish of ice cream, Wednesday, when overcast. In a short time he complained of feeling dizzy, and fell on the sidewalk in what resembled an epileptic fit. Prompt aid and medical attendance partially restored him, then he was taken home, and next morning seemed little worse for the attack.

Miss Hannah Mick, an estimable young Hammoniton lady, died at her father's residence, on Orchard Street, Tuesday evening, after a long illness, aged about twenty-four years. Funeral services were held at the house, Friday afternoon. Employees of Osgood & Co.'s shoe factory, where Miss Mick was long fore-woman, attended the funeral in a body, bringing testimonials of the high esteem in which the young lady was held.

S. E. Brown & Co. had their hot air pumping engine in operation in their store when we called. It certainly works nicely, uses kerosene for fuel at a cost of ten cents per day, and pumps a good steady stream of water, requiring no machinist and very little attention. Brown & Co. sell the machine. Call and see it; it's far preferable to a wind mill.

The following officers were elected by the Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. for the term commencing July 1st:

President, Will O. Hoyt.
Vice-Pres., Mrs. F. A. Lehman.
Sec. Secretary, Miss Beulah Jones.
Treasurer, Miss Mamie Winch.
Cor. Secretary, Mrs. G. N. Lyman.
Organist, Miss Annie L. Hoyt.
Chorister, Will O. Hoyt.
Ushers, Misses Georgianna Hewitt and Nellie Jones.

Read the following, which indicates what Hammoniton may come to if she votes $75,000 for water works and other improvements:

Topoka, Kan., June 3.—The town of Pratt has repudiated its bonded indebtedness. The city council has instructed the treasurer not to pay any more interest coupons on the city's bonded indebtedness. Pratt carries a bonded debt of $75,000. All kinds of property have suffered a great decrease in value during the late few years, and the city administration concludes that it is next to impossible for owners of real estate over to pay the debt. At present it is impossible even to pay the interest.

Last week Friday afternoon, W. G. Hood took about thirty-five members of the Epworth League to Maya Landing, with a four-horse team. On their return from the very enjoyable and profitable convention, one of the horses—a new one—looked sick; they walked the team all the way, but the poor beast grew worse, and was finally left by the way (a man with him) and soon died. The young folks were a weary party when they reached home, about four o'clock A. M. Following are the newly-elected County officers:

President, Rev. G. L. Dobbins.
First V. P., Mrs. C. K. Fleming.
Second V. P., Prof. E. D. Riley.
Third V. P., Mrs. G. H. Jones.
Fourth V. P., William Cunningham.
Secretary, C. H. Wilson.
Treasurer, Joseph A. Clark.
Co. Organizer, Rev. A. Jaggars.
Junior Secy., G. H. Wilson.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. E. Hood, broker and manufacturer's agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, proprietor St. James hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years standing, caused by his grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. E. P. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it, and never knew it to fail, and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of croup, because it instantly relieves. Free trial bottles at Crot's Pharmacy.

The union meeting held Sunday evening, in the Presbyterian Church, was in the interest of local prohibition. Among the large audience was every member of Town Council except one. The speakers gave plain language on the subject; by a rising vote a committee of three from each church and three from "outsiders" were authorized to take active measures to close up every speakeasy in the neighborhood,—one hundred dollars being raised in a few minutes for their use.

Mrs. Emma P. North, wife of Dr. Edward North, died yesterday morning about ten o'clock, of cerebro spinal meningitis, aged 62 years. Apparently in her usual health, she was seized with the fatal illness but about forty-eight hours before life departed. Mrs. North has spent the greater portion of her life in Hammoniton, her father, the late Mr. Zani, moving here from Philadelphia in 1858 and building the house on Bellevue Avenue opposite the Bank, now occupied by Harry Monfort and family. A woman possessed of sterling qualities of mind and heart her influence has always been for the good of those about her, and a great number of friends join with the bereaved family in mourning her sudden death. She leaves husband, three daughters and two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held in the Universalist Church to-morrow at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. Weston.

Married.

BLACK—WOOD. At the residence of the bride's parents, on Tuesday, June 2nd, 1896, by Rev. Herbert B. Knapp, William L. Black and Miss Carrie A. Wood, both of Hammoniton, N. J.

The wedding ceremony was strictly private. Those of the family from out of town were John E. Wood and wife, of Philadelphia, Dr. Horace Black and wife, of Wilkesbarre, and Dr. Eckardt, of Atlantic City. The bride and groom started amidst a shower of rice for Delaware Water Gap. The Receptionists join with others in best wishes for their happiness and prosperity.

MORGAN—SMITH. In Elwood, N. J., on Wednesday, June 3rd, 1896, by Rev. James B. Adams, Rev. Alpheus M. Morgan Pastor of the M. E. Church at Hammoniton, N. J., and Miss Bertha M. Smith, daughter of the late Dr. Smith, of Elwood.

Mrs. W. B. Thomas died on Wednesday evening, May 27th, at the residence of her son, W. B. Matthews, Madison, N. J., aged nearly 80 years.

Mrs. Thomas was the eldest daughter of Deacon Uri Cook, of Pottsville, Pa., a man noted for his strong principles and deep piety. These traits she inherited in large measure. Hospitable and generous, many a homeless orphan found shelter and care in her home. She was one of five sisters, one of whom (mother of Mrs. O. E. Hoyt) died many years ago. Her only brother (father of Dr. Chas. M. Cook) is also deceased. Mrs. Thomas leaves but two children, Prof. Watson B. Matthews and Mrs. Phoebe Seymour, five having "gone before."

U. Matthews, Mrs. C. S. Newcomb, and Mrs. Arthur Thomas (formerly Miss Estelle Matthews). Mrs. T. was married to early life to Edward Matthews, a young farmer of Orwell, Pa., and after his death became the wife of Rev. W. B. Thomas, of Athens, Pa. There are many here and elsewhere who mourn the loss of one so beloved, who has gone to join the dear ones in that better country, and the Saviour who so faithfully served. It is comforting to know that death came quietly and peacefully, during sleep. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Joanna, infant daughter of Carmine Mandillo, died on Wednesday, June 3rd. Funeral services on Thursday, conducted by Rev. Theo. Fragale.

At the Irvington-Millburn twenty-five mile road race (near Newark, N. J.) last Saturday, Charles Haddfield of the "Vin-Circle Club," of Newark, came in first, in 1:10:3; but the referee disqualified him, claiming that he accepted pacing by a rider who had not entered for the race. Haddfield denies this and we hear that he has asked Court for an injunction to prevent payment of prizes until his case is righted. If the referee is upheld, R. M.
Alexander will receive first, making the twenty-five miles in 1:08:47, and A. K.
Bernshouse, sixth prize, —a handsome $30 rifle, riding the distance in 1:12:10.
