My Ma, She Knows.

My pa, he looks me jes becauz
He says I'm gettin' "tough";
He says my face is never clean,
My hands are always rough;
I'm not behavin' like I should,
An' gots wrong, I s'pose,
But ma, she takes an' puts my hand
An' smiles, becauz she knows.

My pa haint got no use fer boys.
He wants 'em always men;
I wonder if he's clean forgot
The boy he must 'a been;
Fer ma, she says they're all alike
'Bout face, an' bands, an' clothes,
An' says I'll learn to be a man;
An' ma, I guess she knows!

My pa, he says I aint no good
At doin' anything;
I'd rather fool away the time
An' whistle, play, an' sing;
But ma, she smiles an' says I'm young,
An' then she ups an' goes
An' kisses me, an' shows me how,
For ma, you bet, she knows!

My pa, he says I'll never be
A business man like him,
Becuz I haint got any "drive,"
An' "get up," "pluck," an' "vim";
But ma, she says, so solemn like,
A man's a boy that grows,
An' boys must have their playin' spell;
An' ma's a trump, an' knows!

My pa, he shakes his head an' sighs
An' says he doesn't see
Where I get all the careless ways
That seem jes born in me;
An' ma, she laughs, an' laughs, an' laughs,
Till pa's face crimson grows,
An' then she says, "Th' very queer";
But somehow, ma, she knows!

My ma, she knows most everything
'Bout boys, and what they like;
She's never scoldin' 'bout the moss
I make with kites an' hke;
She says she wants me to be good
An' conquer all my foes,
An' you jes bet I'm goin' to be,
Cuz my sweet ma, she knows!

—Birch Arnold.

Herr Von Horst, of the University of Chicago, German professor of history, or professor of German history (I think it must be the latter, for he has several times shown ignorance of American history), has had another attack of Americophobia. In a deluge of inaccurate verbiage he truthfully yells: "Is this then the end we have of the nineteenth century? Is this the culmination of our grand civilization?" Yes, Herr Professor, this is the end of the nineteenth century.—This is 1899. As to your second question, it is so insane that it is hard to frame a reply. We have just freed some millions of Cubans, Porto Ricans, and Malays. This, with the suppression of your friends, the savage Tagalos, might be termed a culmination.

Incidentally, during the last fifty years, we have freed some thousands of your fellow Germans who have come to us, and whose advent we have had no cause to regret except in the case of a few ingrates like yourself, who have had the impertinence to criticize men like Governor Roosevelt and other good Americans.—The Jingo.

"Stand in line, recruit," said an old fighter to a raw soldier in the first battle. The frightened boy was dodging the flying shells instinctively, and sometimes crouched to the ground as they screamed past. "Stand in line," repeated the drilled soldier, "It's the safest plan. If you lie down, you expose more surface, and if you dodge you're as likely to be hit as before. When you hear the whiz of the shell the danger for that one is over. Stand in line." Soldiers who fight like battles with temptation and wrong may heed this advice. Keep in line with the right; do not dodge or waver. Right in line is the safest and best place, as well as the place to do most good; keep there, and keep a trusting heart, a brave spirit, and a steady courage no matter what goes on around.

The wife of a man named Moon, in Arkansas, presented him with a boy. A funny exchange remarked that this was a new Moon. The father celebrated the event by drinking full. This was the full moon. When he awoke from his drunken stupor all he had left in his pockets was 25 cents. This was the last quarter. His wife's mother beat him over the head with a club, thus giving him a total eclipse.

While in Rome, do as the Romans ought to do.

The way to get rich is to trust nobody, befriend none, keep all you get, stint yourself, and be the friend of no man, and have no man a friend of yours, heap up interest cent upon cent, to be mean, miserable and despised some twenty or thirty years, and riches will come to you as sure as disease, disappointment and death. And when pretty nearly enough wealth has been accumulated by a disregard of the human heart and at the expense of every enjoyment, death will finish the work, the heirs dance and fight over what you have left, and the spirit goes—where? By all means get rich. It will pay the—devil.

How like the days of thirty-odd years ago all this copperhead talk sounds to the men who were then struggling to preserve this nation. No doubt many of them can repeat the speeches and slander of those earlier days, and find them identical with those of to-day in everything but the date.

Useless fretting and worrying brings more gray hairs to the head, more wrinkles to the face and cares to the mind than old age and actual trouble.

There are indubitable evidences that the good in the world is stronger than the evil; a great, slow, steady progress of the good, forever gaining on the evil.

There is a patriotism that is too busy exploding fire crackers and cheering flags to know any thing about the nation's need or to fulfill its plain every day duty.

When a man has any reasons that he can't think of, or has any reasons that he does not care to name, he says his reasons are "obvious."

Any one may do a casual act of good nature, but a continuation of them shows it to be a part of the temperament.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her, and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and her death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recover, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Dr. Crook's drug store. Regular size 50 c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

Educational Convention.

Railroad Co. will sell excursion tickets via direct routes from points along its line, to Los Angeles and return, at rate of single fare for the round trip, plus $3 membership fee. These tickets will be sold, good going June 24th to July 7th, and when stamped by Joint Agent at Los Angeles, good to return, arriving at final destination, until Sept. 5. SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1899

When the democratic press talk about the enormous amount of goods Americans are shipping to Europe, and say that "our industries ought to be able to stand alone and do without the tariff," they must have forgotten that they profited, when the Dingley bill was under consideration, "it would be the death of exports." How the words must return to plague.

It is better for Americans to ship their products of the mill and factory to foreign countries than for foreign manufacturers to send their products here, to the injury of our wage earners. Republican legislation has enabled us to do the supplying; and there doesn't appear to be any disposition on the part of our voters to go back to tariff reform times in order to take the position of the unemployed.

The 16 to 1 free silver craze was stricken in the house of its friends at the St. Louis conference of Democratic National Convention. A Democratic exchange explains it in this way: "It was not proposed to abandon free silver altogether, that would never do, but the lukewarmness and half-heartedness with which it was discussed, showed that it is looked upon as an issue which will bring another defeat if it is kept too much at the front." It looks as if the Democratic opposition on the east is having fruit. It would be amusing to see the Bryan chiefs running from the free silver post to the anti-trust pillar. Yet nothing will be surprising.

A Paterson jury has ordered a prominent lawyer of that city, who retained as his fee fifty per cent of a legacy he had collected for a client, to give up forty-five per cent. This jury did not find it difficult to locate the line between fair compensation and extortion.

An Internal Revenue ruling states that the bonds of administrators, executors and guardians are exempt from war tax and require no stamps.

Republican legislation stands for busy factories and well compensated labor. Democratic legislation stood for idle mills and unemployed operatives.

Mrs. Amelia E. Barr was the mother of fifteen children before she ever wrote a book.

Vice-President Hobart has settled down for the rest of the summer at his Long Branch cottage. He is fond of driving, and indulges in that pleasure every morning and evening.

Two Legislatures are still in session, Connecticut's and Michigan's; and it may be incidentally remarked that this weather is just good enough for 'em.

The Cuban planters want permanent annexation between the island and Uncle Sam. It was sure to turn out so. They couldn't know us long before they wanted to be ours.

Senator Platt prophesies that "without a shadow of a doubt, President McKinley will be re-elected and that Vice President Hobart will be re-elected with President McKinley." That's very nice and encouraging, and the best of it is that it's true.

While it would be absurd to proceed in law against the paper traitors who are aiding and abetting the Tagalos by trying to discourage our soldiers at Manila, yet it is to be hoped that Gen. Otis will be directed to send in the names of the conspirators. They can do little harm, even less than did the ilk during the rebellion, but it would be a great satisfaction to nail patrole Americans to know just who those traitors are, for future reference. — The Jingo.

It looks as if General Henderson, of Iowa, would succeed Speaker Reed in handling the gavel. He is a very able congressman, and sound to the core.

AUGUST FLOWER.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Hensick, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headache and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at Crowell's Pharmacy. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

Thanks to Mr. Hoffman for fine berries—Gandy Prize. He has berries on low ground hence less affected by drought, and is shipping heavily.

BLACKBERRIES FOR SALE. About one acre of blackberries (dwarfing), in good condition. No any one wishing to make a little money, this summer, a quantity of doing so, as they will be sold very cheap for cash. W. B. BAKER, Main Road.

One of our berry growers reading a card saying, "Ship heavily for Saturday," said, "Yes, I'll ship him leaves,—berries dried up and blown away."

Some Central School pupils miss their names from the roll published last week, and wonder why. Ask the Principal; he will be pleased to explain to the parents.

ASTERS and CROSMON plants at Small's. Also, some nice Tomato plants.

Mr. J. P. Patton brought us a sample box of new seedling strawberries that he is raising. The berry is large, seems to be an excellent keeper, is rather dark in color. He will further test its qualities before saying much about it.

Morton Crowell, school census enumerator, completed his work last week,—but too late to publish the result. He found 992 children between the ages of five and eighteen years, and the largest number ever enrolled in this town. Last year there were 897—an increase of 105 in one year.

On Thursday afternoon, Miss Horton and her bird went to the Sanitarium, by an agreement with Dr. Nilsson, to pick peas. Noticing an open window blind, Miss Horton made an examination, and found that the blind had been broken, several panes of glass smashed, and the window opened. They feared to make full investigation without a law officer present, but did see that the doctor's own room door had been forced. How much damage had been done, no one knows; but a letter was at once sent to Dr. Nilsson, stating the facts.

President Frank Thompson, the popular and efficient chief of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died last Monday night, suddenly, of heart failure, when apparently recovering from a short illness. Mr. Thompson served an apprenticeship in the railroad machine shops at Altoona, managed the road, and when gradually promoted, undertook the railroad business thoroughly from its lowest branches. He is sincerely mourned.

Town Council Meeting.

All members attended the special meeting last Saturday evening. It was supposed that a copy of the Water Company's Charter would have been received by this date; and as this document is to be an integral part of the Water ordinances, no further action on the latter can be taken until the former is in hand.

Law and Order Committees were instructed to enforce the law in regard to bathing in the Lake. (Full bathing suits required, except in the "cove," where trunks will be sufficient.)

B. Crescenzo's application for liquor license received and referred to committee.

Letter from Geo. A. Smith read, naming $125 as price of engine and boiler in the Whiffen shop. On motion, Councilmen made a committee to solicit subscriptions to purchase same.

Clerk instructed to purchase one hundred dog badges.

Committee on lights instructed to examine wires on Third Street, which are reported as dangerous.

Water Committee authorized to call a special meeting of Council when ready to act upon Water Ordinances.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education was held on Tuesday evening last—seven members present. Quite a list of small bills were ordered paid—for janitors, water, supplies, etc.

The Principal presented his report for commencement exercises, showing that all bills were paid from receipts, and something over fourteen dollars placed in library fund. Miss Amanda Wilson, a lady with nearly a score of years experience in teaching, was elected to take charge of the sixth grade, Central school at fifty dollars per month. The Property Committee stated that an architect had been employed to draw details of new annex, and bids for building would be advertised for when same were received. Clerk stated that proceedings of late special District meeting were now in Trenton for approval; bids for the bonds would be advertised for when the reply is received. Already, several bids were in hand, but it is necessary to open the matter to the public. Board adjourned to September, but are subject to Clerk's call for a special meeting at any time.

Universal sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. William Foss. Their two-year old son died on Saturday last, and their four-year old daughter Ruthie, a charming little one, died on Monday morning. An older daughter was also very sick with the same disease, pronounced by the attending physician to be scarlet fever, but stated by others to be diphtheria. Fearing that it might be the latter dread disease, every precaution against infection has been taken. Mr. Foss is a tinmith, employed by S. E. Brown and Co., tin drummer in the band, well known.

The dry and hot weather has given a death-blow to the hopes of those who counted on good money from strawberries. For example, one farmer picked a crate of berries on one row last week Thursday; on Saturday he found but half a crate; on Monday, under favorable circumstances he should have had two crates, but picked four quarts. Green green berries dried to raisins instead of ripening. And so it is all over town. The drought has cost Hammonton many thousands of dollars.

Tony Pitale, an eight year old Italian boy, was kicked by a horse which was grazing in the highway, on Monday, and appears to have an even chance to live. The horse shoe struck him just above his eye, penetrating to the brain, the cut extending downward, calculating the eye-ball. Dr. Cochran dressed the wound, and by his advice the little sufferer was taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, where they have better facilities for treating such complicated injuries.

FOR SALE,—the modern built cottage, 7 rooms—newer than most and good. Avenue, all in good order. M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

In reply to a question, we will state that on Saturday, April 8th, we had the last real soaking rain; on the previous day, one of the most severe wind and rain storms of the year; April 16th, May 3rd, May 10th, and May 23rd gave us slight rains—the last one only covering part of the town, and none of the four doing more than moistening the surface. The last rain was a slight one, before dawn, May 30th.

Yes, it's hot; but in one Pennsylvania town they had to close school because of the heat; in another a man was made insane by the unbearable temperature, and killed his friend; in Philadelphia, death and severe suffering have resulted from the heat. Happily, we have a better record in Hammonton, though many are suffering.

Children's Day will be observed in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow. In the morning, the sacrament of infant baptism will be administered, and the pastor will preach from the text, "Now are they holy." In the evening, the exercises will be in charge of the Sabbath School, with an address by the pastor, on "The Rose and the Lily."

An exchange says that the best curfew ordinance is one adopted in each family, where "the old man" acts as mayor, common council, night watchman, and calaboose keeper; where the fine and punishment are put together, and a good hickory stick is more to be feared than so much lollypop.

It might be in order now to investigate the expenditures made in investigating the war expenditures.

Glorious News
Comes from Doctor D. B. Cargile, of Washita, T. P. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brower of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give her no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It is the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils, and running sores. On Thursday afternoon, Miss Horton and her bird went to the Sanitarium, by an agreement with Dr. Nilsson, to pick peas. Noticing an open window blind, Miss Horton made an examination, and found that the blind had been broken, several panes of glass smashed, and the window opened. They feared to make full investigation without a law officer present, but did see that the doctor's own room door had been forced. How much damage had been done, no one knows; but a letter was at once sent to Dr. Nilsson, stating the facts.

President Frank Thompson, the popular and efficient chief of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died last Monday night, suddenly, of heart failure, when apparently recovering from a short illness. Mr. Thompson served an apprenticeship in the railroad machine shops at Altoona, managed the road, and when gradually promoted, undertook the railroad business thoroughly from its lowest branches. He is sincerely mourned.
