Patriotism, Protection, Prosperity, and Plenty.

Patriotism is generally defined as love of country, and as "Charity should begin at home," the man who does not love his native town, or the town of his adoption, cannot be counted a patriot. And so the man who does not feel a love for home folks, and a patriotic desire to see them prosper, has not the first principles of patriotism in his heart.

Protection follows (to my mind) as naturally after patriotism as the tail after the cow. If we love our country we want to see her people prosper; if we love our country we want to see her industries thrive; and instead of sending our money out of the country, we want to keep it at home. Now, if this is true of the country, so is it true of the town we inhabit. If we love our town, we want to see our "townies" get on; we want to see her factories at work and her stores and industries thrive, and we want the money to stay at home and not emigrate. We want to see our town prosper, as the prosperity of our town will raise the value of our own property and keep our children from emigrating to some far away place where the people have enough horse sense to see on which side of their bread the butter is. We want to see the money spent at home, and then in its circulation among our "townies" some of it may naturally drift into our own pocket. This means prosperity to ourselves.

Every one of us in this town is related one to another, and wedded in an harmonious interest. If we run off to New York or Philadelphia and spend money that could have been just as well left here with some townsman, we must not grumble if he is not able to pay us our account as promptly as we wished, or patronize us in our business. Simple Simon learned that he could not have both his "penny and his ginger cake," and many of us are not as wise as he. Stand by the folks, patronize home industry and talent when possible, if we want prosperity.

Plenty comes when the balance of trade is in our favor; but if we spend more money out of town than we do in it, then we at least have, as far as our influence and power extends, created a balance of trade against our town. Now this is not politics, free-trade, or protection, as we have no local custom house, and are in full free trade with all the rest of the U.S.; but it is simply local patriotism, local self government, and local common sense. If you were abroad in Africa and met two Americans, one from California or New Orleans, and the other from Hammonton, which would you feel the most like aiding, supposing they both needed it? Or in case it were in London, Eng., and both in the same business, which of the two would you feel the most like patronizing? There is no doubt which. Well then, why should you not feel the same here at home? So that if we want to see our town prosper and see plenty here, we must keep things in the Hammonton family and stand by our own folks.

That Canning Factory.

MR. EDITOR.—"Berries brought four cents a quart, yesterday, the 11th, in New York City, with a downward tendency." This was official, and I heard it from those who know.

This occurs every year; and the berries might just about as well be dumped into New York or Boston Harbor respectively, or into the Delaware. But this keeps on year after year. Why? Merely for custom's sake; that's all.

One canning factory established here would, inside of three years, bring a dozen. And all would flourish, too. Who will be the first to help organize such a factory? It would give work to hundreds of our people, and not at from $1.80 to $3 a week, but at living wages. It would add an impulse to the town second to none in its history.

If no one better qualified will call a meeting to at least talk it up, why then I will call one myself. We can't do worse than fail. There's money in it for all.

WM. RUTHERFORD.

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1895.

The Hammonon base ball team beat the team of Hood, Foulkrod & Co., of Philadelphia, last Saturday, by a score of 10 to 9. The visitors had first innings and scored 1. The Hammonons did not score in the first, though Hedrick knocked a two-bagger, but was left on third. Neither side scored in second.
The home team scored three in third, the principal events being Taylor's two bagger; a hit and an overthrow sent Saries to second and Taylor scored; Hedrick popped one out to near center field and reached third on an error, which brought Saries home. Visitors scored five in the fourth, in which Anderson made a two-bagger, their only one in the game. The fifth was the most exciting of all innings. With two out and two on bases, Dr. Cunningham knocked Hedrick in, Beverage did the same for Cunningham, and Taylor's batting brought in Beverage; Dodd made a hit, and was knocked home by Holland; then Galligan sent one to left field, which Irwin caught. In the sixth the city boys tied the score at nine.
Neither side scored again until the last half of the ninth inning, when with two men out and two on bases, Holland was sent to base on balls, Galligan knocked a fly and Dodd scored. Saries also came home, but was not counted. We give the score in full:

The Grand Army Post promised and expected to dedicate their handsome monument on the Fourth of July, but they did not remember that most of the comrades are farmers, and the date mentioned is in the midst of their business season. Then, too, the base ball game and bicycle races will fill the Fourth too full to admit of anything like the exercises they contemplate.
Considering all this, the committee this week decided to postpone the dedication until farmers are a little less crowded with work. Remember, the monument is under way, and the contractor is under bonds to have it ready by the Fourth of July. As early a date as seems practicable will be chosen for the dedication, and due notice be given.

day last week. Reading up-trains leave

While alighting from his wagon at the Union Store, on Tuesday, Mr.
D. B. Wallison tripped on the lines and fell, cutting his head and breaking his arm at the elbow. Being nearly four score years of age, his injuries are more serious than they would prove to a younger person. Dr. Cunningham is attending him.

Mr. McCoy, of Beverly, brother-in-law of Daniel Westcott, spent last Sunday in this vicinity. He settled here, near the Lake, about 1859, helped to clear much of the land, carted wood to Winslow in its prosperous days, and shared the hardships of life in this then new country. This was his first visit for a number of years, and he admitted the wonderful progress made.

The Fourth of July Races at the Park will consist of the following events:

One Mile Novice—
1st Prize, Gold medal.
2nd Prize, Silver medal.
3rd Prize, Bronze medal.
One Mile Handicap—
1st Prize, Silver ice pitcher.
2nd Prize, 1st chest weights.
3rd Dress suit case.
4th Dressing gown.
5th Cyclometer.
Five Mile Handicap—
1st Prize, Silver ice service.
2nd D. bbl. shot gun.
3rd Tennis racket.
4th Camera.
5th Pair bicycle shoes.
Foot Races—
100 yards dash—two prizes.
200 yards dash—two prizes.
Half mile run—three prizes.
The aggregate value of the above prizes will be nearly $300.

Home riders will have the advantage over outsiders of being used to the track, and it is to be hoped that every good rider in town will enter.
Entry blanks can be obtained of Harry Smith, A. K. Barnhouse, Sec'y, W. H. Ellis, or the Hammonon Cycle Co.
Entry fee is 50 cents for bicycle events and 25 cents for foot races. All entries must be made by the 27th, date of closing.

Frank Dampman, winner of the recent 150-mile race from New York to Biverton, a veteran long distance rider, familiarily known in Philadelphia as "the old war horse," will act as referee at our races.
Don't delay your entry—get it in now.
That dangerous lower turn is being well banked.
The prizes will be on exhibition in a short time.
Don't forget the foot races. The prizes will be worth "running" for.

The lecture of Mr. Coleman on Tuesday evening next, will be a description of a trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic, across South America, including the passage of the renowned Andes mountains, through Uapallia pass, 12,700 feet above sea level, at the foot of the great volcano Aconcagua, which has an elevation of nearly 15,000 feet above the level of the sea. The lecture will be descriptive of the people and their customs, climate, and government, and will be highly instructive and educational in its character. Let there be a full house. Those who would like questions answered, please hand them in, in writing, on the evening of the lecture.
The base ball event of the season will be the game between the Hammonon and the Ping Hata, on Wednesday, June 19th. The latter team is training fervently, and some of the heavy members have already worked off an amazing amount of superfluous flesh.

Children's Day.

The Methodist Sunday School held their celebration on Sunday morning.
On the platform was a "golden gate" altar, and on its steps wreaths of green, lettered "Duty," "Wisdom," "Life," "Truth," "Service," "Culture." About were palms and plants; just inside the gates was the cross, surrounded by plants. A young lady guardian stood at the gate, and as pilgrims approached, halted them, inquired their object, directed each to seek their desire through the gates, at the cross, and gave each a key. Music, readings and other appropriate exercises made up an exceedingly interesting programme. In the evening, the Junior League conducted the exercises.
The Presbyterian Sunday School exercises were held in the evening, and were very interesting. Their program was entitled "The Cross, the Country, the Child," and a very appropriate address was made by Mr. Henry D.
Moore, of Haddonfield, who recently returned from a tour which included the Holy Land. He gave his hearers added interest in the story of Christ's life by his account of what he saw in the very places where the Saviour lived and taught and healed. There were flowers, of course, and plenty of them, with singing and reading.

The Baptist Sunday School morning program embraced some good music which was well rendered. The children did well in their parts, dialogues and recitations. There was a great bank of laurel and other green on the platform, and flowers and plants, and among them a miniature fountain of water playing, added its music to that of the little fells.
It seems as though days like this, coming now and then, must impress the minds of the young, and teach lessons which time cannot efface. Through every sense the mind is affected, beautifully impresses the eye, music the ear, the voice is used to speak and sing, the loving grasp gives one to feel the reality of the love which Christ exemplified.

The home of Mrs. M. S. Hoffman, on Thirteenth Street, formed a background for a gay and pretty picture on Wednesday last, when the Junior C. E. of the Presbyterian Church gave a social.
A picturesque scene was presented in the parlor upon the arrival of about thirty young Endeavorers, some of whom were gowned in foreign costumes and gave an interesting and instructive program, consisting of Introductory address by Miss Salisbury.

After entertaining the crowd, this dignified troop of foreigners, as by the touch of a fairy's wand, was transformed into every-day happy American children who soon joined the others in romping over the broad lawn—mingling their merry laughter with songs and games.
At 6 p.m. they seated themselves under a "brave old oak," and partook of a bountiful supper, consisting of sandwiches, strawberries, cream, cake, fruit, confections and lemonade.

Atlantic, and State of New Jersey.

All that tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being partly in the Town of Hammoniton, in the County of Atlantic, and partly in the Township of Winslow, in the County of Camden, State of New Jersey, bounded as follows: Beginning at a point also corner to Hay's land in the line of Camden & Atlantic Railroad, near the crossing of Fifteenth Street; thence north ten degrees east by Hay's line five chains and thirty links thence north ten degrees east five minutes east (still by Hay's line) twenty nine chains and twenty two links to the centre of the Murphy B. ad; thence north eight chains and ninety links; thence still by centre of said road south eighty eight degrees and thirty links west nine chains to a stone corner; thence south ten degree and sixteen min. west seventeen chains and twenty links to the line of said railroad; thence south forty five degrees and thirty minutes east twenty one chains and forty links, crossing the county line to place beginning, containing forty one degrees and thirty minutes more or less. Being the same premises sold to the grantor by Elwood and Isaac A. Braddock, by deed dated Sept. 20th, 1888, and recorded in Book No. 127 of Deeds in the Register's office of Camden, page 251, etc., and at Mary's Landing in Book No. 110, page 357, situate in the Township of Winslow, in the County of Camden, State of New Jersey.

Being the same premises, the following described lands—

Land sold James B. and Jennie Price Ryan, by Lewis B. Hickman, by deed dated Sept. 15, 1887, recorded in the Clerk's office of Atlantic County, in Book of Deeds, No. 124, folio 416, etc., on May 29, 1888; Beginning at stake in the westerly side of Fifteenth Street, in the Town of Hammoniton, at a point five hundred and fifty feet along the side of said Fifteenth Street from the point of its intersection with the centre of the Camden & Atlantic Railroad; thence (1st) in line parallel with said Camden & Atlantic Railroad north forty one degrees forty minutes east to a stake distant one hundred and fifty (150) ft.; thence (2nd) in a line parallel with said Fifteenth Street, north forty two degrees forty minutes east to a stake fifty feet distant; thence Well, our serial story "Laws of New Jersey" is finished. It lasted eight weeks—a little longer than we expected. This week we give you twenty full columns of selected reading, besides the original matter on the outside pages.

Did you ever think how many columns of reading you receive for a dollar, in the REPUBLICAN? Then an additional quarter (in this county) will give you twice as much more, in the New York Tribune or Philadelphia Weekly Press; two weekly papers for $1.25, or three for $1.50. These three, with a Bible and a dictionary, will give the average reader all that is needed through the year.

In view of the great International Convention of the Epworth League to be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., from the 27th to the 30th of this month, the Epworth League Chapter of the M. E. Church will hold a "Chattanooga Evening" on some available night next week, at which an interesting program will be rendered. The young people hope to have a representative at the convention. Half fare rates are secured all over the country.

Did You Ever

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now, and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs.

If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells, or are nervous, sleepless, excitable, melancholy, troubled with dizzy spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use. Large bottles only 50 cents, at Croft's.

While at Peekskill, N. Y., Mr. J. A.
Scriven, a prominent manufacturer of New York City, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Such good results were obtained from its use that he sent back to the druggist from whom he had obtained it for two bottles more of the same. When you have a cough or cold give this preparation a fair trial, and like Mr. Scriven you'll want it again when in need of such a medicine.
Is a remedy of great worth and merit. 25 and 50 cent bottles sold by druggists.
