The Republican.

[Published as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1892.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
Benjamin Harrison,
Of Indiana.

For Vice-President,
Whitclaw Reid,
Of New York.

The renomination of President Harrison was simply a reward of merit—a testimonial of the high esteem in which he is held by his party throughout the length and breadth of the country. A higher compliment could not have been paid him, and nothing less would have been a sufficient recognition of his wise and patriotic administration. The selection was made in compliance with the popular demand. Among the first to fall in line in unqualified support of the ticket was that great statesman and popular idol, James G. Blaine, whose illustrious example will serve to promote the most complete harmony all along the line. There are, of course, some disappointed politicians who may perhaps feel inclined to sulk a little, yet they will all fall in line and march with the Republican procession to victory. The secret of the President's popularity is that he has given to the country a clean administration. Under his safe guidance the ship of State has weathered the dangers of the gravest kind, so that the Nation's credit and dignity stand higher to-day than ever before. While not withholding from the Republican Congress, or from the great Secretary of State, their full measure of credit for efficient work performed in behalf of the country, yet the people feel that to President Harrison is due special honor for his powerful operation in advancing the interests of Protection and Reciprocity. Having proved himself a true champion and a complete embodiment of Republican ideas, it is fit and proper that he should again be made the party's standard bearer, and all good Republicans are perfectly content to abide the issue with him for a leader.

"The resolution, energy, and persistence which marked the proceedings of the convention at Minneapolis will, if turned against the common foe, win the election in November. All minor differences should be merged in the duty of every Republican to do all in his power to elect the ticket this day nominated by the national Republican convention."—James G. Blaine.

Congress has still time enough left to aid materially in smoothing the way for the election of Harrison and Reid. A few well-timed blunders will save the Republican committee considerable hard work. Our imports of coffee during the nine months ending Thursday March 31, '92, amounted to $65,188,832 pounds. This is an increase of almost 107,000,000 pounds over our imports during the corresponding period of the preceding year. It is the object of Protection to increase imports of non-competing articles. Free Traders, on the other hand, would put a revenue "tax" on every pound of coffee consumed by our people, as they do in Great Britain. The tax which is placed on coffee by the British Free-Trade Tariff is 4 cents per pound. There is not a family in Great Britain, even though it be the poorest and humblest workingman's, that does not contribute toward the payment of this tax. The burden of these Free-Trade Tariffs always falls heaviest on those least able to bear it.

According to the report of the Special Agent of the United States Treasury appointed to investigate the tin-plate industry, there were made in the three months from January 1 to March 31, 1892, 2,004,057 pounds of tin-plate. The latest figures show that there are 22 firms making a specialty of tin plate manufacture, while various others manufacture it as a by-product.

The number of depositors in savings banks in the United States is 4,258,023; the amount of deposits, $1,624,841,506; and the average to each depositor, $38.04. The number of depositors in savings banks in Great Britain is 3,715,000; the amount of deposits, $636,000,000; and the average to each depositor, $14.28.

A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a stalwart Republican press. The Republican who helps to support a Democratic journal, to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers, is untrue to the Republican cause.

Unanimously subscribed to by the National Republican League.
J. S. CLARKSON, President.
A. B. HUMPHREY, Sec'y.

The Democratic National Convention will meet next Tuesday, in Chicago. Grover Cleveland will probably be nominated for President.

During 11 months in 1891 we exported to China 76,000,000 yards of cotton cloth. In the corresponding period of 1890 China took only 27,000,000 yards. If the Tariff is ruining our industries, how is it that we have well nigh overcome the competition of Free-Trade England in this open market of the world?

Please take particular notice of our latest combination offer,—the South Jersey Republican and the New York Weekly Tribune, both one year for $1.25 cash in advance. We have a few sample copies of the Tribune, for those who are not acquainted with it. We know of no way in which you can secure so much good reading for so little money.

Just received,—a fine litter of the Lancaster strain of Scotch Collie pups. Males, $9; females $4. For specimens of this strain, see dogs of Canilla Michel and Johnnie E. Hoyt.

PAINT! PAINT! HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammononton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half-gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammononton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammononton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammononton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 20 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at

Mr. Row is, and has been ill for two years, with paralysis, and he certainly will appreciate your patronage. It is an interesting book.

In pursuance of the usual custom the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets for the Fourth of July holiday between all stations on its system east of Pittsburgh and Erie, at a rate of two cents per mile. These tickets, which open up a rare chance for holiday touring, will be sold on July 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th, and will be valid for return until July 5th, 1892, inclusive.

Miss Minnie M. Williams, of Troy Conference Academy, Poughkeepsie, Vermont, a highly commended educationist, will give an entertainment in the Baptist Church, next Monday evening, 20th inst. To the programme of miscellaneous recitals will be added instrumental and vocal music by home talent, including a solo by Miss Emma Pressey. Admission, 25c. Proceeds for the Christian Endeavor Soc.

Last Saturday evening, at Elm, Fred. Mesley, Jr., loaded seventy berry crates on his wagon, and mounted to the top of them, to drive home. The horses started up with a slight jerk, which joggled the load, and brought down crates and driver in a promiscuous heap. Mr. Mesley fell between the team and wagon. The wheels passed over him, breaking several ribs and injuring him seriously otherwise. For twenty-four hours he was unconscious, and is still suffering intensely, with hope of eventual recovery.

Last Sunday's paper contained an account of the suicide of W. F. Sager, in the yard of a saloon at 817 Vine St., Philadelphia. Name and circumstances indicate that deceased has for some time resided in part of one of Mr. T. J. Smith's houses, near the Hammononton station, his wife and daughter being employed in the hosiery mill. Rumor has it that Sager was in financial difficulty, and despondent. Last week he went to the city, promising to return in a few days and pay certain bills. The next news from him was as above.

A Castle of the "Knights of the Mystic Chain" has been instituted in Hammononton, with thirty-three members, and named "Perseverance Castle, No. 19." The following are the officers elected:

Past Commander, E. L. Titus.
Commander, H. P. Blythe.
Vice-Com., Wm. Purdy.
Lieutenant, Fred. Saunders.
Secretary, Arthur Lobley.
Ass.-Sec., J. Murray Bassett.
Financial Sec., G. W. Richards.
Chief of Staff, John W. Myers.
Ass. C. of S., Wm. Andrews.
Treasurer, Wm. H. Burgess.
Inside Guard, Geo. Crenn.
Outside G., Wm. Marshall.
Chaplain, J. H. Marshall.

Besides the grand officers who instituted the Castle, there were visitors present from Williamstown, Gloucestershire, Atlantic City, and Marlton,—about one hundred in all. This is a beneficial order, paying weekly benefits to the sick, and a handsome sum in case of death.

Dr. L. Potter's house, on upper Bellevue, is for rent, with barn and garden. Inquire of Geo. Berry.

Hammononton was invaded, last Saturday, by several tribes of Indians—Red Men. They wore Tomawa Tribe, No. 210, of Philadelphia, in charge of worthy Sachem William G. Roberts; Comanche Tribe, No. 75, Atco, N. J.; Narragansett Tribe, No. 101, of May's Landing. Their visit was in response to a special invitation from Hammononton Tribe, who welcomed the visitors and showed them how Jerseymen can entertain. In the evening, in their hall, addresses were made by Chiefs Prickett, of Mays Landing, Sloan, of Atco, and Eldridge, of Hammononton. Chief David Maroney, in behalf of Tonguwa Tribe, presented to the Hammononton Tribe two beautiful silver tomahawks, which were received and responded to by P. H. Jacobs. The visitors were gallantly in their department. The loud peals of laughter heard coming from the wigwam were occasioned by the inevitable mimicry of some of the visitors, especially Chas. Fowler and Huff. The ladies had prepared a splendid banquet, to which all did ample justice. The tables were beautifully decorated with artistically arranged bouquets. There was something more than pleasure in the visit. A member of Tonguwa Tribe, Mr. A. Gentell, living near Hammononton Lake, has been kindly cared for by our local tribe, and to show their appreciation, Tonguwas invited our braves to visit them in Philadelphia; this was their return visit. Some of them returned home Sunday morning, but may remain, and visited their sick brother in a body. It was an enjoyable affair, admirably conducted, and the visitors paid high compliments to Hammononton and its people.

If one had stepped into the Methodist Church, last Sunday morning, he would have known at once, from the profusion of beautiful flowers, and the rows of eager joyous little faces, that it was Children's Day. While a processional was being played, the whole Sunday School marched into the main audience room. Seven little ones were presented for baptism. Pastor Cline then gave a five-minute sermon to the children, taking for his text Christ's words, "If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me," illustrating by the magnet. The little ones were intensely interested. They are growing to love and look forward to their own tiny sermon. A most entertaining program followed, the parts taken with earnestness and intelligence which could not fail to please the listening congregation. A large cross was placed on the platform, resting on a foundation of Mercy and Goodness. As different ones recited they placed upon the cross a "Shield of Faith," an "Anchor of Hope," a "Star of Joy," and a "Crown of Love." In the evening, the Pastor preached on the "Relation of Methodism to Education." He gave several instances of how young men, from Churches under his care, had been helped to obtain an education through the educational fund; and these young men are now occupying high positions in the Church, as ministers or missionaries. This Children's Day will no doubt long be remembered by the little folks, and older ones also, with pleasure.

No manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.—Dan. 6: 23.

REVIEW BIBLE LIGHTS.

Lesson 1.—Superintendent: The wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the wicked shall perish (Psa. 1: 5, 6).
Scholars: Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful (Psa. 1: 1).
Teachers: Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it (Isa. 30: 21).
All: Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth (Psa. 86: 11).
Lesson 2.—Superintendent: Now therefore be wise, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye shall be destroyed: for his wrath will soon be kindled (Psa. 2: 10-12).
Scholars: Blessed are all they that put their trust in him (Psa. 2: 12).
Teachers: They that trust in the Lord are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth for ever (Psa. 125: 1).
All: Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will make mention of the name of the Lord our God (Psa. 20: 7).
Lesson 3.—Superintendent: The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handy work (Psa. 133: 1).
Scholars: The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul (Psa. 19: 7).
Teachers: This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate thereon day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein (Josh. 1: 8).
All: The Lord our God will serve, and unto his voice will we hearken (Josh. 24: 24).
Lesson 4.—Superintendent: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever (Psa. 23: 6).
Scholars: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want (Psa. 23: 1).
Teachers: Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for thou art with me (Psa. 23: 4).
All: Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change, and though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas (Psa. 46: 2).

Lesson 5.—Superintendent: Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness: according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions (Psa. 51: 1).

Scholars: Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me (Psa. 51: 10).

Teachers: Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward part (Psa. 51: 6).

All: Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow (Psa. 51: 7).

Lesson 6.—Superintendent: How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh cry out unto the Lord (Psa. 84: 1, 2).

Scholars: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits (Psa. 103: 2).

Teachers: Who forgetteth, all things iniquitous, which thou hast done; who healeth all thine diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies; who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle (Isa. 40: 3-5).

All: Bless the Lord, O my soul (Psa. 103: 23).

Lesson 7.—Superintendent: And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm (Dan. 1: 19, 20).

Scholars: Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank (Dan. 1: 8).

Teachers: The Lord saith;—them that honor me I will honor, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed (1 Sam. 2: 30).

All: We must obey God rather than men (Acts 5: 29).

Lesson 8.—Superintendent: The king answered unto Daniel, and said, O a truth thy God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou hast been able to reveal this secret (Dan. 2: 47).

Scholars: All things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do (Heb. 4: 13).

Teachers: There is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known (Luke 12: 2).

All: Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any way of wickedness in me, and lead me in the way of everlasting life (Psa. 139: 23, 24).

Lesson 9.—Superintendent: Then was Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then these men, because of their faith, their courage, and their garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace (Dan. 3: 19-21).

Scholars: When thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee (Isa. 43: 2).

Teachers: Beloved, think it not strange concerning you, if ye have had a trial by fire, because ye have seen that ye have been called to it (1 Pet. 4: 12).

All: And not only so, but we also rejoice in our tribulations; knowing that tribulation worketh patience (Rom. 5: 3).

Lesson 10.—Superintendent: Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live forever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him my innocence was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I doing in mine eyes as innocent, exceeding glad, and commanding that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and—(Dan. 6: 21-23).

Scholars: No manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God (Dan. 6: 23).

Teachers: Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved (Psa. 55: 22).

All: Preserve me, O God, for in thee do I put my trust (Psa. 16: 1).

Lesson 11.—Superintendent: The houses occupied by three Condemned Governors—Richard D. Hubbard, William Lounsbury and Morgan G. Hulbert, and in a row in one street in Hartford.

—The Chinese have many kinds of ceremonial dishes and cakes. These, oranges form an introductory course at ceremonial dinners, and preserved betel nuts are offered to guests at the new year.

It All Depends.

"What kind of a man is he—good, bad or indifferent?"

"Well, that depends a good deal on who testifies on the other end of the plank with him."

"How so, sir?"

"Well, if you size him up alongside of Judas Iscariot, he looms up middling fair, but when you come to sit him down against such fellows as you and me, Judge, he does dwindle into the proportions of a worm."

THE EXILED ENIGMA.

Upon her first visit to Paris, Eugene's beauty was ravishing. She was likened to a snowflake on a July day; like the fairy-like mist that hangs over Niagara; like all that is purest, freshest, loveliest, in nature was the impression that she produced upon people.

Lesson 7.—Superintendent: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and that is which in me, bless his holy name (Psa. 103: 1).

Scholars: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits (Psa. 103: 2).

Teachers: Who forgetteth, all things iniquitous, which thou hast done; who healeth all thine diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies; who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle (Isa. 40: 3-5).

All: Bless the Lord, O my soul (Psa. 103: 23).

HE MISSED HIS OPPORTUNITY! DON'T MISS
Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunity, and from consequence live in poverty and die in obscurity. Narrowing despair is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Life is passing! Reach out, be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life;
seize the chance, and she will be with you; but if you do not, she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Investigate every chance that seems worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give at least, a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even benefactors are easily earning from $25 to $100 per day. You can do as well if you will work not too hard, but industri-ously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give part time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free, by return mail. Urge to delay. Address at once, H. E.

A FAMILY PAPER WHICH IS
Clean and Unsensational,
And Just the Paper
For the American Home.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 100 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the state and near at home news is covered with a routine care and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.
The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroad experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.
The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in our lists of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.
In politics, the Press knows no other master than the people, and the next year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issue, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinctions, and the rights of one class over another are not recognized nor supported.

BAPTIST
Philadelphia.
Prospectus for 1892.
It has not been our custom to issue a prospectus. A newspaper can never tell beforehand just what subjects will be discussed. We hold ourselves in readiness, however, with our well-trained editorial force, and our large staff of special contributors, to treat any subject which may present itself during the year. Our plans for 1892 contemplate an enlargement of our news department, a perfecting of the other departments, and the bringing up of the entire paper to a still higher standard of efficiency.

PREMIUMS.
The National Baptist is offering a line of most attractive premiums. For example, communion services, organs and hymn-books, valuable books of reference and general information, fountain pens. One of its most attractive offers is the one offering to the new subscriber and to the person securing the new name, each a volume of Prof. Drummond's famous addresses, attractively bound in white and gold.
AGENTS
Are wanted in every Church, to canvass for new names. Liberal commissions are offered.
Past experience has shown that a goodly number of new names can be quickly gathered by a good agent.
THE PRICE
Is $2 per year, in advance. Send for sample copies, which will be cheerfully sent. Address all communications to Clinton Rogers Woodruff,
Business Manager The National Baptist, 1200 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

An Irish Republican had been over in this country for fifteen years. He had not been able to get ahead any in the old country, but he came here to this country to improve his condition—this country where people are taxed so much, where such burdens are imposed upon them. He secured himself a little house, and paid for it. He had a little money in the savings bank and was getting along very prosperously. He went back to pay a visit to Cork and while he was gone he bethought him that as he had to get a new coat he would buy one there. He did so, and he paid $8 for it, and when he returned, some of his Democratic friends having heard that he bought the coat and paid $8 for it, and that the price of the same coat was $9 here, undertook before a crowd of fellow Democrats, one day, to rally him on the point. So they said:
"Mike you are a Protectionist, yet see what you have done. You have paid $1 more for that coat on account of Protection than you could have got it for if we had been under Free-Trade."
"Ah, not so," said Mike; "I can buy that coat in this country for six days' labor, and in Cork it will take twelve days' labor to buy it."

The Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia have just delivered a locomotive to a railroad company in Sweden.
Bids were invited from Swedish, English and American builders, and the contract was awarded to this American firm, which agreed to deliver the locomotive in ten weeks while the British wanted a year's time. In a contest between the United States and Great Britain the latter does not even get a place.

Doing, not dreaming, is the secret of success. Thinking out plans will not amount to anything unless the thought be followed by a determined will to execute.

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.
Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp (naming this paper) W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers

Presidential Campaign of 1892.
GRAND INDUCEMENTS
TO READERS OF THE South Jersey Republican.

The Presidential Campaign of 1892 will, without doubt, be the most intensely interesting and exciting in the history of the United States, and country people will be extremely anxious to have all the general and political news and discussions of the day as presented in a National Journal, in addition to that supplied by their own local paper. To meet this want, we have entered into a contract with the

New York Weekly Tribune,
Leading Republican paper of the United States, Which enables us to offer that splendid journal (regular subscription price, $1 per year) and the REPUBLICAN for one year
For only $1.25, Cash in Advance.

New York Weekly Tribune, regular price, $1.00
South Jersey Republican,1.25
Total, $2.25
We furnish both papers one year for $1.25
Subscriptions may begin at any time.

This is the most liberal combination offer ever made in the United States, and every reader of the REPUBLICAN should take advantage of it at once.
Address all orders to the South Jersey Republican.
