One shoulder was dislocated, and he received numerous abrasions and bruises. Dr. Burt attended to his injuries, and he was taken home and put to bed. He expects to be up to-morrow. It was a miraculous escape from fatal injury.

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1912

P. O. S. of A. Field Day, July 4th.

At one of the largest district meetings ever held in this district, it was decided to hold a field-day at Hammonton on July 4th.
The committee has arranged an excellent programme of entertainment and sports. Addresses will be made by National President Pope, State President Blackburn, and others. There will be a three-mile race, fifty-yard dash, one-hundred-yard dash, fat men's race, tug of war for men and one for women, sack race, three-legged race, swimming race, potato race, trap shooting, running broad jump, standing broad jump, baseball, an American flag, blindfold race, water contests, etc.
Any member of the order can enter these contests free of any entry fee, by sending his name and Camp number to C. R. Scullin, Hammont-on, or Calvin S. Smith, 15 N. Texas Ave., Atlantic City.
Valuable prizes. Musical day. Dancing. Fireworks. Refreshments.
All in Hammonton Park. Everybody welcome.

Hammonton Chautauqua.

Though the dates for the Chautauqua have been widely advertised for two months, not until last Saturday's "Republican" appeared did many of our church people realize that a Sunday was included. The only religious exercises would be held that day, the fact of having to pay for the day's program did not meet with unanimous approval.
Consequently, protests were sent in by the Pastors, to the Penna.
Association, also to our local Committee; but of course it was too late to alter the dates of twenty-three cities and towns to accommodate Hammonton.

We report this Sunday date as much as anyone, but realizing that it was weeks too late to accomplish any change, have not encouraged the protests, but rather, advised that they be sent.
We believe every session of the Chautauqua will be entertaining, instructive, a moral and religious uplift for all, something to think over, and, like a sermon, make better people of us.

Had they wakened up before, arrangements could have been made for an all-day for just the evening, the next season's course.
Proceedings may have been started to "hold up" to tomorrow's program, and if the plan succeeds, public notice will be given.
There will be no admission charges to motor.

The course started yesterday. We advise everyone to take in the Chautauqua, all the sessions.

No Cigarettes for Minors.

Some weeks ago, an exchange published the following, which we advise our readers to keep for reference:
"Vendors of tobacco and cigarettes must exercise greater caution in the sale of gift of cigarettes to minors, under a new law enacted by the late Legislature, now in force. The law, which is plain and positive, reads as follows:

"Hereafter, no person shall furnish cigarettes or cigarette paper or tobacco in any form, by sale, gift, acting as agent, directly or indirectly or otherwise, to any minor of the age of eighteen years, and any person offending may be fined $10 and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for the first offense and not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each succeeding offense."

"Not only dealers, but any person who gives cigarettes to a boy under eighteen years of age is liable to a fine. This is the most drastic law on this subject ever passed in New Jersey, one which it will be well for all, dealers and other persons, to observe."

Next week we expect to publish an article of interest to every citizen in Hammonton.

No news from Chicago, up to noon yesterday, excepting that Col.
Roosevelt will probably head a new party, the "Progressives."

A June Wedding.

A few score of relatives and friends witnessed a pretty wedding Tuesday, June 18th, 1912, in the Hammonton Baptist Church, the contracting principals being Mr.
Winifred Blake, a promising young contractor, and Miss Lila Dodd, one of our popular school teachers.
Rev. H. P. Hoskins tied the nuptial knot.

Mr. Ernest Philson, of Millville, was best man; Miss Alberta Foster, bridesmaid. The bride was beautifully gowned, and wore a veil.
As the procession entered from opposite doors, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs.
H. P. Hoskins.

After the ceremony, the party made for carriages and autos, but not before they were plentifully besprinkled with rice. Arriving at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs.
E. A. Cordery, they received their invited friends, congratulations and more rice.
Taking the train for Camden, enroute for their new home in Connecticut, they were once more treated to rice showers.
May theirs be a long and happy and prosperous life.

NOTICE.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the making of a temporary loan in anticipation of the payment of certain assessments for public improvements, and to issue and renew notes therefor, in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled, "An Act to authorize incorporated cities, boroughs, towns, villages and townships of this State to borrow money and to negotiate temporary loans in anticipation of receipt of taxes and assessments, and to secure the repayment of the money so borrowed,"

 A.D., nineteen hundred and six.

Whereas, the Town Council of the tain ordinance, on the twenty-first day with sidewalks and curbing, in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of the Town of Hammonton and an Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, approved on the sixteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and nine, entitled,

 "An Act authorizing the governing body of any municipality in this State to improve any road, street, parkway, or other public highway therein, with suitable viding for the payment thereof;" and Whereas, in pursuance of the provisions provided for in the aforesaid ordinance and the contract made thereunder;

Section 2. That such promissory notes as may be issued by the Town of Ham-of this ordinance may be renewed, if occasion shall require, until the same shall be paid by, or out of the, receipts

Your property depreciates in value unless protected by a quality paint. Such a paint has a hard, smooth surface, keeping out the moisture and is a perfect armor against Nature's assaults. It is elastic—expanding and contracting with heat and cold, thus avoiding cracking, peeling and scaling.
 A good paint has beauty of color. It does not fade quickly.
 It proves the poet's saying, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."
