The following is taken from the Journal of Inebriety:
"The man who believes that alcohol is a poison, and total abstinence the only safeguard for health, shows far better knowledge and better judgment than one who thinks alcohol a food and moderate drinking compatible with health. But the man who denies the disease of inebriety, and believes it to be a moral state, which can be changed at will, merely expresses his failure to observe and reason correctly by every day's observations."

SOME OTHER DAY.

There are wonderful things we're going to do
Some other day:

And harbors we hope to drift into,
Some other day.

With folded hands the cars that trail,
We watch and wait for a favoring gale
To fill the folds of an idle sail,
Some other day.

We know we must toil if we ever win,
Some other day;

But we say to ourselves, there's time to begin,
Some other day.

And so, deferring, we loiter on,
Until at last we find withdrawn
The strength of the hope we leaned upon,
Some other day.

And when we are old and our race is run,
Some other day,
We fret for things that might have been done
Some other day.

We trace the path that leads us where
The beckoning hand of grim despair
Leads us yonder out of the here,
Some other day.

About Electric Lights.

EDGEWATER PARK, N. J., June 13, 1900

EDITOR OF THE REPUBLICAN:

We notice by your last issue two articles, which, in our judgment is worthy of consideration and reply, to wit:—

The articles referring, "to the inadequacy of our dynamo to supply the demand," is entirely in error, as the efficiency of the said dynamo is fully capable to supply the present demand and more if necessary: the cause of our first accident on dynamo was occasioned by "grounding of the armature," and the second accident by carelessness in submitting the rewound armature to the elements of the weather during its transportation.

Referring to the article appertaining to, "the duplication of the plant," to wit:—Such has been our intention to do, in due season; but it is no more than fair to us, that you will allow, we have been most unfortunate in this enterprise.

First:—An unseen and unlooked for incident (so soon after taking possession) of the necessity of drilling a new well.

Second:—the grounding of the armature on dynamo twice in succession.

Third:—the accident to the engine (which was likely to happen to any engine, no matter what capacity).

Fourth:—Our expenses are going on just the same, and no income.

Fifth:—the tremendous outlay occasioned by the maintenance of our plant under the present conditions.

Sixth:—The consumers do not pay their bills, which is most unkind and dishonorable; because we happen to be unfortunate does not release a debtor from his obligation that he or she has contracted and for which they have value received, and yet your paper claims that "you are weary of the frequent delays and feel that the time is ripe for the fulfillment of the Company's promise," does the action of our consumers (your townspeople) warrant a recognition by us of the above statement at this time?

No, they do not, and yet a visit to the plant will show a marked change, street lamps are being replaced, switch-board revised and renewed, and many other improvements, thereby showing you our good intentions, which, we feel are unappreciated.

Hoping our consumers will take heed of this letter, by paying their bills promptly, and thereby relieving themselves from debt with this Company, we remain, Yours respectfully,

The Electric Light Heat & Power Co.
of Hammonton,
F. J. TILTON, Sec. & Treas.

REPLY.

Before the new company took charge, it was publicly stated that they had a paid-up capital of $11,000; that they intended to duplicate the entire plant, etc. Had this promise been kept, there would have been but one delay in the lighting—the well—and that could have been remedied in three days. When the dynamo gave out, its duplicate could have been put in service; when the engine was damaged, its twin would have run the plant quite as well. For this reason, as we intimated last week, patrons are demanding the promised improvements. The people must keep their oil lamps constantly ready for use, not knowing the hour when they will be needed.

As to the dynamo's capacity, we were told that it was well loaded a year ago, and it now supplies many more lamps than it did at that time. We have the opinion of a man pretty well posted, that the load now carried is too great for the present dynamo; and its repeated burning out would indicate to a layman that that opinion is correct.

In regard to arc lamps, there is a new one at Bellevue Avenue and Second Street, and it is about as uncertain as the rest, — a good light, but too seldom burning.

If consumers do not pay their bills, the company should enforce their contract or shut off the current.

Mr. Veris, the local Superintendent, seems to understand his business thoroughly, and gives as good service as can be expected with present facilities. Everything about the power-house is in prime good order, and if the company will provide adequate machinery, so that consumers can rely upon electric lights, we believe that fault-finding will cease, and bills be promptly paid.

EDITOR.

COMMUNICATION.

MR. EDITOR: Isn't it about time that we have the light and the quality of light that the Town contracted for, and a reasonable guarantee that we shall have it all the time? We gave the new company power to increase the charges to private consumers 50 per cent, expecting them to duplicate with better machinery, so that we could with safety put away the old oil lamps. But, alas! we are worse off than we were before. The new company reported a paid-up capital of $11,000. If that is true, why don't they do something?

We most emphatically call upon our Town Council to nullify the contract, declare the franchise forfeited, and give some one else a chance. I don't believe this company will make much improvement until they can first make the money out of the people.

Did you see the bills they presented for May? They were for a full month, though they broke down five days short of a month? How is that for high?

Why don't the people howl? They must be asleep, I guess, and don't know but what the lights are burning.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders never cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. S. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They know she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but "three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells, will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Only 50 c., at Crowell's Pharmacy.

SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1900

M'KINLEY AND ROOSEVELT

The attention of all Republicans, as well as men of other parties interested in their country's future, has the past week centered in the Republican National Convention, held in Philadelphia. Through the courtesy of U. S. Senator John Kean, and our own Congressman, John J. Gardner, our representative was privileged to attend the sessions.

On Monday evening the grand parade started at eight o'clock, at Broad and York Streets. It was one of the greatest sights we ever saw,—almost equaling the Jubilee parade,—thirty thousand men in line. Delegations from all parts of our country, with bands and fireworks, marched down Broad Street, the end reaching the Walton about two o'clock a. m.

Senator Hanna, Chairman National Committee, called to order on Tuesday at noon. Sen. Wolcott was temporary chairman, and made a grand speech reviewing the work of the party, and outlining its future policy.

Organization was completed Wednesday, with Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as chairman. He spoke in his usual brilliant, polished style. Committee reports, and the platform were adopted.

On Thursday, Convention met at 10:30. Senator Foraker, in a strong speech, nominated William M'Kintley for President. At the mention of his name an electric thrill seemed to run through the vast concourse. It started with the delegates in the middle of the hall, a clapping of hands and approving shouts that ebbed about the aisles and surged up into the galleries, swelling into a grand united chorus, and broke forth in a mighty volume of sound that lifted the entire audience to their feet with its irresistible impulse of enthusiasm. Twenty thousand people! And such shouting, such waving of flags and banners has probably never been witnessed before on this continent.

Delegations from every state and territory, including Hawaii, bore their standards up and planted them on the platform, signifying the unanimity of their choice. Gov. Roosevelt, in a strong and vigorous speech, seconded the nomination. Formal roll-call gave a unanimous vote—528—for Wm. M'Kintley, of first ballot—an unprecedented vote in the history of conventions.

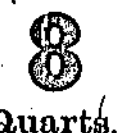

Young, of Iowa, put the name of Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, in nomination for Vice-President. Again the cheers and flag-waving. He also received the vote of every delegate but one—his own. Thus, in spite of himself, his declaration that he did not desire the nomination, it was forced upon him by his united party.

Chauncey M. Depew, with his old-time vigor, endorsed the Governor, and was followed by others. Such unanimity and enthusiasm as was manifested at this convention marks a new epoch in the history of national Republicanism.

S. Paul Jefferson, the Hammoncton Base-ball Club's pitcher, will deliver his popular lecture, entitled "The Other Fellow," in the Universalist Church, next Friday evening, 20th inst. Adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. Proceeds to aid the young man in his college course.

The Presbyterians gave their new Pastor an elegant reception, last week Friday evening. The attendance of members was large, with representatives of other denominations. There was an entertainment of music, etc., addresses, and refreshments. The social feature was especially enjoyable.

S. Paul Jefferson, the base-ball pitcher, has won the respect of all who have met him, by gentlemanly deportment. He is a student in the Temple College, Philada., paying his way with his own earnings. Let every one who admires pure grit give him a bit of aid by attending his lecture next week. It will be a quarter well invested.

Leverett G. Rogers, son of the late George Rogers, of Elm, died on Tuesday, June 19th, at Beverly, N. J., of paralysis, aged 64 years. Mr. R. was well known in Hammoncton. Some will remember him as of the firm Rogers & Wood, shoe manufacturers, on Main Road, about twenty years ago. Funeral services yesterday, burial at Beverly.

Mrs. Edward Redman died May 21st, at her home in Kirby, Oregon, after long suffering with consumption. Mrs. R. was known, thirty-five years ago, as Miss Maggie Wetherbee, one of the most popular young ladies in Hammoncton. She was married to Edward Redman, ex-Sheriff of this County, and after his death went with her parents to Oregon.

"Ant Mandy's Minstrels" drew a full house on Tuesday evening, and gave a clean laughable entertainment. Two and even in their jokes and local hits, created repeated applause, and the solos and general singing were above the ordinary. One of the taking features of the "Old Plantation" was the cake walk. As a whole, it was much more enjoyable than that of visiting minstrels, and gave an idea what local talent can do.

At their semi-annual business meeting, the Presbyterian Y. P. S. C. E. elected the following officers:

President, John T. Ash.
Vice Pres., Miss Anna Walther.
Rec. Sec'y, Miss Marie Swift.
Cor. Sec'y, Miss Blanche Jones.
Treasurer, Miss Olive Holland.
Organist, Miss Blanche Jones.
Aid., Miss Blanche Newcomb.
Chorister, Miss Blanche Thomas.
Ushers, W. Walther, C. Helzer.

The ordination of Rev. Herbert F. Loomis, and his installation as Pastor of the Baptist Church, took place on Thursday evening. Rev. H. A. Greisemer, of Haddonfield, was moderator of the Council, and gave the charge to the candidate; charge to Church by Rev. A. O. Gilmore, Laurel Springs; a fine sermon by Rev. J. B. G. Pidge, D. D., of the Fourth Church, Philada.; ordaining prayer by Rev. T. H. Sprague, Haddon Heights. The Church was decorated with flowers and plants; there was good music, and a large audience.

About 5:30, Wednesday afternoon, Thos. Telle's horse took fright at something and ran away. Near Mr. Boyer's residence the wagon struck a tree, and Joseph Gust, the hired man, and a woman berry picker, were thrown to the ground. The man's leg was broken, the woman suffered a fracture of the shoulder bone, and both were bruised and shaken. They were taken into Russell Moore's residence while their injuries were attended to by Dr. Cunningham.

The Baptists gave their Pastor, Rev. H. F. Loomis, a reception on Wednesday evening, in the Church. The audience room was nearly filled with members and friends, all demonstrations being represented. An enjoyable program of music, recitation, and addresses was given; including words of welcome by Rev. W. N. Osborn, of the M. E. Church, Rev. Wm. K. McKimney, of the Presbyterian, Mr. C. F. Osgood, representing the business men, and Mr. M. Stodwell, of the Baptist Church, after which an hour was spent in a nice lunch and social handshaking.

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest marvel just from the press, entitled "Law of the Country March." Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music, as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Chariot Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "Charge of the Light Brigade," "America Forever," "A Warmie Up to Dixie," etc. This new march is said by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our customers, the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for twenty-five cents in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price, fifty cents, will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a two cent postage stamp, a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper and writing direct to the publishers: E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W. 29th St., New York.

Base-Ball.

The ups and downs of life were well exemplified at the ball game last Saturday, with the Belmonts. The locals were in good fighting shape until the seventh, when, with the visitors at bat, "Jim" Jefferson, who had hurt his arm, made a wild throw to first, which was a signal for a succession of errors that were mainly responsible for those four runs. Luderitz deserves special mention for his bit in the sixth, bringing in Jefferson and Helsor.

INDIGESTION

Cured by Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure
"I suffered over two years with indigestion and nervous dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now feeling better than I have for two years. I have a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of indigestion or dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Cin.
