Vol. 55

HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1917

No. 25

Mrs. Evelyn North was in town on Thursday.

Town Council meets next Wednesday evening.

Harold Myers is at Allentown, Pa., in the Ambulance Corps.

Mrs. H. J. Rolfe and children have joined Mr. Rolfe at Kittery, Maine.

Dr. Waas has had the roof of his residence covered with asbestos shingles.

Guard drills are now held every Tuesday and Friday evening, at eight o'clock.

Mrs. W. R. Seely entertained one of her brothers, Prof. Alfred Weston, last week.

A shipment of early red raspberries was made on Monday, and brought a good price.

Mrs. Daniel Zinn and her little daughter, from Somers Point, were here most of the week.

Miss Lillian Lehman is at home from Millville Hospital, recuperating from typhoid fever.

Alfred Myers is probably on the way to Panama, as one of Uncle Sam's armed carpenters.

Dr. Albert J. Walther has been summoned to Hahnemann Hospital, for service there during the war.

While in Hahnemann Hospital, Monday, Mrs. T. J. Kelly's auto was stolen from in front of that institution.

The members of the Navy League "500" will donate their dues to the maintenance of a French orphan, for one year.

Mrs. J. W. Kepp and children, of Phoenixville, Pa., are visitors at D. S. Bellamy's. Mr. Kepp spent the week-end here.

Miss Helen Matthews, for a year or more Jackson & Son's cashier, has resigned, to assume a position in the Victor works, Camden.

Augustus R. Reading, employe of the Government at Panama, is at home for a few days. His wife and daughter will accompany him on his return to their new southern home.

Little William Kelly, grandson of Mrs. Thos. J. Kelly, was taken to Hahnemann Hospital on Sunday, and operated upon for a severe case of appendicitis. At last report he was doing nicely.

The women of the Navy League wish to thank the Camp Fire girls of Camps "Akipsaya" and "Wapaysee" for their splendid co-operation in making a big success of the League's recent benefit at Eagle Theatre.

August Rodie and Harry Roat, clowns, enlisted recently, but the authorities sent the former to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and Roat to Fort Slocum, N. Y. All the same, they will count two on Hammonton's quota of twenty-eight.

The State Library Commission has asked for books to send to our soldier boys. Those who have a book or books they are willing to give for this purpose are requested to leave them at the Library this (Saturday) evening, and they will be cared for by the librarian.

Shamunkia Tribe will motor to Egg Harbor this evening, starting at seven o'clock, where they will assist in the adoption of several pale faces. All brothers who can are urged to go down; and also to attend next Tuesday evening's election of officers. Important business will be brought up.

Vineland Poultry Meet.

Vineland's international egg laying and breeding contest will take place next Saturday. This will be of interest to many here, who will doubtless enter their birds.

The printed program reads:
10 to 12 a. m. Inspection of Contest Plant and Study of the Birds.

12 to 1.30 p. m. Lunch—basket or refreshment stand.

1.30 to 4.00. Open-air Talks and Discussions. R. A. Ballard, "Breeding the Heavy Layers."

Prof. D. H. Warner, "Selecting the Heavy Layers."

Prof. H. R. Lewis, "The Poultrymen's Outlook."

A very quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, June 20th, 1917, when Miss Beatrice Hirst and Neil N. Lance were united in marriage by Rev. W. J. Cusworth, at the Baptist parsonage. Mrs. H. O. Perry, the bride's sister, and Miss Edna Eager, were present. After a wedding breakfast, the couple departed for their new home, in Quakertown, Penna. Their many friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

Miss Amy Elizabeth Hoyt and Mr. Edmund L. Smith, both of West Philadelphia, were married on Wednesday, June 20th, 1917. They will be at home after July 15th, near Fiftieth and Oxford Streets. Miss Bessie is a daughter of L. A. Hoyt, granddaughter and niece of ye Editors. She has warm friends in Hammonton, who wish her and her husband everything desirable in life.

One of the prettiest weddings witnessed in Hammonton or vicinity was solemnized at Winslow Inn on Thursday afternoon, when Miss Mary Roberts was united in marriage to Mr. Claude Smith, of Swarthmore, Pa.,—the Friends' ceremony being used. Many friends and relatives were present, among them friends from Hammonton. A profusion of beautiful flowers, tastefully arranged by Mr. Kind, were among the features.

Prof. N. C. Holdridge and wife, with G. Herbert Rogers and wife and daughter, started on Monday for a two weeks automobile trip among the Berkshire Hills, and possibly farther north.

Good Bye!

We love the onion as we did
In the days of long ago.
When people born with appetites
Could give the same a throw.
Farewell, farewell, oh onion, dear,
You're now beyond our messes.
You're in the class of millionaires.
Along with Boston beans.
We hanker for potatoes, still,—
All baked, or nicely fried;
We have an aching void for you,
Located just inside.
(Good-bye, good-bye, old spud so dear,
We bid you sad adieu!)
Tis only men like W. L. B.
Who now can pal with you.
On cabbage once we used to feast,
With meat all nicely corned;
And since you've left us, we indeed
Have sadly grieved and mourned.
Farewell, farewell, oh cabbage, dear,
Your form no more we see—
You only now associate
With such as old John D.
(Written by "N" for the "Republican.")

A Series of Accidents.

One fatal accident, and three or more less serious, took place this week,—three of which were on Tuesday evening.

As Mrs. Anna Reihl, of Folsom, was walking out Twelfth Street, in the road (there being no sidewalks beyond Chew Road), she was knocked down by a side-car which had broken loose from H. S. Jones' motorcycle. Both legs were broken, also two ribs, a shoulder, head, and internal injuries. After being given first aid by Mrs. Chas. Cunningham, she was hurried to Cooper Hospital, Camden; but in spite of all that could be done, she passed away on Friday morning. It is stated that the occupant of the side car was uninjured, also that the driver fell under his machine in trying to save the woman. Jones, whose home is Elm, was immediately placed under five hundred dollars' bail.

Another accident, also Tuesday evening, was the knocking down of an Italian, by an auto on 13th Street,—details of which could not be obtained.

The same evening, Russo Bros. horse took fright out Twelfth Street and tore up Bellevue at a dangerous pace. But for Tony's cool head and strong arm, much damage might have been done to the many pedestrians, teams and autos along the busy street. The horse broke loose from the wagon, and Tony escaped with a bruise or two.

Miss Louise Parkhurst slipped while on one of the amusements on an Atlantic City pier, Thursday, and fractured her left wrist. This was an unhappy ending to her enjoyment as one of the Camp Fire girls, who were spending the day at the shore.

HOW TO USE THE FLAG

Congressman Bacharach
sends the following rules
in regard to the proper use of the Flag. Laws do not cover the matter, but these rules, formulated by the D. A. R., are approved by Government officials:

1. The Flag should not be hoisted before sunrise, nor be allowed to remain up after sunset.

2. Whenever possible, the flag should be flown from a staff or mast, but should not be fastened to the side of a building, platform, or scaffolding. It should not be used as a cover over a table, desk, or box, nor where anything can be set or placed upon the flag.

3. When the flag is used as a banner, the union should fly to the north, in streets running east and west, and to the east on streets running north and south.

4. When flags are used in unveiling a statue or monument, they should not be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature, during the remainder of the ceremony.

When the American Flag is used out of doors, it should always be allowed to fly to the breeze.

When the flag is used in a fixed position, the union should be on the left as you face the flag.

When the flag is used as a banner, but in a fixed position, the union should be on the right as you face the flag.

For indoor decorations, the flag
may be caught up in many artistic fashions, and used with bunting, garlands, plants and flowers, but should never be placed below a person sitting.

When clusters and draping of colors are desired, bunting or cloth should be used, but never the flag!

When the flag is flown at half-staff, as a sign of mourning, it should be hoisted to full staff at the conclusion of the funeral.

When used on a bier or casket,
at a funeral, the stars should be placed at the head. In no case should the flag be allowed to touch
the ground.

During the period of the war,
there is no better way by which we can show our patriotism than by flying the Stars and Stripes from our residences or business houses
every day.

LOUIS J. LANGHAM, P. M.

From State Department of Labor

TRENTON, N. J., June 2, 1917

EDITORS OF REPUBLICAN: The Federal-State Employment Service,
operated through the Department of Labor of the State, has at the present time more applications from experienced men to work on farms than they have available positions, and would appreciate it very much if you would kindly indicate that fact through the columns of your valued paper. We also have a large number of inexperienced men who are willing to accept farm positions, and we would be glad to have farmers desiring this class of help write to Lewis T.
Bryant, Commissioner of Labor,
State House, Trenton, setting forth their requirements, and every effort will then be made to obtain the help desired.

We have a large number of applications from experienced colored help, married and unmarried, and farmers desiring such can secure satisfactory hands by either calling at the office of the Bureau, 9-11 Franklin St., Newark, or by corresponding with the Commissioner of Labor, at Trenton.

Yours very truly,
LEWIS T. BRYANT,
Commissioner of Labor.
