Endless Chain of Prayer.

O Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal God, have mercy on mankind, keep us from all sin, and take us to be with thee eternally.
This Prayer was sent to Bishop Lawrence, recommending it to be sent to nice different persons. It must not be signed. He who will write for this prayer, communicating the day it is received and distributed it to nine persons, send one each day.
Experience some great joy. In Jerusalem, during the great, it was said who would write this Prayer would be delivered from every calamity. "Blessed be the chain." chain. Please copy it as it is written.
With the blessing of God may rest upon you to whom it is sent.

Editor South Jersey Republican:
The above "Endless Chain of Prayer" has been in circulation for some two years or more, and is at present being circulated in Hammonton. It usually contains a threat of some kind. I believe, unless its directions are carefully followed, some time ago Bishop Lawrence denied all knowledge of this letter.
Its origin has been traced, I believe, to an insane person.

Any one receiving such a letter, will they kindly destroy it at once. No harm will come to them for doing so.
The mailing of such letters, I believe, is forbidden by the postal laws of the United States.

Faithfully yours,
WM. H. STONE,
Rector of St. Mark's Church, June 25, '08.

Miss Anna M. Phillips, teacher in the Primary Department, of the Baptist Sunday School, entertained the little folks last week Friday, giving them a straw ride to her residence on Main Road. The children and a few adult guests enjoyed the afternoon well.

Wm. McQuillen, a 10 year-old Philadelphia boy, while stealing a ride on a freight train, at Winslow, on Wednesday, fell and had his right leg crushed, and was badly injured otherwise.
Dr. Cunningham took him to Cooper Hospital, where his leg was amputated.
The boy died later.

"Well my friend, I open my store to-morrow, How would you start out of it?"
"You will advertise, of course."
"Oh, no. I don't think so."
"Then I advise you to start with a closing-out sale."

Some of the Needlework Guild members desire us to correct our statement that eighty ladies were present at their reception last week. They tell us the number was fully two hundred.
Well, our informant was present, but probably counted only those who saw forgetting that the guests at a reception come and go at will.

A few days ago a boy helped himself to a handful of bread tickets at Lonsdale bakery. W. J. Koyne caught the boy with a portion of the tickets, he having given some of them away—and arrested him. At the hearing, a compromise was made, the boy's father paying the bill and costs. Better have punished the thief, and given him a lesson in early life.

Do you enjoy all your home?

Is it wisdom or a good investment to pay $1,000 to $15,000 for a house and then be cramped into only a few rooms of it on cold or windy days through lack of proper heating? Why not get the full value of all the home space day and night, all winter long, by the genial warmth of AMERICAN & IDEAL
RADIATORS & BOILERS
These outfits soon save enough at the coal-bin to pay for themselves. A turn of the valve supplies as much or little Low-Pressure Steam or Hot-Water heat as needed to delightfully heat the rooms. No ash-dust, soot, or coal-gases get into living-rooms—thus saving housework and furnishings.
