Joint Resolution authorizing sale of the Stevens Battery.

WHEREAS, The Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, by resolution, approved the 14th day of April, 1866, did authorize the governor to appoint three commissioners, to advise with the executors of the late Edwin A. Stevens, as to the interest of the state in the ship now building at Hoboken, known as the "Stevens Battery," but without the authority to sell or dispose of the same; and whereas, the governor, by virtue of the said resolution, did appoint such commissioners; and whereas, the interest of the state requires that the same be sold, and that to effect this it is necessary that authority should be given, to negotiate such a sale to our own or to a foreign government; therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the said commissioners be, and they are hereby authorized to sell and dispose of the interest of the state in the Stevens Battery, for such sum and in such manner as they may think proper, and may be willing to accept; provided, that the governor and chief justice of the state of New Jersey consent to such sale.

2. That the treasurer be directed to pay, upon the warrant of the comptroller, the expense incurred in carrying resolution into effect.

NUMBER VI.

Joint Resolution for appropriation for life saving stations.

WHEREAS, N. Beveridge, Treasurer, chief of the marine, in his report of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, to the honorable, the secretary of the treasury, recommended additional appropriation to the life saving stations, for the protection of life and property upon the New Jersey coast; and whereas, Henry W. Sawyer, superintendent of the stations, and the commissioners of pilotage have recommended additional stations, with crews at each station, and improved boats, for the reason that the present boats are unsafe and worn out; therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That our senators and representatives in congress be urged to secure an appropriation of two hundred thousand dollars, for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, for the purpose of erecting and equipping life saving stations upon the New Jersey coast.

2. And be it resolved, That the governor be requested to furnish a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution immediately to the members of congress from New Jersey.

NUMBER VII.

Joint Resolution relative to colors or flags borne by New Jersey troops during the war of eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

WHEREAS, Some of the colors or flags borne by New Jersey regiments and battalions during the late war are still in the hands of private persons; and whereas, those returned to the custody of the state, are now kept at the state arsenal, in an obscure room, where they are liable to mutilation and decay; and whereas, it is right and fitting that these historic emblems, upheld by the bravery and devotion of New Jersey troops on so many battle fields, should be tenderly cared for, as sacred mementoes of the past, and preserved for the gratitude and reverence of future generations; therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the Quartermaster General be authorized to take the necessary steps immediately, to recover all such colors or flags now in his possession, and remove all without delay to some suitable place in the State House, where the comptroller is directed immediately to prepare, where they shall be enclosed in appropriate glass cases, with the names of regiments and battalions, and the battles participated in, suitably painted thereon.

Approved March 20, 1871.

NUMBER VIII.

2. Resolved, That the treasurer be directed to pay upon the warrant of the comptroller, the expense incurred in carrying the foregoing resolution into effect.

Approved April 6, 1871.

NUMBER II.

Joint Resolution relative to the celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

WHEREAS, on the fourth day of July, anno domini one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, at the city of Philadelphia, the declaration of independence was then promulgated by the congress then in session; and whereas, the provincial conference of Pennsylvania was the first to express their willingness to concur in a vote of congress, declaring the united colonies free and independent states; and New Jersey next speedily followed, with instructions to her delegates of similar import; and whereas, afterward, at the said city of Philadelphia, on the seventh day of September, anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, the Constitution of the United States was adopted in convention, over which George Washington presided; and whereas, it is proposed to celebrate appropriately the greatest event of the declaration of independence, on the centenary anniversary after the proclamation thereof, by an exhibition by products of manufactures and art, showing the progress and development of the nation, in comparison with all other nations of the world, and it is eminently proper and fitting that such exhibit be held at the city where the declaration was adopted and proclaimed, and which is associated with so many events connected with the beginning of our history as a nation; and whereas, the city of Philadelphia, being a seaport readily accessible through railroad communication with any part of the country, possesses all requisites and advantages for such an exhibition; and whereas, in view of these considerations, a bill has been introduced into the congress of the United States, providing for such exhibition, on the fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, at the city of Philadelphia, which bill has passed the house of representatives; now, therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That an exhibition of products of manufactures and art of the United States, and of all nations, will be an appropriate means of celebrating the centenary anniversary of the declaration of independence; and it is most suitable and proper that the exhibition be held at the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

2. And be it resolved, That the action of the house of representatives of the United States looking toward such celebration, is approved and sustained by this state.

3. And be it resolved, That the legislature of New Jersey will at the proper time adopt such measure as may be expedient to provide for the display, at the exhibition of the products of the state.

4. And be it resolved, That a copy of the foregoing be forwarded to the senators in congress from this state.
