HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, JULY 3, 1915

No. 27

Is it, then, only a tri-colored rag,
As the street-corner orators say of it?
Maybe it isn't worth loving—the flag,
For all of the pomp and display of it;
But though I grow cynical, caustic, and wise,
I cannot think lightly or ill of it;
Whenever, whenever it comes to my eyes,
I feel all the glamour and thrill of it.

The toll of the hands that have wrought for it
The blood of the soldiers that fought for it,
Are part of its wonderful story.
This banner unfurled to winds of the world,
Old Glory!

Maybe it isn't worth loving at all,
The red and the blue and the white of it;
Maybe "Tradition" has got me in thrall;
When I grow proud at the sight of it;
Still, when that banner is hung to the breeze,
How the heart warms to the gleam of it?
Still, when you're sailing on far-away seas,
How you can long for and dream of it!

How can you treasure our pride for it?
Thousands have struggled and died for it,
Weaving its marvelous story,
This banner unfurled to winds of the world,
Old Glory!

Berlin is to have a Fifth of July celebration.

F. A. Lehman and family were visitors in Philadelphia.

The Board of Education meets next Wednesday evening.

Regular meeting of the Board of Trade next Tuesday evening.

Wm. Burnham, Jr., is employed as clerk in The Peoples Bank.

Bert Warner, one of Uncle Sam's boys, was at home last Sunday.

Miss Minnie B. Newcomb is at home on a two months vacation.

Mrs. M. B. Morrill, of Glassboro, was the guest of Mrs. C. A. Layer.

Mrs. Frank Sutton and daughter, of Camden, are visiting relatives in the west.

Base-ball this afternoon, between Hammonton and Rosedale. Game called at 3:30.

Rev. W. H. Gardner has an automobile, and finds it convenient and a pleasure.

The Baptist Musicals, Monday evening, was well attended, and very enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Black have been in Maine nearly two weeks,—their annual visit.

Next Saturday, the local base ball boys will play Egg Harbor, on the home grounds.

Thimble Bee for C. C. members, at the Club House, Friday, July 9th, at three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Weiley, with a party of friends, motored over from Salem on Monday.

On account of next Monday being a holiday, Little Ha-Ha Council will omit its meeting.

Miss Nana P. Layer entertained Miss Merle Black and Miss Christene Harris, of Salem, for the week-end.

The great lights at Twelfth St. and First Road, on July 5th, lead the way to First Road's safe and sane celebration.

Dr. J. E. Hoyt and family are spending their vacation with their Hammonton folks. They are now with the campers at Lower Bank.

Mr. Albert J. Dunning and Miss Edith R. Simons were married on Wednesday evening, June 30th, at their own newly erected and furnished home, on Fourth Street, Hammonton, by Rev. William J. Cusworth, in the presence of relatives and a few friends. The best man was John Scanlan; bridesmaid, Miss Edna Dunning. The house was prettily decorated with ferns, palms and daisies. Mr. and Mrs. Dunning are among our highly esteemed young people. After a trip, their friends will see that they receive a welcome home.

Town Council Meeting.

An adjourned meeting was held on Wednesday evening.

Drawings were submitted, showing the improved grade on Grape Street above Central Avenue; also for Peach Street and the extension of Packard Street.

Two ordinances were introduced,—one authorizing the grade change on Grape Street; the other accepting and fixing grades on Packard and Peach Streets. Both passed first reading.

Considerable time was occupied in consideration of the proposed new cement pavement for Bellevue Avenue. There seem to be some perplexing problems to solve in that connection, and decision was postponed.

Adjourned at eleven o'clock.

Miss Bertha Eckhart, teacher of music and drawing at May's Landing, is attending Summer School at Ocean City.

Regular meeting of Woman's Civic Club will be held Tuesday, July 6th, at three o'clock sharp. Important business; good attendance urged.

Miss A. L. Hoyt took a fine squad of Girl Pioneers, and friends, to Lower Bank for a week's outing,—starting yesterday morning. They will occupy a bungalow and several tents.

A reader writes: "If you are on speaking terms with a resident of First Road, see and help them celebrate 'Independence Day,' all day and evening. Everybody has 'open house.'"

Santo D'Agostino has erected a large sign-board on the front of his farm, containing the words, "Oak Grove Farm," in huge letters. It compares well with the place, which is exceptionally well kept.

A GREAT DAY.

Frolic, fireworks, and fun,
Open skies and sunny weather,
Uncles, aunts, and everyone
Rollicking all round together.
Tooting trumpets, drums a-beat,
Heaps and stacks of things to eat.
Old and young and big and small,
Flags high floating over all.
Jolly babies unafraid,
Urchins drinking lemonade.
Lest the date I fail to tell,
You must scan my verses well!

Winslow Lodge, I. O. O. F., had a splendid time, on Wednesday evening, at the conferring of first degree by a team from American Star Lodge, Atlantic City. Trucks and automobiles brought brothers from Atlantic, Egg Harbor, and Green Bank. After the impressive ceremonies, seventy of them sat down to do justice to the refreshments. Grand Secretary Pine was present, and contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion. Other enjoyable evenings are planned, including several initiations.

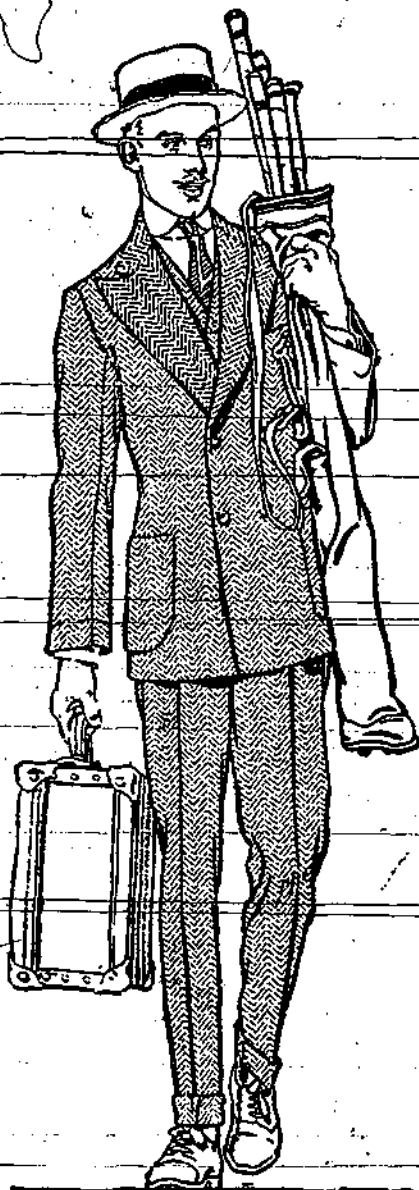

The Board of Trade Sextette, with their wives, and plus Messrs. Holdridge, Rider, and Jas. Cottrell (who motored them down in their cars), also A. L. Jackson, chaperone, Mrs. A. L. Jackson, and Mrs. Clara A. Brown, had a very pleasant trip, Thursday evening, to Pleasantville. Commencement exercises were very good, and the friends say the sextette did well. Prof. Rider was called on, and gave most excellent advice and encouragement to the graduates. There were about a thousand people in the theatre.

The Farmers' Big Day.

The New Jersey Horticultural Society is sending out the following announcement to the hundreds of Jersey newspapers, which should give sufficient publicity to the Field Day:

"Wednesday, July 14th, 1915, at Hammonton, will be a very profitable day to persons interested in fruit growing, when the New Jersey State Horticultural Society will hold its second summer meeting at Rider's Grove. Those attending will have an opportunity to visit a section of the State not now appreciated as it will be after they have made a tour of inspection through miles of berry fields, vineyards, and peach orchards, which has been arranged by the Hammonton Board of Trade."
