

Grange meeting Friday evening, July 11th.

Sunday School picnics will soon be decided on.

Town Council meets next Wednesday evening.

Rev. W. H. Davis is away on a two weeks vacation.

Workingmen's Loan Association meets next Monday evening.

Blackberries are selling at ten cents per quart in our markets.

Mrs. W. P. Bakley and two little sons spent the Fourth at Atsion.

Tom Gray has come back to make Hammonton friends a visit.

Friends of Henry Poyer were glad to see him around again, after his severe fall.

Phones were out all over town, also many lights, after Wednesday evening's storm.

Chas. H. Jenison and wife arrived on Sunday evening from Seymour, Conn., to spend his ten days vacation.

H. C. Remick is walking as little as possible, and then with a painful limp. He sprained his ankle last Saturday.

Sympathy is tendered to Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Evans, in the loss of their infant daughter, who died last Friday.

A big automobile collided with one of those old mile-stones in the neighborhood of Blue Anchor, last Saturday, and wrecked a front wheel.

Wednesday-afternoon, thermometers registered 102 in the shade, up to 135 in the sun. In twenty-six minutes, it dropped to seventy-six, after the storm.

Little Ha Ha Council, D. of P., will give a lemon social on Saturday next, July 12th, on Mrs. W. H. Burgess' lawn. If stormy that day, come on the 19th.

Since July 1st, you can use any postage stamp on a parcel-post package. For public convenience, the special stamp has been retired, and no more are to be printed.

Two little girls came to town Monday morning, June 30th, less than four hours apart. The first, to Mr. and Mrs. D. Edw. Ballard; the second, to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rolfe.

W. S. Turner proprietor of Hammonton Garage and Machine Works, has issued a handy little memorandum booklet of forty-eight pages, for the use of automobilists. They came from Hoyt & Son's press.

A professional decorator came here from the city and trimmed up several of our stores very nicely. Others, catching the inspiration, tried the trick themselves, and succeeded in helping to make the town look quite patriotic.

St. Mark's Church, Rev. Wm. Howard Davis, M. A., Rector, seventh Sunday after Trinity. Morning prayer at 7; Holy Communion at 7.30 and 10.30; Sunday School at 11.45; Evening prayer at 7.30. The Rev. Gilbert R. Underhill will officiate.

Rev. H. A. Abbott has resigned the pastorate of the Universalist Church, taking effect June 30th. We cannot help regretting this, as Mr. A. and his wife have made friends of all with whom they met. They expect to spend the next two months in New England.

Died, in the German Hospital, Philadelphia, Tuesday June 24th, Charles H. Thibault, son of the late Adrian and Hannah Thibault, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Reed. His remains were taken to the home of his mother at Nesco, and buried in the Pleasant Mills Cemetery, on Friday. Free from all suffering, and at rest.

Baptist Church, H. P. Honkins, pastor. Morning worship at 10.30; Sermon, "The Comforter." Evening worship at 7.30; Sermon, "Matthew, the Publican who discovered a new Kingdom." The first of evening Apostolic character studies during this month. Bible School at 11.45; C. E. at 6.30. Midweek service on Thursday eve., followed by the monthly business meeting.

The Sewerage Plant.

The Sewerage Commission met on Monday evening, to receive bids for construction of the pipe line and disposal plant. Three bids were received on each, and the total cost will evidently come within the estimates furnished by the Town Engineer.

The Commission are looking up the commercial standing and reliability of the bidders, and expect to report to Council at the meeting next Wednesday evening.

The successful bidders are: for the pipe line, the Cantrell Construction Company, of Philadelphia; for the disposal plant, the Atlantic Construction and Supply Company, of Atlantic City.

"Lest we forget," our Sewerage Commission is composed of Messrs. R. G. Scudder, President; Samuel Anderson, Sec'y; William Colwell and John G. Galigne. We congratulate the Town upon the securing of four such successful men of affairs to conduct this important enterprise.

Something of a Storm.

The heat of past days culminated in a storm, Wednesday evening, that was almost unparalleled in this section. Dark clouds gathered in the north and west for an hour or two, and about six o'clock the winds were let loose, filling the air with dense clouds of dust, branches from trees, and every sort of movable matter. Then came flashes of lightning of wonderful brilliance, almost continuous, accompanied by peals and rolls of thunder that shook the earth, and pouring rain.

It was really sublime, yet terrifying to the timid and nervous. It made one feel his insignificance in the presence of a power so infinite. The violent storm lasted about half-an-hour, but rain fell for an hour or two longer, giving the earth its needed refreshment.

Trees were damaged all over town, broken branches littering the streets. Fruit trees suffered, also,—split and torn, with fruit scattered on the ground.

We hear that lightning struck a house on Fairview Ave., knocking off considerable plaster.

The paving gang could not endure the heat, on Wednesday, and were compelled to stop work. How the berry pickers survived, we know not.

Dr. and Mrs. Willard received, Monday last, one of the most delightful surprises of their lives, in an unexpected visit from Dr. W. M. Coombs, of Titusville, Pa. The Doctor was a student for four years, forty-eight years ago, under Dr. Willard, and developed into one of the most skillful and successful dental operators in the state. He comes of a wealthy and excellent family, his brother George being a member of the New York Stock Exchange, for which he paid $55,000, twenty odd-years ago. The doctor is an old bachelor, and explains it thus:—"Every time I saw a girl I thought I would like to tie to, she invariably asked me to excuse her; and like a chump, I always did! Hence this thimble." What little Dr. saw of Hammonton he was greatly pleased with, and promised to repeat his visit at the first opportunity.

Might Have Been a Big Blaze.

Fire broke out under the motor table at the local telephone, about six thirty Thursday evening, the alarm being rung by the operators, the Misses Mangold, who bravely stuck to their posts.

Company No. 1 responded, but a few minutes' work by E. A. Cordery with a dry powder extinguisher, and the firemen's electrician, Supt. Doughty, removed all danger; though there was lots of smoke, and the street blocked with people.

The cause is supposed to have been the storm of the night before, at which time the line was struck, burning off the insulation. The work of repair was started at once, though the system was put out of commission by damage to their "ringing" apparatus.

I will save you that much and more if you are looking for a piano or player piano. What's the use of buying a second-hand piano when you can have a new one of better grade at the same price. What's the use of buying cheaper quality, when you can have the best direct from the factory at the same cost, or less?

Don't be old-fashioned and say, "I don't see how it can be done." Look into my proposition and see for yourself. Just because pianos have never been sold before on this plan and at such low prices, is no reason they cannot be. I save you the middleman's profit.

The "Get-Together" Dinner

Thirteen hundred progressive Republicans, from all over the county, attended a "dollar dinner" at Hotel Rudolf, Atlantic City, Monday night. Hammoncton was fairly represented. A special train (the "Dummy") left here at 7:30, taking our representatives and the delegations from below.

The dinner was well gotten up, and included everything that anyone could desire. It was a jolly crowd, free from disturbances, and brought together old-time and new-time Republicans, office holders and voters, rich and poor, sharing alike.

After the banquet and music, the throng assembled in the auditorium and listened to excellent addresses by former State Senator Wakelee, Judge Carey, Ex-Gov. E. C. Stokes, and Senator Borah. They were such as should have been heard by every Republican. Among other things, Judge Carey, of Hudson County, said:

"We're living in a progressive age, not merely in a political sense, but in every sense. Business is being conducted on a new basis. Big business is appreciating the fact that it isn't legitimate to be a bog. The churches have awakened to a new usefulness. Morality is on a broader but higher plane. But in the field of politics particularly 'the world is in the moving stage.' Men and women too, are given the political cards to shuffle. This is so the world over. A new political intelligence is operating. The people are doing their own thinking. And the result of all this is the world has been making progress."

The glorious Fourth is over, except the smell of burnt powder, the usual debris, and the numerous cases of scorched fingers and faces. But of what benefit has the day been to us? Has it inspired us to be nobler men and women? to be of some benefit to humanity, and not mere hangers-on? If we have not been so impressed, in thinking of what the day commemorates, of the old-time patriots, of the stirring events which preceded and followed our first Independence Day, then the celebration has been of no value, so far as we are concerned. Parents should teach their children early that this is not only a day of racket and races, but one which means freedom from the political yoke of every country. May it be a day in which young America will rise up and throw off other yokes, even more galling and deadly.

Some people may not understand why guarantors are necessary to assure the return of the Chautauqua to Hammoncton next year. The reason is this: that there are not yet enough people here who realize the benefits of a really high-class series of entertainments to engage tickets a year ahead; and, as a consequence, those who have the town's best interests at heart must sacrifice to make up the small deficiency. In a year or two, we believe, sufficient tickets will be sold in advance to fully cover the cost.

Our attention has been called to patches of weeds and wild grasses along some of our public highways, especially in low spots, which appear to be harboring mosquitoes and causing unhealthy conditions. If the Highway Committee or (as has been suggested) the Civic Club would send men around with scythes, now, before seeds have ripened, a few days of sunshine would dry up the small ponds which form in the shade.

A cripple (so he called himself) went from house to house, on Wednesday, and succeeded in raking in quite a sum of money. We noticed on his subscription list the names of a number of our town's women, who gave from twenty-five cents to one dollar. The fellow may have been wealthy. He appeared to be a professional.

A move is on foot among clerks and other employees in our stores, for a half-holiday every Wednesday during the hot weather. We hope their request will be granted. Coming in the middle of the week, it will be worth more than on Saturday; and we don't believe the dealers will lose anything by it.

Which would be better, for Hammoncton people to invite their out-of-town friends to come here to the 1914 Chautauqua, or Hammoncton folks go elsewhere to attend the Chautauqua?

The telephone and electric light people had their own troubles this week, resulting from the storm.

What You Can Do to Get Rid of Mosquitoes.

The Atlantic County Mosquito Extermination Commission has issued a folder containing the above heading, and suggestions as follows: First—Get rid of all standing water on your property by ditching it away or filling it in.

Second—See that there are no tin cans, broken dishes, bottles, pails, rain barrels, or anything on your premises or in your back yards in which water may collect.

Third—See that there are no wash tubs or pails in your basement, or anything that will hold water.

Fourth—See that there is no stagnant water in your basement or elevator shaft, so that your house will not be full of mosquitoes.

Fifth—See that your garbage can is covered and that your rain barrel is screened.

Sixth—If there is any stagnant water anywhere in your neighborhood which cannot be drained, sprinkle crude oil or kerosene over it every ten days. One cup of oil is sufficient for fifteen square feet of surface.

These methods will absolutely prevent the breeding of mosquitoes on your premises, will thereby increase the real estate value of your property, and rid you of this annoying and dangerous pest. The house mosquito is easily controlled if you will do your part and look after your own premises. Will you help?

Banner of America! O, banner of the Westland!
Banner of a nation great and generous and young!
Banner of the land we deem the dearest and the best land—
Lights eternal be the stars that shine your folds among!

Banner of America! O, banner of the mountains!
Banner of the prairie lands outspreading lone and far!
Banner of the mighty streams, the lakes, the falls, the fountains—
Love to you, and greeting, every stripe and every star!

Banner of America! O, banner of the cowboys!
Banner of the pioneers that break the virgin soil!
Banner of the country-bred, the reapers, and the plowboys—
None to you more loyal than the hearts of those who toil.

Banner of America! O, banner of glory!
Many a soldier son for you has suffered death's eclipse!
Many a sailor-lad whose name is lost from song and story
Gladly gave his life to see you shine above the ships.

Banner of America! O, banner of the street-folk!
Are they lost in trafficking? in selfish plot and plan?
Nay, let danger threaten you, and, avarice folk and neat folk,
Banner of the roaring mart, they'll answer to a man.

Banner of America! O, banner of the people!
In the love we bear you let all distinction die.
Wave from towering city spire or tiny village steeples,
Every eye is glad to see your splendor in the sky.

Banner of a freedom that for ages men have sought for!
Banner of a land that gives the soaring spirit scope!
Ever sacred symbol of a dream that men have died for—
Wave above a nation where the humblest heart may hope.

A Profitable Work.

Mr. J. A. VanFleet has been receiving very interesting letters from his daughter lately. Miss Margaret has lately been a missionary in Texas for several years past, but has lately been called to take charge of the Y. W. C. A. in the enterprising city of South Bend, Indiana. Under date of June 22, she writes:

"I am having a new kind of experience to add to my already varied list. Upon my arrival on Saturday evening, I was taken from the train to a tabernacle, packed with 12,000 people. This meeting had been going on for seven weeks, and closed last Sunday, the day after I got here. There are left on my hands, as a result of this work, 88 organized Bible classes, in neighborhood groups under volunteer leaders. I have to teach two groups of these leaders, one here and one in a town four miles distant. I have also to teach two Business Women's Bible Classes, one in each town. One of these classes has 478 already enrolled, and the other over 100. I also teach a class of 60 High School girls, one of 30 maids, and one of 40 society young women. The town is enthusiastic for Bible study."

In a later letter, she says: "Things are going well here. Nearly 500 girls attended my Business Women's Bible class in South Bend, on Tuesday night last, and 150 in Misawauka, a small city four miles away, on Monday night. It was blazing hot, too. Think of a Bible class larger than any church in Hammoncton could possibly seat, if you can."

Just another gentle reminder from the Civic Club of the following existing rules. Many have not as yet complied with the law. Rule 1. Fruits, vegetables, meats and other food products shall not be displayed or exposed on the sidewalk, or outside of places of business—unless such foods are securely covered by cases of glass, wood or metal, or unless they are inclosed in tight barrels, bags or boxes. PROVIDED, however, that this rule shall not apply to fruits or vegetables which must necessarily be peddled before use, but such foods, when displayed outdoors, must be supported on platforms at least eighteen inches above the surface of the sidewalk or ground.

Rule 2. Prepared foodstuffs, such as bakers' goods, confectionery, shelled nuts, etc.; dried fruits, such as dates, figs, peaches, prunes, apricots, etc.; cereal products, such as apples, peaches, prunes, apricots, etc.; cereal products, such as tapioca, breakfast foods, etc.; pickled products, such as pickles, chili sauce, etc.; fruit products, such as apple butter, jellies, jams, etc.; meat products, such as dried, salted or smoked fish, veal loaf, pickled pigs' feet, chipped beef, beef hash, minced meat or other foods prepared for eating, or subject to the attacks of worms or flies, shall not be displayed for sale unless protected from dirt, dust and dirt and all other foreign and injurious contamination, by suitable coverings of glass, wood or metal.

Those who fearlessly shoulder their burden generally find a loyal helper.

How A Home Helps.

There isn't any question that building yourself a house is a dollar and cents proposition. It takes money, and to build it means to spend money you have saved or to save money you would otherwise spend. It is pretty certain to prove a good investment. It will save you rent and uncertainty. It will likely to increase in value as the town grows and earn more in increment than the money would at interest. The building will depreciate with time. But the lot should grow in value if this town does as well as the country at large, which is nearly doubling its land values every decade.

But there is another side to it also, that is worth considering. There is another side besides the money side. Men of family are the house builders and the home builders. They are thinking about something in addition to the money saved and money earned. They are thinking of the fun an side.

There is no doubt that one of the best influences for good is the American home. The children who grow up in it look back at it in after life and the memory is an actual moral influence. The kind of person a fellow is when he is a man depends a good deal on the kind of home he had when he was a boy.

He can never look back at a rented house and feel like he would looking back at the old homestead. It hasn't the same staility. It doesn't awaken the same pride. It has no recollections, or few of them, that serve to straighten him up and make him want to be somebody—to be somebody worthy of the roof under which he was raised and father and mother who raised him.

He never learns anything but wanderlust in a rented house. He thinks life is just living somewhere to-day with the probability that you will be living on some other street or in some other town to-morrow. It doesn't teach him to settle down or settle up. It just teaches him to move, to be a rolling stone.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

To Thomas B. Smith, Robert L. Smith, Rachel Smith, Katie Smith, Edna Smith, Adolphus Lex, Anna Lex, Anna Wolcott, Amelia Shurmer, George Barber, Lydia Barber, Mary Barber, Robert Lex, Joseph Lex, Joseph Lex and Augusta Lex:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, made on the third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in cause wherein The Hammonton Loan and Building Association, a New Jersey corporation, is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of complaint on or before the fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, or said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

Said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage executed by Charles H. Adams, et al., dated January 11th, A. D. 1909, to The Hammonton Loan and Building Association, a New Jersey corporation, which was recorded in Book 101 of Mortgages, pages 1 & c., in the Clerk's Office of Atlantic County, and covers a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the Borough of Pleasantville, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey.

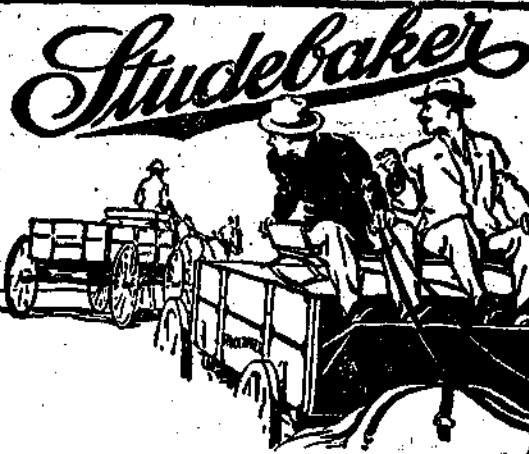

And you, Thomas B. Smith, Robert L. Smith, Rachel Smith, Edna Smith, Adolphus Lex, Anna Wolcott, Amelia Shurmer, George Barber, Mary Barber, Robert Lex, Joseph Lex, are made defendants because you and others own said lands or some interest therein.

And you, Rachel Smith, are made a defendant because you are the wife of Robert L. Smith, and by virtue of such marriage relationship may claim some interest in said land.

And you, Lydia Barber, are made a defendant because you are the wife of George Barber, and by virtue of such marriage relationship may claim some interest in said land.

And you, John Barber, are made a defendant because you are the husband of Mary Barber, and by virtue of such marriage relationship may claim some interest in said land.

"That's the sixth Studebaker we've passed—the only kind to invest in"

"The only kind—because, as I always say, when a man puts money in a thing he wants to know that he's going to get the worth of it out again."

"That's plain business as I look at it."

"That's why I say the price doesn't tell you anything at all. There's only one thing that talks—except the wagon itself. That's the name of the maker."

"When you buy a Studebaker you're buying a vehicle that has behind it and in it sixty years of experience—sixty years of success—and sixty years of reputation for the square deal. That's why a Studebaker always looks good to me."

"My father used to say that Studebaker honor was as sure as a United States bank note. He was talking after having used Studebaker vehicles since he was a lad, and he told me his father before him said, 'Be safe—get a Studebaker.'"

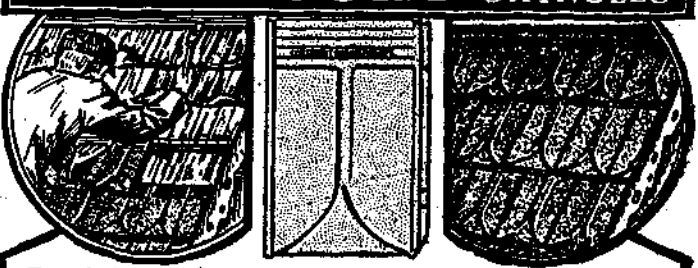

"Vehicle builders can't hold that sort of reputation now-a-days without delivering the goods. A Studebaker wagon has the best in it. That's why a man gets the most out of it—why it's always an economy."

"Dealers may say to you something else is just as good." But when you buy a Studebaker, you're making a safe investment every time.
