A word to Farmers.

The Hay crop in this section will be very short. Hay is now scarce and high, and is slowly but steadily becoming scarcer and higher. It would therefore be wise for every farmer to try to raise hay of some sort sufficient for his own use.

COW PEAS

can be sowed up to July 10, at least, for a hay crop, and some people sow them as late as the middle of July. Cow peas are rich in feeding material, can be raised on poor soil, and impoverish the soil less than any other similar crop. Then, the seed is not expensive.

As Mr. Boyer Sees It.

MR. EDITOR:—I wish to thank you for the liberal manner in which you devoted your issue of July 1st to matters of public interest. I wish, however, to take exceptions to several items contained in that issue.

I note that Mr. Esposito is comparing the Councilmen to the priests of Italy, who, he says, rule all affairs. This Council is not of that stripe. We were elected by the people to look out for the best interests of the town, and we are going to do it. Mr. Esposito claims he has waited two years for a license, only to be refused. More than two years ago he applied for a license, and was refused by the Council that preceded us. He applied again, but we could not grant it because it was within the year that he was turned down. Then Mr. D'Agostino applied, after renting Mr. Esposito's place, and we granted it. At the same time Mr. Deleo asked for a license, but Council thought that license should be granted only where it was deemed necessary, and Mr. D'Agostino was preferred. Pressure was then brought to bear to gain a license for Mr. Deleo, but Council did not deem it necessary to have two licensed hotels so close together.

During the year, for some reason, Mr. Esposito ordered Mr. D'Agostino to vacate his property. This necessitated the latter building a hotel, which he did, and no complaint being presented against him, a renewal was granted. About the same time, Mr. Esposito applied, but his application was so defective that we returned it to him. He renewed his application, and we refused it on the same grounds as we did Mr. Deleo's the year before.

While Mr. Esposito's ill health is to be regretted, we could not break a rule we had laid down, for mere sympathy. From a financial view, we feel that Mr. Esposito did not show good judgment when he ordered to quit a tenant who was paying $25 a month rent.

Council does not intend to grant licenses in a wholesale manner. Each applicant must show to us that his request is made for a location frequented by travel, and which has no accommodations of the kind.

In your editorial, you refer to several families leaving town on account of the town voting license. Is it not a fact that one of these had to leave in search of work? Is it not also a fact that the other two left on account of some mismanagement in business? There have been several who openly boasted that if the town went for license their property was for sale at half price. One of these, quite an old and prominent citizen, said $500 would buy his place. I tried to take him up at his offer, even tendered him $1000 for his $3000 property, but, like all calamity howlers, he flinched.

As for the Town Marshal receiving $300, instead of $50 as formerly, you know as well as I do that liquor traffic has nothing to do with it. I advocated that advance because I believe that the "laborer is worthy of his hire." $25 a month is little enough for a policeman. Our $50 marshals were always conspicuous for their absence, and I don't blame them. What can you expect for a fraction over 13 cents a day for police hire? It is ridiculous. But, Mr. Editor, you lose sight of the great reason for increasing the marshal's wages. It was, first, to have him patrolling the streets to look after indolent bicycle riders, and the gangs of boys who were doing all sorts of mischief. These boys, during the past year, have cost the town more money and more annoyance than the "villains" of all the saloons put together; and as I have a list of them, it might surprise you that the majority of them are sons of respected citizens who openly opposed license, at the polls.

I am glad to see that the Rev. Mr. Athey is no coward; that he is not afraid to place his signature to what he writes. The matter to which he refers is now being investigated. But when he asserts that the town is "ruled by the rum element," he goes a step too far. We believe in a fair discussion, but see no reason why slurs should be cast at Council because it, as a body, representing the wishes of a majority of our citizens, believes that well regulated licensed hotels are preferable to the 40 speakeasies which reigned supreme here for several years, and which license has broken up. As Mr. Athey is new yet in this town, it might be interesting for him to look up the past, then compare the state of things to-day with what they were four years ago. We believe he would agree that license is rather a blessing than a curse.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1899

Another from Bee Bee.

Mr. Editor:—In my article of two weeks ago, signed "Bee Bee," it was not my intention to misrepresent the town, neither did I, for no one in his right senses would judge the whole town by a few unscrupulous men and boys. What I said was true, and I do not retract a word of it, as I can prove it all by one who was in the boat with me at the time; and if the Councilman referred to by James Edwards in last week's issue, who has been to the "covey" almost every day, had been there at the time, and was not totally deaf, he would have heard it also.

Mr. Watkins also says that the Town Council will not take any notice of anonymous communications printed in your paper. Well, a nod is as good as a wink to a blind mule. They know, or should know, that you do not publish any article unless signed by writer's own name, whatever his name-de-plume may be, and this should warrant them in making a little investigation into the matter thus brought to their attention.

It was not my intention, either, to cast any shadow on the license question, for it is already so black that the deepest shadow would not be seen upon it.
What the Almighty has set his curse upon, shall man call a blessing? The curse of our own fair land, the bane of society, the wreck of once happy thousands of young lives, to-day, is the licensed sale of intoxicants, whether it be over the bar of a respectable (?) hotel, or in the lowest brothel of a great city. It is one and the same, and how about the men who vote to license it?

No, Mr. Watkins, you cannot in honesty give the licensed saloons of our town the credit of its present prosperity.
The rum business does not build up, but rather, pulls down. It fills the place of broken window panes with rags, replaces no shingles on the roof; it empties the larder of many homes, and causes innocent women and children to go half clothed and hungry.
And yet you claim it has done so much for our town, and uphold its remorseless work!

But you say, not in our town; our hotels are too respectable to do any thing like that. To this I answer, they are not. The drink that they sell over the bar is just as damning in its work and influences as any other, and I do not see how any one claiming the title of respectability can uphold or be an abettor to such a horrible traffic.

Mr. Athey, in his most excellent article, last week, wanted to know where the officer was when he (Mr.
Athey) heard what he did on the street.
I may be wrong, but it seems to me that this is not the case of persons the officer is looking after; but is more anxious to find out if there is not some one down Central Ave. riding a wheel without a lamp, while the hubcap and scooters are having their own way down town, where there is the most danger both to morals and limbs.
Every night I have been on Bellevue Ave. (and that is nearly every night in the week), I have seen men and boys racing up and down the street, from the railroad all the way up and back again, and some of them without lamps, after dark. Would it not be well to give Central Ave. a rest for a little while, and look after these more grave and important matters? Or is the scooting and immorality to prevail, while law-abiding citizens and taxpayers are watched as closely as a cat watches a mouse?

I think that I had good and sufficient reasons for not signing my own name in my first article, as I did not know the names of the parties implicated. I agree with Mr. Watkins, that we are, as a whole, a law-abiding community; but there is inward corruption which should be eradicated from our town before we can expect to reach the highest pinnacle of success, either from a moral or financial standpoint; and the eradication of all these evils is the rum business.

Office Hours, 7:30 to 10:30 A.M.
1:30 to 3:30 and 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Mr. Editor:—As a student in politics, I am very much interested in Mr.
Watkins' article of last week. Before I read that communication, I was told that it was McKinley and the Republican party that were the cause of good times, and I never knew until then that it was the license that did it. Then, there is the new bank building. How fortunate that we had license in town, for such a fine building! But when he refers to our better roads, is he not robbing brother Jacobs of great credit when he attributes them to license? In speaking about the property sold to outsiders, he failed to state how many more would like to sell, but cannot.

There are many things Mr. Watkins did not mention at all, that have happened in the last three years,—the war with Spain, for instance. When he speaks about the "wide-spread circulation" throughout the whole country" of articles appearing in the REPUBLICAN, I fear he will get the Editor so puffed up that there will be no living in town with him.

In conclusion, I would suggest to the Editor that instead of suppressing one side of the question, to please everybody, he print two issues, one for our own use, in which he allows everyone a reasonable amount of the freedom of the press, and the other for "wide-spread circulation," with everything objectionable removed. But, until you can afford two editions, I hope you will give everyone a chance to speak their little piece.

A grand concert and exhibition of magic is announced for next Saturday evening, in Union Hall,—to be given by Monsieur and Madame Reyes-Dubois, for the benefit of St. Joseph's Church. Part I will consist of vocal and instrumental music; part 2, leges-doms,—"beautiful experiments in magic,"—many novelties performed for the first time in this country."

The small boy with his crackers, and the young man with his cannon, made considerable racket on the Fourth.
But that was expected. There was no disorder, so far as we can learn. The day was very pleasant; several private picnics were held at the Park, by people of the town and Winslow. Flags and bunting were shown generally, but there was less display of fireworks in the evening, than usual.

Remember the concert this evening. A change has been made in the original plan, which will meet with favor. The first part will consist of solos, duets, etc., by members of the "Grand Operatic Company," of Philadelphia. Part two will be selections from the opera "Mikado," three of the parts being taken by home talent, the others by distinguished visitors. Call at Crowell's Pharmacy and secure seats.

REV. A. S. CERRUTI, Rector.

Freddie, the twelve year old son of Mr. Ihrig, the baker, was among a party of boys who were enjoying a continued celebration of the Fourth on Wednesday forenoon. They had fire crackers, powder, and a small cannon.
Somehow—no one knows how—fire was communicated to a can containing about a pound of powder, and it exploded, much of its flame and force striking Fred in the face. The little fellow was carried home and Dr.
Crowell sent for, who quickly decided it was a case for an oculist, and by his advice the boy was taken to Wills eye hospital, Philadelphia. The latest we heard from there was that the sight of his right eye was destroyed, and that the left one is doubtful—to be decided after a few days. It seems sad beyond expression.

If you want a good appetite don't worry. If you want a healthy body don't worry.

The rewards of heaven are not based on the size of our shaves, but on the single-heartedness of our service.

Men may be born with fortunes ready made, but character they all have to achieve.

God may be worshipped at the bench as truly as at the altar.

The older a man gets the more he wonders how boys come to know so much.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, my tongue coated, pain continually in my back and sides, gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up.
Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great surprise and joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No person should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Crowell's Pharmacy.

AN ORDINANCE to provide a Supply of Water for the Town of Hammonton.

Introduced April 29, 1899.
Passed June 24, 1899.

Section 1. Be it enacted, That authority be and the same is hereby given to the Hammonton Water Company to lay pipes at a depth not less than three feet beneath the surface of the public streets, avenues, alleys, and lanes of said town, for the purpose of conducting water.

Sec. 2. That said company shall lay at least four and one-half miles of water mains and pipes — the same to be laid under the direction of the Council — before it shall receive the benefits of and be deemed to have complied with the terms of this ordinance.

Sec. 3. That at all times all of the main and lateral pipes shall be of a size and strength sufficient to supply said town and the inhabitants thereof with a continuous supply of water of a quality and quantity sufficient to meet all public and private requirements.

Sec. 4. That through said pipes shall be conducted only pure, fresh water, that may be drawn from driven or artesian wells within the limits of said town or elsewhere.

Sec. 5. That said company shall construct in said town a tank or tanks, or a stand-pipe, sufficiently large and strong to hold, and which shall at all times contain at least 30,000 gallons of water, at an elevation of not less than forty (40) feet above the highest street level in said town, and that said tank or tanks, or stand-pipe, for a thorough distribution of water, shall be properly connected with the pipes and mains aforesaid.

Sec. 6. That the said company shall at all times furnish a full and uninterrupted supply of water for the extinguishment of fires, for the sprinkling of streets, for the use of public buildings (when the said town enters into a contract for the same), and for mechanical and other private uses; and, subject to the contract aforesaid, such water for the sprinkling of the streets and for fire purposes, shall be furnished for the town, and shall be delivered through anti-freezing double nozzle fire hydrants; the aggregate number of such hydrants shall not be less than thirty-five, located on the pipe distribution throughout said town, and that said hydrants shall be placed at the direction of the Council of said town, and that this requirement shall not be construed to compel the said company to locate or set any fire plug or plugs at a greater distance than three hundred feet from any established service or supply pipe operated by the company; and if the Council shall at any time determine that it is necessary to establish any plug or plugs beyond the limits above specified, then and in that event the actual cost of the establishment and setting of any plug or plugs beyond the limits aforesaid shall be tendered to and paid the said company when the said plug or plugs are so established and set as aforesaid; that said company shall, under the direction of Council, furnish an adequate supply of water for two drinking fountains and troughs for the use of persons and horses, said fountains and troughs to be erected by the town, and shall furnish all water requisite and necessary for the use of Town Hall and under the conditions that the water supplied so as aforesaid shall be supplied free of any cost to the said town or the inhabitants thereof.

Sec. 7. That all the rights and privileges in this ordinance granted shall be subject to an act entitled "An Act for the construction, maintenance and operation of water works for the purpose of supplying cities, towns and villages of the state with water," approved April 21, 1876, and the several supplements thereto and acts amendatory thereof.

Sec. 8. That said company shall commence work on the construction of the water works plant within two months after the passage of this ordinance, and have the plant completed within nine months from the date of the passage thereof; or, otherwise, all of the provisions of this ordinance shall cease, terminate, and become void without further notice.

Sec. 9. That said company shall not charge more than nineteen dollars annually, per plug, for fire purposes, when the town shall enter into contract for same, nor greater charges than the following for private consumers, viz: For the first spigot, $5 per annum. For each additional spigot, $1 per annum. For water under the meter system the sum of $3 for 15,000 gallons, or $10 for 30,000 gallons, and 25 cents for each 1000 gallons over 30,000, per annum; and said company may, if it so elect, supply all water under the meter system, instead of the spigot system of charges.

Sec. 10. That said company shall furnish water to the town at a rate equivalent to one-half of the minimum rates paid by private consumers, for all purposes other than fire purposes or otherwise specified in the provisions attached and made a part hereof.

Sec. 11. That the Town of Hammonton hereby reserves the right to purchase the said water plant at the expiration of ten years from and after said company shall have begun the construction of said plant, according to and upon the terms following, that is to say, the price to be paid therefor shall be determined by arbitrators, one to be appointed by said town, one to be appointed by said company, and one to be appointed by said town and said company.

Sec. 12. That the said company shall furnish all meters free to consumers of water.

Sec. 13. That this ordinance shall not be construed as effective, unless the water works plant constructed by said company shall in all particulars be erected, constructed and operated so as to secure to the inhabitants of said town a water pressure of forty pounds to the square inch, and all of the advantages to be derived from the Board of Fire Underwriters and Adjusters by reason of the fact that the water supply is up to the full requirements for securing the reductions of premium rates in towns having a water supply.

Sec. 14. That this ordinance shall not become effective until said company shall have paid for the printing thereof.

Sec. 15. That all of the stipulations contained in the proposition of said company for a franchise shall become and be a part of this ordinance, and be here made a part hereof.

Sec. 16. That the said company shall give an acceptable bond of twenty thousand dollars to carry out the terms of this ordinance.

Sec. 17. That all the stipulations, conditions and agreements herein contained shall continue in force as long as the said company complies with the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 18. That this ordinance shall take effect from the date of the final passage thereof.

That they shall have the privilege of laying pipes along the streets, roads and alleys in the town and not unnecessarily obstruct public travel in laying mains or making connection thereto.

That they shall be held responsible for what ever damages may occur from the bursting of pipes and mains and from open trenches, or from any other cause happening from the negligence of the said company, its employees, agents or servants; that they shall set fire plugs from time to time in such places as Council may determine; provided, that this requirement shall not be construed to compel the said company to locate and set any fire plug or plugs at a greater distance than three hundred feet from any established service or supply pipe operated by the said company; and provided, further, if Council shall at any time determine that it is necessary to establish any plug or plugs beyond the limits above specified, then and in that event the actual cost of the establishment and setting of any plug or plugs beyond the limits aforesaid shall be tendered and paid to the said company when the plug or plugs are so established and set as aforesaid.

NEARLY
Fifty-Eight Years Old.

It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American people has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and the original members of its family passed to their reward, and these adherents loyal and steadfast to-day, with faith in its teachings, and confidence in the information which it brings to homes and families.

Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, the publisher of the REPUBLICAN has entered into an alliance with "The New York Weekly Tribune," which enables him to furnish you both papers at the trifling cost of $1.25 per year.

Every farmer and every villager owes to himself, to his family, and to the community, a cordial support of his local newspaper, as it works constantly and untiringly for his interests in every way, brings to his home all the news and happenings of his neighborhood, the doings of his friends, the conditions and prospects for different crops, and is a weekly visitor which should be found in every home.

Just think of it! Both of these papers for only $1.25 a year.
