A Drowning Case.

Robert A. Boyd, the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M.
Boyd, of West Philadelphia, was drowned in Hammonton Lake on Wednesday morning. The family are living in the Jos. Gardner house, across the Lake. Robert, it is said, took a canoe which the owner had left at the shore, and, using his hands as paddles, was enjoying himself, when the treacherous craft dumped him suddenly into the water. Those who saw the mishap could not help him, and the boy, unable to swim, sank and did not rise to the surface. Word was sent out quickly and soon a number of men were on the scene, and did everything in their power to find the body. All day and far into the night, they worked, using grappling irons, searchlights, electric lights, an old cannon, and even dynamite, covering the ground for a long distance from where the boy disappeared, but without success.

This is the first drowning case in our Lake for some years (fourth in twenty years), and could only have happened early in the day, before any of our many canoists were on the water.

After many hours of search on Thursday, and the firing of a heavy charge of dynamite, the young man's body was recovered about four o'clock in the afternoon. The appearance of the body indicates that death may possibly have been due to heart disease rather than to drowning.

Our sympathy is with the afflicted parents, who, we are told, came here because of the ill-health of an older son.

The "Blue and White" will make its appearance early next week, containing forty-eight pages and cover. It is very interesting, well gotten up, and will be treasured by all who have friends in Hammonton High School.

Fourth of July Blaze.

There was but one alarm of fire
on Tuesday,—showing the care Hammonton people took to protect their properties.

About 8.50 a. m., the bell sounded, and all hands made for Wm.
Hankins' house,—owned by Mrs.
T. B. Drown, on Egg Harbor Road, near Peach Street. The rear end of the main roof had ignited, from locomotive, chimney, or firework sparks, and was blazing quite briskly. It didn't take long to put it out; but it cost one man his entire summer.

Chas. Boyle, without the aid of long ladders, ascended the steep roof, and tore off burning shingles.
Attempting to descend in the way he got up, he slipped, jumped to the steep (wet) porch roof, and then to the ground, landing on a plank, striking his back on the steps. One ankle was fractured, and the other sprained, besides being badly shaken up and bruising his back.
He was fortunate in escaping with his life.

There was a strange coincidence in connection with the fire. For several weeks, there has been a pile of shingles near the house, and would have been put on the day before the Fourth, but Contractor Blake was informed that it was within the fire limits; therefore he waited and inquired. They are now on.

The chemical engine was kept hitched up the entire day, for other expected calls; but, fortunately,
was not needed.

D. M. Woolson, with his wife and daughter, Irene, from Fishing Creek, Cape May County, spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. W.
H. French.

Harry Jenkins, of Mays Landing, and Louis Langham, of Hammonton, have been appointed to fill vacancies on the County Election Board.

The Fourth.

People say that it was the best Independence celebration Hammon ever held; and we have no disposition to contest that statement. Of course, we do not refer to the weather, for it was one of the hottest days in history.

The committees did their part well, having a very short time to work; but they were mostly the younger men, and were imbued with the idea that what was to be done must be done quickly—and did it. There was less formality than usual, no parade, no long speeches, nothing wearisome.

About ten o'clock, the crowd gathered on Walter J. Vernier's spacious lawn, where a tall and graceful iron flag-staff had been erected, to greet the "Old Glory" as it was hoisted to the peak. J. A. Burgan, Esq., was the chosen orator, and did his part well, of course.

Later, at their pleasure, the crowd gathered at Hammon Park. Automobiles, busses, carriages, etc., were abundant, and all day, and nearly all night, the country road was filled with goers and comers.

The "shoot," from ten to twelve o'clock, under the auspices of the Rod and Gun Club, proved a great attraction. We supposed that we had arranged for the detailed score, but their reporter evidently forgot.

At 1-30 our flag was once more hoisted—Mayor Austin doing the act, and hundreds of tiny flags released, to the joy of nearly as many children. The Band followed with an appropriate selection.

Rev. Walter L. Shaw was introduced, and gave a most excellent address, dwelling on the privileges enjoyed by American citizens, also their responsibilities. Mr. Shaw has a good voice, clear enunciation, and a heartiness which takes with the people.

The weather was altogether too hot for track events, and but two were given, as follows:

TRACK RACES.
1. 220 yard dash.

1st, Chas. Snyder. Silver medal.

2nd, John Fegness. Race pants.

2. Running broad jump.

1st, Chas. Snyder. Silver medal.

2nd, Chas. Snyder. Race pants.

On the water it was more endurable, and many of the events being novel here, were more enjoyable. The results and prizes were as follows:

CANOE EVENTS
(A. J. Waples Hammon Canoe Club.)

1. Open sailing canoes, 1 mile.

1st, C. Morton Crowell. Jersey.

The multitude was present in the evening, after "Old Sol" had done his worst and passed on to other climes. There certainly was a crowd of happy people, bent on enjoyment; and they were not disappointed.

The fireworks were the best we ever saw,—best in the way of variety, and each the best of its kind.

There was not a sky-rocket in the list; the bombs were numerous, but few of the ear-splitting kind, an unusual variety. There were many wheels and soft pieces, well selected, some of them novel. Of course, they had to close with a bombardment, which was noisy enough to satisfy anyone.

The usual refreshment stands were there, with substantial "eats," ice cream and "soft stuff." They seemed to be doing a good trade; for everyone is hungry and thirsty on such occasions, and expects to spend money.

It seemed to be pretty warm weather for dancing, but quite a number gathered in the hall and tripped it lightly.

All day and evening, the Band, composed of local and imported talent, played at intervals, and we enjoyed their music.

Altogether, it seemed to be a "same" Fourth of July celebration, with not an accident to mar its pleasures. May we all take part in the next, with pleasant recollections of the intervening days, and full appreciation of the privileges we enjoy under a "government of the people, by the people, for the people."

The old Cochran corner, occupied by Isadore Bank and M. C. Capaccio, is being dressed by the painters.

Miss Monica Dietrichfeld, of Congress Ave., Atlantic City, spent the day with Mrs. Reed, Second and Orchard.

WANTED—A few first-class farms, $500 and above. Must be near Hammon, N. J.

Mrs. Chas. Money, with son and daughter, spent part of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Twomey.

Contractor Mart has graveled Bellevue to Valley Avenue, and is now working a section this side of Elvins' corner.

OFFICE will be closed Saturday afternoon until further notice. Dr. J. A. Wain.

On Monday, a thermometer, placed in the sun for a time, registered 73 degrees. And that was in Hammon.

S. L. Drake's family were in town over the Fourth. Sam is in Florida, near Miami, and may possibly locate there.

LAST—on July 4th, small silver purse with chain, engraved with "Sisters' Brotherhood," containing one dollar and one half. F. B. Eshelby, Second, N. J.

Mrs. Francis Dowlin, from Iowa, is expected to arrive here next week, at her parents', Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wood.

Mrs. Frank Ham and son Walter, of Atlantic City, spent the day, this week, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Reed.

Did you try any of those fine cakes made by us last week? If not, you should try them. Every body says they are the best yet.

We suggest that property owners get together, and find out what is killing our shade trees, and whether a remedy can be found.

Just a little sprinkle of rain, on Friday morning; but as we go to press, a clouded sky gives promise of much needed showers.

FOR SALE—Sweet potato, cabbage, tomato, cauliflower, and egg plants. Also young pigs. Henry B. Phillips.

Miss Sara Crowell is visiting relatives here, prior to her ocean voyage, when she will be accompanied by Miss Annie Crowell.

Mrs. A. E. Wager Smith, of Philadelphia, an historical writer, is spending vacation with her former schoolmate, Miss Ella Horton.

TWO Fine Communicating Union Rooms for rent, in the Olmstead Building.

Last you forget, we repeat,—we cannot agree to change any advertisement, or insert new ones, unless they are received by us by Thursday noon.

John Farrier, gateman at the Pennam's Twelfth Street crossing, caught his right hand in the machinery, Monday, and broke the bones of two fingers.

FOR SALE—Single Cook White Leghorns, ready for hatching. Price willing above. A. Pils, Central Ave.

Friends of Rev. J. C. Killian were given a treat, at the reception on Saturday evening, and at the services on Sunday, when he told them of his work on the Chapel Car "Evangelist." He and his wife are consecrated workers, and results prove it. For several years Baptists have contributed to this object; but they now have an especial interest in it.

Athletic Association.

Our home team won its seventh consecutive victory last Saturday, by defeating Oakwood A. C., of Philadelphia. Score, 3 to 2. It is a closely contested and well played game.

Slack and Keyser were absent, and their places taken by Reeves at first, from the traveling team, and Fitzpatrick. Reeves played a fine game, winning applause in third by jumping for an overthrow by Lockhart, putting the runner out, and returning the ball to Lockhart in time for double play; and in the eighth made a hit, scoring Lobley and Hayfield. In the fourth, Lobley made a stop of a grounder in grand-stand fashion.

The Oakwood team proved a strong attraction, and won the crowd's approval by fine playing and true sportsmanship throughout the game,—as evidenced by the fact that good plays were applauded for either side. Score:

Hammonton.....0 0 1 0 0 0 2 x-3
Oakwood.....0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1-2

Fourth of July, the traveling team journeyed to Tuckerton, and were defeated, 7 to 1. We regret our inability to supply the complete score.

The Westfield team did not appear on the Fourth. Manager Jones received a telegram late in the morning, announcing that they had "missed connection and would not be down." The Association regrets exceedingly the unavoidable disappointment to their patrons.

To-day we have a return game with May's Landing. They are determined to win this game, and get in line for the county championship.

THOS. C. ELVINS, P.M.

There was a pretty home wedding July 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perry, First Road and Twelfth St. A brother of the bride Rev. W. A. Trostle, of Friesburg, N. J., officiated; Lester S. Bump and Mary A. Perry being the happy couple. Mr. Bump is book-keeper at Williamstown Glass-works; Miss Mary a former school-teacher at Malaga. Miss Edna, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid; Herbert, brother of the bride, best man. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bump, parents of groom; Waldo, Lawrence, Elmer, and Grace, brothers and sisters of groom; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perry, Miss Lydia, and Herbert O. Perry, sister and brother of the bride; Master Kenneth Perry, A. Brownlee, Sr., Miss Mary Brownlee, and Mr. Dodge, of Minatola. After a hearty repast and many congratulations, the happy couple went to Williamstown, where a nicely furnished home and many friends awaited them. May their joys be as deep as the sea, and their cares as light as its foam.

POURTYN. Post Cottage, Pleasant Mills Road and the Lake. Fine view to Hammonton. Plenty of room for both garden and chickens. 25 per month. Apply to Joseph H. Garton.

Messrs. Wm. L. Black, of Hammonton, and Wm. H. Clevenger, Attorney, of Atlantic City, have been honored with the appointment as Elders. They will select the Grand Jury who will sit July 18th. The Sheriff was relieved of this responsible position by Supreme Court Justice Samuel Kalisch.

A "bubbler" is agitated by some who understand it, to be placed on the drinking fountain. It has an upturned mouth, from which bubbles a small-sized fountain; you put your mouth to this, and drink. You touch no metal, and it is perfectly sanitary. On July 4th, the law went into effect, doing away with all public drinking cups.

W. H. French returned, July 1st, from a three weeks trip in Monmouth County. The farmers there have just gathered the largest crop of sweet cherries in many years.

L. A. Hoyt came down from the city, Monday evening, completing the Hoyt family reunion. Mrs. L. A. Hoyt and children are summering at Perrineville, Monmouth Co., where Mr. H. will join them later.

SUNDAY morning breakfast will only be complete with Simons' Cakes—Dutch Cake, Rolls, Cinnamon Buns; or his unexcelled machine-made Bread. All for sale at Simons Brothers' Ice Cream and Candy store, and from wagons.

Mrs. Sara Conley died on Friday night last, June 30th, 1911, aged about 67 years. As Miss Sara Bradley, she was one of the popular young ladies in Hammonton in the 'sixties, and married Charles Conley in 1867, and has spent most of the intervening time here.

Atlantic County Freeholders have approved the travelling of Main Road, from Jenison's to Middle Road, and they are now waiting for the approval of the State Road Supervisor Stevens. It looks very much as though the County would also instruct Jos. S. Mart to keep Bellevue Avenue scraped. Good.

GET Your Advs. in on Thursday.—don't wait until Friday.

Although the use of the Park for the 17th was granted to the Italian Society, there is much dissatisfaction about taking the fireworks away from the centre of attraction, St. Joseph's Church. Council will hold a special session this evening, and decide whether or not to grant them the Walther lot privilege again. In case their reply is favorable, and the required bond is not too high, the Italians will have three bands,—Hammonton, Egg Harbor, and the Pizzi Marine Band.

William Pagano, a young Hammonton Italian, and Chas. Scott, an unknown boy from New York, were brought before Justice Pfeil, Monday, charged with stealing bicycles. Joseph Heck, Charles Kell, and Fred Enders were the losers and were able to identify their wheels, in spite of attempted disguises. The goods being found, and no doubt existing as to the prisoners' guilt, the justice committed them to jail until next term of Court.

At the Presbyterian Church, to-morrow, morning service at 10:30; theme, "Christ's Gold." Evening hour, 7:30; theme, "Real Grace." Sunday School, 12 to 1 o'clock. Society of Christian Endeavor, 6:45. An opportunity of dedicating infants, born within the covenant, by baptism, will be given at the morning hour of worship. Owing to uncontrollable circumstances, Dr. Countermine will not exchange with the Pastor, to-morrow.
