Short Tariff Sermons.

NO. XXVII.

Cleveland would run magnificently in England. Over there they are all for him. His Free-Trade policy, if adopted in this country, would mean millions upon millions to British manufacturers and British workmen. But it would come out of the pockets of American manufacturers and out of the wages of American labor.

Long before the Revolution, England resolved that America should never manufacture for herself. During the first half of the eighteenth century the poor colonists made a feeble beginning in the fabrication of coarse woollens, linen and hats. English manufacturers complained of this to their government and parliament interfered—in what manner we shall let Adam Smith, the founder of the Free-Trade school, relate. We extract from his Wealth of Nations, published in 1776:

England prohibits the exportation from one province to another by water and even by land upon horseback or in a cart, of hats, of wool and woollen goods of American production, a regulation which effectually prevents the establishment of any manufacture of such commodities for distant sale, and confines the industries of her colonists in this way to such coarse and household manufactures as a private family makes for its own use, or for that of some of its neighbors in the same province.

That policy was adhered to with relentless vigor by England down to the Revolution.

Since that time she has watched with impotent rage and maddening envy our advance in manufactures, under the shelter of a Protective Tariff which rendered futile her malevolent attempts to destroy them.

Is it any wonder that her sympathy in this campaign is with the party which in effect proclaims in its platform its purpose to reduce us once more to that deplorable state of industrial vassalage from which the Revolution freed us?

Can a true American vote for the candidates of such a party?—American Economist.

GEORGE ELVINS, P. M.

The general results of three years of Republican control have, I believe, been highly beneficial to all classes of our people. The home market for farm products has been retained and enlarged by the establishment of great manufacturing industries while new markets abroad of large and increasing value, long obstinately closed to us, have been opened on favored terms to our meats and breadstuffs by the removal of unjust discriminating restrictions and by numerous reciprocal trade agreements under section 3 of the McKinley bill. These acts of administration and legislation can now fortunately be judged by their fruits. In 1890 it was a conflict of predictions; now our adversaries must face trade statistics and prices current.—From President Ben. Harrison's address accepting the Nomination.

Hell is a cool place for the sinner, in comparison with what heaven would be to him.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at any Drug Store.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve, the best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. Would Have Died.

BOLYER, Mass., November, 1890.

I was in pain all over, could get no rest either night or day and was not able to do any work for months, but after taking Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic only one week, I was able to sit up and attend to my domestic duties. I had paid over two hundred dollars to doctors and got no benefit. I certainly think I should have died long ago if I had not got this medicine.

The Republican.
[Entered as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1892.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
Benjamin Harrison,
Of Indiana.

For Vice President,
Whitelaw Reid,
Of New York.

It is a matter of general congratulation that Jersey justice has at last signally triumphed in the case of the notorious bullet-box stuffers of Hudson County.

A worse gang of political plunderers scarcely ever drew breath. They emulated Tammany methods and practices with unflinching effrontery and constant success. They openly bribed at the polls, and counted in and counted out on the evening of election day as their pleasure dictated.

The way in which the people of New Jersey have been defrauded of their political rights for many years is despicable in the extreme. The manipulation and theft of the vote of a single county has constantly been permitted to successfully override the expressed will of the people of the remaining twenty counties. On two occasions, at least, have Republican Governors been elected of their office. Year after year has the Legislature been democratic through the frauds of the Hudson County ring. In fact the whole political machinery of the State was at their mercy until last November, when the people of Jersey City made a supreme effort to free themselves from political extortion and elected a Republican Mayor.

Now, twenty-four of the twenty-nine convicted political robbers are either in Sunken Hill Penitentiary or the State prison, under sentences of from nine to eighteen months of imprisonment at hard labor. Such a culmination of the struggle to rid the State of that gang cannot fail to be fruitful of good results.
There is hope for New Jersey this fall.
With a full vote and an honest count, she can elect Presidential electors who will vote for Harrison and Reid, a Republican Governor, and a Legislature which will send a Republican Senator to Washington to succeed Rufus Boggett.

The redemption of New Jersey from the reign of fraud by breaking up and punishing this powerful ring is one of the greatest achievements of the Republican party in State politics that have occurred in many years.

A late bulletin of the census department gives some statistics regarding the voting population of New Jersey which, in view of the Presidential election, are of more than ordinary interest. The enumeration made in 1890 of males 21 years of age and over, show the number to be 413,530, as against 309,633 in 1880, an increase in ten years of 112,897, or 37.55 per cent. The total number of males, including those who had taken out first papers at the fall election, is 390,842. At the last Presidential election, 303,741 votes were cast, which gave the democratic ticket a plurality of 5,140. If the census figures are correct, there will be nearly 60,000 new voters next fall, whose politics are not known. This new element adds to the uncertainty as to the result in November, and makes Jersey an exceedingly doubtful state.

At the headquarters of the woolen merchants of New York City, in North street, there is displayed a large campaign banner inscribed with the names of Harrison and Reid. The flag was made of American bunting by American workmen in an American factory, and as such is a fitting tribute to the captains of an American industry to the leaders in the campaign for an American policy.

The devil loves to sit down and look at people who worry.

A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a stalwart Republican press. The Republican who helps to support a Democratic journal, to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers, is untrue to the Republican cause.

PAINT! PAINT!

HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammononton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half-gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammononton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then he sure to buy the Hammononton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammononton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.

And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades,—the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at Hammononton Paint Works.

Edw. V. Hoyt and Miss Edith Vibbard were married July 5th, 1892.
Last Tuesday evening, their friends gave them a surprise party, at their residence in Worcester, Mass., and made things merry enough.

Sunday last brought us the most severe rain storm of the season. The water fell in torrents, in sheets, until the land was flooded. A high wind accompanied low low every cornstalk, and stripped limbs from many trees hereabout.

Insure with A. H. Phillips & Co., 1228 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

The glory of the glorious Fourth began early,—but how early this dependent saith not. We heard a "report" about four o'clock that morning, and an hour later "the woods were full of 'em," likewise the streets. The boys had laid in a full stock of nut-coated noise, and enjoyed it to the full. Everything possible, from the diminutive torpedo to father's old musket, was made to contribute its quota of explosive patriotism, until every storage battery of enthusiasm was exhausted; and then it was late enough for honest folk to be abed.

The weather was as dew as a July day could be made,—fair and not too warm.
Flags and bunting were displayed quite generally, and business suspended most of the day. In the afternoon, the Park was the centre of attraction. Some folks went earlier, took their dinners, hammocks, and baby-carriages, and gave themselves up to restful enjoyment in the piney grove. About two o'clock, games were called, and followed each other according to programme.

The boat-race had three entries,— Harry Treat coming in first, Will Proud second, Jos. Campbell third.

The long jump was well contested by Richard Knight, Will Parkhurst, Harry Baker, and Charlie Moore. Parkhurst covered 14 feet and 8 inches; Knight, 13 feet 11.

In the high jump, Will Parkhurst cleared the rod at 57 inches; Knight at 56 inches.

Joe Campbell came home first in the sack race, Chester Crowell next, Charlie Moore and Oscar Blum close behind.

The hundred-yard run was contested by Joe Campbell, Will Parkhurst, Chester Crowell, Charlie Moore, and Richard Knight. Parkhurst won in 11 seconds; Knight next in 14 seconds. Then the small boys tried it, Oscar Blum winning in 15 seconds.

The bicycle race was won by Theo.
Caulman; Alfred Patten second, Lathrop Camp third.

George Spaulding, Harry Treat, Fairland Wetherbee, — Pasquale, Fred.
Nicolai, Walter Herbert, Jas. Connor, Arthur Elliott, Wm. Bennett, Eph.
Bakely, Nat. Black, and Alf. Patton started in the three mile foot race, about half of the number covering the whole distance. The large boys led nearly all the way, but Spaulding (aged about thirteen years) surprised all by winning in 24 minutes; Harry Treat second; Wetherbee third.

The tub race had but two entries,— Lew. Allender and Harry Mack. They made considerable fun for the crowd, Allender winning.

In the evening, St. Mark's "Fourth Annual Fete Champetre," on Judge Byrnes' spacious lawn, proved very enjoyable. The long lines of bright colored lights, the booths, tableaux, and music formed an almost irresistible attraction for young and old.

It was rumored here, Tuesday, that Charles S. King, of Stratford, had been so injured by the explosion of a barrel of gunpowder as to necessitate the amputation of his hand. We traced the story backward to a statement that Mr. K. placed a lighted cannon cracker under a barrel; after waiting a sufficient length of time, he supposed it was "out," and took it in his hand for the purpose of relighting, when it exploded, burning his hand seriously. Later we saw a statement in print, that a finger might have been amputated.

Next Saturday, 16th inst., is the fest of "Our Lady of Mount Carmel," an event peculiarly interesting to the Italians. This year, the Italian Benevolent Society will have charge of the celebration, and propose to make it the grandest ever held here. They will have a band from Philadelphia. After high mass at St. Joseph's Church, they will have a grand procession, with flags and banners.

Frank E. Eastbrook, son of our townsman, E. J. Eastbrook, and known to many here, met with a very serious accident, in the pinning-mill of which he is one of the proprietors, at Stevens-ville, Pa. While "gunning" a saw, the emery-stone burst, one piece striking Mr. E. in the face, cutting a great deep gash, and breaking both upper and lower jaw-bone. It was a painful and dangerous injury, implicating his throat also. The last report was hopeful.

Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunity, and, when it is too late, they find themselves in poverty and in dis-repute. Harrowing despair is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Life is passing fast. Seize it up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, peace, and happiness. It is said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; embrace the chance, and she will reward you with all that you desire. Money is to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beginners are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well if you will work, not too hard, but industri-ously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. Write to start you. All in-comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free, by return mail. Replies to delay. Address at once, H.

Daily, Sunday, Weekly.
A FAMILY PAPER WHICH IS
Clean and Unsensational,
And Just the Paper
For the American Home.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the state and near at home news is covered with a routine carefulness and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.
The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroad experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.
The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in our lights of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.
In politics, the Press knows no other master than the people, and the past year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issues, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinctions, and the rights of one class over another are not recognized nor supported.
Advertisements of Help Wanted, Business Opportunities, Real Estate, etc., may be inserted in The Press

Family Newspaper,
Giving the secular news of the week, with pungent editorials and paragraph comments thereon, besides all the Baptist News and Notes, with Outlooks on other Denominations and religious bodies. Its Story Page is filled with serial and short stories and a Puzzler's Realm; it supplies review articles, book notices, literary, scientific and art chat, sermons, Sunday School lessons and educational information, has house farm and garden department, market reports, a regular Washington letter, in short, takes into a subscribing family every week something suited to the intellectual wants of every mem-

NATIONAL BAPTIST
Philadelphia.
Prospectus for 1892.
It has not been our custom to issue a prospectus. A newspaper can never tell beforehand just what subjects will be discussed. We hold ourselves in readiness, however, with our well-trained editorial force, and our large staff of special contributors, to treat any subject which may present itself during the year. Our plans for 1892 contemplate an enlargement of our news department, a perfecting of the other departments, and the bringing up of the entire paper to a still higher standard of efficiency.
PREMIUMS.
The National Baptist is offering a line of most attractive premiums. For example, communion services, organs and hymn-books, valuable books of reference and general information, fountain pens. One of its most attractive offers is the one offering to the new subscriber and to the person securing the new name, each a volume of Prof. Drummond's famous addresses, attractively bound in white and gold.
AGENTS
Are wanted in every Church, to canvass for new names. Liberal commissions are offered.
Past experience has shown that a goodly number of new names can be quickly gathered by a good agent.
THE PRICE
Is $2 per year, in advance. Send for sample copies, which will be cheerfully sent. Address
