Mr. EDITOR:-To clear matters up a little, I would say, that it is on the record of school minutes that all citizens are not only welcome but are invited to attend the sessions of the School Board, make suggestions, criticise to their heart's content, let the time be long or short. Then, and not until then, are the matters of the School Board taken up. This cannot be made more fair to all parties.

And now for the "private" meetings. All applicants for teachers have either parents or friends to advocate their respective claims. Now, in all fairness, Mr. Editor, can the Board be free to take proper action on such matters with said parents and friends among us? I know that you will agree with me, and that your intelligent readers will also. I would recommend a radical change, however, in the future, viz., that no teacher, from Principal down, be hired without coming in person by fore the Board, showing their references, qualifications, etc., etc., before being employed. This is business. WM. RUTHERFORD.

[But, triend R., you haven't touched the point at issue. President Osgood said that, according-to-the-Rules, nocitizen is permitted to remain at meetings of the Board; and after inviting all interested to be there, those who accepted were not allowed to hear the discussion or know the result, except from rumors the next day. Town Council meetings are all open, and the Board of Education, who expend much more of the people's money, should not fear to open the doors. In cases such as you refer to, common sense would compel all interested parties to retire. And even then, would it not be better to refrain from saying or doing anything that you would not say or do in public. In Atlantic City and Philadelphia the sessions are not secret. Open the doors. - ED.]

As the War Department reckons it. there are 9,945,043 citizens of the United States who are liable to military duty at the call of the Government. Altho? this vast army of reserve militia is unpracticed in the arts of war yet the Rebellion showed that it takes but a short time to turn such raw material into the best sort of fighting men. It would be a rash move on the part of any foreign nation to lock horns with a country that has a military reserve of ten million able bodied freemen to draw tipon. It may be set down as a settled fact that the United States has nothing to fear from foreign invasion.

President Cleveland is again a father, a third daughter having been born to him on Sunday The entire country wishes both the President and Mrs. C. increased happiness in this accession to their family circle.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the A horse kicked H. S. Shater, of the Freemyer house, Middleburg, N. Y., on knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be a cound. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is expellent for any others, and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its oures of rheumatism. Sold by druggists.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his 12 months old child, suffering from in-fantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had been sickly always. I gave it the usual treatsicily atways. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases, but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's collo, cholers and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used. used a marked improvement was seen, and its continued use cured the child. and its workness and pury constitution dis-appeared and its father and myself be-lieve the child's life was saved by this remedy. A Fourth of July Parade of Various Orders Put to Rout.

PISTOLS DRAWN AND FIRED,

"Little Red School House" and the Or ange Ribbons Started the Fight, and After Several Encounters the Procession Was Broken Up--- A Cavalryman

The Fourth of July parade of the various societies of Boston, Mass, and vicinity at East Boston ended in a pitched battle between some of the paraders and the spectutors, in which sticks, stones and revolvers were used with fatal effect. The paraders epresented A. P. A. lodges, Patriotic Sons f America, Orange lodges, the Order of United Workmen, and other kindred socie-

John W. Wills, a laborer of East Boston, one of the spectators, was shot and instantly killed, and Michael Doyle, of East Boston, had his head split open with a club. A young man named Stewart had his nose cut off with a sabre in the hands of one of the paraders: Patrick Kelly sustained a severe was hit in the mouth with a brick thrown by an unknown person, and lost several teeth from the persistence of those who managed the parade in introducing as a feature a float representing, "the little red school house," which from its association as the emblem of the American Protective Association had become obnoxious to many persons. So great was the interest excited by this controversy and the expressed determination of the paraders to display the school house r President Cleveland, at Buzzard's Bay, Mass.

Word was sent to the front for police assistcrowd and the officers and Michael Doyle rea private in the Rosebury Horse Guards sho was in full uniform, and who went to the assistance of the occupants of the carriage. By this incident the feeling of the crowd was intensified, and when the parade broke up and those who had participated were proceeding in companies to the ferry in order to reach Boston; a group of betwee sixty and seventy was surrounded on Border street by a crowd, who commenced hooting nd throwing stones. A dozen revolvers were drawn and in response to the fusillade of stones eight or nine shots were fired. The firing of the revolvers brought a large body of police to the spot and the mob was soon dispersed. As the seene was cleared the officers found John Willis dead in the street, with a bullet wound in his right side, and Patrick A. Kelly seriously wounded about the head. Several other persons, slightly injured, had been taken away by their friends. It was claimed by six witnesses who were taken to the station house that Harold Brown, who was arrested, did the shooting which tilled Wills and wounded Kelly. John Ross, also arrested, was said to have njured several others, who were taken away by their friends. Wills was a laborer by oc-cupation, and leaves a wildow and six chil-dren.
