No. 29

Claude W. Myrose has purchased a Case car.

Raymond Riebel is home from Richmond for a few weeks.

Volunteer Fire Company will meet next Monday evening.

Mrs. John E. Siek, of Millville, is with Hammonton friends.

Mrs. Robert Steel and daughter are spending a few days at home.

Miss Mildred Wood has accepted a position as clerk in Steel's store.

J. L. O'Donnell has been nursing a very painful boil, on his left arm.

Morton Crowell and Jas. White are off on a canoe cruise, around Barnegat.

Misses Florence and Margaret Foster spent the week with friends at Gloucester.

Dr. J. E. Hoyt, with his wife and little son, are at his father's, for an extended visit.

Farmers' and Merchants' Building and Loan Association meeting next Tuesday evening.

Miss Virginia Packard, a Hammonton visitor, recently returned from a visit in Virginia.

Two or three truck loads of Endeavorers will start for May's Landing early this morning.

James E. Myers has had enough of powder plants, and has returned to Hammonton with his family.

Mrs. Elmer Packard, with her daughter and son, from Chelsea, are guests at Mrs. L. Monfort's.

A large addition is to be built to the electric power-house, to contain two additional steam boilers.

Mrs. C. I. Littlefield and children visited friends at Ocean City and elsewhere along the seacoast, during the past two weeks.

Not a little interest is shown in the new post-office building. The bricklayers are at work, and the great steel girders are in place.

Mrs. R. P. Longstreth and daughter, Miss Viola, have returned home after spending a few weeks with an aunt at Brookhaven, Pa.

Sneak thieves broke into Miss Emily Jones' house, on Egg Harbor Road, Thursday afternoon, and made themselves perfectly at home.

The War Relief Workers will meet in the Universalist Church next Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. All helpers will be welcome, as they need them.

Councilman Tell, who recently became a benedict, received a very pleasing gift on Wednesday eve, from his fellow members of Council, a cut glass water set.

The huge telephone poles were set back from the curb on Egg Harbor Road, last Sunday, that day being chosen so as not to interrupt power service over the wires.

The Boy Scouts of Hammonton Troop desire to thank those who have so generously contributed toward their camping expedition, including the one whose contribution came anonymously.

The chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of Civic Club, Mrs. H. L. Monfort, announces weekly thimble-bees, on Thursday afternoons from three to five, at the Club House. Members and friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. Flora Mague died Thursday, July 13th, at the home of her son, Nayla Mague, aged seventy-three years. Mass will be held at St. Joseph's Church, this morning at nine o'clock, and interment at St. Mary's Cemetery, Bridgeton.

John Scanlan, of Millville, for years a popular Hammontonian, was married on July 3d to Miss Sara Querena. Miss Tessie, his sister, came from California, to attend the wedding, and for a few days visited Hammonton friends.

Last week Friday evening about a hundred members and friends of the Presbyterian Church gathered in the Sunday School room, to recognize the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. and Mrs. Marple. There was good music by Apollo Orchestra, refreshments, and gifts galore, including a basket of flowers, blushed with silver dollars.

Mrs. Chas. A. Houck is home on a visit.

Horace Hay is on from Pennsylvania for the heated term.

Little Ha-Ha Council is to have a picnic at Tuckerton on Saturday, the 29th. A charge of 75 cents will be made for the round trip, by truck; children, half-fare. More details later.

As the Christian Endeavor picnic will be held to-day at May's Landing, and an expected speaker writes that he has an important engagement with Gov. Fielder to-day, the band concert scheduled for this afternoon will be held next week Saturday at Hammonton Park, from 4.00 to 9.00 p.m. Columbus Band and a speaker of State-wide reputation will be leading features of the program. See full program next week.
