J. M. Austin, J. W. Logan, and W. F. Maloney were elected by the Firemen's Relief Association, delegates to the State Firemen's Relief Association meeting, to be held at Bloomfield, N. J., in September. Alternates: E. W. Strickland, Wayland DePuy and Sam'l Anderson.

MR. EDITOR:—Council should try to stop the picking and hauling berries on Sunday. It ain't right. Farmers leave patches rest on Saturday so as to pick on Sunday. Now they can pick up pretty clean, and some two hours later on Saturday, and ship in ice cars on the eight o'clock evening train, there is no need to pick on Sunday.

FIRST WARD.

At the Triega bicycle races last Monday evening, by electric light, Hammonton's representative, Andrew K. Bernshouse, came off with several honors. In the one-mile, 2:40 class, he was third in the trial heat and fourth in the final. In the one-mile handicap, third in the trial and fifth in final. In the two-mile handicap he finished third. Two prizes were handsome photograph albums, one containing a music-box in the cover.

$17,000 was paid out in six weeks for labor and fruit last year, in the fruit canning business at Little Williamstown, N. J. Thirty-eight wagons loaded with fruit, awaiting their turn to unload, is a common daily occurrence in the same town, and women and girls make from seventy-five cents to one dollar and a half a day, and the work is not laborious either. The above statement, Mr. Editor and readers, I got from a stockholder in one of those Williamstown canning factories. There is no "sweat shop" system there.

The Fire Company met Monday evening, with President John M. Austin in the chair. Roll called, and the following responded:

Sam'l Anderson, Jr.	Harry Leonard.
J M Austin	J W Logan
Manly Austin	Jesse Lear
C W Austin	John Myers
W H Burgess	W F Maloney
S E Brown	Chas Myers
A H Birdsall	John Marshall
John Bakely	Wm J Proud
D R Cunningham	Jas Rickards
Wayland DePuy	E W Strickland
George Dodd	John Stokes
John Dilges	Louis Spyce
John French, Jr	Robert Thomas
S B Holland	C E Titus
C J Herbert	John Walther

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. On motion, an order was drawn on the treasurer for $37 in favor of the trustees, to pay for painting the house. Committee on parade reported progress. On motion, there was an order drawn $1.49 in favor of J. W. Logan for expenses to Philadelphia and expressage. By a vote, a committee was appointed to revise the by-laws, consisting of D. S. Cunningham, W. F. Maloney, S. R. Holland. P. H. Jacobs was present, and made some remarks in regard to a new Fire Company uptown, or extending fire limits. On motion, this matter was left entirely with the people up town. Company extended an invitation, through Mr. Jacobs, to all men up town who wish to do so to take part in the parade. Receipts, $5.30. Adjourned.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemyer house, Middleburg, N. Y., on knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others, and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. Sold by druggists.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his 12 months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had been sickly always. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases, but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen, and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared, and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this remedy. J. T. MARLOW, M.D., Tamroa, Ill. For sale by druggists.

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1895.

The Cardington Base Ball Team took a little more starch out of the Hammonites, last Saturday. But never mind, boys, you are doing better than the Phillies anyway; five out of eight is a pretty fair showing.

Nichols pitched first rate until the 8th, when he went to pieces for a moment, the visitors knocking him all over the field, though he gave only two bases on balls. Cordery, Hedrick, and Naylor were the batters on the home team, while Brierley, Keenen, Rudolph and the two Wolfendens had two apiece. Galligo did well on first, notwithstanding his wounded finger, while Geppert on second spotted several singles by good catches. Hedrick held his own as usual behind the bat.

Cardington brought only four men to bat in the first. Brierley dropped into the second baseman's hands, Gallen to Cordery, and T. Wolfenden struck out, leaving Keenen on base. Naylor and Galligo knocked singles between first and second, which were fumbled by the second baseman. Hedrick tied the same but Ogden found it and put him out at first, though Naylor reached home.

Then Cordery slugged to left field and brought in Gallen. In the next inning no one scored. Rudolph tapped the ball so that it fell in front of the pitcher's box and bounded over Nichols's head, but his arm was long and he brought down the ball, and the grand stand too, shutting the runner off at 1st. Adams popped one to Rudolph, who threw to 1st before Dodd could get back from 2nd. In the third, Carroll scored on Brierley's fly to center, and Gallen brought in J. L. Wolfenden, making three runs for the visitors in this inning. Hedrick got around to 2nd while the left fielder was chasing his fly. Cordery let fly to center and Naylor crossed the plate. Then he knocked a single, in the fourth, over Rudolph's head. The pitcher made a wild throw to 3rd and Dodd came in. Hedrick knocked a single across the diamond and brought in Naylor. In the fifth Wolfenden uncorked a two bager to center and brought in Keenen. Geppert made a pretty catch of Rudolph's fly. Carroll scored in the next inning on J. L. Wolfenden's hit to left field.
Brierley found a good place for a two bagger in right field. Cordery muffed Gallen's fly and J. L. Wolfenden and Brierley came in. Keenen and Gallen came in on Rudolph's hit to center.
Galligo knocked to 3rd which was muffed and Naylor scored again. Gal-ligo tied the score after Gallen had caught Geppert's fly. In the eighth, T.
Wolfenden and Rudolph and Stinger each knocked successively near center field, bringing in Keenen, Wolfenden and Rudolph. Ogden sent a sky scraper to Adams. In the last inning Watt stopped a grounder, threw to second, then it went to first making a double play. The scores:

Hammon
Naylor, 11; Keenen, 10; Gallen, 10; Galligo, 10; Hedrick, 10; Cordery, 10;
Dodd, 10; Adams, 10; Carroll, 10;
Watt, 10. Total, 100.

Cardington
Brierley, 2; Keenen, 2; Gallen, 2; Gallen, 2; Hedrick, 2; Cordery, 2;
Dodd, 2; Adams, 2; Carroll, 2;
Watt, 2. Total, 20.

The Italian Celebration.

The Italians turned out en masse, on Tuesday, reinforced by hundreds from Philadelphia and other places.
They were, as ever, a happy, shouting, laughing crowd, determined to have a jolly time, and they certainly had it.

The Columbia Military Band, from Philadelphia, with eight assistants from Wilmington, Delaware, made as fine music as one often hears out of doors.
Of course all know that the day was the "Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel," "Our Lady being the Virgin Mary, who, according to tradition, was educated at the Convent on Mount Carmel, in Palestine. It was primarily a festival of the Roman Catholic Church, later made a national holiday by Italian Catholics, who add to the Church services a general picnic and parade, with fire-works and general jollity. Our streets were full of these people all day.

St. Joseph's Church was filled to suffication while Bishop McFall confirmed a class variously estimated at from three to five hundred—very young to past middle age. About five o'clock in the afternoon the procession started, led by the band—thirty-two pieces. About one hundred girls, white robed, with candles, preceded the statues of St.
Anthony and the Madonna, which were borne on men's shoulders. These were surrounded by a crowd of human-beings of both sexes, all ages and sizes; and in their bright head garments, as they turned the corner of Third and Balle-vue, without formation or order, reminded one of a kaleidoscope—or living crazy-quilt. Nearly a thousand, in a mass, moving with eyes upturned to the various statues, chanting their devotions and psalms, it was a sight to be remembered long, and while we were not in sympathy with such a mode of worship, their evident sincerity was solemnly impressive. In the evening the display of fire-works was very fine, and despite a few slight accidents from fire-balls—scored clothing and burned fingers—every one of the three thousand spectators enjoyed the show.

When we consider that there were probably two thousand Italians in town during the day and evening, all out for a day's pleasure, and that not one case of disorderly conduct occurred, we must congratulate the managers and participants alike.

that we treat the boys "right."

The fire bell was bought for ringing fire-alarms, and we do not like to hear the solemn taps for anything else.
Don't make it so common. Surely the members can be summoned to meetings without it.

A stranger hired a horse and carriage at Hood's livery, on Tuesday, ran a lively race with another rig on Main Road, had a collision, and very reluctantly paid Squire Atkinson $8.25 for damages and costs.

Jacob R. Miller, an old soldier, who is nearly blind, received a pension certificate, on Thursday, for $12 per month, and $84.80 back pay, secured through Wm. Rutherford's agency.
This is indeed a worthy case.

James Smith, while lighting street lamps, Tuesday eve, accidentally ran over a little Italian girl. We understand a kind wheel of the light wagon passed over her body, but she was not seriously injured. The streets were so crowded that the only wonder is that so few accidents occurred.

benefits. New members will be rec'd

Bishop McFall did not approve of carrying the statue in parade, Tuesday, and only consented because all arrangements had been made, and the people would have been disappointed.
However, he positively forbade their being taken from the building again.
So we were informed by members of St. Joseph's Church.
