Short Tariff Sermons.

NO. XXIX.

A balance of trade in our favor means a balance of profits in the pockets of our people. It means that we are creditors instead of debtors, that foreign nations owe us money or goods instead of our country being in debt to foreign nations.

Free-Trade "professors" pretend to sneer at a balance of trade and say it represents no wealth. Yet those very Free-Trade "professors" would far rather sell their text books to English students and get back good British gold in return than use up their salaries in buying English books without selling anything of their own.

A balance of trade is an index of a country's business, of its purchases and sales, of its profits or losses.

If it be profitable for an individual to sell more than he buys and thus have a balance of money—virtually a private balance of trade—in his favor, why is it not just as profitable for a nation?

A balance of trade may be paid in money, or in goods and services. Either mode of payment inures to the profit of the country in whose favor the balance exists. If the payment be in goods or services, then the debtor nation must bestir itself to send these goods, whether of its own or of foreign production, or perform those services. As a consequence, we get more goods for less money than we would get were there no favorable balance.

The beneficial effect of a payment in cash need not be explained. Money, it is true, is not consumable, it cannot be eaten or worn, but it has a far more important function. Money is the life of trade. Where money is plenty business is active and enterprise awake. Where money is "tight" industry stagnates.

So our country should welcome a favorable balance of trade, and it should welcome the American policy of Protection, the only policy that has given us a favorable balance in the past or will give it in the future.—American Economist.

Here we are, near the end of July. When the joys of Summer hold reign; And Cupid is busily up a supply Of darts for the season's campaign. And now the country is all on the rack To know which of two will be Our ruler for four years hence.—Baby Ruth or Baby McKee.—A. T. Carter.

Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, was on Saturday unanimously elected Chairman of the National Republican Committee. Mr. Carter is only thirty-eight years of age, yet he has already achieved a brilliant reputation as a shrewd politician and a man of great executive force. He was born in Ohio, was admitted to the bar in Nebraska but has since resided in Montana, being the first Representative sent to Congress from that State. In 1891 he was appointed United States Land Commissioner by President Harrison. He is known as a hustler and can be depended upon to utilize every point of vantage in the coming campaign.

The Mount Holly Fair will be held on Sept. 12th, 13th, 14 and 15th. The list of premiums will amount to $20,000. A feature of the exhibition will be a bench show of dogs, for which liberal premiums are offered.

"Irreproachable candidates upon an impeccable platform" is ex-Senator Ingalls' diagnosis of the Republican ticket. Mr. Ingalls has a happy faculty of condensing much wisdom into a few words.

We have 750 orders up to this morning; we get all the work done by nine o'clock; then canvass to four—sold 38 copies to-day." Extra Liberal Terms to Agents. COMPLETE OUTFIT FREE. Address HENRY NEIL, Publisher, 118 S. 7th St., Phila.

The only reason for Mr. Cleveland's nomination, and the thing that forced his nomination in spite of all the efforts of politicians, was the fact that, in the minds of the Democratic masses, he represents the idea of free-trade. The platform is an unmistakable declaration against all parleying with protection. It puts the Democratic party in the field as committed to the policy of sweeping away every shred of a protective duty.—Henry George.

I was in a very bad way, could not get on my feet, and was not able to do any work for months. I had tried every medicine I could get, but nothing helped me. I was able to get on my feet only after I had used two bottles of Pastor Koenic's Hermetonic. I had paid over two hundred dollars to doctors and got no benefit. I certainly think I ought to have died long ago if I had not got this medicine.

J. S. Thayer is putting the last work on a fine house, corner of Third and Cherry Sts., for Mr. Harry Smith, lately of Philadelphia. It is finished in natural wood, has hot and cold water, three story portico, wind-mill and force-pump.

Two weeks without rain left our soil terribly dry, vegetation of every kind withering under the hot sun, and road-dust nearly ankle deep. To-day brought relief, in the form of rain,—soft and continuous down-pour, until all nature rejoiced.

The beautiful sign lettering on many of our business men's windows was done by a tramp artist, on Wednesday last. He admitted having "painted and he looked it too.

The old school-house is resting in its new location, after its long trip across the country. Mr. Sturtevant had a difficult task in moving that great building, but concluded to "divide and conquer," cut it into three parts, moved each to the right spot, and re-united them there.

PAINT! PAINT!
HAMMONTON.

When you buy the Hammononton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half-gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammononton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hammononton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammononton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial returned on Wednesday evening from a healthy visit to his native city, Rich-

he lived there, and he found nearly all his friends of the long ago in the "silent land." Mr. J. belonged to the 1st Va.
Confederate Infantry, participating in its numerous battles, including the famous charge of Pickett's division, at Gettysburg. Of over eight hundred of his old regiment, but fifty "fell in at roll call." Col. Skinner, the commander, though over eighty years old, was there to give the old boys a welcome. A grand banquet was given them at Blen-ner's Park,—the young ladies vying with each other for the honor of waiting upon them. The city had in 1864 but 30,000 people,—today it has over 100,000; and, the old gentleman says they have spoiled his old skating and hunting grounds, which are now part of the city.

It was found by the records that Mr. J.
was the oldest person then in the city, who was born in Richmond. He was compelled to return home or be "killed by kindness." They wouldn't even let him ride in a street car,—hacks were sent from all quarters; and that coupled with high living, he thought it best to come home. He was accompanied by his little grand daughter, Lillian; his brother's grandson, young Mr. Bonj.
Aylwin, of Richmond, who will remain

The Italians had a grand time, last Saturday,—Our Lady of Mount Carmel's Day. In response to many inquiries, we reply that, according to tradition, Mary, the mother of Jesus, was an inmate of the convent on Mount Carmel, the historic mountain in Palestine,—hence the title given above. A good band from the city came down in the early train, and helped to make the day interesting. About 1830, the Benevolent Society and as many others as could gain admission, attended High Mass at St. Joseph's Church. At noon the procession moved, led by American and Italian flags, and purple robed boys bearing the cross, then the band, then four men carrying a statue of the Virgin and Child, followed by a large number of people. In the evening, fire-works and music attracted to the neighborhood of St. Joseph's an immense crowd of citizens of all creeds, who seemed to enjoy the crush, the lights, the singing cries of the various vendors of solids and liquids, and the general good humor which prevailed. Though noisy, it was an orderly celebration, so far as we have heard.

Mr. John Jacobs, the venerable father of our townsman, P. H. Jacobs,
mond, Va. It had been 28 years since
land." Mr. J. belonged to the 1st Va.
Confederate Infantry, participating in
famous charge of Pickett's division, at
his old regiment, but fifty "fell in at roll
call." Col. Skinner, the commander, though over eighty years old, was there
to give the old boys a welcome. A
grand banquet was given them at Blen-
upon them. The city had in 1864 but
and, the old gentleman says they have
grounds, which are now part of the city.

It was found by the records that Mr. J.
was the oldest person then in the city,
brother's grandson, young Mr. Bonj.

St. Mark's Church presented a brilliant scene, on last Wednesday evening, at the wedding of Mr. OLIVER J.
HAMMONT, of Pleasantville, N. J., and Miss GRACE U. NORTH, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward North, of Ham-mononton. The church of the Church was exquisitely adorned with palms, sparkling lights, and beautiful white vestments for the altar. The Rector, Rev. E. B. Russell, was in his handsome and costly robes, and was attended by Mr. S. C. Brown as server. The church was well-filled by friends and relatives, awaiting the coming of the bride party, Mrs. Whitmore discouraging sweet strains on the organ. Preceded by the ushers came the groom's best man, followed by the groom and Mrs. North, the maid of honor, Miss Gertrude North, the bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy and Miss Osgood, and last the bride, with her father. It was a lovely sight, as they all passed up the aisle to the chancel, the bride and groom passing on to the altar rail, where the solemn and impressive marriage ceremony of the Episcopal Church was most beautifully performed by the Rector; the organ playing softly during the sacred service. The lovely bride and her attendants appeared to the greatest advantage in their bridal array, and the handsome groom looked unusually well. After the final benediction had been said over man and wife, and the procession had swept down the aisle and out of the church, every one agreed that it was one of the most charming weddings ever celebrated in Hammononton. A delightful reception followed, at Dr. North's residence, which was largely attended. The bride and groom left for their tour at ten o'clock. The church decorations, palms, etc., were by Mr. Butterton, guided by the taste and skill of Messrs. Watkins and Nicholson, Church wardens of the parish. The happiest wishes of all attend the bridal pair.

Big Christian Endeavor meeting next Wednesday evening, 27th inst., in the Presbyterian Church, at 7:45,—a union meeting of the O. E. societies of Hammononton. There will be a praise service, prayer, words of welcome by the Pastors, hymns, report of delegates to the late International C. E. Convention in New York, and an address by J.
Howard Breed, Ex-President of Penna.
State Union,—a first-class speaker. To close with a consecration meeting, in which all are requested to be prompt in taking part. Mizpah benediction.

Many of our people think that a two-hundred-room hotel, or summer boarding-house, if well managed and properly advertised, could be filled every season; i. e., if we had such. As a real summer or winter resort, we are far ahead of the now famous Lakewood.
Only thirty minutes to the sea; forty minutes to Philadelphia; but three hours to New York. There's a mint of money in it for the right person.

He sat at his door at noonday, lonely, and glum, and sad; the flies went buzzing about him, led by a blue winged god. No customer darkened his portal, nor a sign of business was there, but the flies kept on with their buzzing about the old man's hair. At last in misery he shouted "Great Scott! I am covered with flies," and the zephyrs that toyed with his whiskers said, "why don't you advertise?"

At the regular meeting of the W.

was passed:

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be extended to the Universalist Society for the use of their church, and to all who so kindly assisted us in carrying out our Democratic Medal Contest.

On account of illness of the Corresponding Secretary, the above notice was

AT BLACK'S.

What to get for supper this warm weather, is a puzzler.
Here perhaps is something that will help you out.
Kipped Herring, packed by Maconochie Bros., London, England, are a most desirable relish.

If going on a picnic, try a box of Anchovy Paste and Potted Chicken. Of course you will want pickles on such an occasion. Crosse & Blackwell's Gerkin, Mixed Pickles or Chow Chow will no doubt fill the bill. A bottle of Pickled White Onions would not be amiss.

Try a bottle of Snider's home-made Catsup, prepared from fresh ripe Tomatoes, without fermentation.

HE MISSED HIS OPPORTUNITY! DON'T MISS Yours, Reader. The only opportunity to gain wealth, and from the cause of poverty and die in poverty! Narrowing despair is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Life is passing! Reach out! Be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; substance, chance, and she pours out her riches; fall to do so and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? It is the golden opportunity that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give at least, a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, where you are. Even beginners are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well if you will work, not too hard, but industri-ously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free, by return mail. Unwise to delay. Address at once, H. B.

WHICH IS
Clean and Unsensational,
And Just the Paper
For the American Home.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the state and near at home news is covered with a routine carelessness and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.

The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroad experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.

The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in the lists of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from those of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audience are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.

In politics, The Press knows no other master than the people, and the past year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issue, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinctions, and the rights of one class over another are not recognized nor supported.

Prospectus for 1892.

It has not been our custom to issue a prospectus. A newspaper can never tell beforehand just what subjects will be discussed. We hold ourselves in readiness, however, with our well-trained editorial force, and our large staff of special contributors, to treat any subject which may present itself during the year. Our plans for 1892 contemplate an enlargement of our news department, and the bringing up of the entire paper to a still higher standard of efficiency.

PREMIUMS.

The National Baptist is offering a line of most attractive premiums. For example, communion services, organs and hymn-books, valuable books of reference and general information, fountain pens. One of its most attractive offers is the one offering to the new subscriber and to the person securing the new name, each a volume of Prof. Drummond's famous addresses, attractively bound in white and gold.

AGENTS

Are wanted in every Church, to canvass for new names. Liberal commissions are offered.
Past experience has shown that a goodly number of new names can be quickly gathered by a good agent.
