HAMMONTON vs. GOSHEN & C. H.

We have been beaten before but always fairly and we haven't kicked, but we don't call the affair last Saturday, with the Goshen and Court House of Cape May, a fair game.

Cunningham outdid himself. The M. D. improves in every game. Holland made pretty catches of Jefferson's fly in the fourth and Watson's drive to right field in the eighth. Bakely made no errors but he wants to learn to run up on the flies better. Galigne made but one error, and that was not as first baseman, nor does it appear in the score, but as captain, in allowing the other nine to put in Wheaton as umpire in the fourth inning when they were getting badly beaten. The score stood 10 to 3 against the visitors, at the end of the fourth inning when they picked out their umpire, not because they claimed Bird was unfair, but probably for some other reason. From the first when Steele managed to get his base on a dead ball, it appeared they did not care to play ball, but to beat us. The affair came to a crisis when the 3rd baseman made a "foul tackle" around Wescoat's neck, while he reached for the ball he had dropped and tagged him. Quite a hubbub arose when he was declared safe but the visitors finally went on playing, with their new umpire. And then—well, they made 8 and 7 runs in the sixth and seventh. When some one remonstrated with Hedrick for giving bases on balls, etc., he remarked, "It's no use to get them over the plate; he calls them balls just the same." The matter culminated in the beginning of the eighth inning when the umpire called it a ball when Nichols had struck at it, because "He hadn't ought to have done it." Then a greater hubbub arose, and the play stopped altogether with a score of 18 to 10 in favor of the visitors. Fortunately, cool heads prevailed, and some players went off "under a Juniper tree" to cool off, so trouble was averted. It was indeed an unfortunate affair for our gentlemanly ball players; but it is not probable that another club could be found who would come here with the expressed determination to win by any means fair or foul as it is said they did.

But, my dear readers, you should have charity for the poor umpire and allow for his inexperience, for he declared himself he did not know anything about the game. Above all things, my fellow spectators, remember that the diamond was not made for prize fights, and if you haven't a very long bat your antagonist might get away from you.
If the ball players do need any help they will call out the Epworth Guards or the Boys' Brigade. We omit the score as they played but seven innings.
"G-g-g-give m-m-me m-my h-h-hat."

GIVE THE YOUNG people a practical education by sending them to the SPENCERIAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND, 1207 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. One term will do more good than three in any other kind of school. Catalogues and Commencement proceedings on application.

A number of presumably wide-awake people in Hammonton have been taken in by the man who finds "gold" spectacles and reluctantly parts with them for $1. So says the West Jersey Press. Who were they?

Jersey's cranberry crop promises to be exceptionally large and good this year. The berries were late in forming but it looks now as though the yield would equal the enormous crop of 1893, which was the largest ever known.

Some unknown miscreant entered St. Mark's Church one night last week, stole the silver offertory plates and other articles, and broke open the poor box; but fortunately the contents of the box had just been removed. The doors of the church are never locked, so the thief had an easy job.

Mr. Elam Stockwell makes the first break in the credit business. After next Saturday he will keep no book accounts with any one, will sell goods for cash only. It would be better for all concerned if all business was confined to strictly cash payments. We would have no bankrupt merchants, fewer farms sold by the sheriff, less swindling, fewer delinquencies, and no more worry over unpaid bills and uncollectable book accounts.

This is a New Jersey State law, now on the books:

No travelling, worldly enjoyment or business, ordinary or servile labor or work either upon land or water (works of necessity or charity excepted) nor shooting, fishing, sporting, hunting, gunning, racing, or frequenting tippling houses, or any interludes or plays, singing, dancing, fiddling or other music for the sake of merriment, nor any playing at football, fives, nine pins, bowls, longbulletts or quoits, nor any other kind of playing, sports, pastimes or diversions, shall be done, performed, used or practiced, by any person or persons within this State on the Christian Sabbath, or first day of the week commonly called Sunday.

From Etwood.

Last Sunday evening, the attendants at the Presbyterian Church were treated to an interesting and instructive report of the Christian Endeavor Convention at Boston, by two who went from this place. Exercises opened with a praise service of some ten minutes. One of the delegates gave a description of their trip; the trials and tribulations in trying to find out about the boat that was to take them from Jersey City; how excessively dumb all the R. R. officials were, and how easy it was to know nothing when occasion required. Being finally on the "City of Boston," they enjoyed the pleasure of there being one hundred more than were provided for. They had spoken in advance, their inconvenience being in getting eatables. The final railroad ride was very pleasant, also having to ride about an hour to their place of entertainment. There were meetings on the boat, and almost constant outbreaks of song on their cars, as they went back and forth. The crowd was always good natured. One climbed a lamp post and calling to the thousands waiting for the doors to be opened, "Come early and avoid the rush." A conductor said he did not like to collect the fares, and thus disturb the nice singing. The description of the trip, including the interruption of singing "Marching to Boston," occupied about thirteen minutes, followed by a description of the various meetings that they attended, which was well delineated, giving the names of the speakers which, were from all lands, nearly; where the different meetings were held, they attended; the subjects dwelt upon by each speaker, etc. Altogether, it was very interesting and instructive to hear from such a convention of over 56,000 Christians, gathered as one to do work for the Master. New Jersey delegates numbered over nine hundred, if I remember rightly. The service occupied over one hour,—the reports requiring over half the time. Did time permit, I should have liked to give a full account of the Convention.

Two Lives Saved

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption, and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos.
Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds.
Free trial bottles at Croft's. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

In order to introduce Chamberlain's Cough Remedy here, we sold several dozen bottles on strict guarantee, and have found every bottle did good service.
We have used it ourselves and think it superior to any other. W. I. MOWREY,
