Just opened,—another barrel of those Irish Mackerel, which we think are a little ahead of any previous lot, being large, (weighing from one to one and one-half pounds each) bright and fat, just the thing for breakfast this hot weather, the price, too, is an object. While the wholesale market has advanced $1 to $1.50 per barrel, we still hold the price down to old figures, viz, 10c. per pound.

Baby Mixed Cakes.

This is another new Cake, and a good one, too. Remember, fresh new goods. We think them equal to many other varieties that command a much higher price. We quote at 9c.

Pretzels.

Owing to the ever increasing demand for this class of Cakes, we have been induced to purchase in larger quantities than formerly. Consequently, we are able to name an extremely low price, viz: 12c. per pound, which, if you remember is 4 cts. below the regular price. We warrant them to be equal to the higher priced goods in every way.

Nic-Nacs.

These are also very popular, especially with the little folks and to make it interesting we make the price 6c. per pound which is just one-half value.

Granulated Sugar.

Sugar seems to be a bone of contention just now, altho' the schedule seems to be fixed at this writing, we keep the price of Granulated steady at 5c., although by consulting the papers you will say "not much money in that." But what of that? There is lots of "glory." We hear that some are asking 5½c.

Don't forget us when you need Stove Wood. As mentioned last week, we have a large stock of 1st class, which we deliver free of charge, $1.50 per rank (one-fourth cord).

Peerless Coffee Cakes and Ginger Snaps are certainly leaders. Jobbers are talking higher prices for theirs, but for the present we hold the price at 5c. per pound. Quality never better.

How about Fruit Jars? It may be you have forgotten the extremely low figure we made on Jars some weeks since. We simply wish to remind you that those prices still hold, viz: :

Large Mouthed Pints, - - - 48 c. per dozen,
" " Quarts, - - - 55 c. " "
" " ½ Gallon, - - - 80 c. " "

These are not seconds, as many would suppose, but A1 in every particular.

Tin Fruit Cans are also a little off in price this season. We quote to start them, 40 c. per dozen, Wax Strings, 5 cents per dozen extra.

Pickles, in quart self-sealing jars is the latest addition to stock. These goods are put up in very attractive style, and have this advantage over many others, in that you can use the jar for other purposes when the pickles are out. And another advantage—you get a full quart of pickles and the jar for about what the pickles would cost if bought by the dozen. Try a jar the next time you want anything of the kind. We think you will be pleased with them. 25 cents.

While prices of Feed have experienced a sharp advance within a few days, you will find our prices as low as the lowest for anything in the line.

Flour has also advanced somewhat, but we hold prices down to old figures for the present. We quote—

Best Spring Wheat, $4.50
Best Winter Wheat, $4.50
Good Family Flour, $3.50

New Salt Hay is now in, and was never finer in quality. We have also a little choice Mixed Fresh Hay, of last year's crop still in stock.

Let us have your orders.

A special term of the County Criminal Court was held last week with Law Judge Thompson and associates on the bench. It is stated that nineteen cases were tried, resulting in seven-teen convictions. Among the latter were Ludwig Zehner, who, for beating his wife, was sentenced to five months in jail; also Domenico Esposito, who beat and cut Cornelio Cronzio a few weeks ago on Pine Road, and was sentenced to one year in State Prison. In the latter case, it came to the Court's knowledge that a Hammonton Italian—Jos. Variglia—had offered twenty-five dollars to the wounded man to testify that the accused was not the one who assaulted him. Cronzio was questioned and admitted the fact. Joe was committed in default of three hundred dollars bail, to answer the charge of attempting to compound a felony, and is now in jail awaiting trial in September.

Mr. French has made decided improvements in the Post Office this week. The section of fixtures containing the money order window has been turned around so as to take in most of the front lobby, including two windows, thus giving the clerks more room and light. A long sorting table has been placed where the desk stood, and numerous minor conveniences added.

It was rumored here, Wednesday, that Geo. M. Crema had been seriously injured on the railroad. The rumor was based on an item in the Record, which gave the name as Matthias Cramer. It was one of George's men who was hurt near Tuckahoe, and is now in Cooper Hospital, Camden.

Cut this Out!

Great Bankrupt Sale of $30,000 worth of fine Fall and Summer Clothing at Hammonton, in Fairchild's building, on Bellevue Avenue. One of the largest New York Clothing houses has failed, and their immense stock has been brought here to be sold at retail and turned into cash at once to satisfy creditors. The Fairchild building has been rented for this occasion, and this great sale will commence Aug. 11th, at 9 a. m., rain or shine. Remember, this elegant stock of fine clothing must be sacrificed at enormous loss. Everything at 50 cents on the dollar. Bring this adv. with you, and convince yourself that what we say are all facts.

Suits. Men's good and desirable suits for $3.75, worth $8. With each of these suits we give a written guarantee that you may keep them a whole week at your own home, and if you find out that this suit is not worth $8 we will give you the money back. Elegant cassimere suits in sacks and cutaways, well worth $10,—during this sale you can have them for $4.75. Nobby dress suits for young men, $7.75, worth $15. These suits are all made of fine all wool cloth, made for this year's wear, and will make a handsome Sunday suit. Remember our price is only $7.75. We also have about 200 suits in black worsted and fancy cassimere, each of them warranted "tailor made," and have the tailor's trade-mark on them. Each of these suits is actually a bargain at $20, but we will sell them for $9.50.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING. Our prices will bring splendid suits within the reach of all, and we have an immense stock of these goods suitable for children. Kilt suits, Jersey suits, Braided suits, double breasted suits, at panic prices. See here! Good suits for children at $1, $1.25, $1.75, $2.25, $3, and $4.

PANTS. Don't buy any overalls. We will sell you nice pants for 75 cents, fine business pants for $1.25, $1.75, $2.00, and $2.50.

Men's hats worth $3 will be sold at the low figure of 75 cents. Gents' shirts and drawers 30 cents a suit. Suspenders at 8 cents a pair. Gents' half-hose 3 cts. a pair, and 1000 other articles too numerous to mention. Ask to see our $2.50 Umbrellas, only 50 cents.

Remember, this sale commences Aug. 11th, 1894, at 9 a. m., rain or shine, in the Fairchild building, on Bellevue Avenue, to continue ten days. Car fare allowed out of town customers over $10. Open evenings until 9 o'clock, Saturdays until 10 p. m. Look for large flag.

SUBJECT TO PAIN IN THE STOMACH.—Elder S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniata County, Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary, and found that it never fails. For sale by Cochran, the druggist.

A species of wild goat, the capra rupelli, haunts the rocks of the Abyssinian highlands and makes its home in the steep, rocky gorges, with the exception of the fleet-footed mountain jacksal, an adversary whose co-operative tactics and keenness of scent makes flight unavailing and have led the capra rupelli to the edge of extinction. The circumstances valor may be the better part of discretion. The yelp of an approaching hord of jackals is therefore a signal of instant rally on the part of the goats. The manniks crowd together in the hollows of the rocks and forward on mass, baying away with a rage that lays out a yelper at every steping, and makes the survivors stand back howling and cowering. They had been bucked somehow, seemed to regard the relationship of his hereditary foe to the genus canis, and at sight of the following descriptions of the various

The idea of using finger prints in the identification of individuals was not regularly employed till 1859, when the pioneer of the work being Sir William Herschel, then chief administrator of the Hooghly district in Bengal. The signatures, or alleged signatures, of the natives were taken by him, as William to be, as a rule, so destitute of authenticity that he substituted for them, and with marked success, signatures by finger prints. It seems curious that this "bertillionage," as he called employed in the identification of individuals, was not employed in a systematic system of measurements of the body, should not have included identification by finger prints, the only bodily marks which remain unchanged from the cradle to the grave. — New York

The symbolism of the device is, that thirteen original States are represented by the thirteen pillars in the paly, all joined so as to appear solid, compact and united. The eagle is the emblem of the symbol of Congress. The colors of the flag are those of the United States flag. White denotes purity and innocence; blue, hardness and val. r; blue, perseverance, vigilance and justice. Peace and war are symbolized by the olive branch and the arrows. The eagle is the national emblem. The unfaded pyramid is interpreted in two different ways, viz: To be symbolism of strength and solidity, also as representation of the unfading union of the States, there always being room for more States, or for adding to the Union. The olive branch and arrows denote the overruling eye and its motto, "E Pluribus Unum." It favors our endeavors to the overruling and all-wise providence. — St. Louis Republic.

The Mohaves believe that the spirit of a man goes up in smoke to the "White Mountain," where their bodies are cremated, and that property which is thrown into the flames goes up with them. They also have a belief that all the Mohaves who die and are not cremated go into owl, and when they hear an owl hooting at night they think it is the spirit of some dead Mohave returned.

The sea cast up a unique bit of treasure, some time before an Alderman of Leeds, England, who was walking on the beach at Brighton, England, when he saw a package coming toward him on the crest of a wave, and on securing and opening it discovered that it contained a promissory note for $15,000, and bank checks for twice that amount, and a number of other articles of great value, but, as he was not a collector of valuables, but are interesting souvenirs.
