W. C. T. U.

The ladies have taken this space for one year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

"The most beautiful creed of the heart is love of home. In the purity of home is the hope of the nation." So says the "Champion of Fair Play," a journal devoted to the interests of the retail liquor trade. It was this same beautiful creed which drove the early crusaders out into the streets and into the saloons to do battle against home's greatest foe.

It is the same creed which urges the home-keepers of the W. C. T. U. "to do everything" that organized mother love can do to aid in destroying the destroyer. Does the retail liquor trade conduce to the purity of the home?
With a saloon on every corner, and the liquor power controlling our laws, where is safety for our homes? what the hope of the nation? Signal.

Young People's Societies.

This space is devoted to the interests of the Young Peoples Societies of the various Churches. Special items of interest, and announcements are solicited.

Brownings."

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these meetings.

Attended the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bensenville, R. C., was once immensely surprised.
"Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength nor vigor, and suffered great distress from her stomach; but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well—can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indig-estation, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50 c., at Crowell's.

EN VOYAGE.

Whichever way the wind doth blow,
Some heart is glad to have it so;
Then blow it east or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

My little craft sails not alone;
A thousand fleets from every zone,
Are out upon a thousand seas;
And what for me were favoring breezes
Might dash another with the shock
Of doom upon some hidden rock.
And so I do not dare to pray
For wind to wait me on my way.

But leave it to a higher will
To stay of speed me, trusting still
That all is well, and sure that He Who launch'd my bark will sail with me

Thro' storm and calm, and will not fail
Whatever breezes may prevail.
To land me, every peril past,
Within His sheltering haven at last.

Then whatsoever wind doth blow,
Some heart is glad to have it so;
And blow it east, or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

—John M. Brady.

The Italians held funeral services on Wednesday, in memory of the late King Humbert. In the morning, the Italian Benevolent Society, about seventy-five strong, preceded by Germania Band, from Egg Harbor City, and Mr.
Hood's hearse, drawn by four black horses, marched from their hall, Main Road, down Bellevue to Second Street, to Pleasant, to St. Joseph's Church, where mass was said by the rector,
Rev. Nicholas Coscia.

Podesta & Co., eye specialists, of Philadelphia, having successfully prescribed glasses for a number of the residents of Hammonton, are just as willing to wait upon all who call, and who are suffering from head-ache caused by eye strain. They will take the utmost care in making a careful examination of the eye, without any charge. Their next visit to Hammonton will be Monday, Aug. 20, at Crowell's Pharmacy. See their advertisement in this paper.

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

The protection of American life and American honor, without the consent or advice of yawping politicians, is the duty of the administration. The Mc-Kinley administration has a pleasing way of performing its duties without pandering at all to the cheap element in politics.

Those who vote for Bryan vote to abandon a condition more prosperous than any ever before enjoyed by any nation, for the purpose of trying a financial experiment now condemned by all nations.

purify the blood, give clear skin, rosy cheeks, rich complexion. Only 25 c., at

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
of Ohio.

For Vice-President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
of New York.

For Congressman,
JOHN J. GARDNER, of Atlantic County.

In opening the Republican headquarters in New York City, Senator Hanna said: "This campaign will be no walk-over-for-Republicans. The quickest they realize that, the surer the chances for victory. We propose to work even harder than we did in '96."

This is a true and practical summary of the situation. The Buckeye political generalissimo shows his sturdy common sense and his acquaintance with conditions as they exist, when he warns the party in power that a decisive triumph in November can only be assured by energetic, systematic labor in doubtful states.

Hanna's words ought to be heeded by campaign managers everywhere. The over-confidence which leads to apathy is always dangerous. If Republicans expect to see Wm. McKinley re-elected by a handsome majority in the Electoral College, backed up by a solid plurality in the popular vote, they should prepare to take off their coats and go to work in aggressive fashion. It will not do to rest supinely in the comfortable belief that the prevalence of prosperity means a Republican victory without effort on the part of the administration's supporters.

It is true that probabilities favor Republican success, but probability is not certainty, and it may be taken for granted that Bryan and his associates will conduct the liveliest sort of fight they know how to make. This attack needs to be met by plenty of energy, vigilance, and foresight in working for the re-election of Mr. McKinley and the choice of a Republican Congress.

Bryan would give absolute independence to the Philippines. This means, of course, that the flag shall be furled and the army recalled. Will he please explain how this can be done? Is there any constitutional provision for alienating American territory? If there is one constitutional argument against acquiring territory, there are a dozen against abandoning territory. The rebellion settled that question once for all. As well talk about abandoning Texas, Alaska, Kentucky, or Ohio. Methods of administration are legitimate questions for party differences, but to deny a fact solemnized by treaty and ratified by Congress, is to betray unpardonable ignorance of the powers and functions of government.

The Democratic press is telling the people that the McKinley prosperity is only skin deep. Perhaps they are correct; but there is no question about the Cleveland adversity having reached the joints and marrow of the body politic. Such deep Republican prosperity is a thousand-fold better than some deep Democratic hard times.

What Lincoln accomplished for the black man, McKinley is doing for the brown man; and as the African has erected monuments to the memory of their great emancipator, the Filipino, when he realizes the work accomplished for him, will build monuments to the memory of his liberator.

In one breath, the Democratic orator will assure his hearers that McKinley has no backbone, that he is a creature controlled by those around him, and in the next breath will accuse him of shaking the republic to pieces in order to erect a throne on its ruins.

The small boy whose representations concerning the jam closet have been discarded, naturally wants to make permanent some other question.

To Have Her Child.

From frightful disfigurement, Mrs. Nannie Chelmer, of Lodi, Cal., applied Buckhorn's Aconite Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in sores, bruises, skin eruptions, cuts, burns, scalds, and all other troubles. Cure guaranteed by Buckhorn, druggist.

During the storm, a team belonging to Mr. H. Imhoff, Winslow, in charge of James Curt, were frightened and ran away. The drivers' foot was caught in the gearing and severely injured when the wagon collided with a tree.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway.

The span of gray horses belonging to R. D. Bickford took fright yesterday morning, at Belkroy, Third, Pleasant, and Tilton Streets, and on to Main St., nearly causing the death of four persons, besides endangering many on the crowded streets.

Miss Mary Johnson, with her visitors, Mrs. Evans and her son James, about seven years old, and Miss Mary Stuart, in a light wagon, while passing Mr. Lysinger's heard the noise behind them, thought it was an automobile, and turned aside; but the runaways struck four, smashing everything onto the horse, and throwing the occupants in every direction. Miss Johnson's right arm was badly cut at the elbow; the boy has a severe laceration above the forehead, at first a fracture was feared. Mrs. Evans has a badly bruised eye. The three were removed to Lysinger's. Miss Stuart's arm was injured, she having been removed to Mr. Elving's residence in an unconscious condition. All were very severely shaken up. Dr. Biker was found at Rosedale, and hastened to attend the injured.

The Sheppard Funeral.

Past Commander George Bernhouse represented Geo. D. A. Russell Post at the funeral of Comrade Henry Sheppard, last week Thursday. The services were in charge of Anna M. Rose Post, Philadelphia, to which deceased was transferred from Hammonton. The attendance was very large, and all the arrangements were on a very elaborate scale, a credit to the Post, and doing honor to a faithful soldier, friend, husband, and father. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among them—Sage Palm, from Mrs. Sheppard; Sixty-three Roses, from Walter Sheppard, representing his father's age. Wreath from Mrs. Walter Sheppard; Wreath and Emblem from Col. Richards; Wreath from Mrs. Alberger; Vase of flowers from employees of N. The Presbyterian grove social, on Thursday evening, was well attended and all were pleased with the program. The singing, and music by the orchestra, were well rendered, and the recitations favorably received. Perhaps the most enjoyable features were the comic shadow pictures and the operetta "The Fortune Teller."

Two fair stands made things lively Wednesday evening. The first orator was a horse doctor, with a good gift of tongue, who interested a crowd for an hour or two. The second was occupied by a trio of singers, who called an audience by their excellent music, and then introduced some kind of compound to be used in bicycle repairing.

Last week we advertised a pocket book found. In response, we were surprised to receive four applications from parties who had lost a similar article, one containing thirty-five dollars. It did the heart good to return the property to a working girl from the city, whose visit here was spoiled by the knowledge that her scant savings and return ticket were in the lost book.

A lively thunder-storm visited this section early on Monday evening, preceded by high wind, which carried great clouds of dust, and in some places damaged growing crops. Before midnight, another storm burst over us, bringing the grandest display of electricity we have seen in many a day, and the air was kept a-tremble for an hour by the heavy peals and rolling thunder, which shook buildings and rattled windows. To those who fear lightning, it was terrible; and to all it was grand beyond description.
