We are told that Dr. Percy E. Whiffen has accepted a position as company physician in a mining town in West Virginia.

The Court at Fredrickton, Md., has annulled the marriage of Ernest Piez and Miss Batella Cordery, the bridegroom being under age.

Frank Irwin Werner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Werner, of Maple Street, made his debut on Tuesday, August 13th. Congratulations.

On Sunday evening, as Rev. W. L. Shaw, pastor of the Methodist Church, was closing his eloquent sermon, he suddenly leaned forward on the pulpit, with a groan, tottered, and would have fallen had not members of the congregation hastened to his aid. Doctor Bitter was present, and under his direction the unconscious man was carried to the doctor's residence, opposite, and there cared for until his removal to the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia, Monday night. The trouble proved to be acute appendicitis, but yielded to skilled treatment and care, so that the hospital physicians decided that a surgical operation was not required, and we were informed that he might leave the hospital yesterday. It seemed that the whole town was troubled—so popular has Mr. Shaw become,—and all will be pleased to hear good news from him. On his return from a four weeks' vacation, it is hoped that he will be fully recovered.

Progress of "Gems."

"Gems," the musical panorama to be given in Bellevue Hall on Friday and Saturday nights, next week, is rapidly progressing to the point of high success it attained in other towns.

Home talent shows are usually more or less devoid of interest because they lack originality, but this one sets a new standard. The ideas used are new, the music is melodious and catchy, and songs and choruses well planned and executed, the dances graceful.

There will be a chorus of Giddies who will make us wish we were young again when they ring in "In the days of girls and boys." Miss Helen Imhoff will sing a duet with Miss Pauline Stafford, from Pleasantville, "Oh gee! I'm glad I'm a girl." Miss Ethel Reid and Mr. Wesley Vaughn have a duet. A chorus of attractively attired young people will sing and dance "There's a girl in Havana." Miss Coladay and Mr. John Dickson have a very pretty song and dance, "There's a garden in Sweden." The main feature of the program is "The Fire Brigade," an original song and chorus written especially for Miss Coladay by Mr. Russell L. Browne, of Vineland, and sung the first time when Miss Coladay produced "Gems" in that town, May 17th.

This show is for the benefit of Hammonton Fire Company, and should be well patronized.

Mutual on Saturday, with reserved seats 35 cents; general admission 25 cents. Evening prices, 25 and 50 cents. Tickets are on sale at King's news room.

Hammonton Band has kindly consented to give a concert at 7.15 in front of the hall.

BANK BROTHERS

It is considered a wise policy to buy reliable merchandise that is being offered at almost half their actual value, although you do not have immediate use for it.

Goods on which we cut prices so amazingly low are not the kind that you would have to put away,— they can be worn immediately, and then kept for next Summer; and most of it can be worn all the year round.

So you see it is economy to buy now.

New shipments came in from a few manufacturers, and we put on low enough prices to make sure of their quick disposal.
