The Republican.
[Entered as second class matter.]
SATURDAY, AUG. 20, 1892.
REPUBLICAN TICKET.
For President,
Benjamin Harrison,
Of Indiana.
For Vice President,
Whiteley Reid,
Of New York.

President Harrison's administrative record is his best and strongest recommendation to the support of the American people in the approaching election.
It satisfies all honest-thinking and public spirited citizens. It is patriotic in purpose and upright in performance.
It has advanced civil service reform in a wider application and along the rational lines of practical and permanent benefit.
The twin agencies of American progress — Protection and Reciprocity — have increased employment at home, enlarged trade abroad and advanced the income while they have cheapened the necessities of the people. In all that makes for the country's security and the people's happiness, in the stability of the currency, in the creation of a new navy, in the extension of internal improvements, in the practical application of needed reforms — our nation's future progress all hinges on Republican success.
All these great public causes, in which the people are so vitally involved and deeply interested, would be violently checked, if not fatally crushed, by a democratic victory in this election.
Free Trade is the only cause which democratic success would prosper.

At Woonsocket a yarn mill brought out from Belgium by the McKinley Tariff. Over there the establishment supplied yarn to American manufacturers; but when the duty was put up, it was obliged to move to this country or lose its trade. It accordingly came over; how much per annum do you suppose that yarn mill is worth to the people of Woonsocket? We should not wonder if this is the same mill of which it has been said that the ground it stands on, which a couple of years ago produced a ton of hay to the acre, now produces a ton of yarn to the square foot yearly.

Since the publication of the Senate Finance Committee's report on wages and prices, the clamor has been discon-solat. However, as the lowest cost is now causing much work in several Western States, there may yet be a few people left in that locality willing to read Cleveland's speeches.

The amount paid out by the Federal Government in sugar bounties during the past fiscal year was $7,320,044. Of this sum the Louisiana planters alone secured $6,570,506, more than sixsevenths. Yet Louisiana votes, and will probably continue to vote, the straight free trade ticket at every election.
If the McKinley act raises prices of many articles, why are they lower now than before it became a law?

"But in making reduction of taxes it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries, but rather to promote their healthy growth. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that any change of law must be at every step careful of the labor and capital thus involved."

The above pledge not to ruin our industries and not to crush our laborers was put into the Democratic platform at Chicago and was voted on again by a majority 564 to 342. On July 14, 1892, Grover Cleveland wrote to Ralph E.
Hoyt, Esq.:
"I think no sincere advocate of honest tariff can be dissatisfied with the position the Democratic party has assumed on that subject."

The Chicago platform, endorsed by Grover Cleveland, is no less significant in what it refused to say than for what it says.

FOR SALE.
Now is your time to buy ten acres of good land on First Road, 14 miles from the station, four acres cleared, two acres in blackberry which could be made to fruit next season if attended to now.

PAINT! PAINT!
—THE—
HAMMONTON.
When you buy the Hamonton Paint, you do not buy seven-eighths of a gallon for a gallon, or three pints for a half gallon; nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much fill that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hamonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1 to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.

If the purchaser does not want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then be sure to buy the Hamonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hamonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.

One Dollar.
And then have come Commercial Paint, in 20 shades, — the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at Hamonton Paint Works.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Bellevue Avenue, being corner to land of one Patterson; thence (1st) by the line of said Patterson's land south forty-five degrees six minutes east seventy-one and fifty-five hundredths feet to a point (2nd) thence (2nd) still by the line of Patterson's land, north forty-two degrees and fifty-four minutes east eleven and twenty-five hundredths feet to a point (3rd) thence (3rd) north forty-four degrees six minutes west seventy and seventy-five hundredths feet to a point on the side of Bellevue Avenue; thence (4th) by the south-east side of said Avenue, south forty seven degrees thirty-four minutes west eleven and twenty-five hundredths feet to the place of beginning. Containing five acres of land, being the same of said town.

No admission fee. Everybody invited.

Last Saturday, as David Mealy (driver for Elvins & Son) was slighting from the wagon, his horse started to run, throwing Mr. M. to the ground so that the wagon ran over him. No bones were broken, fortunately, but he was severely bruised, and laid up for a time.

The Board of Trade is dead!
Though a notice was mailed to each member, but three faithful friends were witnesses of its demise. After paying all bills, the Treasurer had $30.56 in his hands, which was donated to the Enterprise Association, and the Board adjourned sine die.

Two Italians were brought before Squire Atkinson, last Saturday, charged with stealing berry crates from the Union grounds. The evidence was so clear that they were fined, — one of them two dollars, the other ten dollars, with costs added to each. A few lessons of the kind ought to be enough.

We advise every reader to take advantage of our combination offer of the Republican and the New York Tribune (weekly) one year for $1.25. Hon.
R. G. Horst's timely article in this week's Tribune is worth more than you pay for a year of both papers. There are many other able articles.

THANKS. — To the loving hearts and helping hands that so thoughtfully ministered unto my wife during her painful illness, and after her death for the untiring assistance rendered the family, and for the generous gifts of flowers, we extend heartfelt thanks.
G. W. RICHARDS & FAMILY.

It seems that there is no way to abate the straying dog nuisance. Or, rather, the authorities seemingly make no effort to abate it. Even the usual notice to muzzle dogs has been omitted this summer. Perhaps we notice it the more because compelled by two of the brutes to stand on the defensive, a few days ago, on our own premises.
We hear bitter complaints from others, also.

A thirteen-year-old Hamonton boy, on the way to Philadelphia last Tuesday, heard of the frequent raids of pickpockets, and carefully guarded the purses which contained the equivalent for a much-desired bicycle. While on the boat he was startled by a gentleman, who addressed him with, — "Well, my son, this is the ocean, is it not?"

The answer came — "No, sir, this is the Delaware."
"Oh, ah, Delaware Creek, is it?"
"No," the Delaware River. A very pretty river, isn't it?
"Pretty muddy," said the boy.
"Yes. They go in bathing here sometimes, don't they?"
"I presume they do."
"Yes," said the gentleman, "I have a cousin who bathes here sometimes, about once a year, I believe." Quickly came the boy's reply, "I don't wonder the water is dirty!"

The conversation ceased, the gentleman tugging away at a well-kept mustache. He had unexpectedly met his match.

Born, — Thursday, Aug. 18, 1892, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Estabrook, a daughter.
Mr. W. O. Smith, agent for the Daggett Patent Roaster and Baker, Steam Egg Poacher, Flour Bin and Sifter, household conveniences which so many housekeepers use and approve, has been soliciting orders. If he has you, leave word at Mrs. Mathis' boarding-house, and he will deliver what you want, promptly.
Michael J. Fanning, the eloquent Prohibition orator, and the Indiana Male Quartette, were honored with a full house, last Monday evening. Mr.
Fanning sustained his high reputation, and the singers, though not artistic in their renderings, pleased the audience greatly, being called back repeatedly and responding each time with patient good humor.

We hear that some folks are very sarcastic in their criticism of our repeated claim that Hamonton is one of the most healthy places in the United States, and point to our record of five deaths last week. Well, we never claimed that people never die here, especially when they come with fatal diseases already well developed, as so many do. No spot on this beautiful planet is entirely exempt from sickness and death; but we do claim that the death-rate is remarkably small in our population of four thousand; that good health is the rule; that persons suffering from chronic disease frequently come here and recover; that deadly epidemics are unknown.

We copy the following from the Press, of Paterson, N. J., Friday, July 29th: A very delightful wedding festival brightened Hamilton avenue last evening. At No. 273, the residence of Mrs.
Mary Cortelyou, her daughter Ida Amenia plighted her troth to Mr. Jared J. Seelye, this city, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives.
The ceremony, after the Episcopal custom, was performed by Rev. J. Shaw of the Second Presbyterian church.
The bride was carried to the altar by cousin and carried a beautiful bouquet of lilies of the valley. Many costly and beautiful presents testified to the kindly feeling entertained for the happy couple.
An ideal supper was served by Mr. R.
C. Hill. Before ten o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Seelye had set out upon their wedding journey, which will include a visit to Niagara Falls. Mrs. Seelye has been for several years a valued and popular teacher in our public schools, resigning only at the close of the school year.

Mr. Henry Whiffen, a member of the shoe manufacturing firm of Whiffen Brothers & Co., for nearly eight years a resident of Hamonton, died Sunday last, August 14th, 1892, aged 49 years.
Long suffering and death resulted from a gripe. Funeral services were conducted on Thursday afternoon, by his pastor, Rev. H. R. Randall, in his Presbyterian Church, which was filled with sympathizing friends. A beautiful flower-piece was prominent, bearing the words "Our Friend," and surrounded by a white dove with outstretched wings. We can give no better eulogy of the deceased than is contained in the following:

At a meeting of the employees of the firm of Whiffen Bros. & Co., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has deemed fit, in his infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our beloved friend and employer, Henry Whiffen; and WHEREAS, By his many many qualities he has endeared himself to the hearts of all of us whose pleasure it was to be associated with him in the humble capacity of employees; therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Henry Whiffen this town has lost one of its most enterprising citizens; we, who know his worth, a kind and generous friend; and his family a loving husband and father.

Resolved, That we extend to his beloved widow and family our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of affliction, commending them to the care and protection of the great Father of us all, with the assurance that he has left this world of strife to enter into one of everlasting happiness and peace.

Resolved, That as a token of respect we attend the funeral in a body; that a copy of this preamble and resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and copies be printed in the local papers of this town.
