No more Humps!
No more Blisters!

We sell "Citrole," the only pleasing Lotion for Mosquitoes and biting insects. One application will tell you of its marvellous results of keeping mosquitoes away and cauterizing the bites. Mosquito bites mean scratching, and scratching means blood-poisoning. Citrole contains no nauseating oils, but in its stead a fragrant odor, and pleasing to all who have used it for mosquito bites and sunburn.

Sold only at LEIB'S DRUG STORE,
at 25 cents per bottle.

The ladies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

Notwithstanding the facts (if they are facts) that "veteran members of Congress smile at the annual attempts of budding statesmen to make political capital out of the over-worked temperance dodge," that almost every committee room has its "speak-easy," and champagne lunches are frequent and elaborate, we venture to predict that the day is not far distant when it will be as much of an anachronism for a Senator or a Congressman to serve drinks in his committee-rooms as it is now for a pastor to thus entertain his friends in his study.

U. S. R. S., "Franklin,"
Norfolk Navy Yard, Norfolk, Va.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

Thinking some of my Hammonton friends would be glad to learn what life on a naval receiving ship is, and also hear from me at the same time, I decided to ask you to publish my letter, if possible.

Two of my friends and myself joined the U. S. Navy in Elmira, N. Y., July 24th. We were detailed to the Receiving Ship "Franklin," and arrived July 28th. I have now been here over two weeks, and like the work very well.

The ship is about three hundred and fifty feet long and fifty feet wide. It has three decks above water and four below. There are about seven hundred and fifty men on board at the present time. We are connected with land by board walks. The yard, which is used for drilling and play-grounds, covers about five acres.

The program for the day is as follows: rise at 5:00 A. M.; mess at 6:00; quarters at 7:15; drill from 7:30 to 9:00; drill from 9:30 to 11; mess at 12:00 M.; quarters and drill, 1:15 to 3:00; wash dirty clothes, 3:00 to 4:30; mess at 6; hammocks swung at 7:30; retire at 9.

The battleship Texas is here for repairs. She will leave the last of next month, and is to be used as a training ship for gunners. The "Sirene" takes a division out every week for a cruise to Baltimore or New York. She leaves Monday and returns Saturday, usually with all hands on the sick list.

There are fifteen divisions here now, and I am in the Eleventh. As soon as you learn the drill you are promoted. I have risen four divisions.

Would be pleased to hear from some of the Hammonton people.

ROSCOE COCHRAN.

Dog Poisoning.

MR. EDITOR: The courtesy extended to me in your columns has borne gratifying results. Nearly a dozen victims of the dog poisoner have called on me, and the opinions expressed demonstrate unmistakably that the intensest feeling exists touching the wicked practice of which I complain.

Permit me to say that a meeting has been arranged for Tuesday next, 26th inst., at 8:30 p. m., at my house, Central and Valley Avenues, when it is proposed to effect an organization whose object it will be to stamp out the abominable offense. To this end, all available means, both official and private, will probably be employed.

In addition to those who have signified their intention to be present on the above occasion, the presence of other persons who are interested will be welcome. J. A. BURGAN.

It might be of interest to some of our readers to know that J. Lathrop Mack is employed as expert chemist in a Virginia Chemical Works; Harry is connected with a salmon fishery in Alaska, and Sam has charge of their orange groves and ranch in California.

A CARD.—We, in the name of all the relatives, tender our sincere thanks to those who were kind and helpful after the sudden death of our brother, Dan, Meserole.

MRS. W. H. BIRDSONG,
MRS. JAS. VANSCHOICK.

After these Rains

Look for Flies and Mosquitoes

THEY DON'T LIKE RAN-O-LIN

Editor Stackhouse, of the "Burlington County Democrat," says:

"I have used Ran-o-Lin, and for the first summer in many years I get a good night's rest every night, without being disturbed. It is a good thing."

Captain John Emery, of Philadelphia, driving through to Atlantic City, said:

"I wouldn't have been without that bottle of Ran-o-Lin for $100. The mosquitoes swarmed about us, but would not touch us after using Ran-o-Lin."

SATURDAY, AUG. 23, 1902.

For Congressman,

Hon. John J. Gardner.

Water-Progress.

Work is progressing rapidly on the town water supply. Contractors Kiser & Bennett drove two twelve inch wells to provide water for their use, and sank a great curb about twelve feet deep, at the bottom of which is the steam pump. From these connected wells a heavy stream of water is forced to the site of the first or experimental well, perhaps a hundred feet distant, into a long trench, and is forced by a second steam pump through pipes and hose and used to sink pipes for the great well. The whole process is new to most Hammonctonians, and attracts a host of interested people of all ages.

After seeing so many times the labor required to drive a pipe into the ground, it surprises one to see the ease with which, by the aid of steam and water and a considerable amount of "know-how," a two-inch pipe is settled fifty feet into the earth in less than thirty minutes.

So it goes; as man becomes better acquainted with the laws of Nature, and learns how to harness its forces for his own benefit, he economizes labor, increases his product, views with complacency the work so rapidly and so easily accomplished, and wonders where is located the limit of man's triumphs. Of course, a bound has been fixed, somewhere, and times unnumbered it was thought we had reached it; but new avenues of progress have been opened, new forces and new methods discovered; and the end is not yet.

On Thursday morning, a carload of water pipes and one of fittings, for the distribution system, arrived and were unloaded.

Thursday noon, the well was 182 feet deep—the last twenty feet being through a water-bearing strata of clay and fine gravel. At three o'clock they were lowering pipes to test the water-vein. If it proves satisfactory, the well will be equipped at that depth.

A representative of the Seiple Pump Co. was in town the same day, in regard to the stand-pipe, and he stated that all tools and materials are ready for shipment, and will begin work as soon as the Engineer gives him the word.

A Speak Easy.

It was claimed, when certain parties were agitating for the granting of liquor licenses in Hammoncton, that the licensed men would put a stop to illegal sales in the Town. Yet, as the neighbors state, there is a place on Middle Road where beer is for sale by the bottle or glass, especially on Sunday; and one man states that fighting is the common thing there on the Lord's Day.

The proprietor, Antonio Piora, was taken before Justice Garton on Friday by Constable John Rizzotto. Three witnesses swore they bought liquor at his place, and he was held for Court.

This speak-easy has been exposed by the affair related above; but a well-known citizen states openly that not less than a half-dozen of these pest holes exist on one street, just outside the business centre of town, and that some men whom duty it would seem to be to put a stop to illegal traffic are aware of the fact, but make no move.

If a Man Loo to You, And say some other salvo, oh! mount, lollon, oil or alleged leader in as good as a book. The action below, tell him thirty years of marvellous career of pines, burns, bolts, corns, talons, ulcers, cuts, scalds, bruises and skin eruptions, prove it's the best and cheapest. 25 cents, at Roger's drug store.

The corn disappeared in a way to make one wonder, and the mosquitoes were strictly "not in it."

A painful accident happened on Thursday afternoon in James Watt, a journeyman employed in the Out Glass Factory, by having a heavy punch bowl crush the little finger of his right hand. James had finished one of these large bowls the first part of the week, and commenced another, and was about to place the bowl on the wheel (which was a flat wheel), when his little finger slipped under and the weight of the bowl came down on it, losing part of the nail. Dr. Cunningham dressed it.

August 18th has come and gone, and New Jersey is entitled to a place on the map, notwithstanding the prophecy of an immense tidal-wave, which should on that day engulf this whole section, beginning at Atlantic City. On the contrary, the 18th was a delightful day at the shore, and neither rain nor tidal waves marred the day's pleasure.

We learn that a little daughter of S. Cappacio, at Folsom, sister of the child that was burned to death a few weeks ago, was poisoned on Sunday by eating poison fly paper, died on Monday, and was buried on Tuesday. Some people appear to have an undue proportion of trouble,—too frequently resulting from their own negligence.

A very pleasant euchre party was given by Goldsborough Alcorn, at his residence, on Saturday evening last. The winners of the ladies' prizes were: First, Mrs. H. French; Second, Miss Caldwell; the gentlemen's,—First, Albert King; Second, Howard French. Among those present were,—Mr. and Mrs. Howard French, Misses Caldwell, Grace Osgood, Roberts Maxwell, Ida and Celeste Nyce, and Messrs. Howard Bradbury, Albert King, Halvor Harley, and Daniel Nyce.

As the day approaches, interest increases in the picnic to be given by the Red Men on Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 1st, at Hammoncton Park. The picnic promises to be one of the greatest outings ever conducted by the Order. To bring about this desired result, the committee has made all arrangements for the accommodation of the public, and to amuse all. The Williamstown Cornet Band will furnish music in the evening. The hall will contain seats for 500, and seats and small tables will be placed in the grove. Both grove and hall will be lighted, and refreshments be on sale. Everybody come and be happy, as this will be the last picnic of the season. Coax.

About five o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, Thomas Mott, a well-known young colored man, driving J. C. Johnson's team, approached the Reading Railroad tracks at the first crossing south of the freight house. In the wagon with him were Roy and Warren Tilton, nephews of Mr. Johnson. As the horse's front feet were on the near rail, the down express locomotive struck him fair on the shoulder, killing him instantly; but the occupants of the wagon escaped injury, though naturally badly frightened. The only damage to the wagon was a broken shaft. No one seemed to know how the accident happened. There are nearly always freight cars standing there, which may have hidden the approaching train, and its speed is so great that the warning whistle gives no time for escape.

There was another stabbing affray on Sunday evening last, at the old Robt. H. Anderson place, Middle Road. Among others present were Jim Cipriano and Dr. Blaisdell. They were friends, and had been working together all day, but they took too much beer, a quarrel followed, and a fight developed. They were separated, and as Dr. Blaisdell was led away, Cipriano rushed up and plunged a knife into his back, making an ugly wound midway between his spine and right side. Another version states that the fight became free for all, four or five men jumped on Jim, and he struck wildly, cutting the first one within reach. Jim escaped so far. Please take notice, that all of these affairs among Italians are confined to their own countrymen; they molest no American. Further, that in every case ruin is at the bottom of the mischief.

Base-Ball News.

It was a shut-out—a white-wash—for Mays Landing, last Saturday. We deserved the victory, to be sure, but the large score is due, not so much to our good playing as to the stupid lack of head-work on the part of some of the visitors. We are credited with nineteen hits, but about four of them were due to mis-judgments. Twice, for example, fielders allowed the ball to drop between them, within easy reach of either; but each waited for the other to take it. Such exhibitions marred what might otherwise have been a good game.

Indeed, in spite of the misplays, the game was interesting, and several good plays were seen. Hammonton had to hustle to prevent eight hits from resulting in a count or two for the visitors.

Prasch was easy for our fellows, and five of the nineteen hits were two-baggers. Everybody but Sears made a hit and a run. At the bat, probably Naylor's pretty bunts, and his exhibition of base-running, were the features of the game. Cordery did excellent work behind the plate. Conley made some dandy outs in the field, and seemed quite up to his old form. The new men showed up well in the field, both Henderson and Brown accepting six chances. For the visitors, Prasch made some pretty assists, and prevented a larger score.

Our scoring commenced in the first, when a life, an overthrow, a hit, and a sacrifice tallied two. In the third, three "two-sookers," two singles, and two errors were largely responsible for the five runs. Three hits in the fourth only scored one. Three hits, a two-bagger, and an overthrow scored four in the fifth. An error, a bunt, a muff, and a caught fly drugged in two in the seventh.

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

A score of members of the Woman's Relief Corps made a pleasant trip to Mays Landing on Wednesday. Everything was lovely, even the mosquitoes gave them a rousing welcome all the way. A few mosquitoes, a long ride, more mosquitoes, a tour through the mills and jail, still more mosquitoes, dinner at the American House, music by the Jersey Canary Orchestra, a trip on the river, skaters, the long ride home, then a lullaby by the skaters, comprised the day's program. But they all declare they had a jolly time, but for the mosquitoes. Among those present were: Mrs. Burgoes and daughters Misses Cora and Lina, Mrs. Carlaw, Mrs. Spear, Mrs. J. Monfort, Mrs. J. I. Taylor, Mrs. Temple, Mrs. John Hilger, Mrs. Alken, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. King, Mrs. A. B. Davis, Misses Martha and Mary Saxton, Misses Nellie and Lella DePay, and Misses Nora and Nina Monfort.

Need More Help.
Often the over-taxed organs of digestion cry out for help by dyspepsia's pains, nausea, dizziness, headaches, liver complaints, bowel disorders. All such troubles call for prompt use of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are gentle, thorough, and guaranteed to cure. 25 cents, at Rogers' drug store.

Sidewalk Commissioners.

The Town Council are going to make another attempt at the sidewalk ordinance. The last attempt was a failure—not on the part of the ordinance, however, for lawyers who have seen it agree that Solicitor Chandler drew it up to perfection, he covered every point, but it failed for the reason that Commissioners H. J. Byrnes and William J. Smith did not qualify. Laoni Monfort, the other appointee, we understand, did qualify, and was ready to go ahead, but could not do the work single-handed. At the next meeting of Council the ordinance will be taken up again and new men appointed. So far, we understand, Council have decided upon P. H. Jacobs and Laoni Monfort, but the third person is not yet appointed. Council is determined to make a hard fight, and when Council fights it fights to win.

MR. EDITOR: The above article from the Pleasantville Press is so misleading I think it no more than right that it should be answered.

At the time referred to I was asked by some of the Council to act as one of the Sidewalk Commissioners, and consented. Later, by request, I attended a meeting of Council. Mr. Monfort was present, and, I think, most of the Councilmen. The sidewalk ordinance was discussed, and it was discovered that the time set for the people to fix their walks, and the time given the commissioners to make their survey and give notice of the same, were so conflicting that it would be quite impossible to reconcile them. (Mr. P. H. Brown was at the meeting to enter a protest on this same point.) It was then decided to drop the ordinance and send a notice to each property owner whose sidewalk needed repairing, requiring them to fix said walks under the approval of the Overseer of Highways.

Council having no more use for me, I dropped out; and why Mr. Chandler is being lauded at the present time, and why Mr. Monfort qualified as Sidewalk Commissioner, I do not know, so will leave it for time to reveal.

WILLIAM J. SMITH.

ELWOOD NOTES.

Mrs. H. T. Flelor, of Cross Keys, is visiting with friends in this place. Raymond Bozarth was in Philada. this week.

The Misses Jennie T. Wright, Alice Platt, Minnie G. Bischoff, and Lizzie and Ida Williams spent a very pleasant day in Atlantic City, Wednesday.

Mrs. George Richman made a short visit with her parents at Ancora, this week.

Missessess Langham spent Wednesday with friends in Hammonton.

A W. O. T. U. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ella Maurer, County President, last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Chas. Vanderlip is much better than he was last week.

Mr. L. L. Holden is steadily improving.

Mr. W. A. Bischoff was compelled to give up his work in the Reading depot Thursday morning, on account of sudden illness. His friends are all sorry to hear of this, as he has been a faithful worker there for years. Dr. J. O. Butler pronounced it uraemic coma, and reported him as improving Friday morning.

Mr. Constant Cobb was badly hurt Wednesday afternoon. While working in his accustomed place in the saw-mill, a large chisel bolt caught, and was thrown backward from the saw striking him with great force in the side, and cutting quite a gash. He is under the care of Dr. Butler.

A newspaper man was asked to publish an article praising a citizen of the place. "Certainly," he said to the caller, "what shall I say?" He was furnished with an outline of what was wanted, and wrote an article that was a scorch.

"That's splendid!" exclaimed the friend, delightedly, when the article was read to him. "That's right; that'll make his old hair curl!"

"All right," said the editor, "let me see, what are your initials?"

"Great Scott!" said the citizen, "you are not going to sign my name to that!"

"Why not?" asked the editor.

"I wouldn't have any one know that I had anything to do with that for the world. I cannot afford to get into a scrap with my neighbor."

The editor smiled benevolently, and said: "Why should I mix up in a scrap that does not concern me? Why should you expect me to assume the blame for the publication of an article to which you are afraid to affix your name?"

Of course he did not publish it.

Nearly every newspaper sanctum has heard many such conversations, although, happily, they are not so frequent as in former years.

As a general proposition, no one should offer a communication to a newspaper unless he is willing to sign his name thereto; the readers give little weight to statements or arguments the authors of which give their names to the editor only.
