High School students should report at the Assembly Room on Saturday, August 31st, to make out their work and register, as follows: 12th and 11th Grades, at 3 o'clock; 10th and 9th Grades, at 4 o'clock. Students not so situated that they can report should send their work by mail so it will be received not later than Saturday morning. No student will be allowed to enter classes until his work has been approved by the Principal.

Another drowning took place at the Dam on Wednesday evening, the young man being Bernard Bennett, of Merchantville, aged twenty years lacking one day. He was stenographer at the loading plant, and was taking a swim in the lake with friends, when he dropped into the hole which has cost so many lives. His body was recovered by Alfred Reed, one of dozen volunteers, after about three hours' hard work. As life was extinct, Coroner Cunningham was notified, and the remains removed. Sorrowing relatives arrived early on Thursday morning.

Hammonton Election Board.

Following is the list of appointees for the coming election:

First District.—A. L. Jackson and C. Morton Crowell, Wayland DePay and Horace G. Black.

Second.—Rugene V. Coggey and Benj. Foglietto, Chas. Slack and Clarence Johnson.

Third.—Robert H. Goff and James Palmer, Charles M. Phillips and Benton P. Gray.

Fourth.—John L. Lucas and Albert Dunning, Samuel Clausa and Joseph A. Baker.

War Economy for Retail Stores.

The Chief Executives of all municipalities in the State of New Jersey have been notified to execute the following order:

All retail merchants doing a delivery business, are hereby notified that the War Industries Board demand that not more than one delivery a day over each route be made; 2, limiting the privilege of returning merchandise to three days (this means three days actual possession by purchaser); 3, to curtail special deliveries and C.O.D. orders whenever and wherever possible; 4, to ask customer to carry small packages.

Now this order does not mean that all delivery vehicles must leave the store at one time. Neither does it mean that each wagon or truck must make one trip each day and be idle after that trip until the next day.

It does mean that no wagon or truck will go to the same house or over the same route more than once a day. 2. That each vehicle may leave the store as many times a day as need be, but each trip will be over a different route. 3. That there will be a shorter average distance between stops, because all the goods that were delivered to a route on two or more trips will now be delivered on one.

This will also mean that the total mileage will be less; that gasoline, now in such great demand for war use, will thus be conserved; and that total depreciation on equipment will be less than with more deliveries a day.

An officer will visit all retail stores doing a delivery business in a few days, with agreements to be signed, and my instructions are to report to the Government all merchants who refuse to honor the same. It is hoped that the patriotic spirit of our business men will prompt them to cheerfully agree to this demand of the War Industries Board.

MICHAEL K. ROYER,
Mayor.

Popular Musical Comedy.

"Miss Cherryblossom," a musical comedy, will be given on Friday and Saturday evenings, Aug. 30th and 31st, in Union Hall, for the benefit of Red Cross. Admission, thirty cents; reserved seats, forty cents, on sale at Hearing's.

Under the direction of Mr. Doughty, the young people have been busy for weeks on this amusing little comedy, which is notable for its catchy music and many pretty dances.

In the play, Miss Evelyn Barnes, an American girl, born in Japan, and whose parents die of fever, is brought up as a Japanese maiden. Her father's secretary uses her property for his own ends. When Evelyn, who is known as Cherry Blossom, is about eighteen years old, Worthington (the secretary) returns to Japan on his yacht with a party of American friends. One of them, John Henry Smith, falls in love with Cherry and wishes to marry her, but Kokemo, who has brought her up as his own child, wishes her to marry Togo, a rich politician. The action of the piece centers around Jack's efforts to outwit Togo and Kokemo.

Another life was inexcusably sacrificed this week, in "the hole" at the dam.

There have been several drownings at this point, and a score or more narrow escapes. The time has come when something should be done, before the list increases. Council should act at once, and either top off the "spring hole," or fill it in with broken concrete, stone, etc. Don't hesitate, gentlemen.
