Lucas Paints
(Tinted Gloss)

challenge a practical test in competition with any other.

Why do they dare?
Because Lucas Paints are honestly made of pure materials, cover more surface than any other paint, have a richer gloss, hold their color longer, wear longer and cost less because they go so far. Try them—or at least ask your dealer.

Notice of Registry of Voters and of a Primary and General Election.

Notice is hereby given that the several Boards of Registry and Election for the County of Atlantic in the State of New Jersey, will meet on Tuesday, September 6, 1904, at ten o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of organization and proceeding to make a complete canvass of all legal voters residing within their respective election districts entitled to vote therein at the next election. And notice is hereby further given that the said Boards of Registry and Election will also meet on Tuesday, September 13, 1904, at the places providing for the holding of the Primary Election in their respective election districts at one o'clock in the afternoon and continue in session until nine o'clock in the evening at which time and place said Boards shall hold the Primary Elections as provided by law and shall also proceed to transcribe and make up from the canvassing books two lists or registers of the names arranged in alphabetical order together with the residence of all persons in their respective election districts entitled to the right of suffrage therein at the next election, or who shall personally appear before them for that purpose, or who shall be shown to the satisfaction of such Board of Registry and Election by the affidavit in writing of some voter in that election district to be a legal voter therein. And notice is hereby further given that the Primary Election will be held on Tuesday, September 13, 1904, between the hours of one o'clock in the afternoon and nine o'clock in the evening of said day for the election of delegates to conventions of political parties or for making nominations or for both as the case may be. And notice is hereby further given that the County Board of Election, which is in session in the County Court House at Mays Landing, N. J., on Thursday, November 4, 1904, and on Saturday, November 6, 1904, from eight o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon (recess from twelve until two) of said days for the purpose of receiving and correcting the aforesaid registers of votes by ordering erased therefrom the name or names of any person or persons who shall be shown to the satisfaction of said board for any cause not to be entitled to vote at the next election in the district wherein he is registered and of adding to said registers the names of any persons who shall prove to the satisfaction of said board by affidavit or otherwise his right to vote at the ensuing election. And notice is hereby further given that the next general election will be held on Tuesday, November 8, 1904, commencing at six o'clock in the morning and closing at seven o'clock in the evening. Done in accordance with an act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey entitled, "An Act to Regulate Elections, Revision of 1898." Approved April 4, 1898, and the supplements thereto. By order of the County Board of Elections.

A. H. Whitmore spent a very enjoyable ten days at Tuckerton, in the company of Wm. G. Hood. He has photographs to prove his fish claims. As high as eighty were caught in one day by the three or four disciples of Isaac Walton.

Irwin Untermyer, a New York automobilist, contributed five dollars to our poor fund, Monday, because he had no state license to run the machine. He "didn't know," but Squire Horne assessed him a V for failing to learn, and $1.50 costs.

Skinner's driver, John Tomassella, is the latest one to suffer for leaving his horse untied. The offense was committed in front of the post office, but the man was released on promising to pay the fine later on, which he did on Friday morning—ten dollars and costs.

The following base-ball games are on the schedule:

Aug. 27, 8.45 p.m., Joe Grim's.

Sept. 5th (Labor Day), two games with Pleasantville, at 10.15 and 8.30.

Sept. 10th, at Egg Harbor.

Sept. 17th, Egg Harbor, in our Base-ball Park.

If you do not believe that anything can be relied on Jersey soil, take a look at John H. Boyer's place, corner Bellevue and Valley Aves. Not only has he some of the finest corn in Hammonton, but shows a mammoth pumpkin, the largest we ever saw growing. It is only four weeks old, yet measures about two feet in diameter, and perfectly round.

CHICKENS ABOUT FLOWER is the most popular remedy on the globe for the cure of all stomach, digestive, liver troubles and intestinal constipation, with their minor and effects. We advertised as a test in 1890 newspaper all over the United States for any case where August Flower did not give satisfaction. Only three cases of failure in those made of letters; two of them were cancer of the stomach. Price 25c and 50c per bottle, at W. J. Leib's.
