Town Meeting.

About a score of voters assembled on Monday evening, in response to Council's call.

Town Clerk Seely called the assembly to order at 8.30. Dr. Chas. Cunningham was elected chairman, W. R. Seely secretary.

The Secretary read the various amounts recommended by Town Council for the several purposes for 1911. These were taken up separately and freely discussed. Some changes were made, $1000 added to Highways, and $300 to Board of Health. The budget now reads as follows:

Town Purposes	$4000
Highways	6000
Streets Lights	4100
Poor	1600
Fire Department	900
Park maintenance	500
Memorial Day	50
Board of Health	500
Drainage	300
	$17,950

The subject of Band concerts was mentioned, but no action was taken.

Adjourned at 9.03.

The Hammonton Lecture Association met on Tuesday evening, and discussed and completed their arrangements for next season's course. Tickets will be on sale at Henson's for two weeks beginning October 10th. Bellevue Hall will be open all day, October 24th, and the sale of reserved seats begin at seven o'clock in the evening. See circulars, later on, for any further particulars.

SATURDAY NIGHT.

Placing the little hats all in a row. Ready for church on the morrow, you know. Washing wee faces and little black nses, Getting them ready and fit to be kissed; Putting them into clean garments and white. That is what mothers are doing to-night.

Spying out rosts in a little worn nose, Laying by shoes that are worn through the loss;

Looking o'er garments so faded and thin; Who but a mother knows where to begin? Changing a button to make it look right, That is what mothers are doing to-night.

Calling the little ones all round her chair; Hearing them lip their evening prayer; Telling them stories of Jesus of old, The Shepherd, who gathers the lambs to his fold;

Watching them listen with childish delight, That is what mothers are doing to-night.

Creeeping so softly to take a last peep— (Silence the token of childhood's sleep); Anxious to know if the dear ones are warm; Tucking the blankets round each little form;

Kissing each little face, rosy and bright, That is what mothers are doing to-night.

THE local peach crop is certainly immense. One grower, picked sixteen hundred baskets of one variety where he had estimated a thousand, and is still harvesting. The quality of the fruit is fine, and prices fair.

FOR SALE, —20 shares Hammonton Trust Co. stock. S. T. Godfrey, Hammonton, N. J.

AN exchange says: "The mothers in this town who are responsible for the girls who gad the streets should stop and think what they are doing. These girls are no longer children. They are at the impressionable age. Where will you have these impressions come from,—from the riff of the streets, or from their homes? It is for the mothers of the town to settle the question."

Ivory Soap appeals to rich and poor alike.

The millionaire's wife buys it because she knows there is nothing better at any price; the mechanic's wife, because she knows there is nothing so good at the same price.

In both cases, Good Value counts.

Why don't you use a Westinghouse Electric Iron too?

It will relieve you of the hardest part of ironing, because you don't have any fire to keep up, you don't have to take any unnecessary steps—you don't have to change irons constantly—you don't have to iron where it is hot, uncomfortable, and unsanitary.

With a Westinghouse Electric Iron, you can seek a cool spot, and iron in comfort. All the heat goes into the ironing surface, and it stays hot during the entire ironing.

VOLUNTEER Fire Company will hold a special meeting next Monday evening, at 8:30, to settle details of the parade. Bell will tap.

WM. H. BURGESS says that he is not a candidate for Overseer of Highways, — did not authorize the use of his name in that connection.

Might have been a Big Fire.

The alarm-bell rang at 2:55 on Thursday afternoon, and though the firemen were quickly on the ground, they found a right lively blaze to battle with.

It was John A. Saxton's house, corner of Central Ave. and Grape St., occupied mostly by Mrs. R. J. Byrnes.

The fire started in the wood-room at the south-east end of the great building, evidently caused by a match or cigarette carelessly thrown into a basket of paper and other waste which stood under an open stairway leading to an upper room where Mr. Saxton was lying.

He was awakened by the crackling flames, and opening his door, found the place all a-fire. Just then, one of the ladies screamed "fire!" and the alarm was sent over the local phone.

The chemical engine proved its worth, this time, quickly extinguishing the fire up-stairs, which was rapidly working its way to the roof, and pouring from the windows. The men soon had hose connection with the water mains, and drenched out the raging flames below.

The room is a wreck, — sides and ceiling charred to a coal. It was a close call for the whole big house.

Two fires this week; now where is the third to be? Yesterday morning, at 7:20, the telephone-gang sounded, followed by the bell, and firemen made for Tony DeNucci's, on Main Road, next to W. H. Parkhurst's.

A barn, lot of stakes, and water closet were burned, but the other buildings scarcely scorched. It was a quick run for both companies, and but for their work much greater damage would have been done. The sprinkler was right on the job, supplying water to the chemical engines.

Three fires within two weeks! That's going some.

MR. JAS. MORGAN, with wife and daughter, and Miss Landon, all of Tioga, were visitors at Mrs. P. J. Fitting's, on Third Street, for ten days.

DR. F. C. BURT declines to be a candidate for Chosen Freeholder, saying that he would not have time to attend to the duties of the office.

ON PAGE TWO of this issue will be found a full list of Hammononton school children, with their classification. It will prove interesting to many.

ASK for Big Dandy Bread and get your Post cards free. Leonard's Bakery.

THANKS are tendered by John A. Saxton for the efficient work done by the firemen, in saving his residence from destruction by fire, on Thursday.

AMOS HURLEY, with his wife and daughter, arrived from Albany, N. Y., on Tuesday, for a visit at his mother's. They were not expected, and gave the family a very pleasant surprise.

Labor Day Parade.

Hammononton is to have a grand parade on Monday, Sept. 5th, it being the occasion of the housing of a new hook and ladder truck by Volunteer Fire Company, No. 1.

Twelve fire companies, several lodges, thirty local owners of automobiles, and business floats have been invited to participate, and citizens and business houses are urged to decorate their places.

There will be two games of ball with Pleasantville club, at 10 and 3:15. Be there, and root for Hammononton.

From 11:30 to 12:30, the Ladies' Auxiliary, assisted by the Civic Club, will feed all firemen, band, and visiting base-ball players, in Firemen's Hall. The ladies are hustlers, and merchants and farmers will do well to give them what they ask for.

At one o'clock, sharp, the procession will start from in front of Firemen's Hall. The Hammononton Band will furnish music. Several unique features will be introduced. The route will be up Bellevue Avenue to Main Road, to Fire Company No. 2, and return.

Visitors will be here by hundreds, and citizens are asked to co-operate in the movement, and make this a day to be long remembered.

RESIDENTS on Main Road, up toward the county line, heard a person groaning, last Tuesday, and going out to investigate, saw two automobiles standing in the road, and a woman lying on the ground, apparently suffering. Before they could render aid or make inquiry, her companions placed the woman in one of the cars, and away they all flew. Examination showed that the machine had evidently gone on a rampage, barking shade-trees on both sides of the road, and the woman doubtless thrown out.

FOR SALE, — about six yearling hogs, — fine blue bay, mostly white, especially well for testing. Seventy-five cents to one dollar each. Read the notice — John DeNucci, Central Ave. and Broadway.

CAPT. WILLIAM MORGAN, one of our oldest citizens, was taken very ill on Wednesday, while near Atison with a load of produce. John Rizzotte found him lying helpless on the road, gave him what aid he could, then made a bed of hay in the Captain's wagon and took him home. Dr. Bitler was summoned by phone and responded promptly. He reports his patient still seriously ill.

FOR SALE, — 20 shares Hammononton Trust Co. stock. S. T. Godfrey, Hammononton, N. J.

A home-made apple pie and ice cream social is to be given in St. Mark's Parish House on Tuesday evening next, Aug. 30th, for the benefit of the rectory fund. Tickets entitle one to pie and cream. Coffee will be on sale.

FOR RENT, — 4 room house, entire or 2 or 3 rooms, — furnished or unfurnished. Also, bicycle for sale. H. Schumacher, 12th & Grand Sts.

REV. M. T. LAMB, of the New Jersey Children's Home Society, was in town two days this week, in an effort to raise an endowment fund of a hundred thousand dollars. He was much encouraged by Hammononton donors.

FOR SALE, — above property on Bellevue Avenue, of will trade for a five-acre farm. Address, Lock-box 101, Hammononton.

THE following telegram was received by Volunteer Fire Company No. 1, on Thursday: "Truck was shipped yesterday; should arrive Monday. American La France Fire Engine Co."

A FAMILY of gypsies arrived in town on Wednesday. They had a good pair of gray horses and a fine wagon, but were evidently of the usual class, and Chief Adams prevailed upon them to move on to other pastures.

FOR SALE, — a seven room, in center of Hammononton, front barn and wagon house. Inquire of Geo. E. Strum, 1022 Crozier Building.

WATER MILLION PARCHES are being raised by night, — ripe and unripe fruit being alike destroyed. Several owners speak of a shot-gun remedy. It is certainly provoking to have the season's labor ruined by a gang of hoodlums.

GOOD Board, — with pleasant rooms at Mrs. W. H. Frien, Hammononton.

THERE are several young rascals in town who have a mania for appropriating articles belonging to others. Don't be too easy on them, officers; it's better to reform them now than to send them to State prison later on.

Can You Explain It?

"My grandfather's clock was too large for the shelf. So it stood ninety years on the floor."

And it stopped short, never to go again, when the old man died. —Old Song.

When the late William Baker died, on the morning of April 10th last, at 9.45, nearly 82 years old, he left an old silver watch which he had carried quite fifty years. He thought a lot of the old time-piece, wound it every night with a rusty old key, and took it to bed with him,—evidently taking pleasure in its ceaseless tick.

A day later we came across the old watch. It was still! Opening the case, I noticed that the hands pointed to 9.45,—the hour and minute of its owner's death. Not noticing the coincidence then, and supposing it had run down, found the key, for the wife had said, "Let's keep it running, in memory of the dead,—he prized it so." Then I tried to wind it, but there was no response to my repeated turning. I quietly laid it on the table, and as I gazed once more at the still hands pointing to 9.45, I knew that it had "stopped short, never to go again, when the old man died."

And now it hangs on a nail over the mantel-shelf, with a card stating the facts, quietly awaiting the coming of that "great morning," never to tick again till the old man wakes!

N. L. WILLARD.

DR. WITMER STONE, with Prof. Bayard Long, spent a few days in wild plant investigation along the Mullica River, preparing data for Dr. Stone's review of South Jersey plants, which he is preparing for the State Library, under direction of Curator S. R. Morse. George Bassett acted as guide. Several new and improved discoveries were made.
