Progressive Party Candidates.

For State Senate.

Joseph H. Marvel, born in Delaware about fifty years ago, was and is a successful farmer. Business experience, largely associated with the hotel enterprise in Atlantic City and elsewhere, and is successful. Elected National Delegate to the Convention held in Chicago, 1912, was one of the large body of delegates who refused to submit to the yoke that denied representation of the people. Was a delegate to the Convention of the Progressive Party that was born in Chicago in August, 1912. Has always fought for that which benefits the people, and this is the fundamental principle of the Progressive Party, of which he has been an active member since its birth.

For Assembly.

Richard H. Robertson, born in Delaware, 1877. Common school education. First pursuit, that of collection business. Came to Atlantic City in 1903. Was admitted to the Bar 1909, made Counselor at Law in 1913. Has been associated, one way and the other, with the Law profession for ten years. A man of ability and clean in character. Has been an active Progressive since its birth.

For County Clerk.

John Parsons, of Atlantic City, was born in New Jersey, was in his early manhood a sea captain. Has common school education. Came to Atlantic City as a resident in 1881. Was in the Government Life Saving service six years, was elected to City Council in 1891, served three years, then appointed Captain of Life Guards, served one year. In 1895 he was appointed Mercantile Appraiser of Atlantic City, held this office for fourteen years. In 1912 was candidate for County Surrogate, and in the face of a hard fight between Republicans Democrats and Progressives, with the Progressives less than ninety days old, was defeated by less than five hundred votes.

For State Committeeman.

Eli H. Chandler, a lawyer, having practiced his profession in Delaware, Kansas and New Jersey. A resident of Atlantic City for twenty years. Has always been fearless where right is concerned. (Publication ordered by M. K. Boyer)

Miss Rose Livingston, known as the "Angel of Chinatown," spoke in Bellevue Hall on Monday evening, on the subject of "White Slavery." Having herself been an unwilling victim for several years, she knew whereof she spoke, and startled her hearers by telling of the growth of the evil. Among her "cures" for the traffic is this: "If we could do away with reformers, and the ballot were given to women, there would be a chance of doing something towards ridding this country of the traffic in white slaves."
